It is interesting to you. Look for it.

The attention of the street commissioner is called to the fact that the broken stone left by the Broadway pavers is valuable for re-pairing the unpaved streets about the city. There are several places where it could be used to great advantage, as it would make a good roadbed where there would otherwise be deep mud during the spring. It can be better employed than for grading up vacant

NEWS IN COUNCIL BLUFFS.

A Move to Call Alderman Water-OFFICE NO 12 PEARL STREET. man to Account.

THE CITY WINS THE LYMAN CASE.

Prisoners Sentenced to the Penitentiary - The Churches To-day-Frank James in Town-Republican Rally, Getting After An Alderman.

It seems that the public is not entirely satsfied with everything done by the council during the past year, and is taking steps to make it interesting for some of the members of that body. Proceedings have been instituted to impeach Alderman Waterman. This member of the council is the chairman of the fire committee, and has found it very convenient, since being in office, to send the fire department apparatus around to his carriage manufactory on North Main street to receive a coat of paint at $75 per hose reel, and so on down the list. The law distinctly says that no algerman shall contract to do any work for the city, hence the impending

When Waterman ordered the two double reels painted last spring there was quite a howl, but nothing was done about it but to pay the bills when they were presented. Everything went on quietly until a few days ago, when the single hook and ladder truck followed in the wake of the horse reels to the top floor of Waterman's carriage rerpository.

Then the taxpayers began to kick, and they kicked hard. Messrs, Mynster & Lindt are the attorneys for the prosecutors of the case.

They are somewhat reticent about it, but express the belief that it does not amount to much. The general sentiments of the citizens was expressed by a prominent business man esterday. He said: "We don't kick so much because he did the work, as because he charged four prices for it after it was done." On the other side Alderman Waterman On the other side Alderman waterman has at least the advantage of precedent on his side. It has been customary, notwithstanding the statutory prohibition, to buy city supplies from business houses in which aldermen were interested. Lumber has been bought of aldermen, hardware, furniture and other supplies. Probably in Alderman Waterman's case there would be no such talk as at present were it not for the peculiar circumstances. The fire department boys are kept on duty a good many hours at a stretch, and although in some respects they stretch, and although in some respects they more than earn their salaries, yet they have much idle time on their hands. Heretofore they have employed part of this in repainting the hose carts and have done some excellent work. The saving to the city was considerable. It seems that if the city ever needed to be economical it is now, when there are so many improvements to pay for. It is understood that John Short is the chief backer of the impeachment move. If it has no stronger backing than this the t has no stronger backing than this the alderman is in no immediate danger.

The P. E. O. will meet with Miss Badollet Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock. A full attendance is desired as business of importance will come before the meeting.

One for the City.

Congressman Lyman has met with defeat n his suit against the city. Some time ago there was some sidewalk improvement made in front of his residence. The amount was only a few dollars, but he objected to paying it on the ground that personal service was not made upon him. The notice of the as-sessment was published in one of the daily papers, but Mr. Lyman claimed that while this might do for non-resident, and where owners of property were not known, it would not do for residents, who should be personally served. Judge Deemer sustained him, and ruled against the city. Steps were then taken to prevent others from escaping through this same loop-hole. A large number of personal notices were served, where assessments had already been published. Now the case has reached the supreme court and has been reversed. This victory for the city is another feather in City Attorney Holmes' hat, which is getting pretty well covered. Holmes has certainly made a good many successful fights

Sentenced to the Pen.

Another batch of criminals received their sentences in the district court yesterday norning, and the number of criminals now in the county jail waiting transportation to Ft. Madison is fifteen. They will be sent over the road this week. Those sentenced yesterday were John Murray and John Lee, larceny of a watch chain from Robinson Bros., one year each. Appeal bond $600, Peter Johnson, larceny of horse and buggy, two years. Appeal bond $1,000. L Herman Berch, assault and battery, $25 and costs, to stand committed until paid.

Thomas Kelley, larceny from the Atlantic house, eighteen months. Appeal bond $700.

Henry Winston, largeny from Robinson Bros., two years. Appeal bond $1,000. Solomon Gross, receiving property stolen rom Garneau residence, five years. Appeal from Garneau residence, five years.

