

THE DAILY BEE.

COUNCIL BLUFFS. OFFICE NO 12 PEARL STREET. Delivered by carrier in ANY Part of the City at Twenty Cents Per Week.

MINOR MENTION. N. Y. Plumbing Company. Best plumber at Adams' shoe store.

The Sapp residence on Oakland avenue is being completely refitted and greatly improved.

Squire Bezes married Tamblin M. Hamel and Jennie E. Conkling, both of Omaha, yesterday afternoon.

A bunch of keys awaits an owner at the police station. The owner can have them back and turned over to the chief of police.

The Berean Baptist church can meet no longer at All Saints chapel. They resolved last night to build a house for themselves on western Broadway.

The Chautauque circle meets to-morrow evening at the board of trade rooms. Every-body is invited. Greek history and literature will take up most of the evening.

A pair of gold bowed spectacles in a case were found on Bryant street yesterday afternoon. The owner can have the same by applying at the office of the city marshal.

The Southwestern Baptist association has been in session this week at Shenandoah. Rev. Dr. Cooley, who was in attendance has returned and will occupy his pulpit as usual to-day.

Local farmers turned out in force yesterday evening to a report during the preceding night a large flock of mallards had straggled at Big Lake on their way south. Several fine bags were secured.

The Little Eastern mission lecture at the Presbyterian church Thursday evening, October 13. Tickets for sale at Camp & Elk's drug store. General admission 35 cents. Children under twelve years 15 cents.

The brick and other material for Keyes Bros' new car and buggy factory is being delivered on the site of the proposed new building, and work will shortly be commenced. It is the intention of the company to move their plant here by the first of the year.

The celebrated stallion "Cyclone" will serve a few more patrons during the present season. A large number have been already refused, being undesirable, and as the number wanted is limited they will be secured immediately. "Cyclone" can be found at the driving park, Council Bluffs.

Any demerit who is anxious to hazard a little of his cash on the result of the election, can be accommodated by applying to the junior proprietor of the Manhattan. Money can be left in trust for any purpose and placed in $100 lots, either on New York, Indiana, or on the general result.

Ed Rogers, the fifteen-year-old son of Jake Rogers, was run over while riding his bicycle on Bryant street yesterday. He was knocked from his wheel and trampled by the horses. He was removed to his home on Vine street and medical attendance summoned. His injuries are very painful but not serious. He was considerably bruised but fortunately no bones were broken.

The social evil question is arousing much thought and discussion here. The pulpits will voice the sentiments of the churches upon this question to-day. Agents who will deliver discourses this evening from their respective pulpits are, Rev. Dr. Cooley, at the Baptist church; Rev. P. McKee, at the Presbyterian; and Rev. T. J. Mackey, at St. Paul's Episcopal.

The parties accused of stopping a "Q" mail train en route to Omaha Sunday afternoon had their examination before United States Commissioner Hunter yesterday morning. Eight of them were bound over to the United States grand jury, which meets next March, in suits ranging from $100 to $400. They were unable to secure bonds and were committed to the county jail. Two of the party, Thomas Hughes and Fred Hartner, proved an alibi and were discharged. It is probable that the greater part of those bound over will secure the necessary bonds and avoid a five months' wait in jail.

HE BUILDED BETTER THAN HE KNEW. Was It Judicious Advertising, or Was It Unusual Merit in the Property That Did It?

A week ago Ernestus A. Benson platted Twin City Place on the Council Bluffs side of the new bridge and advertised in THE BEE that he would give 10 per cent discount off the plat prices and would require no cash payment for the first twenty-five houses to be built within a specified time. Also, that he had contracted with a mammoth carriage factory to be located on these grounds in the near future. Only five lots remain to be sold at the 20 per cent discount. Work on the factory has already begun.

In close proximity to Twin City Place Mr. Benson sold, this week, an entire block to the Piano Manufacturing company, one of the largest companies in the country. David Bradley & Co. have also purchased building grounds, as well as the Peru Plow company. No such development in the same length of time has before been witnessed in either city.

Boots, shoes, Kinnehan's, 326 B'way. E. H. Sheafe loans money on chattel security of every description. Private consulting rooms. All business strictly confidential. Office 500 Broadway, corner Main street, up-stairs.

See Forrest Smith's special column. One-Sided Discipline. Charles Saunders, himself, has been held No. 3, was yesterday suspended by Chief Waters for absenting himself from the fire house where he was stationed, while on duty, and also for getting drunk. There seems to be a misunderstanding between the men and it should be explained. The trouble in the department seems to be that all the boys do not "stand in." Certain members can get drunk, leave their posts and raise Cain generally, but nothing is ever said about it. Another fire lad lies on the same thing, and is summarily bounced. There is undoubtedly a "privilege" class in the department and those who do not belong had better "look a little odd."

Two Hundred Dollars a Week. Last Monday we sold six lots to two gentlemen in Omaha. Yesterday afternoon they refused, through us, an offer of $200 profit on one of them. These lots are on Broadway in Benson's second addition. If you have any money and want to do as well, call on us to-morrow and we will show you how it is done. BENSON & SHEPHERD, Masonic Temple.

J. G. Tipton has bargains in real estate. The finish on our collars, cuffs and shirts cannot be equalled. Cascade Laundry Co. See Forrest Smith's special column.

Attention, Sir Knights! Ivanhoe Commandery, No. 17, K. P., will meet in special convocation Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Order of the Temple. Visiting Sir Knights cordially invited. By order E. C.

Died. I have the only and sole agency for a number of fine lots in the western part of the city, that I can sell on easy terms and at prices that will double your money. I am the only surviving agent for this property. The other agent died when he saw me. J. G. TIPTON.

The actual purpose of my said liquor is to make use of the same for a coat, yearling, without name, residing on my farm, and the same is to be used for medicinal purposes, and neither myself nor the said liquor are in the habit of using intoxicating liquors as a beverage. Short Sighted Officials. The city officials do not propose to do anything to stop the tide of prostitution immigration setting this way from Omaha, but will collect fines from the new arrivals the same as from those now here. Said one of the officials yesterday: "We will probably have to follow Omaha's example after a while, and banish from our streets all the girls of the city, but it isn't necessary at present." He failed to clearly express his idea of necessity. It is rumored that the boys will establish themselves in the vicinity of the new bridge in the western part of the city. If such is the case, perhaps the council will find it "necessary" to take steps to abate the nuisance.

Turning the Tables. The case of State of Iowa vs Pearl Rodgers was called in Squire Riggs court yesterday afternoon, being taken there from Justice Schurz on a change of venue. Attorney Lindt, who appeared for the defense, argued that the defendant could not be tried in Iowa for a crime alleged to have been committed in Nebraska, and the court sustained him by discharging the prisoner. Mr. Lindt then stated that the case was one of blackmail, and wanted a warrant issued for the arrest of the prosecuting witness, Lou Emerson, Ida Louise, and "one other girl, name unknown, with a pair of black eyes." The party skipped out, and will probably avoid arrest.
