

HARRISON ON THE FRANCHISE

An Address to the Delegates From Indiana and Wisconsin.

HOW TO SECURE A FREE BALLOT

Extensive Preparations Being Made For a Republican Demonstration on the Occasion of Blaine's Visit.

HARRISON DELEGATIONS.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 5.—Wisconsin and Indiana were the states represented to-day at General Harrison's reception.

My Wisconsin friends, I believe that the great masses of our people in the principles presented by the republican party, and are to me increasingly impressive.

Indiana has an opportunity to welcome a delegation from the magnificent state of Wisconsin.

It offers a personal obligation and the obligation of the Indiana republicans for the early and constant support which Wisconsin gave to the efforts of a free ballot, so far as the Chicago convention.

Today two states, not contiguous in territory but touching in their interests, are met to express the fact that the great electoral contests affect all our people.

It is not alone in the choice of presidential electors that we have common interests, but in the choice of congress, though chosen in separate districts, legislates for all our people.

Wisconsin has a direct interest that the ballot shall be free and pure in Indiana, and Indiana has a direct interest that the ballot shall be free and pure in Wisconsin.

Let me say that it is none of your business how the elections are conducted in other states.

I believe that this great question of a free ballot, so far as it affects Wisconsin, will be settled this year if the men of the south who believe with us upon the great question of election of a free ballot, will be settled by the men of the south who believe with us upon the great question of election of a free ballot.

These intelligent and patriotic citizens of the south who are seeking to build up within their own states diversified industries will not much longer be kept in bondage to the traditions of a few planters.

When they assert their belief in a protective tariff by supporting the party that advocates that policy, the question of a free ballot is a southern question, will be settled for ever.

For they will have the power to influence the men of the south who believe with us upon the great question of election of a free ballot, and that their votes shall be counted.

General Harrison then shook hands as usual with the delegates from Indiana and Wisconsin.

Extensive preparations are being made by the republicans for a great state rally on the 11th when Mr. Morton, Senator Sherman, and Blaine will be present.

Mr. Hovey, Governor Foraker, General Gibson and others are expected here. Lincoln league clubs from several counties will be present, and the committee of arrangements representing the republican state committee announce that the demonstration will be held in the afternoon at the city hall.

Mr. Jewett's proposition declined. The republican committee, to the proposition of Chairman Jewett, of the democratic state committee, to Chairman Huston, of the republican committee, that each should name forty-five members and the prohibitionists ten members to constitute a committee of 100, whose duty it shall be to prevent illegal voting, Chairman Huston today makes a reply to Chairman Jewett, who is as follows:

You are doubtless aware that there is now existing a committee of 100, which is non-partisan in its character. Being already organized and having had valuable experience in the work it was organized to accomplish, it can certainly be more effective than any other committee that might be formed at this time.

With the consent and hearty approval of our committee I have forwarded to the treasurer of this committee my check for $100, which I have expended under their direction in giving rewards for the apprehension of any persons violating the law in any way.

Republicans are now, and ever have been, in favor of an honest ballot and a fair count.

S. P. Shoeris, secretary of the national democratic committee, in a public meeting last evening thanking Chairman Huston's response, said:

I regard Chairman Huston's reply as a most effective and timely contribution to the campaign that the managers of the republican campaign are not only in favor of an honest election but in opposition to it.

It is untrue that the committee made up of equally of democrats and republicans. The truth is that two-thirds of the local committee of 100 are democrats.

The facility with which Chairman Huston, after the receipt of Chairman Jewett's letter, dumped $500 of the republican campaign into the treasury of the local committee is a fact which is a most positive fact that his intentions are to make it a convenient excuse for a refusal to enter into organization for the enforcement of the law without fear or favor.

The Old Roman's Tour. WHEELING, Oct. 5.—Judge Thurman and party left Columbus yesterday, and until Baltimore was reached at 5 o'clock, there was an attempt at demonstration, only a few people about the different depots being aware of the judge's arrival.

However, at Baltimore a couple of hundred enthusiastic democrats with a band to help to give expression to their enthusiasm had assembled on the platform to greet their chosen candidate.

