THE OMAHA DAILY BEE: WEDNESDAY SEPTEMBER 26, 1888

Г

m

2

RAL

5

ub.

DAILY BEE. THE NEWS OF COUNCIL BLUFFS THE COUNCIL BLUFFS.

POFICE. NO 12 PEARL STREET. Delivered by carrier in Any Fart of the City at Twenty Cents Per Week, H. W. TILTON MANAGER. TELEPHONES: BUSINESS OFFICE No. 43. NIGHT EDITOR, NO. 23.

MINOR MENTION.

N. Y. Plumbing company. Work has been commenced on the coping around the court house grounds. New fall goods just received at Reit-er's, merchant tailor, 310 Broadway.

Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to Henry Kehler and Clara Long, and Sherman E. Spoor and Cora B. Marble, all of this

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wells are rejoleing over the recent arrival at their home on North Seventh street of a twelve-pound daughter.

There will be a special meeting of the board of trade to morrow evening at 8 o'clock. It is important that there shall be a good attendance.

William Hutchinson has left at THE BEE office a fine specimen of the horned toad. It is a "rarus" sure enough, and will be a valuable acquisition to THE BEE's collection of curies, for which Mr. Hutchinson will please receive thanks.

The brickwork on the Merriam block is delayed somewhat by the non-arrival of the stone for the foundation of the iron columns. As soon as this is delivered and the re-mainder of the iron is received, the walls will go up rapidly.

The Omaha telegraph operatrs' nine will cross bats with the Bluff City's at Union park Friday afternoon. Tickets with be sold at 25 cents each, the proceeds to be devoted to the yellow fever sufferers. The tickets will doubtless sell wall will doubtless sell well.

Wall McFadden's drum corps comes to the front with a neatly printed card, offering its services at reasonable figures for campaign gatherings, etc. Their music makes the veterans step high, and it is in great demand among the old soldiers.

Owen Bros. are doing a large amount of grading in the western part of the city, lay-ing off additions, grading streets, etc. They will remain there until the middle of next month, when they will leave to do several large jobs in Nebraska.

Mrs. Josephine Biggs, wife of 'Squire W. L. Biggs, died yesterday morning at 11 o'clock, at her home on South Seventh street, at the advanced age of seventy-four years. The deceased had been ill for about two months, and a fatal termination was not unexpected. The trouble seemed to be de-bility and a granging out of the vital bility and a general wearing out of the vital forces. She had been a resident of this city for a number of years, and was very well known. The funeral will take place from the residence at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

The oats brought to the market this fall are of a very poor grade, and are a drug at 16 cents per bushel. Good cats are scarce and readily command 25 cents. The cause assigned is the continued hot weather about harvest time. The majority of farmers evi-dently intended to thresh from the shock. and heavy wettings spoiled the grain and it is very musty. Many of the loads brought in are entirely unfit for feeding to horses, and the price will drop still further if many more are disposed of.

A Young People's Society of Christian En-A roung receive Society of Christian File deavor was formed Sunday evening at the Congregational church by State Superinten-dent Towle. The officers of the society are W. S. Homer, president: Ida Wallace, vice-president; Miss Fitch, secretary, and Elmer Stacy, treasurer. This is the first society of this kind, organized in Councel Bluer Stacy. this kind organized in Council Bluffs, al-though most other towns have for years had such organizations. The purpose of the or-ganization is to give young persons opportu-nities to do systematic, Christian and charitable work.

There were but two drunks in police court esterday morning, and they were each taxed 8.10 The chief decided to put the entire force of prisoners at work on the struets; ac-cordingly Officer Fyson marshalled his troop of nine and started out to battle with the mud. This force is doing excellent work and will keep quite a number of teams busy hauling away the dirt scraped up on the paying streets will be cleaned much better than with the scrapers heretofore used, and at the present rate will be about as fast and much

Two Courts at Work on Criminals Make it Lively.

ELECTRIC LIGHTING PROPOSAL.

The Knights Marched Well Last Night -Citizens to Have an Opportunity to Vote on a Light Question.

Cases and Men. The United States district court for the southern district of Iowa commenced yesterday morning in the main court room of the new federal building for the September term, with Judge Love on the bench.

