

THE CITY.

The internal revenue collections yesterday amounted to $8,931.90. The Norwegian and Danish M. E. church has filed articles of incorporation.

The Omaha Wheel club gives a soiree Saturday night at the club house. Refreshments will be served.

Reader—The word "bushelman" used in an article in which reference was made to the tailoring business, means in the parlance of the trade an over-hauler of clothes, a repairer and mender.

The well-known form of "Whisky Jack" was carried into the police station last night. Some one had "staked" Jack to a load of whisky, and he laid himself down on the middle of the sidewalk and went to sleep.

The ladies having charge of the proposed bazaar to be held at the Omaha Guards' armory, for the purpose of raising a fund to send the guards to Washington at the time of the inauguration, held their first meeting at the Paxton yesterday.

The personal case of Henry Hornberger came up in the police court Tuesday, and for the third time the jury disagreed.

The local coal dealers on the various roads, especially on the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha, have already laid in a full supply of coal for the coming winter.

In an investigation of the plumbing of the postoffice building it has been discovered that a four-inch horizontal pipe had been put in to carry off the slush of a six-inch pipe, which justifies the many complaints at the building.

Applications for space in the approaching fall exhibition of the Western Art association at the Lininger gallery are beginning to come in.

J. T. Malley was arrested last evening by Officer Drummy charged with cutting Daniel Barner with a pen knife.

Thomas Carey applied for admission to the county poor farm, but as he is a non-resident he was refused.

A kit of carpenter's tools were taken from a Tenth street pawnshop yesterday, as being stolen goods, and brought to the police station.

A runaway was reported at a late hour under the Sixteenth street viaduct. Nobody was known to be hurt, but the buggy was smashed to pieces.

Judge Pinsky is home with a number of troubles in his back.

Major C. J. Dickey and Lieutenant Terrett, Fort Robinson, are at the Paxton.

C. E. Tripp and W. M. Wilson, prominent railroad men, are at the Murray.

Miss Eva Caldwell, of Orange, Cal., a niece of the editor of the New York Mercury, is the guest of Mrs. Clement Chase.

Mr. Henry T. Lighty, of the firm of McKinley & Lanning, Hastings, arrived yesterday to be the guest for a few days of the editor of the Excelsior.

Leave of absence has been granted to First Lieutenant William R. Abernethy, of the Second infantry, as also Captain Joseph W. Duncan, of the Twenty-first infantry, Fort Sully.

The Rev. Bishop John F. Hurst, one of the senior bishops of the Methodist Episcopal church, spent yesterday in this city.

Sheriff Coburn took only three incorrigibles to the reform school yesterday instead of four. It is a practice of the court to let some of the youngsters return home after being sentenced, on the promise of their parents to deliver them up when wanted.

H. Sieman. The capital stock is $250,000, and $100,000 is to be subscribed before beginning business.

A Novel Suit. Daniel Donovan has brought suit in the court of Justice O'Connell against John E. Johnson.

A Bankers' Convention. Joseph Millard, of the Omaha National bank, returned yesterday from Cincinnati, where he attended the convention of the American Bankers' association.

The soft glow of the tea rose is acquired by those who use Pizzoni's Complexion Powder. Try it.

CLAIMS TO BE NEUTRAL. A Liquor Dealer Defines the Position of the Association.

About the reports that are current that the liquor men of Omaha have formed an association for the purpose of raising money for the support of the democratic candidate at the pending election, a taxpayer and member of the association yesterday said:

See Peyske Bros for pear cider.

What are your political proclivities? I am a republican, and I think that are other questions of a great deal more importance to the general welfare of the American people than the prohibitory law.

Thousands of Dollars are spent every year by the people of this state for worthless medicines for the cure of throat and lung diseases.

KICKED DOWN STAIRS. The Punishment Received by a Brute at the Music.

The curio hall of the Museum was the scene of an exciting event Tuesday evening.

Personal Paragraphs. Judge Pinsky is home with a number of troubles in his back.

Major C. J. Dickey and Lieutenant Terrett, Fort Robinson, are at the Paxton.

C. E. Tripp and W. M. Wilson, prominent railroad men, are at the Murray.

Miss Eva Caldwell, of Orange, Cal., a niece of the editor of the New York Mercury, is the guest of Mrs. Clement Chase.

Mr. Henry T. Lighty, of the firm of McKinley & Lanning, Hastings, arrived yesterday to be the guest for a few days of the editor of the Excelsior.