The train pulled through they cheered heartily while the judge stood in the door and bowed to the thousands of admirers who lined the benches on the West Virginia side of the river, a number of railroaders and others were over their greetings.

When Wheeling was reached a crowd of over one thousand, with fireworks and band, gave a hearty greeting to the judge. The judge spoke briefly, expressing his sincere thanks for the cordial reception which he had received at this place.

After taking a train reached Pittsburgh a crowd was waiting to meet the judge. After some persuasion the judge stepped out, and immediately he was able to keep his grand rapid appointment on Monday next.

Blaine Slightly Indisposed. DETROIT, Oct. 5.—In consequence of a slight cold and hoarseness which developed since his speech in the open air at Adrian yesterday, Blaine determined this morning to give up his trip to East Saginaw and return to Detroit.

Blaine is at the residence here of General Alger, where he will remain until Monday, when he will fill his engagement at Grand Rapids and from that point will proceed to Indian, which he declined the proposed reception of the Chicago Union League. He will arrive in Chicago about October 17 or 18.

Mr. Blaine did not arise from his bed until late this afternoon, when he took dinner with Mrs. Alger and family. This evening he received Mr. James F. Joy and a number of other callers.

Walker Blaine said to the reporter to-night that his father would undoubtedly be able to keep his grand rapid appointment on Monday next.

Sherman on Annexation. PIRAZZO, Oct. 5.—Senator Sherman was in the city to-day, on a route from New York.

In an interview he said that congress would probably adjourn in a week. There would be no vote on the tariff bill, but at the next session of congress the new tariff bill will be undoubtedly passed.

Referring to the annexation of Canada, he said: "I consider that it is only a question of time until Canada is a part of the United States. Whether it be one year or ten years, Canada will be undoubtedly annexed."

Tammany Nominates. NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—Delegates to the Tammany county convention met to-night in the wigwag and voted a straight out Tammany county ticket. The leaders were in conference all day, and many messages were exchanged with the leaders of the county democracy.

Tammany submitted five names to the "counties" as the only ones upon whom they could unite. The first two, Grant and Dugro, were rejected promptly, and finally O'Donohue and Cox were voted out.

Roswell P. Flower was the only one acceptable to the "counties" and he was elected for more than to consider the question of his nomination.

Feeling that they had waited long enough, the Tammany leaders decided to select their own candidates, and proceeded with the narrow vote of the county democracy. Flower was the temporary chairman of the convention.

Resolutions were unanimously adopted in support of the organization for the election of a free ballot, and denouncing the reactionary principles of the republican national and state parties.

The administrations of President Cleveland and Governor Hill were endorsed, and operations of trusts denounced as criminal. Cleveland and Governor Hill were also cheered, and a resolution was passed to elect a free ballot, and a better municipal government was also called for.

The resolution was adopted, and the county democracy had disgraced all overtures and called for nomination of a free ballot, and a better municipal government was also called for.

FIRST RALLY AT FREMONT.

A Glorious Day For the Democracy of Nebraska.

THE CITY IN HOLIDAY ATTIRE.

A Royal Reception Tendered the Democratic Clubs of the State—An Enthusiastic Demonstration—Other State News.

The Democratic Rally. FREMONT, Neb., Oct. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BE.]—In addition to this being the closing day of the Dodge county fair it has also been a glorious occasion for Nebraska's democracy.

The city is jam full of people—democrats who came to participate in the rally of clubs of the democratic state league, and hundreds of republicans who also came to see the protechnic display and hear the free trade orators deliver their orations on the subject, "The Condition Which Confronts Us." There are probably 5,000 strangers in the city to-night.

The business men have been preparing for the demonstration for several days, and their stores present a holiday appearance, gaudily bedecked with flags and bunting.

Chinese lanterns and portraits of the candidates of the democratic party. At the intersections of the principal business streets banners bearing various inscriptions are fluttering in the breeze, while a string of Chinese lanterns are suspended across the streets in the opposite direction.

