How Few are Rich. Forum: It is probable, to say the least, that fully 90 per cent of the whole body of the people spend nearly all that they earn; of this 90 per cent a portion may, by setting aside a moderate part of their small earnings, become the owners of a house, or become depositors in a savings bank, or insure their lives in a moderate way; of the remaining 10 per cent a part save enough to protect themselves against want in their later years, and a very small part may become rich, and they need not work unless they choose.

Occasion for Alarm. Chicago Tribune: "Men," said the captain of the steamer to the frightened passengers huddling about him, "it is true we are not gaining on the leak, but we are only fifty miles from land, and if necessary we can throw overboard 2,000 tons of freight to lighten ship. There is no occasion for alarm. We have several hundred casks of rum in the hold that we can..."
