Hawkeye Politics.

DES MOINES, Ia., Sept. 23.—(Special to The Bee.)—The democrats are finding "hard sledding" in their efforts to pull through their state ticket by means of a railroad combination.

The democrats have abandoned their state ticket and will make it of no account to save their candidate for railroad commissioners.

The corporations will do their level best on the sly—to help the democrats this fall, but repudiate the candidates for the other offices.

Chairman Hunter, of the state central committee, endeavored to combine the railroad and the Free Press, the democratic paper of Corning.

Some Political Surprises.

DES MOINES, Ia., Sept. 23.—(Special to The Bee.)—Both parties have now concluded the congressional nominations.

The republican candidates are likely to gain one, possibly two, and perhaps three congressmen this year.

It was considerable surprise in other parts of the state at the nomination of George Ross by the republicans of the Council Bluffs district.

His popularity and ability were recognized, but it was not supposed that he would care to give up his position on the supreme bench to accept a seat in congress.

He has over a year more to serve in his first term, and it is conceded that he will have been re-nominated and re-elected for another six years had he so desired.

His nomination, however, removes a number of the best men from the republican ticket, as his candidacy will add several hundred votes to the ticket, and his majority will probably reach three or four thousand.

Another surprise is the nomination of a growing popularity of Colonel McManus, the republican candidate in the Second district.

This is the only republican in the district in the state. But it is a veritable "bad lands," lying along the Mississippi, and taking in some six or eight thousand democratic voters.

The united front of the republican candidates is very unpopular with his party, and is losing votes every day.
