

THE OLD STORY OVER AGAIN.

Iowa as Surely Republican as for Thirty Years Past.

THE UNION LABOR PARTY DYING.

Old Pete Dey Seared Clean Out of His Boots—His Double Dealing Methods Disclosed—The Rate Injunction Case.

They Must Swallow Defeat.

Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 28.—[Special to The Bee.]—One more week and the agony will be over, and the democrats of Iowa will swallow their defeat as philosophically as they have for thirty years past. Early in the campaign it was clear that the democratic candidates might pull through, especially for railroad commissioners, but the prospects of a sweeping republican victory have materially improved in the past two weeks. The self-respecting farmers could not stand the dictation of republican railroad lawyers and have taken to the woods in large numbers and many of them have even gone over to the Fisk and Brooks party. The defection of Chairman Hunter, and the radical free trade utterances of Frank Hurd have completed the demoralization, and the democracy approach the end of the campaign in a hopelessly bewildered condition. Blaine carried this state by a plurality of less than 100,000 votes. In 1892 the republican Cleveland will have twice as large a margin as the democrats had in 1892.

This campaign will practically witness the death of the union labor party. Last year "Farmer Caine" received about 15,000 votes for governor, but the party will hardly poll half as many for Streeter, their candidate for president. The party is torn asunder by internal dissensions.

The Weiler faction in the northeastern part of the state is in favor of high license and opposed to fusion. The Gillette faction near Des Moines favor woman suffrage and prohibition and Weaver's crowd will support any movement calculated to make votes for their idol. Whether Weaver will get back into congress or not is a question. Mayor Lacey his republican opponent, is crowding him closely and will make votes for the list and join the greenback leader on the stump in joint debate. "Farmer Caine," who lives in his district, has openly bolted Weaver's nomination and will vote for Streeter. He refuses to say whether he will vote for Streeter or for Cleveland, and evidently does not know whether he is in touch with the union labor or democratic platform. The Gillette faction is headed for the prohibition party and another year the disintegration of the republican party is complete. Sovereign of Atlantic, in his wild desire to get Judge Harris, the democratic candidate for governor, is making speeches under the direction of their central committee. St. Hartley's crowd will vote for Streeter at the end of the campaign, and Sovereign's hope of going to congress will vanish.

The voters seared man in Iowa to-day is Peter A. Dey. His anti-union professions have been shown to be a hollow mockery. It is now pretty well established that he will vote for Streeter, and will vote for five days in the absence and without the knowledge or consent of his republican colleagues, in order to give the railroads time to serve their injunctive purpose. He secretly furnished the roads rate sheets in advance and informed them of the probable result of the vote. He is printing a long tract in circular form of Governor Larrabee's recent speech at Guthrie Center in which he severely attacks the railroads, with a recommendation at the bottom to vote for Dey and two republicans, and uttering broadsides throughout the state. The circular was assigned and to a collector, and it would appear as if the governor recommended this action. The speech was printed in small type and the collector over it hastily and reading only the words in large type could not help concluding that Larrabee was supporting Dey, which is not true. The governor's speech was a masterpiece in suspending the schedule is the most embarrassing thing the attorneys for the state have done in many years. It has not been for this the schedule cutting down freight rates nearly one-third would have been in operation long ago. That Dey will be elected is a foregone conclusion. He is the only candidate in the race.

The appeal from the fair trial injunction restraining the railroad commissioners from putting the schedule in force is being heard in respect to the Burlington, Cedar Rapids & Northern, the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific, and other roads. The injunction was incorporated under Iowa laws, was ably argued in the supreme court this week. The attorneys for the state insisted that the injunction was unconstitutional, and that the state and if sustained would prohibit the state from exercising her sovereign powers and interfering with the railroads. The state attorneys clearly unconstitutional, while the attorneys for the railroads took the position that even if it was, no state had a right to establish such a rate as would bankrupt the railroads. The railroads took the position that even if it was, no state had a right to establish such a rate as would bankrupt the railroads. The railroads took the position that even if it was, no state had a right to establish such a rate as would bankrupt the railroads.

Dr. Jeffrey's remedy cures every case of diphtheria. No physician required.