The prisoner's council filed a motion for arrest of Judgment, also for a new trial, but both were overruled. An attempt was made to discover the location of the diamonds, but without success. The Grosses are believed to know where they are at present but they refuse to tell. It is thought that so many persons are now implicated that they dare not give it up. Some think that Solomon Gross believes the value of the precious stones to be great enough to compensate him for his five years' labor in the penitentiary. W. P. Talbot, the Dunbar forger, was sentenced to eighteen months. The members of the bar and Rev. T. J. Mackay interposed in the prisoner's behalf and asked for a lighter sentence, as Talbot has been in jail for six months, and the elemency of the court was asked in behalf of the prisoner's wife and Frank James in Town. A middle-aged, business-like appearing man was standing at Officer & Pusey's book counter yesterday, endeavoring to get a draft cashed for $20. The bank clerk had refused as there was no one to identify the stranger. "Isn't there any one around here from Missouri!" asked the stranger. There was no one, and the suggestion was made that there was a Missouri man at the Globe office. He stepped in there, and meeting Dan Farrell, explained to him his dilemma. The stranger was "broke," and wanted to be identified at the bank. He did not care to give his name. Ex-Sheriff Farrell remarked, "You needn't tell me your name, I know you. You're Frank James." It was a surprise party, but Farrell soon recalled the incidents of a former meeting. Frank James is now engaged in business in Independence, Mo. S. Bernard's Hospital. The medical staff of St. Bernard's held the annual meeting yesterday afternoon. Dr. J. Green was elected president, and Dr. Hooton secretary for the ensuing year. It was decided to take steps toward getting better pay for the sisters during the next year than they have received during the past. Said one of the physicians yesterday to THE BEE man. "There is no denying the fact that these noble women have been greatly imposed upon during the past year. They handled 130 cases, and there were only six deaths. Now the majority of these were charity cases for which they did not receive a cent. The county sends its sick there and pays but $2 a week. It is evident to anyone that this is not enough. We propose to change this state of affairs so that the county shall pay $5 a week if it wants its sick taken care of. The sisters can not afford to do all of this charity work. They have to plan to make payments on their property, and it is asking too much of them to sit up nights, care for the patients and furnish everything. A great many have been sent, there, for whom either the city or county should have paid, and they must do it this year.

A woman said to a BEE man the other "Where can I find a house? I listed my property with Tipton on Sat-urday, and he came in Monday at 10 o'clock, and said: 'I've sold you out;' and so I've got to move."

There is no inflation in the prices of your property. We are selling far be-low the real value and what will be asked for it even thirty days from now. Come and see us if you wish to purchase anykind of property. BENSON & SHEPHERD.

Rally at Walnut.

The republicans of Walnut will have a grand rally and demonstration next Wednesday evening on the occasion of the visit of Governor Larrabee to that town for a political speech. The republican clubs of adjoining towns have been invited to participate and are expected to attend in force. O. M. Brown will be marshal on the occasion. The republicans of Walnut are awake and propose to spread themselves on this occa-sion. Brass, martial and vocal music will be furnished in abundance. THE REASON WHY J. G. Tipton sells more real estate than any man in the city is because he makes it a specialty and knows a bargain; hence knows where patrons can invest their money to the best advantage. He is honest and people know it. Among the hundreds to whom he has sold property you never hear a complaint. He is a lawyer and a good judge of abstract titles, and never lets a piece of property go through his hands until all defects if any, are corrected. People list their property with him because he will sell People go to him to buy because they know he has the largest list, and handles nothing but bargains. That's

A Wet Cellar.

The cellar that was excavated under the No. 4 hose house on Upper Breadway has thus far been uscless, as a spring keeps it half full of water. An attempt is to be made to drain it, and the broken stone and gravel cleaned up on Broadway, behind the pavers, will be dumped in there to secure a hard bottom. The cellar was built to hold the heating apparatus of the building, but up to the present time it has been impossible to store anything in it. It serves very well to give the boys exercise in cleaning it out, but, strange to say, they do not relish the job.