Some of the inscriptions are: "The Democratic Party is the Friend of the Laboring Man and the Farmer," "Cleveland, Thurman and Victory," "The Fremont Cleveland and Thurman club engineers the blow out."

Their reception committee has been very busy all day and their guests have been entertained in the style of the local Cleveland and McShane societies, with their attractive uniforms, have acted as a great attraction.

The high delegation came in before noon from Wahoo. By dark the whole town was ablaze and the heavens resplended with the glare of colored lights. It is but just to say that Fremont never witnessed such a glittering demonstration.

Large delegations came from Creswell, Lincoln, Columbus, Hurler, North Bend, Hooper, Scribner and other towns. The delegation from Omaha did not arrive until late in the evening, but was already formed and had been awaiting the Omaha delegates' arrival for more than an hour.

When they came the parade band, and there was a grand march on the principal streets until 10:30. There were 1,200 or 1,500 uniformed men in line, with bands of music and scores of flags and banners.

ing was addressed by Rev. H. A. Guild, of Lincoln, who arraigned the democratic administration for its ungrateful attitude towards the union soldiers and its inconsistent course in the Chinese and other foreign matters.

He also arraigned the third parties for their inconsistent attitude towards the republican party, and for the ungratefulness shown by some of the leaders of that party, who owe their all to the republican party. It was a patriotic address, and has done much to excite the republicans and bring recruits from other parties.

A GAND INLAND FLEW FROM A GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Oct. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BE.]—Ottoer Leake returned this morning at 1:40 from North Platte, having in charge J. Pearson and the two girls who had been induced away from home. The train was met by about forty men, and had the brute fallen into their hands, justice would have been meted out in short order.

But the officer, fearing something of the kind, got the train on the opposite side from the crowd, and in the excitement made his way to his house, where he kept his prisoner until morning, when he lodged him in the county jail. Pearson came here from Aurora nearly a year ago and was cook in a restaurant by a woman whom he claimed as his wife, and who is now in a bawdy house. About a month ago he made the acquaintance of two young girls, both under the age of sixteen years, whom he induced, under the promise of money and fine clothes, to go to Kearney with him, and there he sold them to a man who took them to North Platte, continuing his fiendish practice. But here he was arrested by Officer Leake, who was sent out by a sister of one of the girls.

Pearson is about thirty-six years of age. He will have his preliminary examination next Tuesday. Both girls gave bonds to appear at court on Monday, and in the excitement has abated and no trouble is anticipated.

THE NICARAGUAN CANAL.

LINCOLN PORT OF ENTRY BILL.

The Measure to Be Called Upon Monday—A Rumor That the President Will Recommend the Passage of the Senate Tariff Bill.

Angry Republicans. WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BE.]—The measure was called upon in the house four or five times this week, and would have been passed had it not been for the opposition of Representative Fuller of Iowa. All of the democratic opposition was withdrawn this afternoon in the house and Mr. Fuller alone stood out against the bill, although a lot of republicans begged him to desist. It is stated that Mr. Fuller's objection is that he understands the projectors of the canal propose to give the democratic national committee a large contribution for inducing the democrats in the house to withdraw their objection, but I have it on good authority that there is no truth in the report. The president of the company is the president of the house of Representatives of New York, and is one of the most substantial supporters of the republican party in the country. It is amazing why Mr. Fuller continues to object to the bill.

LINCOLN TO BE A PORT OF ENTRY. It was arranged with Speaker Carlisle this afternoon that he will recognize Mr. Rice, of Minnesota, on next Monday to call up the bill making Lincoln a port of entry. There is little if any doubt that the bill will be passed on Monday.

ONLY A RUMOR. There was a rumor very prevalent to-day to the effect that Mr. Cleveland is contemplating the repeal of the measure recommending the passage of the senate tariff bill. The reason alleged for this recommendation is that the measure, although, in his opinion, not so good a bill as the Mills bill, is better than none at all, and that it would prevent the further accumulation of the surplus.

It was stated that Mr. Cleveland certainly be passed if supported by both parties, which will certainly never occur to the Mills bill, because of the republican opposition. It is also stated that Mr. Cleveland does not reach the market till late in the spring and summer.