Leave of absence has been granted to First Lieutenant William R. Abernethy, of the Second infantry, as also Captain Joseph W. Duncan, of the Twenty-first infantry, Fort Sully.

The Rev. Bishop John F. Hurst, one of the senior bishops of the Methodist Episcopal church, spent yesterday in this city.

Sheriff Coburn took only three incorrigibles to the reform school yesterday instead of four. It is a practice of the court to let some of the youngsters return home after being sentenced, on the promise of their parents to deliver them up when wanted.

The third night of the Hebrew charity fair was more interesting than the first, the attendance being greatly increased and new attractions were added.

Another Big Financial Concern. The United States Loan and Investment company filed articles of incorporation yesterday afternoon.

Men of high standing testify to its virtues.

Dr. J. E. McGrew, Specialists.

Dr. J. E. McGrew, Specialists.

BEFORE IT IS BORN.

Some Startling Statements of General Interest. Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes, on being asked, when the training of a child should begin, replied, "A hundred years before it is born."

Whether in the palace of pure delight, described by the eastern romancer, returned yesterday from Cincinnati, where he attended the convention of the American Bankers' association.

What were these remedies? What were they used for? After untiring and diligent search they have obtained the formulas so generally used for various disorders.

Now the question is, how will the olden time preparations affect the people of this age, who have been treated, under modern medical schools and codes, with poisonous and injurious drugs.

Among them is what is known as Warner's Log Cabin sarsaparilla, and they frankly announce that they do not consider the sarsaparilla of so much value in itself as it is in the combination of the various ingredients which together work marvelously upon the system.

What are your political proclivities? I am a republican, and I think that are other questions of a great deal more importance to the general welfare of the American people than the prohibitory law.

Thousands of Dollars are spent every year by the people of this state for worthless medicines for the cure of throat and lung diseases.

KICKED DOWN STAIRS. The Punishment Received by a Brute at the Music.

The curio hall of the Museum was the scene of an exciting event Tuesday evening.

Personal Paragraphs. Judge Pinsky is home with a number of troubles in his back.

Major C. J. Dickey and Lieutenant Terrett, Fort Robinson, are at the Paxton.

C. E. Tripp and W. M. Wilson, prominent railroad men, are at the Murray.

Miss Eva Caldwell, of Orange, Cal., a niece of the editor of the New York Mercury, is the guest of Mrs. Clement Chase.

Mr. Henry T. Lighty, of the firm of McKinley & Lanning, Hastings, arrived yesterday to be the guest for a few days of the editor of the Excelsior.

Leave of absence has been granted to First Lieutenant William R. Abernethy, of the Second infantry, as also Captain Joseph W. Duncan, of the Twenty-first infantry, Fort Sully.

The Rev. Bishop John F. Hurst, one of the senior bishops of the Methodist Episcopal church, spent yesterday in this city.

Sheriff Coburn took only three incorrigibles to the reform school yesterday instead of four. It is a practice of the court to let some of the youngsters return home after being sentenced, on the promise of their parents to deliver them up when wanted.

The third night of the Hebrew charity fair was more interesting than the first, the attendance being greatly increased and new attractions were added.

Another Big Financial Concern. The United States Loan and Investment company filed articles of incorporation yesterday afternoon.

Men of high standing testify to its virtues.

Dr. J. E. McGrew, Specialists.

Dr. J. E. McGrew, Specialists.

Dr. J. E. McGrew, Specialists.

Dr. J. E. McGrew, Specialists.

R. Engelmann for $431.14 for goods furnished.

The same plaintiffs sue J. H. McCarty and F. J. Barrett for judgment for $261.20 and interest on a note.

The Nebraska University. The formal opening of the Nebraska Methodist university will take place at Lincoln the 24th at 2 o'clock p. m.

Whether in the palace of pure delight, described by the eastern romancer, returned yesterday from Cincinnati, where he attended the convention of the American Bankers' association.

What were these remedies? What were they used for? After untiring and diligent search they have obtained the formulas so generally used for various disorders.

Now the question is, how will the olden time preparations affect the people of this age, who have been treated, under modern medical schools and codes, with poisonous and injurious drugs.

Among them is what is known as Warner's Log Cabin sarsaparilla, and they frankly announce that they do not consider the sarsaparilla of so much value in itself as it is in the combination of the various ingredients which together work marvelously upon the system.

What are your political proclivities? I am a republican, and I think that are other questions of a great deal more importance to the general welfare of the American people than the prohibitory law.