A Great Potato Crop.

Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 28.—[Special to The Bee.]—The surprise in Iowa crops this year is the potato crop. It is extraordinarily large and of fine quality. In this part of the state farmers report a yield from 150 to 200 bushels an acre. The season closed dry, with late frosts, so that the crop matured very nicely and is of the best quality. Probably the largest single crop in the state was a crop of 8,135 bushels has been safely housed, and the remainder of the work was mainly done by inmates of the hospital.

Dr. Jeffrey's remedy cures every case of diphtheria. No physician required.

A New York Postman Shot.

New York, Oct. 28.—Early this morning Policeman James Brennan was shot three times and killed by an ex-convict named Larry Carlton. Brennan attempted to arrest Carlton, who was running away, after knocking down a man who had refused to pay for drinks when the ex-convict turned and fired four shots at the officer. He was caught soon after.

Charcoal Furnace Burned.

Appleton, Wis., Oct. 28.—The charcoal furnace of the Appleton Iron Furnace company burned to-day. Loss $40,000, besides the loss on one coal and wood in stock, not yet estimated.

They Must Swallow Defeat.

Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 28.—[Special to The Bee.]—The betting man seems to have struck Iowa fast and furious in the last few days. A great many bets are reported and a great many bluffs are put out instead of the usual "I am the most remarkable case of this kind" that of an old gentleman named Clavin, a brother of the noted Tennis C. Clavin. He is a resident of Marshalltown, and he is a resident of Marshalltown, and he is a resident of Marshalltown.

They Must Swallow Defeat.

Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 28.—[Special to The Bee.]—The betting man seems to have struck Iowa fast and furious in the last few days. A great many bets are reported and a great many bluffs are put out instead of the usual "I am the most remarkable case of this kind" that of an old gentleman named Clavin, a brother of the noted Tennis C. Clavin. He is a resident of Marshalltown, and he is a resident of Marshalltown, and he is a resident of Marshalltown.

They Must Swallow Defeat.

Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 28.—[Special to The Bee.]—The betting man seems to have struck Iowa fast and furious in the last few days. A great many bets are reported and a great many bluffs are put out instead of the usual "I am the most remarkable case of this kind" that of an old gentleman named Clavin, a brother of the noted Tennis C. Clavin. He is a resident of Marshalltown, and he is a resident of Marshalltown, and he is a resident of Marshalltown.

They Must Swallow Defeat.

Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 28.—[Special to The Bee.]—The betting man seems to have struck Iowa fast and furious in the last few days. A great many bets are reported and a great many bluffs are put out instead of the usual "I am the most remarkable case of this kind" that of an old gentleman named Clavin, a brother of the noted Tennis C. Clavin. He is a resident of Marshalltown, and he is a resident of Marshalltown, and he is a resident of Marshalltown.

THE DAGOES OF NEW YORK.

Fithlier as Well as More Vicious Than the Chinese.

BLOODY ORDER OF "LA MAFIA."

Assassins and Blackmailers—The Hexagonal Majority Fight—Trinity's Tower in Danger—Neil Nelson's Crusade in the Metropolis.

The Italian Peas.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—[Special Correspondence of The Bee.]—Whatever the Californians may think about the Chinese, it is certain that here in this empire city the Italians are more unpleasant, a more dangerous, and an infinitely dirtier class. The Italian quarter in Brooklyn as well as in New York, and I have occasionally found myself in both. The Chinaman is profoundly vicious I have no doubt. The experience of the Pacific slope and of Australia prove conclusively that they have no moral sense. But they have a comprehension of the deceptions of existence and of city life, which enables them to get along smoothly enough, so long as only the surface of things is examined. Not so with the Italians from the south, and especially from Sicily, for they have no notion that they are expected to be decent. New York is disgraced with them. They are eternally shocking the community in one way or another, and apparently the Catholic church cannot do anything to help them. They do not want to be married by priests, because questions would be raised which it would be difficult to answer. So they come to the mayor and to aldermen and to justices of the peace who will tie the knot for nothing. In this way uncles and nieces become man and wife and aunts and nephews, and also divorces and remarriages are arranged among themselves in the most open manner. They apparently not twelve are married to grown men, and all the assistants either swear that the child is sixteen or utter "six Ingles."

