NEW AND NOVEL ATTRACTIONS.

No Efforts Have Been Spared to Secure One of the Finest Displays Ever Seen in This Locality.

The Big Omaha Fair. The gates to the Omaha Fair and Exposition grounds will be thrown open for the fourth annual exhibition given under the auspices of this society precisely at high noon to-morrow. And well it may be said be "thrown open," for indeed the prospects for the grandest display that has ever been awarded the sight-seeing public of this locality, are indeed rife. For some time back the management has been at work perfecting the various arrangements for a grand demenstration on this occasion. and it is evident from the view that was presented to the eye of a reporter for THE BEE as he entered the spacious enclosure yesterday afternoon, that the work had been well done. Yes, the first thing that caught the ocular of the reporter was a gallant steed stepping around the track in model style, which tended to urge upon the necessity of somebody else having a fast flyer if there existed the slightest change in the animal's apparent superiority as regards its quick stepping proclivities. The jockeys and owners of the horse were stationed by the track as if undecided as to the fast disappearing object as it rounded the course, being able to put its wide distended nostrils under the wire first on the home stretch.

"There will be some fast stepping done here before we get through," remarked a veteran jockey to THE BEE man as he glanced at a coterie of animals that were being walked about the grounds by their respective attendants. A gaze at the score or more horses would readily convince the most doubtful-minded admirer of this class that good racing was in sight. Among the draft horses some excellent stock is now on the market and more are reported on the way. The greatest display will most likely be in Normans and Hambletonians, but all other breeds are not falling amiss in the race for representation. THE CATTLE.

The cattle sheds are being fast crowded with the finest species of the bovine tribe that have ever been brought upon the grounds. The cattle exhibit of all classes promises to be exceedingly strong. As to the swine, a large supply is on hand and there promises to be several close contests. Several very fine lots being already in the stalls. AMONG THE FLOWERS.

The floral offerings are in fact rare in most every respect, and especially as to It is not far amiss to ay that when this department is in itself complete the walls and hanging gardens of Babylon would not stand in a degree of comparison. It is an old saying that it "takes the ladies' hand to mould the model of real art," and any individual that chances to gaze at this will evidently draw the conclusion that the saying resulted from the effort of an Omaha

A BIG MOVE. It is understood that arrangements are being made whereby Edgar Rothery will exhibit his carrier pigeons and demonstrate the manner in which they perform their labor by allowing them to convey letters to various points. He will also, if arrangements can be completed, exhibit his stock of canines owned by himself, Prof. Ed Miller. Prof. Arthur Rothery and Bob Clancev. These dogs are in reality the finest bred dogs of their class in this section of the mundane sphere. Aside from this there will be numerous other attractions at all times during the week's entertainment, which ends Saturday evening.

The following orders have been announced by the management to govern all judicial points:

Twelve o'clock, noon, entries must be completed and arranged. Superintendents of classes will see that all articles are properly tagged and arranged for the committees, who will commence on their classes promptly, according to hours named in daily programmes.

Superintendents will please call for com-mittee books Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock. Exhibitors please examine your tags and see that all articles are properly classified, as no corrections can be made after class books are in the hands of the committees PROGRAMME FOR TO-MORROW

The programme for to-morrow will open up with local racing, after which there will be chariot and hurdle racing The track is in fine condition, and it is likely that some fast time will be made. One thing attends every outward indication, and that is that the exhibition will be the grandest of them all, and will reflect with pride upon the great state of Nebraska and the city of Omaha.

Great Moving Sale Is now at its height. We are very thankful for the liberal patronage accorded to us. So far we have not said a word about cloaks, wraps or children's garments. Long before we made arrangements to move into larger quarters we contracted with the best eastern manufacturers for a full line of plush and cloth garments of every description. They have just come in, all new and fresh. The material, the styles and the prices are all that could be asked, and we have decided to let them out as an advertisement. We want every lady in Omaha to know we expect to move into a larger store October 15 and what better way to get a customer's good will to sell an elegant garment at a very low price. This is exactly what we are driving at, and this is the reason why we will dispose of the entire lot regardless of cost. It is early for these goods yet, but the low price and choice of selection from so full a stock will to $15 on a cloth garment and $15 to $25 on a plush garment. The sale begins Monday, Sept. 3. Our sale of dress goods, silks and plushes has been a wonderful success. We have added many attractions for the coming week. The sale of millinery. feathers, ornaments, dress trimmings buttons, laces and notions is most re-HAYDEN BROS.,

THE DRUMMER'S MEETING. The Last Gathering For Arranging

For the Day. The last meeting of the traveling men preparatory to the parade and other exercises connected with their great fair day was held at the Arcade hotel last night and was attended by almost a hundred of the boys.

All the committees on arrangements reported and it is now settled that the programme for the day will be as heretofore announced. A grand parade at 10:30 and an afternoon at the fair with a reception at the board of trade rooms in the evening.

The jobbers and merchants interested in the trades display also held a meeting at the board of trade rooms last night, and, according to the reports of the committees arrang ing for that part of the day's programme, the parade will be the grandest one ever seen in this city. It will be over three miles long and will show to a good advantage all the business industries of the city.

