Chinese Who Want to Naturalize.

During the past few weeks Clerk Moores. of the district court, has issued first papers to a dozen or more Chinamen who wished to declare their intention of becoming citizens of the United States. Gan Him took out his papers yesterday. He was accompanied by Sam Goon, who asserted that he had secured naturalization papers issued in Michigan.

Among the other recent applicants for Yee Chung, Claws Oft, Ling Pou and Ying Log.

The first papers are merely a declaration of intention to become a fiction, and the clerks of the courts have no option in the matter of issuing them. The second papers are the stickers. Judge Groff has such a case under consideration, and his decision may be quoted all over the country as a precedent.

An Old Man Tries Hard to Commit

Suicide. J. T. Eichelberger, better known as "Doe," a man of about fifty-six years, attempted suicide shortly before 2 o'clock yesterday by cutting his throat with a razor. He was in the rear room of Quinn & O'Leary's saloon, 1023 North Sixteenth street, at the time, and John Lowry, Charies Hunt, Steve Gedell and Walter Cowell were within five feet of him seated playing cards. The first intimation they had playing cards. The first intimation they had of the deed was a strange gurgling sound caused by his trying to cough up the blood running into his windpipe. To their horror they saw the blood spurting from a gaping wound in his throat, saturating his clothes and gathering in pools on the floor. The men did what they could for him, stretching him out upon a table, binding a hand-kerchief about his neck and calling for medical assistance. Three physicians came and sewed up the wound, which extended from a point directly below the left ear to the front of the throat, severing a number of arteries and the wind-pipe. ing a number of arteries and the wind-pipe. He was full of liquor at the time and it is said that liquor has been the cause of his desperate deed. He had accumulated a number of debts of late, all of which were paid by a son, except a large whisky bill, and this the son re-fused to pay.

Just before being removed to the police station, Eichelberger called Dr. Ralph to "Doctor, I have made a mistake again. I Doctor, I have made a mistake again. I didn't get deep enough. I'm too fat. I have my own reasons for doing this. You know when a man gets through with this world he wants to leave it, and that's what I propose

It seems that Eichelberger or the "doctor," as he is called has made one or two previous attempts to do away with himself,

A Woman's Confession. "Do you know, Mary, I once actually contemplated suicide?" "You horrify me, Mrs. B. Tell me about it." "I was suffering from chronic weakness. I believed myself the most unhappy wo-man in the world. I looked ten years older than I really was, and I felt twenty. Life seemed to have nothing in it worth living for." "I have expe-rienced all those symptoms myself. Well?" "Well, I was saved at the eleventh hour from the commission of a deed which I shudder to think of. A friend advised me to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I did so. In an incredibly short time I felt like a new being. The 'Prescription' cured me, and I owe Dr. Pierce a debt of gratitude which I can never repay.'

A USELESS RESOLUTION.

That of the Council Closing Up Disorderly Houses.

The chief of police ridicules the action of certain members of the council in attempting to get up resolutions to suppress bawdy houses, and also the agitation of the same subject by certain local papers. He says that there is an ordinance already providing for such houses and the resolutions intended are in direct contradiction to this law. The ordinance referred to by the chief is section 3, of chapter 16, which provides that if two or more citizens shall at any time make a written complaint to the city marshal to a written complaint to the city marshal to the effect that any house or place in their im-mediate neighborhood is openly and notori-ously kept or maintained as a house of pros-titution, or disorderly house, it shall be the duty of that officer to forthwith make a proper complaint before the police judge against the person or persons so keeping or maintaining such house and against all inmaintaining such house, and against all in-mates thereof, and all such persons shall, on conviction, be fined in any sum not to exceed $50, and in addition thereto, may be imprisoned not to exceed ten days.