Carpets, Furniture and Draperies. A fine assortment of new goods. CHAS. SHIFFRICK, Nos. 1206, 1208 and 1210 FARMER ST.

Assessing Office Holders.

Des Moines, Oct. 28.—[Special to The Bee.]—The democrats are putting the assessment committee in a hot water. The state committee has killed the cow several times, and now the national committee is working for what is left. A letter from the Iowa member of the national committee, Mr. J. W. Richardson, of Davenport, has just been made public. In it he asks for contributions in addition to what has already been given to the state committee, and says that the plan of the campaign has been changed by the democratic national committee so as to look to other states than Iowa for success. This is an admission that the plan of Rainbow Chaser Brice has been abandoned, and that the democrats no longer hope to break the republican column of the northwest. This is an admission that the plan of Rainbow Chaser Brice has been abandoned, and that the democrats no longer hope to break the republican column of the northwest. This is an admission that the plan of Rainbow Chaser Brice has been abandoned, and that the democrats no longer hope to break the republican column of the northwest.

Cleveland & Harrison agree on one point, that the best out is Jarvis' old Brandy.

Preparing for a Big Time.

Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 28.—[Special to The Bee.]—Great preparations are being made for the state election in Iowa, which will be held Friday afternoon and evening. "Big Four," Allison, Kassen, Hepburn and Conner, will be the speakers. All the opera houses in the city have been engaged, and at night there will be the largest torchlight parade ever seen in this part of the state. The republican party is making preparations, and it is expected that 30,000 people will come to see the celebration. There will be a grand illumination and industrial display at the fair grounds, and the work will be mainly done by inmates of the hospital.

Dr. Jeffrey's remedy cures every case of diphtheria. No physician required.

A Great Potato Crop.

Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 28.—[Special to The Bee.]—The surprise in Iowa crops this year is the potato crop. It is extraordinarily large and of fine quality. In this part of the state farmers report a yield from 150 to 200 bushels an acre. The season closed dry, with late frosts, so that the crop matured very nicely and is of the best quality. Probably the largest single crop in the state was a crop of 8,135 bushels has been safely housed, and the remainder of the work was mainly done by inmates of the hospital.

Dr. Jeffrey's remedy cures every case of diphtheria. No physician required.

A New York Postman Shot.

New York, Oct. 28.—Early this morning Policeman James Brennan was shot three times and killed by an ex-convict named Larry Carlton. Brennan attempted to arrest Carlton, who was running away, after knocking down a man who had refused to pay for drinks when the ex-convict turned and fired four shots at the officer. He was caught soon after.

Charcoal Furnace Burned.

Appleton, Wis., Oct. 28.—The charcoal furnace of the Appleton Iron Furnace company burned to-day. Loss $40,000, besides the loss on one coal and wood in stock, not yet estimated.

They Must Swallow Defeat.

Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 28.—[Special to The Bee.]—The betting man seems to have struck Iowa fast and furious in the last few days. A great many bets are reported and a great many bluffs are put out instead of the usual "I am the most remarkable case of this kind" that of an old gentleman named Clavin, a brother of the noted Tennis C. Clavin. He is a resident of Marshalltown, and he is a resident of Marshalltown, and he is a resident of Marshalltown.

They Must Swallow Defeat.

Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 28.—[Special to The Bee.]—The betting man seems to have struck Iowa fast and furious in the last few days. A great many bets are reported and a great many bluffs are put out instead of the usual "I am the most remarkable case of this kind" that of an old gentleman named Clavin, a brother of the noted Tennis C. Clavin. He is a resident of Marshalltown, and he is a resident of Marshalltown, and he is a resident of Marshalltown.

They Must Swallow Defeat.

Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 28.—[Special to The Bee.]—The betting man seems to have struck Iowa fast and furious in the last few days. A great many bets are reported and a great many bluffs are put out instead of the usual "I am the most remarkable case of this kind" that of an old gentleman named Clavin, a brother of the noted Tennis C. Clavin. He is a resident of Marshalltown, and he is a resident of Marshalltown, and he is a resident of Marshalltown.

