The day was a most enjoyable joyable one, and those participating found nothing lacking that could add to the pleasures of the day. These occasions only serve to more firmly cement the ties of strong friendship and love existing between the pupils and those who have made it their object in life to carefully rear those in their charge to a life of honored usefulness.

Personal Paragraphs.

Miss Ida Davenport, of Burlington, is the guest of Miss Nellie Sackett.

Mrs. J. W. Horn, of Mapleton, is in the city visiting her sister, Mrs. Katie Miller.

Mrs. O. M. Brown leaves to-day for Stoux City with the party of Bluffs visitors to the corn palace.

Miss Bliss, one of Boston's most handsome and accomplished young ladies, is visiting in the city, the guest of Mrs. J. H. Burns. Miss Bliss expects to remain all winter.

Miss S. D. Rehse will arrive in the layers. It is thought that but ten days city to-morrow. She will open an art studio in a few days and during the will be required to complete the worl to the Methodist church, where the coming winter will give those who dedouble track will end. sire the benefit of a full course of instruction.

H. H. Tilton, of THE BEE, returned yesterday from Wisconsin where he has been detained by the illness and death of his wife's mother, Mrs. L. H. Josslyn. Mrs. Tilton and her sister, Mrs. Pryor, will return next week.

Mrs. Scarborough, an old resident of this city, but now of Montana, is here on a visit for a few days, the guest of Mrs. G. A. Robinson. Mrs. Scarborough is on her way to the home of her sister, Mrs. Stutsman, who lives in Harlan. Mrs. Scarborough came here in 1848 and left in 1856 for her present home.

Dr. O. H. Simmons left Tuesday evening for St. Louis and other points, after a short visit with J. Mueller and family. After a short stay in the south the doc tor will proceed to his home in Leadville, Colo., and Mrs. Simmons will return to this city and remain for a few months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mueller.

Lieutenant C. D. Palmer left yesterdition is laid out fronts on Broadway, avenues A, (motor line), B, C, D, E, F and G, one mile and a fraction from day afternoon to take charge of his command at Fort Warren, Boston harbor. Owing to his prolonged visit with friends in the south, his visit with his parents here was altogether too short to suit his many friends. During his brief stay he was well entertained, two pleasparties being given in his honor. He will probably be absent about three years.

At 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Mr. Will Huntington, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Huntington, of this city, and Miss Iowa Ball, of Omaha, were married at the residence of the bride's parents. The groom is well known on this side of the river, where he has passed the greater portion of his life. Many friends extend hearty congratulations to the happy couple. They will make their home in Omaha.

The Inter-State Herald has come out with with an illustrated head line, representing the twin cities of Omaha and Council Bluffs. Notwithstanding the attempt to illustrate the close alliance between the two cities, each is repre-sented as having a sun of its own, and both are blazing in the most approved manner. Council Bluffs is also placed on the western bank of the river. The two suns pass without much trouble, but the citizens of this prohibition city object to having it taken over to Ne-braska soil. Unless the Herald brings our city back to fowa soil, it's name will be "Dennis."