Thousands of Dollars are spent every year by the people of this state for worthless medicines for the cure of throat and lung diseases.

KICKED DOWN STAIRS. The Punishment Received by a Brute at the Music.

The curio hall of the Museum was the scene of an exciting event Tuesday evening.

Personal Paragraphs. Judge Pinsky is home with a number of troubles in his back.

Major C. J. Dickey and Lieutenant Terrett, Fort Robinson, are at the Paxton.

C. E. Tripp and W. M. Wilson, prominent railroad men, are at the Murray.

Miss Eva Caldwell, of Orange, Cal., a niece of the editor of the New York Mercury, is the guest of Mrs. Clement Chase.

Mr. Henry T. Lighty, of the firm of McKinley & Lanning, Hastings, arrived yesterday to be the guest for a few days of the editor of the Excelsior.

Leave of absence has been granted to First Lieutenant William R. Abernethy, of the Second infantry, as also Captain Joseph W. Duncan, of the Twenty-first infantry, Fort Sully.

The Rev. Bishop John F. Hurst, one of the senior bishops of the Methodist Episcopal church, spent yesterday in this city.

Sheriff Coburn took only three incorrigibles to the reform school yesterday instead of four. It is a practice of the court to let some of the youngsters return home after being sentenced, on the promise of their parents to deliver them up when wanted.

The third night of the Hebrew charity fair was more interesting than the first, the attendance being greatly increased and new attractions were added.

Another Big Financial Concern. The United States Loan and Investment company filed articles of incorporation yesterday afternoon.

Men of high standing testify to its virtues.

Dr. J. E. McGrew, Specialists.

Dr. J. E. McGrew, Specialists.

Dr. J. E. McGrew, Specialists.

WE SHALL OPEN

The upper floor of our new addition on Wednesday, October 17th. The ground floor will not be ready before Monday, when we will open the entire building with a stock of goods for Men's Wear second to nothing in this country.

Our hat department on the second floor of the new addition will be in working order Wednesday morning. This department occupies the entire second floor of the extension, and contains more hats than half a dozen exclusive hat stores together.

We will make some heavy sacrifices this week in Boys' Suits and Overcoats to close out some broken lots in order to make room for some large invoices purchased especially for our next week's opening.

In underwear we offer this week some matchless bargains. We will place on sale to-morrow the following special drives: 100 dozen elegant Scotch Mixed Shirts and Drawers at 35c each.

ONE PRICE ONLY. Nebraska Clothing Company. Cor. 14th and Douglas Streets, Omaha.

Robinson & Harmon. IT WILL PAY YOU TO examine our present stock of MENS' UNDERWEAR, comprising all grades at fair prices.

Nebraska National Bank. U. S. DEPOSITORY, OMAHA, NEB. Paid Up Capital $400,000 Surplus 50,000

The Iron Bank. A General Banking Business Transacted. FARM AND OMAHA CITY LOANS.

Health is Wealth! WILBOR'S COMPOUND OF PURE COD LIVER OIL AND LIME.

Dr. J. E. McGrew, Specialists. One of the Most Successful SPECIALISTS In the Treatment of all Chronic or the So-called Incurable Diseases.

Dr. J. E. McGrew, Specialists. One of the Most Successful SPECIALISTS In the Treatment of all Chronic or the So-called Incurable Diseases.

STEEL PENS. JOSEPH GILLOTTS. GOLD MEDAL PARIS EXPOSITION 1875. No. 303-404-170-804.

STEEL PENS. JOSEPH GILLOTTS. GOLD MEDAL PARIS EXPOSITION 1875. No. 303-404-170-804.

OMAHA MEDICAL & SURGICAL INSTITUTE. N. W. Cor. 13th and Dodge Sts.

Chronic and Surgical Diseases. APPLIANCES FOR DEFORMITIES AND TRUSSES.

PRIVATE DISEASES. All Blood Diseases successfully treated.

Your Left Liver IS OUT OF ORDER? READ THIS IF IT IS.

Dr. Callender's Left Liver Bitters. The Only Distilled Bitters in the United States.

STEEL PENS. JOSEPH GILLOTTS. GOLD MEDAL PARIS EXPOSITION 1875.

STEEL PENS. JOSEPH GILLOTTS. GOLD MEDAL PARIS EXPOSITION 1875.

STEEL PENS. JOSEPH GILLOTTS. GOLD MEDAL PARIS EXPOSITION 1875.