THE DAGOES OF NEW YORK.

Fithlier as Well as More Vicious Than the Chinese.

BLOODY ORDER OF "LA MAFIA."

Assassins and Blackmailers—The Hexagonal Majority Fight—Trinity's Tower in Danger—Neil Nelson's Crusade in the Metropolis.

The Italian Peas.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—[Special Correspondence of The Bee.]—Whatever the Californians may think about the Chinese, it is certain that here in this empire city the Italians are more unpleasant, a more dangerous, and an infinitely dirtier class. The Italian quarter in Brooklyn as well as in New York, and I have occasionally found myself in both. The Chinaman is profoundly vicious I have no doubt. The experience of the Pacific slope and of Australia prove conclusively that they have no moral sense. But they have a comprehension of the deceptions of existence and of city life, which enables them to get along smoothly enough, so long as only the surface of things is examined. Not so with the Italians from the south, and especially from Sicily, for they have no notion that they are expected to be decent. New York is disgraced with them. They are eternally shocking the community in one way or another, and apparently the Catholic church cannot do anything to help them. They do not want to be married by priests, because questions would be raised which it would be difficult to answer. So they come to the mayor and to aldermen and to justices of the peace who will tie the knot for nothing. In this way uncles and nieces become man and wife and aunts and nephews, and also divorces and remarriages are arranged among themselves in the most open manner. They apparently not twelve are married to grown men, and all the assistants either swear that the child is sixteen or utter "six Ingles."

Carpets, Furniture and Draperies. A fine assortment of new goods. CHAS. SHIFFRICK, Nos. 1206, 1208 and 1210 FARMER ST.

Assessing Office Holders.

Des Moines, Oct. 28.—[Special to The Bee.]—The democrats are putting the assessment committee in a hot water. The state committee has killed the cow several times, and now the national committee is working for what is left. A letter from the Iowa member of the national committee, Mr. J. W. Richardson, of Davenport, has just been made public. In it he asks for contributions in addition to what has already been given to the state committee, and says that the plan of the campaign has been changed by the democratic national committee so as to look to other states than Iowa for success. This is an admission that the plan of Rainbow Chaser Brice has been abandoned, and that the democrats no longer hope to break the republican column of the northwest. This is an admission that the plan of Rainbow Chaser Brice has been abandoned, and that the democrats no longer hope to break the republican column of the northwest.

Cleveland & Harrison agree on one point, that the best out is Jarvis' old Brandy.

Preparing for a Big Time.

Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 28.—[Special to The Bee.]—Great preparations are being made for the state election in Iowa, which will be held Friday afternoon and evening. "Big Four," Allison, Kassen, Hepburn and Conner, will be the speakers. All the opera houses in the city have been engaged, and at night there will be the largest torchlight parade ever seen in this part of the state. The republican party is making preparations, and it is expected that 30,000 people will come to see the celebration. There will be a grand illumination and industrial display at the fair grounds, and the work will be mainly done by inmates of the hospital.

Dr. Jeffrey's remedy cures every case of diphtheria. No physician required.

A Great Potato Crop.

Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 28.—[Special to The Bee.]—The surprise in Iowa crops this year is the potato crop. It is extraordinarily large and of fine quality. In this part of the state farmers report a yield from 150 to 200 bushels an acre. The season closed dry, with late frosts, so that the crop matured very nicely and is of the best quality. Probably the largest single crop in the state was a crop of 8,135 bushels has been safely housed, and the remainder of the work was mainly done by inmates of the hospital.

Dr. Jeffrey's remedy cures every case of diphtheria. No physician required.

A New York Postman Shot.

New York, Oct. 28.—Early this morning Policeman James Brennan was shot three times and killed by an ex-convict named Larry Carlton. Brennan attempted to arrest Carlton, who was running away, after knocking down a man who had refused to pay for drinks when the ex-convict turned and fired four shots at the officer. He was caught soon after.

Charcoal Furnace Burned.

Appleton, Wis., Oct. 28.—The charcoal furnace of the Appleton Iron Furnace company burned to-day. Loss $40,000, besides the loss on one coal and wood in stock, not yet estimated.