The case of Carl Saunders, of Carroll, charged with violating the internal revenue laws, was tried, and the defendant found guilty. He was fined $150 and sentenced to thirty days in jail. J. J. Hoeppaer, of Hamburg, was charged with sending obscene matter through the mails. He pleaded guilty and was fined 100 and costs. He paid $10 and costs, amounting to $49.85, and the balance of the fine was remitted. The afternoon was occupied in calling the docket. The case of G. W. Culver, admr, vs Western Pacific railway company, will be called this morning. Wynster & Linidt appear for the plaintiff and Wright, Baldwin & Haldane for the defendant. The term will occupy about ten days. There are ninety-nine equity and forty-seven law cases on the calendar. Five equity and ten law cases appear on the trial calendar. There are about thirty criminal calendar. There are a cases to be disposed of. Among those from other cities who are at-tending court are Deputy Treasury Depart-ment Agent E. M. Stedman, United States Marshal Ed Campbell, jr., Deputy United States Marshal S. S. Etherage and C. Camp-States Marsaal S. S. Etherage and C. Camp-bell, Des Moines; A. A. Lachy, Vall; S. I. King, Logan; Hon. Justus Clark, Red Oak: Sylvester Dys, Macedonia; J. B. Sweet Julesburg, Col., and W. R. Paul, Plum Hol

OW.

Family Jars. Stone and glass fruit jars for putting ap fruit, also new rubbers, at Fearon's

New catsup just received at Fearon's

A ledger and journal is something a man in business has occasion to use almost every day in the year. Get some-thing ueat and to suit your own style, at

Morehouse & Co.'s, No. 1 Pearl st. Boots, shoes. Kinnehan's, 326 B'way

New maple syrup, just received, $1.25 per bucket, at Fearon's.

Guilty Or Not Guilty.

The district court began to grind on criminal cases yesterday morning. Several of the prisoners who desired to plead guilty were given an opportunity to do so. They were Frank White, larceny; Fred Smith, burglary: Harvey Blakesley, larceny: Frank Murray, burglary. Their sentences will be imposed next Saturday. Bernard and Solomon Goss, charged with receiving stolen property in connection with the Garneau diamond robbery in Omaha, pleaded not guilty. The case of Thomas Barrett, charged on two counts with assault with intent to nue. commit rape, was called and occupied the attention of the court during the greater part of the day. Colonel Dailey conducted the prosecution, and B. W. Hight the defense. The offense alleged against Barrett was committed about two weeks ago on North Main street, when Barrett enticed an elevenyear-old girl to his room and locked her in. The defendant claimed that he was intoxi-cated. The case of Herman Berch for assault will be tried to-day. G. A. Holmes will appear for the prisoner. For Sale.

Tuesdays, and 2:30 Saturdays.

St. Mary's avenue, Omaha.

and Main, over American express.

on the consumers. Next comes the electric light question, etc., while last and evidently least in the aldermanic mind is the question of saloon and gambling house fines, ponder-ing over which the mayor has passed many a

gives proper attention to these many matters of public interest, but as they are greatly neglected, it is barely possible that he does occasionally allow his mind to reflect gently on the course pursued by his world's hero, the great McGarigle, and then comes the proper light for, as the mayor says, "there isn't any too much money in the treasury." Now the question is, if the matters above referred to are not so settled as to fill the pockets of the councilmen, what are they to do? Until these questions are answered the matters cannot be settled.

opp. court house.

per cent.

Ten acres in Council Bluffs, off the east end of the Ballard 80. Will make 72 lots, same as the Omana add., which it joins on the south. Ninth avenue driveway to U. P. bridge passes through the tract. Title clear. One-third down, balance one and two years. Eight rooms were decorated with smilax and flowers. Several of the guests were too young to thoroughly under stand the situation, but they sur-veyed and criticized each other in a manner that argues well for their future success in the whirl of fashionable society. Choice refreshments, with candies and ice cream were served. Master Willie Zer-kowski, five years, rendered two very pretty selections on the yiolin, and Miss Lottie soluctions on the violin, and Miss Lottie Schurz, of the same age, played on the plano and sang. Both are quite accomplished little artists, and their future is very promising. The occasion was highly enjoyable, both to young and old, and will be recalled with pleasure.

Benson & Shepherd wish to announce to investors in real estate that Benson's second addition lots are being sold at the rate of six to eight per day, and that in a short time these lots will have to be bought of second owners at a large advance in price. Call at once if you wish one of these lots at original prices.

We have no competitors in finishing collars, cuffs and shirts. Cascade Laundry Co.

The Knights Visit Sioux City.

