year and no reports have been handed in by them, the amount covering the year ending December 31, 1887.

At the close of the previous year these associations had a force of 3,841 policies, amounting to $1,000,000. During the year the eight associations which have sent in reports for the year covered by the report, amounting to $1,150,177, and their losses, amounting to $1,150,177, during the year 3,100 certificates were issued, their aggregate amount being $8,780,000. Thirty-six certificates, aggregating $4,234, were discontinued by death and lapses, 1,192 amounting to $2,265,000.

The statement of the business actually done during the year is interesting to insurance men, and the amounts will doubtless be somewhat astonishing. The number of policies in force at the close of the year, 1888, was 4,733, and the amount of insurance represented was $15,200,250.

Local Fraternities. The hall of the Bohemian Slavic Brotherhood No. 33, I. O. O. F., was the scene of a very pleasant incident on last Friday evening.

In anticipation of her temporary removal to the Pacific coast, leave of absence was granted to the presiding officer, Mrs. George R. Rathbun.

After the lodge had closed and refreshments had been served, Mr. J. West, in behalf of the members present, presented the lady with a beautiful gold-lined silver card-receiver. The recipient responded in a manner which showed her appreciation of the thoughtful and of the esteem which induced it.

Mrs. Rathbun goes to Oakland, Cal., with her husband, and her absence will be regretted by many of the friends through out the city, and especially in north Omaha, where she has resided for fifteen years.

The Grand Legion, Select Knights A. O. U. W. of St. Paul, Minn., met at the hall of Hastings, representatives from Omaha are Dr. J. B. Rathbun, delegate; Frank C. Ayer, representative, and James C. Carr, grand commander. The object of the meeting was to discuss the proposed merger of the Grand Legion and the Grand Army of the Republic. The Select Knights A. O. U. W. is a semi-military benevolent and fraternal organization, and its members are also eligible. Members of it may take the beneficiary rank at their option, which entitles them to insurance of from $1,000 to $10,000. There are about 200 members in the Grand Legion and a supreme grand legion comprising the United States and Canada. The Grand Legion in Omaha has about 100 members and a greater interest is manifested at the present time than ever in its history. Besides the election of officers other business of importance will be transacted at the coming session at Hastings.

The abolition of the beneficiary jurisdiction of the Supreme Grand Legion of the United States has been a subject of much interest. Insurance above $1,000 will depend on the membership of the state. Heretofore members in states having a membership of 3,000 and upwards were entitled to the beneficiary rank in the state grand lodge, while those in states having less paid their assessments into the supreme grand lodge. Under the new rule each state will carry its own beneficiaries, leaving the grand lodge to look after the per capita tax and relief fund.

The local Knights Templar have taken measures to raise a fund to assist the Jacksonville Templars in the handling of their hospital. The hospital is to be open to all creeds and classes of people.

The local Forersters are considering seven applications for membership. At the last meeting Pat Fay was installed chief ranger, Mr. Hamilton vice and Mr. McCauley, wood ward.

Orville lodge No. 76, K. of P., was visited by Grand Chancellor Richard O'Neil, at the last meeting.

Black Eagle division No. 17, K. of P., installed officers last Tuesday, with the help of Omaha, division No. 12, and Trojan division No. 18, a number of regimental officers also were present. Speeches were made by Colonels Crager, Wells and Brown, Major Spencer, Adjutants Corty and Donnelly and others.

Matheson lodge No. 82, K. of P., give another of their enjoyable entertainments at Goodrich hall, Wednesday, October 3. Feasting and dancing will be the order of the evening.

Dan Clements, of Oriole lodge, K. of P., has been on the sick list.

Various lodges of the A. O. U. W. of Lincoln, Plattsmouth and Omaha, sent delegates to a committee which met at the city hall, they decided to hold a grand reunion in this city on October 12, in the park if the weather is favorable, and if not, at the city hall. Invitations are being sent to all the lodges of the state and a grand time is anticipated. The programme will appear later.

The Odd Fellows' excursion which left Philadelphia for the Pacific coast some weeks ago, is homeward bound and left Ogden this morning. Speeches were made after which they will come on through.

Scotchmen and the sons of Scotchmen will meet at 10 o'clock on Monday at the Bohemian block, No. 218 N street, the room formerly occupied by Peck as a restaurant, to organize a Gaelic club. The papers are being circulated by Brothers Anderson and Wells and they expect to organize with at least a hundred members.

A delegation from Union Pacific Lodge No. 24, K. of P., of Omaha, consisting of D. D. G. M., Dr. J. B. Rathbun, Bro. Hanson, Wiener, Burdfield, McBride, King and half a dozen others, came down from the city to attend a lodge meeting at about five o'clock on Monday. Between one and two scores have already signified their intention of connecting themselves with the new lodge, and it is believed the charter roll, when closed, will contain forty or fifty good brethren. The room committee will take their third floor in B. Block's new building, which is being erected by the South Omaha National bank on N street, between the Pivonka and Hunt buildings.

Branch No. 3, Ancient Order of Hibernians, met Saturday evening to arrange for the funeral of their late brother, Patrick Flaherty. The funeral will be held on Saturday afternoon at 10 o'clock, at the residence of Woodmen of America. The former starts in with a membership of about thirty and the latter with about twenty-five. Both have fine prospects for working into a much larger membership and are composed of the best business men of the town.

Court Magic City, No. 168, Independent Order of Forersters, gave its first annual ball in Hart's hall, Wednesday evening, the 29th ult. The court has elected Messrs. George J. Seltzer, Thomas Rock, John Hessel, John J. Sexton and Joseph Morley as judges of a committee of thirty.

Nearly three hundred tickets were sold and the spacious rooms were taxed as they never were before. A delegation from Court Magic City, No. 168, Omaha, was present. Between one and two scores have already signified their intention of connecting themselves with the new lodge, and it is believed the charter roll, when closed, will contain forty or fifty good brethren. To Be Decorated. The Elks have decided to beautify their lodge and club rooms by frescoing the walls and ceilings. Styles and plans were adopted yesterday by the board of directors, and work will be commenced at once. When completed they will be the finest decorated quarters in this city and a great credit to the organization.

Fraternal Insurance. Mr. Charles H. Alley, in the state auditor's office, has made an interesting compilation from the reports of the various secret societies, benevolent associations and mutual help orders now incorporated and doing business in the state. These reports are required by law, and while incomplete are sufficiently exact to afford some interesting information.

There are twelve companies of this kind now doing business in the state. Four of these, the Bohemian-Slavonian Benevolent association, the tricksters and Masonic union No. 25, the United States Masonic Benevolent association and the V. A. S. fraternity, were incorporated during the past
