The Y. M. C. A. Convention.

Beatrice, Neb., Oct. 26.—Special Telegram to The Bee.—The annual convention of the Y. M. C. A. opened at 9 o'clock this morning at the Presbyterian church with L. B. Palmer, of Hastings, in the chair. The officers elected for the ensuing year were: President, W. F. Ringland, of Hastings college; first vice-president, George A. Joplin, of Omaha; second vice-president, E. H. Jones, secretary, T. A. Leary, of Lincoln; assistant secretary, T. A. Leary; treasurer, A. W. Shaw; stenographer, J. W. Hazleton. Stenographic reports were submitted by Mr. Taylor, treasurer, State Secretary Nash, and George A. Joplin, chairman of executive committee. In his report Mr. Joplin recommends that $1,000 be raised for the work of the year, and that $1,500 of this amount be raised at this convention. The reports read this morning from different associations contain the following: The Hastings association has been made towards the Lincoln building. Omaha reports that the Omaha association has been made towards the Omaha building. Kearney organized August 17, 1888. Hastings organized in 1881, has 10 members, and sixty conversions during the year. Fairbury organized July 22, 1888, has fifty-four members, and occupies three nice rooms. Bel Air organized February 23, 1888, has four rooms, ninety-one members, forty-seven members of boys branch, four conversions during the year. Nebraska City reports that they have not a good leader in their association (yearly). The association there has twenty-four members in the boys branch, and one conversion. Fairbury organized July 22, 1888, has fifty-four members, and occupies three nice rooms. Weeping Water made no report. Valparaiso has twenty-six members, and occupies three nice rooms. June 6, 1886, has thirty-four members, a reading room and a library. Pawnee City reports an increase in membership during the year, and one conversion, and says that the ministers of the city have helped greatly during the year. The association in Omaha College reports an increase in membership, and Hastings college twenty-two members. The State Normal school at Peru organized in 1887, has thirty members, and made eighteen conversions. The State Normal made three conversions, and has forty members. Beatrice has just organized thirty-five members. The college associations all report great interest.