About fifty members of Bluffs division, No. 27, uniform rank, Knights of Pythias, left last evening over the Northwestern to attend the encampment of the Third Iowa regiment at Sioux City. The knights made a fine showing as they marched to their train, headed by Dalby's military band of eighteen pieces, which accompanied them. The bal pieces, which accompanied them. The oath given by the boxs. Wednesday evening netted them a neat sum, that will do considerable towards meeting the expenses of the trip. Colonel C. W. Hicks and Adjutant E. J. Abbott accompanied the division. They will be absent two days.

Speculations in Real Estate.

Those desiring to make either large or small investments in Council Bluffs real estate are requested to examine our list of property. It comprises a choice selection of lots in additions lying between the business portions of Omaha and Council Bluffs. Prices low and terms easy. Title guaranteed. Money loaned on city property. Correspond-ence solicited. Odell Bros. & Co., 103 Pearl street, Council Bluffs. S. B. Wadsworth & Co. loan money.

Artists preter the Hallett & Davis piano, at C. B. Music Co., 224 Broadway.

Personal Paragraphs.

E. E. Hart left jast evening for Boston. Miss Georgie Bennett, of Bluff street, leaves this evening for Mount Auburn. Miss Newell, late of Minneapolis, is now second operator at the transfer telegraph office.

Charles Fox, of Fox & Hughes, has re-turned home from a week's business trip to Chicago. Miss Celia Hughes is visiting with her brother John, who is attending college at Atchison, Kan, Mr. Paul D. Haynes arrived from Salida ast Sunday evening and is attending the Commercial business college.

Mrs. T. A. Clark and daughter Sadie leave to day for a six weeks' visit to New York City and the Atlantic const.

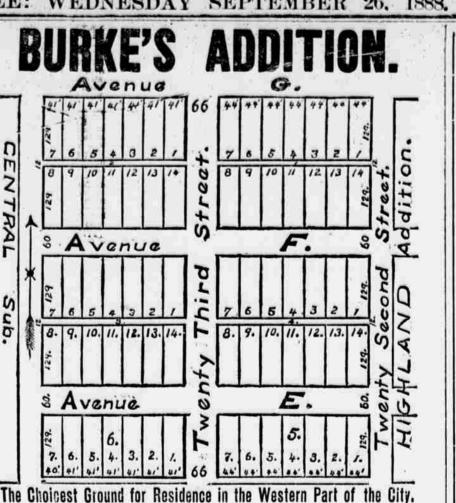

Mrs. George A. Haynes, of Salida, Colo. arrived last Sunday evening, and is visiting her mother, Mrs. L. S. Amy, 537 Fifth ave-

W. J. Ray, chief of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific detective force, is in the city accompanied by his wife, and is attend ing United States court.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Hoagland will spend this week enjoying the signts at Sioux City, with its corn palace. Next week they will go to St. Louis to take in the fair at that place. M. H. Bretz, aight operator at the Chicago & Northwestern round house, has returned from a three weeks' visit to friends in St. Joseph, Kansas City and other Missouri river noints river points.

Miss Ella McIntosh, one of the former teachers of the Pierce street school, left yesterday for Dakota, where she expects to re main. The go with her. The well wishes of hosts of friends

Dr. Green has returned from a visit to his old home in Ohio, during which time he at-tended the G. A. R. encamp.ment at Colum-bus. The doctor reports a splendid time,

Is now platted into Beautiful, Large Lots. About ten minutes ride on the moter to Douglas street, Omaha. They lie on a level but elevated strip of ground. About 300 yards from the new motor line to Omaha. Less than 14 miles from the Council Bluffs postoffice. Nearly twice as large in size in size as most of the newly platted lots. Good public schools near by. The proposed Boulevard bounds it on the north. TITLES-Perfect.

ABSTRACT-Printed Abstract and Warranty Deed with each Lot. GRADE-Examine these lots with reference to the grade before buying a lot. The ordinary price of a lot is saved on grade alone, if you buy one of these lots. TERMS-To a good class of purchasers a limited number of lots will be sold for one-tenth down; balance in monthly payments, without interest. Apply to

FINLEY BURKE.