They Must Swallow Defeat.

Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 28.—[Special to The Bee.]—The betting man seems to have struck Iowa fast and furious in the last few days. A great many bets are reported and a great many bluffs are put out instead of the usual "I am the most remarkable case of this kind" that of an old gentleman named Clavin, a brother of the noted Tennis C. Clavin. He is a resident of Marshalltown, and he is a resident of Marshalltown, and he is a resident of Marshalltown.

They Must Swallow Defeat.

Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 28.—[Special to The Bee.]—The betting man seems to have struck Iowa fast and furious in the last few days. A great many bets are reported and a great many bluffs are put out instead of the usual "I am the most remarkable case of this kind" that of an old gentleman named Clavin, a brother of the noted Tennis C. Clavin. He is a resident of Marshalltown, and he is a resident of Marshalltown, and he is a resident of Marshalltown.

They Must Swallow Defeat.

Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 28.—[Special to The Bee.]—The betting man seems to have struck Iowa fast and furious in the last few days. A great many bets are reported and a great many bluffs are put out instead of the usual "I am the most remarkable case of this kind" that of an old gentleman named Clavin, a brother of the noted Tennis C. Clavin. He is a resident of Marshalltown, and he is a resident of Marshalltown, and he is a resident of Marshalltown.

THE DAGOES OF NEW YORK.

Fithlier as Well as More Vicious Than the Chinese.

BLOODY ORDER OF "LA MAFIA."

Assassins and Blackmailers—The Hexagonal Majority Fight—Trinity's Tower in Danger—Neil Nelson's Crusade in the Metropolis.

The Italian Peas.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—[Special Correspondence of The Bee.]—Whatever the Californians may think about the Chinese, it is certain that here in this empire city the Italians are more unpleasant, a more dangerous, and an infinitely dirtier class. The Italian quarter in Brooklyn as well as in New York, and I have occasionally found myself in both. The Chinaman is profoundly vicious I have no doubt. The experience of the Pacific slope and of Australia prove conclusively that they have no moral sense. But they have a comprehension of the deceptions of existence and of city life, which enables them to get along smoothly enough, so long as only the surface of things is examined. Not so with the Italians from the south, and especially from Sicily, for they have no notion that they are expected to be decent. New York is disgraced with them. They are eternally shocking the community in one way or another, and apparently the Catholic church cannot do anything to help them. They do not want to be married by priests, because questions would be raised which it would be difficult to answer. So they come to the mayor and to aldermen and to justices of the peace who will tie the knot for nothing. In this way uncles and nieces become man and wife and aunts and nephews, and also divorces and remarriages are arranged among themselves in the most open manner. They apparently not twelve are married to grown men, and all the assistants either swear that the child is sixteen or utter "six Ingles."

Carpets, Furniture and Draperies. A fine assortment of new goods. CHAS. SHIFFRICK, Nos. 1206, 1208 and 1210 FARMER ST.

Assessing Office Holders.

Des Moines, Oct. 28.—[Special to The Bee.]—The democrats are putting the assessment committee in a hot water. The state committee has killed the cow several times, and now the national committee is working for what is left. A letter from the Iowa member of the national committee, Mr. J. W. Richardson, of Davenport, has just been made public. In it he asks for contributions in addition to what has already been given to the state committee, and says that the plan of the campaign has been changed by the democratic national committee so as to look to other states than Iowa for success. This is an admission that the plan of Rainbow Chaser Brice has been abandoned, and that the democrats no longer hope to break the republican column of the northwest. This is an admission that the plan of Rainbow Chaser Brice has been abandoned, and that the democrats no longer hope to break the republican column of the northwest.

Cleveland & Harrison agree on one point, that the best out is Jarvis' old Brandy.

Preparing for a Big Time.

Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 28.—[Special to The Bee.]—Great preparations are being made for the state election in Iowa, which will be held Friday afternoon and evening. "Big Four," Allison, Kassen, Hepburn and Conner, will be the speakers. All the opera houses in the city have been engaged, and at night there will be the largest torchlight parade ever seen in this part of the state. The republican party is making preparations, and it is expected that 30,000 people will come to see the celebration. There will be a grand illumination and industrial display at the fair grounds, and the work will be mainly done by inmates of the hospital.