There will be no more meetings for ar-rangements until next. Thursday morning at 30, when the men will meet to fall into line for the parade, which takes place at 10:30.

ENGLISH HORSES FOR NEBRASKA

A Big Consignment Arrives Per the Steamer St. Ronan. The steamship St. Ronan, of the Somerland line, arrived at Woodruff's Stores last evening, with a general cargo, says the Brooklyn Eagle of August 14. She also brought over one of the jargest and most valuable consignments of English stallions that ever arrived here. They are the property of O. O. Hefner, of Nebraska City, Neb., and are intended for that region. The lot consists of twentysix animals, from yearlings up to sixyear-olds. A large number of them are coach horses, or as they are called in England "hackneys." They are models f symmetry. There are also some big shire horses, chiefly used for draft pur-They weigh from 1,700 to 2,000 pounds each, and are perhaps the largest and most powerful animals ever seen in Brooklyn. Mr. Hefner stated to-day that several of the animals could not be purchased for less than $2,000 each while one which was unfortunately kicked last night is valued at $2,700. There is so much demand for these great draft horses in England at present that their prices have gone up 35 per cent. Two yearling colts are valued at $1,000 each. All the animals are well bred, and their pedigrees are given in the English Stud Book. The horses are at Corley's stables, Love lane, and numbers of people are visiting them.

DIERKS' SCHEMES. The Sheriff Has Official and Private

Connection Therewith. Sheriff Coburn yesterday made a levy on the Omaha Implement works, formerly the John Dierks Manufacturing company, to satisfy a judgment for $540 in favor of McCague Bros. Apropos this concern, the sheriff has appealed the suit of Eh Clayton against him on the $500 note he gave for stock in the Dierks company. At the time Coburn took the stock Dierks agreed to take it back at the maturity of the note, which ran eight months. The sheriff made no defense in the county court, but allowed Clayton to show up his case. Clayton testified that he was an innocent purchaser of the paper in November last. The sheriff had a letter from Clayton last June saying, "I have a note left with me for collection, and the owner hopes for prompt payment," or words to that effect. The sheriff thinks Clayton would hardly have written in that strain if he owned the note himself at the time.

The internal revenue collections yesterday amounted to $3,232.67.

A greater show than the Barnum Bailey new 15 united shows could not exist. It never did and it never will have a rival, and the monster combined new 15 expositions comprising the Barnum and London shows will spread its veritable city of white tents here on Wednesday, September 5, when it is safe to presume tens of thousands of people from the adjacent country will pour into town on the excursion trains to witness the marvelous curiosities and soul stirring performances. The enormous show to come here this season is even better, larger and richer in every-thing than any former one, and all those fortunate enough to see the exhibition of Barnum-Bailey in past years can now judge of the truly big one coming this season. Now there are 125 acts of a novel and startling kind in three rings, while on an elevated stage will take place a series of amazing feats. And in an artificial lake of real water Captain Paul Boyton, the famous aquanaut, will show his perilous feats and the trained talking seals will perform, while in the new Paris Olympia hippodrome the most nal and daring races will be given, exciting the wildest enthusiasm, and the astounding aerial acts will amaze every beholder. The vast army of performers comprise the best of Europe and America, and sensation succeeds sensation until the breath of the auditor is almost taken away with delight, Besides these, there are the double menageries of wild and trained beasts, the museum of living human curiosities, the Wild Moorish caravan, with Algerian dancing girls, Bedouins, their war weapons, horses, and accoutrements, a horse fair with actually 380 first-premium horses in a separate tent especially arranged for visitors, an aquarium with strange amphibious animals, two herds of elephants, two droves of camels. trained zebras, giraffes, ostriches, dogs, pigs, monkeys, goats, seals, bears, wolves, donkeys and others; Jumbo, as natural as tife, and his big skelcton; Marshal's Japanese troupe, and a thou-sand other novel and wonderful things which will require sixty-four cars to transport. DIAMONDS

Watches and Diamonds Found in Tea and Coffee --- A Novel Way of Introducing Coods.

The names of all persons finding diamonds, watches, etc., are added to this list daily. The Overland Tea company of San Francisco, have refitted the store, 220 S. 14th St., near Farnam, Omaha. and in order to introduce their goods, this company put for 60 days, souvenirs in every can of tea and coffee sold such as solid gold, silver and nickel watches, also genuine diamonds, in solid gold setting; also money, and many other articles of less value. Every can contains a souvenir. The coffee, can and contents weigh about three pounds; the tea, can and contents about one and a half pounds. This expensive and novel way of advertising will be discontinued after 60 days, and these really choice goods will be sold strictly on their merits but without the souvenir. Of course every purchaser must not expect to get a diamond or watch. This company claim that they have just as good a right to give away watches, diamonds or other jewelry and money as their competitors have to give away glassware, enromos, etc. Get up a club. Those who get up a club order most always get a handsome present. Orders by mail promptly forwarded to all parts of the United States on receipt of cash or postoffice order. Terms: Single can $1; six for $5; thirteen for $10, and twenty-seven for $20. Address Overland Tea Co., Omaha, Nebraska. Miss Dora Borganauer, So. 19th st.,