J. J. Brown building, 115 Pearl-St., Council Bluffs, Iowa. é Bankinpt Shee Store, Y. PLUMBING E. Mentels, Clothing FINE SHOES B Spetman ? 0 NO. 25 MAIN JOHNSTON & VAN PATTEN, REAL ESTATE AND F III MAYNE & HAZELTON. AND STREET BOURLE RUBE ROP ISC ORNETS AT LAW. MUELLER MUSIC CO. J. moreton 3 Pianos, Organs, Hout Our Go Musical Merchandise. OVERTON Theo, Bookins No. 523, Smith's Bakery.

cheaper. Some evil disposed person or persons have displayed their innate cussedness by demol ishing every street lamp on Broadway, be tween Sixtcenth street and the river, besides tearing down and smashing up several ad-vertising boards erected by local real estate dealers. The vandals evidently filled up on "forty rod" at Niebe's joint near the water works pumping station, and perpetrated these outrages on their return to the city. After the bridge is opened it will be neces-sary to have Lower Broadway patrolled by police to afford protection to life and prop-erty in that vicinity.

A horse attached to a phaeton made things hum on South Main street yesterday morn-ing. The animal belonged at the Kirk stable and was hitched to a post near the corner of Pearl street and Fifth avenue. One of the fire department teams was out for exercise, and in passing frightened the animal so that it broke loose and started down Pearl street at a mad gallop. Passing into Main street the excited horse attempted to turn down Sixth avenue, but the turn was too short and on the curbstone. The carriage was a total wreck and the horse was badly bruised. No one was injured.

The finish on our collars, cuffs and shirts cannot be equalled. Cascade Laundry Co.

E. H. Sheafe loans money on chattel security of every description. Private consulting rooms. All business strictly confidental. Office 500 Broadway, corner Main street, up-stairs.

A good article of peaches, 20 cents per can, at Fearon's.

A good article of tea for 25 cents at Fearon's.

J. G. Tipton has bargains in real estate.

E. H. Sheafe & Co., make long or short time loans on real estate, in sums to suit, at lowest rate of interest. Office Broadway and Main street, upstairs.

Have our wagon call for your soiled clothes. Cascade Laundry Co.

Now Vote as You Fought. The electric lighting company has submitted a proposition to the city council offering to give reduced rates for tower lights if the city will grant them a contract for ten The city is now paying $20 per month for each light on the towers, making $80 per tower per month. The company offers to furnish these lights at $15 each, and as many more as the city may require. For lighting lower Broadway they will furnish are light 2,000 candle power on poles twenty feet high for $10 per month, or will furnish thirty-two candle power incandescent lights for $2.50 per month, thirty or more lights to be used. The matter was referred to the gas committee and the citizens will have an opportunity to express themselves on the uestion before it comes up for final settlement.

Have you noticed the beautiful finish given collars, cuffs and shirts by Cascade Laundry Co.

Full line of sheet music at Council Bluffs Music Co., 224 Broadway.

Money loaned at L. B. Crafts & Co.'s loan office, on furniture, pianos, horses, wagons, personal property of all kinds, and all other articles of value without removal. All business strictly confidential.

Mackerel, $1.35 a bucket, at Fearon's.

Good roasted coffee, 20 cents; Ar-buckle's coffee, 20 cents, at Fearon's.

Benson & Shepherd are sole agents for Plainview addition. These lots lie high and dry and will be sold on long time and ensy payments. There is no better place for a home.

A. V. LARIMER. having met many of his old friends. School for Dancing. Mrs. Magrane will open classes here

Mrs. Ed Cleminson, upon whom a difficult and dangerous surgical operation was per-formed about ten days ago at the W. C. A. it Beno's hall in connection with her hospital, is getting along nicely, thanks to the surgical skill shown by the physicians Omaha classes, beginning Tuesday, Oc-tober 2, and meet every Tuesday and and the excellent nursing she is receiving by Saturday evenings for adults, beginning the hospital attendants. at 8 o'clock, and Tuesday and Saturday Mr. N. B. Crane, of Portland, Ore., is in afternoons for children at 4:30 p. m. on own for a few days, the guest of his cousin.

Mr. George Crane, who is of this city or of the U. S. Masonic Benevolent association, sometimes no one can tell which, as he seems She has taught with success and has had large classes in Omaha for the past three years. The prospects are she will to have unbounded faith in both, and will talk uninterruptedly of either. have large classes here. Address 2,020

Sol Bloom, of Deadwood, Dak., is in the city, a guest of John T. Stewart. Mr. Bloom has been in New York City for some weeks buying goods for his mammoth clothing es-tablishment in the Black Hills country and Money loaned on furniture, pianos, diamonds, horses, buggies, or anything stopped off here a day or two to meet his old time friends, who are always glad to see of value at low rates of interest. No publicity: fair and honorable dealing.