Dr. Jeffrey's remedy cures every case of diphtheria. No physician required.

A Great Potato Crop.

Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 28.—[Special to The Bee.]—The surprise in Iowa crops this year is the potato crop. It is extraordinarily large and of fine quality. In this part of the state farmers report a yield from 150 to 200 bushels an acre. The season closed dry, with late frosts, so that the crop matured very nicely and is of the best quality. Probably the largest single crop in the state was a crop of 8,135 bushels has been safely housed, and the remainder of the work was mainly done by inmates of the hospital.

Dr. Jeffrey's remedy cures every case of diphtheria. No physician required.

A New York Postman Shot.

New York, Oct. 28.—Early this morning Policeman James Brennan was shot three times and killed by an ex-convict named Larry Carlton. Brennan attempted to arrest Carlton, who was running away, after knocking down a man who had refused to pay for drinks when the ex-convict turned and fired four shots at the officer. He was caught soon after.

Charcoal Furnace Burned.

Appleton, Wis., Oct. 28.—The charcoal furnace of the Appleton Iron Furnace company burned to-day. Loss $40,000, besides the loss on one coal and wood in stock, not yet estimated.

They Must Swallow Defeat.

Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 28.—[Special to The Bee.]—The betting man seems to have struck Iowa fast and furious in the last few days. A great many bets are reported and a great many bluffs are put out instead of the usual "I am the most remarkable case of this kind" that of an old gentleman named Clavin, a brother of the noted Tennis C. Clavin. He is a resident of Marshalltown, and he is a resident of Marshalltown, and he is a resident of Marshalltown.

They Must Swallow Defeat.

Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 28.—[Special to The Bee.]—The betting man seems to have struck Iowa fast and furious in the last few days. A great many bets are reported and a great many bluffs are put out instead of the usual "I am the most remarkable case of this kind" that of an old gentleman named Clavin, a brother of the noted Tennis C. Clavin. He is a resident of Marshalltown, and he is a resident of Marshalltown, and he is a resident of Marshalltown.

They Must Swallow Defeat.

Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 28.—[Special to The Bee.]—The betting man seems to have struck Iowa fast and furious in the last few days. A great many bets are reported and a great many bluffs are put out instead of the usual "I am the most remarkable case of this kind" that of an old gentleman named Clavin, a brother of the noted Tennis C. Clavin. He is a resident of Marshalltown, and he is a resident of Marshalltown, and he is a resident of Marshalltown.

RADWAY'S PILLS.

REAL ESTATE BARGAINS!

REAL ESTATE BARGAINS!

For Sale by GEO. N. HICKS, Barker Block

Lessened Hours of Labor.

Forum: The hours of labor as a whole have been diminished in the factory ten hours have become customary in place of eleven or even twelve; the usual hours of work in textile factories forty or fifty years ago have been thirty or thirty-five hours. In the building trades, nine and ten hours have become customary in place of eleven and twelve and even more. In all the great retail shops and wholesale warehouses in which goods are distributed, the hours of labor have obtained such power over the mechanism of production and distribution during the last twenty-five years, that if the long hours of work required thirty years ago to produce the materials for a narrow and long piece of cloth, the same hours would yield at least one-third more of all the necessities of life than they did then.

The Continental Sunday.

The Rev. Mr. Stimson, in his card to the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, speaks in a disparaging tone of the Continental Sunday. Having spent the summer in Europe, he observed with much pleasure that on Sunday the lawns and gardens were filled with workmen and their families, apparently deriving much enjoyment and possible good from the works of art and sculpture which they were surrounded.

Warner's Loe Cabin Sarsaparilla regulates the bowels.

