CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKET.

CHICAGO, Sept. 17 - Pecial Telegram to Tug Her . - The bull sentiment has been develeping strength for several days. Later and the most reliable news from the northwest added fuel to the flames, and a sharp advance in Duluth tended to confirm these private advices. Before 11 o'clock Duluth wheat was up 3c per bushel. The firmness around the opening in this market was caused by local and miscellaneous buying. Public interest in the wheat market is again reviving. It was largely public buying that checked the decline, and the present advance is being helped along by a variety of things. A suspicion existed Saturday that the market was closed strong at the rally in order to enable some of the leading longs to seil out. Yet to-day these same longs, led by Hutchinson, were the biggest buyers. George Smith and his party, and others of equal prominence sold out their wheat, but the dump only caused a 1/2c reaction, from the effect of which the market infted its head and went soaring again. The bull spirit was in the air. Wheat made a gain of nearly 2c before the close at 1 o'clock. The market was broad and excited throughout. The pit was crowded continually and commission merchants reported a big business for outside account. New York, which lagged and dragged behind, came in late with buying orders, and there was a tremendous reaction in a general way throughout the entire session. The spring wheat situation was felt and acknowledged to be the main source of bull excitement. On that account operators felt that the American markets can well afford to break away from any foreign connections for a time. December opened at 92% and May at 57c. This was only a minute fraction over Saturday. It was the bottom, how-December advanced to 935/c, reacted to 93½c, and then climbed to 94½c. May got in sight of 99 once more, but paused at 98½c. September wheat started in 1c above December, but toward the close of the session the difference was reacted narrowed to about 4c. Last quotations snow a difference of 1%c, thus showing that the weakness in September was only apparent. The 1 o'clock range was not at the outside but it was near to it. News from Duluth and Minneapolis advised that a better quality of low grade wheat in that mar-ket was commanding 5c per bushel over Sat-urday's prices. The millers were a very large factor in this market as well as neare

Corn was comparatively quiet and uninfluenced to any great extent by the strength in wheat. Still it ruled higher than on Saturday, notwithstanding the very large re-ceipts of 1,128 cars to-day, and over 700 promised for to-morrow. Influences are largely local, and one heavy operator seems to con-trol matters, and his action helped to-day's advance. The principal trading was in Octo ber, which closed at an advance of %c on opening prices, last quotations being 44%@

Oats were not active, vet at the same time were steady and a rather firm feeling was noted. Few outside orders appeared, and with the small speculative interest visible trading was narrow, with this month quiet at 24% @24% c and the two following in at about 1sc premium, while May was steady at about 1, c premium, white May was steady within Saturday's range. Regular No. 2 cash was quiet and firm at 24½@24%c, with trading chiefly by sample.

Provisions were more than ordinarily interesting. The open market was fairly active. Trade was also bullishly inclined, and under the lead of lard, which was advanced sharply by manipulation and free buying of October shorts, product ruled materially higher. For near deliveries, lard, which is in small stock, and under control of Fairbank and English houses, was advanced Fairbank and English houses, was advanced sharply, and closed at 1 o'clock 55c higher for September and October and 25c higher for November than Saturday's last quotations. In October pork and short ribs the day's net improvement was 7½c, in November pork the same, in year pork 5c, in year lard 12½c and in January lard 7½c. Pork and short ribs for January showed a decline at the ad-

AFTERNOON SESSION-There was a sensational flurry in September wheat this after-noon, the price going to 88½c on the filing of a few small orders. It broke again to 86½c almost immediately. The general market sold off on free realizing sales of December and May. September 974c, October 934c, November 934c, December 934c, May 974c Corn was steady and fairly aclive. Price changes were unimportant; September 44%c. October 44%c, November 41%c, May 44%c, October 44%c, November 41%c, May 59c. Oats were moderately active and steady; September 24%c, October 24%c, November 24%c, year 24%c, May 28%c. Pork for October declined 5c; November was unchanged and January a shade stronger; September $14.45, October $14.45, November $13.95, year $13.70. CHICAGO LIVE STOCK

CHICAGO, Sept. 17 .- | Special Telegram to THE BEE. !- CATTLE-Trade was slow and unsatisfactory from opening to close. Fifteen thousand cattle on top of 60,000 last week was far too many for the wants of the trade-at least for to-day's wants. As a matter of course everything sold lower. Salesmen and buyers talked about "best natives" and "good natives" as selling as well as last week, but there was not a sufficient number of either to make a market, and such cut no figure in the day's transact tions. It was the common run of natives Texans, rangers and cows that made the mar ket and made prices, and all such sold lower -anywhere from 15c to 25c below the aver age prices of Saturday. Texans and rangers formed about 7,500 of the fresh receipts. A large per cent of the Texans was made up of low grade steers and cows. There was another big run of native cows and heifers—some 4,000 to 5,000 -yet not as many as last Monday, when the number ran up to 6,000 or more. So, out of the 15,000 on sale, there was at least 12,000 of low grade classes, and all such sold lower than at the close on Friday last. Veal calves were in large numbers for the season, and substantially lower than last week. There is little or nothing doing in the stocker and feeder trade. A heavy rain storm set in from the southwest on Sunday and continued up to the present writing, and if the down-pour has covered the droughty part of Illinois and Iowa there will seen be an improved demand for stock cattle, as there will be much needed improvement in pasturage. be much needed improvement in pasturage. The same conditions will also check large shipments of half fattened cows and herfers to market. The receipts included 7,500 Texans and westerns; steers, 1,350 to 1,500 lbs. $4.75@5.05; 1,200 to 1,350 lbs. $4.75@5.40; 950 to 1,200 lbs. $3.50@4.75; stockers and feeders, $2.00@3.20; cows, bulls and mixed, $1.40@2.90; bulk, $2.30@2.70. 3.06; wintered Texans, $2.65@3.50.

Hoos—Trade was active with an upturn of about 5c on mixed and heavy at the opening, speculators being the principal buyers. At the close these speculators had more stock then they could dispose of at what they paid in the morning, hence later arrivals and late sales were not as strong as at the opening. Best assorted heavy sold at $6.55@6.65, the latter for Philadelphias. Best mixed made $6.30@6.40 and the ordinary run $8.10@6.25. Light sorts sold a nickel lower; largely at $6.25@6.40.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.-[Special Telegram to THE BEE.] - STOCKS-The market opened steady this morning in the main, with a slight mprovement in prices as compared with Saturday's close in most stocks. The feeling early was unsettled and rather feverish, with moderately active trading in the active list, Grangers being again especially prominent. London sent in buying orders in specialties, and the Vanderbilts and Eries were among the leaders in strength. Buying by room traders and commission houses had a bracing effect for a time, but the market as a whole was irregular, with frequent fluctuations, and gains one moment were liable to be lost the next. There was a good deal of raiding in the forenoon by room traders, and values were depressed thereby. There were no particularly interesting features during the morning hours, and alternate "pots of weakness and strengen toft Leither side with any great victory at noon. The market was dull part of the time after the early activity, and with less pressure to sell, values improved a ittle. By the close Northwestern was 14 higher, Rock Island & Barlington 1 point, Peoria, Docator & Evansville 114. Northern Pacific preferred I and Union Pacific I point higher. St. Paul did not get below 60% and hovered around 61 a good part of the day, closing at 61%, a gain of %, while preferred stock advanced 2 points.