A. A. Clark & Co., office cor. Broadway Charley Price, formerly local detective of the Milwaukee railway company, and now employed in the same capacity at Kansas Who Will Help Out the Council? City, came up Monday evening to get ready to accompany the local division of the Uni-form Rank, K. of P., to Sioux City last even-The council has several matters of importance on its hands at the present time that are ing, to attend the regimental encampment Charley looks hale and hearty and is the of considerable interest to the citizens. First and foremost is the gas ordinance, that the same jolly old boy as formerly aldermen handle as though it were dyna mite, and it is well perhaps that they are very careful how they treat it, as their death warrant, politically, will be sealed if they at-tempt to jugle it out of sight for another period of years. The question of public im-Drew A Five Thousand Dollar Prize Two gentlemen living in Gilliam in this county have reaped the reward of a long ser-ies of investments in the Louisiana State Lottery. There has been a rumor for some time past that some gentlemen im Gilliam had drawn five thousand dollars in The Louiprovements also takes up considerable of the time of the executive body, but just at present they want everything kept as quiet sianna State Lottery but no certain intelli-gence as to the matter having reached us, as the grave. Another matter is that grant-ing the Nebraska Telephone company an-other charter, or of turning over to them the one now holding in favor of the Council Bluffs Telephone company. Then comes the question of the butchers' union, which wants an ordinance passed compelling all smallar the Progress reporter at Gilliam, Mr. M. D. the Progress reporter at childin, MP, M. Di Kerr, investigated the case and ascertained the facts. He sends us the conclusive evi-dence and particulars as follows showing that the drawing of the five thousand in cash is an actual and undisputed fact. Mr. Kerr detection of the bassed compelling all smaller dealers to pay a large license for the privi-lege of pedding meat about the city. This causes a manimoth howl, as the citizens claim that these dealers buy meat at South Omaha and sell it to them at decent figures, but if

The prize drawn here in the Louisiana State Lottery was $5,000 and was drawn by a ticket held jointly between E. J. Dunlap, the druggist here, and Mr. James the ordinance is passed maintaining a $150 license, as asked for, the price must neces-sarily go up, thus inflicting a direct hardship Wooldridge who is a salesman in the store of W. H. Land & Son. They received the cash through the Citizens Stock Bank last Saturday. Their success is the result of several years regular investment in these tickets,"-Marshall (Mo.) Progress, Sept. 1. sleepless night. It may be readily seen that the Council Bluffs alderman should have no time to think of boodle if he

Good dwellings and lots for sale on monthly payments by E. H. Sheafe & Co., cor. Broadway and Main sts., up-stairs. Travelers! Stop at the Bechtele.

For bargains in real estate see E. H

Sheafe & Co., Broadway and Main street, upstairs. Loans made on city business and residence property. Notes bought. Kim-ball-Champ Investment company.

Edison's First Phon ograph. Provence Journal: A gentleman re-

Remember that Benson & Shepherd cently repeated to me an account given have never yet sold a lot that has not him by Mr. Thomas A Edison of the made the buyer money, and in most cases their money has been doubled. making of the first phonograph. It has not, so far as I know, been in print, and There is just as good a chance to make money now as ever and Benson & Shepis interesting, as showing the inventor's methods of working. Busily engaged on innumerable things. Mr. Edison carherd have the property to do it with. ried in his mind for a long time the idea Mrs. H. Lee, dress making and straw work. Call and see her. Fifth ave. of the phonograph, turning it over and over, and from time to time jotting down sketches and memorandr, concern-ing its construction. At length he said After the Manner of Their Elders. to an old German machinist, who made There was a very interesting and enjoyable occasion at the residence of Mr. L. Harris, models for him, that he wanted a machine constructed in a certain manner but of the use of it he gave no hint. Now and then, as the work went on, 600 Mynster street, yesterday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock. It was the first anniversary without seeing the model, Mr. Edison ordered certain changes, which, of course, were duly made. Finally, the of the birth of little Boulah Eva Harris, and it was celebrated in a manner that might be highly appreciated by babies of a much German was told to bring the machine for examination; Mr. Edison fitted into it the sheet of tinfoil, and turning the larger growth. A large number of invita-tions were issued and thirty babies were present in response, as well as a number of older enes to look after the toddlers. The crank spoke into the funnel the some-