Mr. Stufflebeane of this county, went to the city at a distance of some 200 yards from his dwelling, to replenish his water bucket, writes a Greenville, Tex., correspondent. The water being drawn and the bucket filled, just as Mr. Stufflebeane stooped over to set the bucket on the ground, a black snake, which he called upon the branch of a tree projecting just above the man and within a few feet, dropped from the tree upon his neck and in an instant was coiled about his neck. Mr. Stufflebeane called for help as long as he could; but this was no longer as upon his second attempt to his voice he was frustrated, for the snake had so tightened itself about his throat that the little sound he was able to make was inaudible to those who were on the ground and ran toward his house. He was so weak and exhausted by this time that he was compelled to stop and rest. At this juncture his brother, seeing him and knowing from his actions that something was wrong, went to meet him. It was some time after the brother reached him before Mr. Stufflebeane could explain his terrible experience.

When You want some nice wedding presents call on Edholm & Akin, opposite post-office, 15th and Dodge, and see their rich assortment.

Millionaire Flood's Gold.

San Francisco Alta: Flood's estate is valued by good judges at $15,000,000. At the height of the bonanza excitement, when shares on the leading mines brought $800 and paid $50 a month dividend, Flood's wealth was rated at $40,000,000, but then came the great shrinkage in Comstock values, which cut down the fortunes of all the mining millionaires fully one-half, and Flood's is only put up in large two ounce tin boxes, and is an absolute cure for old sores, burns, scalds, chapped hands, and all skin eruptions. Will positively cure all kinds of piles, and is the only cure for hemorrhoids. Sold by Goodman Drug Co., at 25 cents per box—by mail 30 cents.

The ORIGINAL ABETINE OINTMENT

Later On.

Detroit Free Press: "If I should send $25 to New York to buy counterfeit money," he said at police headquarters yesterday, "and the fellows sent me nothing but brown paper, could I have them arrested?"

"I'd have to let it be known that I sent for 'queer goods'?"

"Yes."

"And thus criminate myself?"

"Well, I was asking for information for a friend out in Dakota. What I came here to see about was whether a dog over twenty years old had to be licensed."

For MAN!

Mustang Liniment advertisement with logo and text: "Mustang Liniment For MAN! For BEAST! MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT is made in TEXAS, OLD SMOKE, CLEAR BREATH and all SPRINGFIELD."

REAL ESTATE BARGAINS!

For Sale by GEO. N. HICKS, Barker Block

REAL ESTATE BARGAINS!

For Sale by GEO. N. HICKS, Barker Block

Lessened Hours of Labor.

Forum: The hours of labor as a whole have been diminished in the factory ten hours have become customary in place of eleven or even twelve; the usual hours of work in textile factories forty or fifty years ago have been thirty or thirty-five hours. In the building trades, nine and ten hours have become customary in place of eleven and twelve and even more. In all the great retail shops and wholesale warehouses in which goods are distributed, the hours of labor have obtained such power over the mechanism of production and distribution during the last twenty-five years, that if the long hours of work required thirty years ago to produce the materials for a narrow and long piece of cloth, the same hours would yield at least one-third more of all the necessities of life than they did then.

The Continental Sunday.

The Rev. Mr. Stimson, in his card to the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, speaks in a disparaging tone of the Continental Sunday. Having spent the summer in Europe, he observed with much pleasure that on Sunday the lawns and gardens were filled with workmen and their families, apparently deriving much enjoyment and possible good from the works of art and sculpture which they were surrounded.

Warner's Loe Cabin Sarsaparilla regulates the bowels.

Mr. Stufflebeane of this county, went to the city at a distance of some 200 yards from his dwelling, to replenish his water bucket, writes a Greenville, Tex., correspondent. The water being drawn and the bucket filled, just as Mr. Stufflebeane stooped over to set the bucket on the ground, a black snake, which he called upon the branch of a tree projecting just above the man and within a few feet, dropped from the tree upon his neck and in an instant was coiled about his neck. Mr. Stufflebeane called for help as long as he could; but this was no longer as upon his second attempt to his voice he was frustrated, for the snake had so tightened itself about his throat that the little sound he was able to make was inaudible to those who were on the ground and ran toward his house. He was so weak and exhausted by this time that he was compelled to stop and rest. At this juncture his brother, seeing him and knowing from his actions that something was wrong, went to meet him. It was some time after the brother reached him before Mr. Stufflebeane could explain his terrible experience.

When You want some nice wedding presents call on Edholm & Akin, opposite post-office, 15th and Dodge, and see their rich assortment.