The chief also nints that there is a good deal of other useless legislation by the council, so much so that it is a wonder that the

and Office Hlumination. The following figures, taken from the books of Gas Inspector Gilbert, will give the taxpayers a clear idea of the city's expenses for gas and illumination:

Within a radius of a mile and a half from the postoffice there are 728 gas lamps at $31 per annum, or a total of $15,288; on the southern, western and northern suburbs there are 462 gasoline lamps, at $19.75 per lamp, with a total of $4,504.50,or a gram total of $19,792.50. Last year the total amounted to something like $1,000 more than this. Prior to September 1, this year, for the previous year the monthly average of the gas bills was $2,300. There are in addition to these and gasoline There are in addition to these and gasoline lamps, nine electric lights, at $18 per month, with a total of $162 per month, or $1,944 a year, which will run the expense up for lighting the city this year to $21,736.50. The amount of gas consumed in the public offices, paid for by the city, for last year amounted to $2,086 at $2 per thousand. The public offices thus provided for are confined exclusively to the fire and police departments. The gas furnished the offices in the Cart house is yaid for by the county at the rate of $2 per thousand, with 25 cents off for each. The expenditure for this source averages $15 per month, or $900 per annum. The city's entire expanditure for gas per month is $2,200 per month, or $26,400 per anonth is $2,200 per month, or $26,400 per an-

are Tardy and Stubborn. Thomas Gary, city treasurer of South Omaha, is occupying a cell at the county jail, and is liable to remain there for five days. He was the prosecuting witness in the trial of James O'Connor for the burglary of Gary's store. The case came up yesterday morning and was continued until 2 o'clock in the afternoon. When the court assembled Gary was not on hand, and business was sus-pended over an hour pending his appearance. Gary's excuse was that he supposed in court affairs it was 2 o'clock until it was 3. The explanation did not satisfy Judge Groff's offended dignity and he fined the tardy wit-ness $5. In giving his testimony Gary spoke indistinctly, notwithstanding severe promptings by his honor. Judge Groff finally became tired, fined the witness another $10 and gave the assembled company to understand that the court was not to be trifled with. that the court was not to be trifled with. Gary refused to pay the fine and the judge sent him to the county jail to remain five days unless the $15 be paid sooner. Gary had $60 or more in his pocket, but stubbornly says he will board out his fine.

Matthew Gaines, another witness, was tardy and had to be brought into court on an attachment. He was left off with a fine of $1 and costs. Deputy Sheriff Grebe went to South Omaha in the afternoon after a third delinquent.

OUR STOCK OF SUITS

For Fall and Winter was never more extensive and varied than now. Mens and young mens Suits have always been the most important part of our business. On the quality of our Suits and the prices we sold them at, we have built up our reputation. This Fall we have made special exertions to eclipse in this line all our previous efforts and we can safely assert, that no choicer exhibition of Suits was ever made. Our stock comprises all the leading styles and grades of goods. No description of qualities or naming of prices in this advertisement can do it justice; we simply aim that Every Suit we sell shall be a walking advertisement for us.

One feature about our suit stock is, we keep only reliable goods; we handle no shoddy or satinett suits. The cheapest suit we sell will be found to be made of strong and durable goods. The material is not as fine as in the better grades, but it can be relied upon to wear well, and the mechanic and laboring man who buys a low and medium priced suit of us will get as much satisfaction and be as well pleased with his bargain as those who buy the finer grade goods.

Another feature we want to mention is, that we can fit men of every build, from the variety of shapes we carry. We keep "short and fat," "long and slim" sizes especially for customers who have always found it hard to get fitted, and the prices are the same as for ordinary regular sizes.

Have you seen our 95c. Cassimere Hat? It will do you good to look at it. You will find some displayed in our corner window. We have them in several of the latest shapes. No hat store sells such a hat for less than $2 or $2.50. Don't think ours is worth less because we sell it at 95c. We "guarantee" every one of them, and our guarantee means just this much: If after wearing it you find you have not the satisfaction out of it as you expect to get out of a $2 hat, or if you can show us any damage or defect, we will give you another hat, or refund the money. Is that fair?
