

THE NEBRASKA STATE FAIR.

It Will Be the Finest Exhibition of the Kind Ever Held.

NEW AND NOVEL ATTRACTIONS.

Special Efforts to Be Made to Call Attention to the Probabilities of the "Undeveloped West."

LINCOLN BUREAU OF THE OMAHA BEE, 1629 P. STREET, LINCOLN, SEPT. 4.

State fair successes will be crowned this year by Nebraska. It is now reasonably certain that the greatest fair ever held in the state is at hand.

Agricultural products will be on exhibition from over forty counties of the state. In this line, especially, the "undeveloped west" will be represented, and such an exhibition is promised and assured as has never before been seen in any state in the union.

The state industrial school will make a special exhibit. Superintendent Mallahue will attend with thirty archers, charges of the state, and several hundred other features to the great exhibition.

weeks prior to his slipping from Lareda, he married a young and innocent girl, a daughter of one of the most highly respected families of the place, and left her in the entanglements of his classiness.

C. J. Ensign and wife, of Pleasant Dale, buried their twin baby girls today at 3 o'clock. They died yesterday afternoon. The little girls, Alice and Ruth, were 3 years, 6 months and 10 days old.

Rumor has it that the Salvation army will storm the city during the fair. The advance guard will reach here Thursday and more will follow as soon as arrangements can be made for them.

The Biting Tongue. Slender attacks us from behind. The bite is rarely felt unless it is malignant and persistent. Disease too, often attacks us through a vital channel.

Fish for North Nebraska. The special car of the United States fish commission arrived over the Chicago and Northwestern road and will at once be sent out over the Fremont, Elkhorn and Missouri Valley roads to stock the streams of that section.
