

THE DAILY BEE.

COUNCIL BLUFFS.

OFFICE NO. 12 PEARL STREET. Delivered by carrier in Any Part of the City at Twenty Cents Per Week. H. W. TILTON, MANAGER. TELEPHONES: BUSINESS OFFICE NO. 43. NIGHT EDITOR, NO. 23.

MINOR MENTION.

N. Y. Plumbing company. Only $10.75 at Chapman's art store. See programme of the day on the seventh page.

Elegant overcoatings at A. Reiter's, merchant tailor, 312 Broadway. The city council is not planning on any meeting until after election.

Best hard and soft coal and Missouri wood. E. E. Mayne, 619 Broadway. Members of the club should not forget to take their friends to the rooms to-day.

The banks of the city will close to-day at 1 o'clock, on account of the bridge opening. The Grand Army hall will be open to-day and all veterans will find a hearty welcome there.

The democratic meeting for the organization of a Fourth ward club has been postponed until Thursday evening. A centrally located, finely furnished room to rent to one or two gentlemen. Best furnish references. Address T. 15, BEB office.

It is estimated that 3,500 teams crossed the new bridge on Sunday. Even at 10 cents toll, and 5 cents for foot passengers, the receipts must have been pretty "fine."

The street car mules look discouraged yesterday as they stood on Pearl street watching the electric motor fly along Broadway. The day of mules is about past.

The ladies of the Women's Christian association serve a 25-cent dinner in the Pacific house to-day. Lunches also served. The proceed are for the hospital.

The attendance at the coming races will doubtless be larger than at any previous meeting, as Omaha can easily send over a few thousand who enjoy seeing fast flyers.

All railway freight offices in the city will be closed to-day after 12:30 o'clock for everything except perishable freight. This will give railway employees an opportunity to witness or participate in the grand parade.

A large number of Omaha visitors came over the new bridge yesterday with teams. It seemed as if nearly everyone came over Sunday, but it seems that there were many left, who improved the opportunity yesterday.

All business houses are requested to close at 12 o'clock to-day and remain closed during the time the parade and addresses are taking place in the city. Omaha business houses have agreed to close, and it is hoped that those in the Bluffs will do likewise.

Carriages for today's celebration have been assigned as follows: Press, two; speakers, two; committee, three; governor, one; mayor, one; federal officials, one; bridge engineer and contractors, one; city council, two; board of supervisors and county officials, three.

All Sir Knights of Ivanhoe commandery are requested to report to Masonic temple at 12 o'clock Sunday to-day, armed and equipped in full uniform, to act as escort to the governor. Horse coverings may be secured at Duquette's store.

The Third ward democratic club held a meeting in Lacy's hall on South Main street last evening to which the First ward club was invited. McFadden's martial band furnished music. The speaker of the evening was G. F. Bolton, Esq., who has just established a law office in this city.

All visiting military companies who compete for the cash prizes will be judged by their appearance on the line of march. The local companies will not participate, as their prize drill occurs this evening at 7:30 o'clock on Capitol avenue, Omaha.

Yesterday's police victims were arrested as follows: James Daily, $7.00; Robert Pope, $8.10; Harry Hilbert, $8.10; John Smith, $8.10; James Hamilton, $8.10; John Weidman, charged with assault and battery, amounting to $4.00 and was released.

The Chicago & Rock Island has a special train this morning which leaves Atlantic at 7 o'clock for Council Bluffs. Returning it will leave Council Bluffs at 10:30 p. m., so that the excursionists will be able to spend the entire day here.

Little business was transacted in the district court yesterday. The wills of A. J. Bump and J. H. Burroughs were admitted to probate. Court then adjourned until this morning, when Judge Loofbourow will be present and make an assignment for Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock.

Next Thursday night there will be a choice concert at the Congregational church under the auspices of the musical committee and under the direction of Mrs. Wadsworth and Mrs. Skelton. An attractive programme is prepared, and with the reputation which these ladies have there ought to be a crowded house.

J. W. Paul, of Omaha, claims the first pedestrian record on or near Broadway bridge. On October 6th he crossed the new bridge on foot, making the trip from the pumping works to his office, No. 1609 Exchange street, in twenty-six minutes. The following Monday Mr. Evans and Mr. Wright crossed the bridge.

See W. C. Stacy's ad. Programme of the day's proceedings on page 7.

See Forrest Smith's special column. We do not intend to endorse any except articles of merit, but we take pleasure in referring to the Garland Stoves and Ranges, whose superiority is too well established to be called in question. The Electric Motor Makes Speedy Trips Between the Two Cities.

APPRECIATING MANAGER EVANS.

He is Presented with an Elegant Watch—The Union Pacific Cuts Its Dummy Rates In Two—Queer Accident.

The electric motor line was put in successful operation yesterday. Cars were run on Lower Broadway in the forenoon, and in the afternoon several trips were made through to the Methodist church on Upper Broadway. The cars attracted a great deal of attention, and it was quite amusing to see the degree of enthusiasm manifested by spectators as the motors made their initial trip. Everybody who was indoors flocked to the windows and doors, and saluted the passengers with a general waving of handkerchiefs. On the streets the men hurrahed until they were hoarse. Several old residents testified their approval by jumping up and down after the manner of the average small boy who sees something to excite his unbounded delight.

Everything ran so smoothly no could be expected, and there were no accidents to detract from the day's success. In the afternoon the mayor, city council, members of the board of supervisors, and Messrs. Evans, Wright and Stewart, of the bridge company took carriages and were driven to the bridge, where the structure was inspected by the mayor before accepting the work and paying the bonus voted by the city.

Returning home, the carriages were dismissed and the mayor boarded the electric motor cars for the city. General Manager Evans handled the levers on the trip, and although it was his first experience in that capacity, he made excellent time, and handled his train like a veteran. The cars were under complete control, and quickly responded to the least motion of the levers. The trip from the west end of the bridge to the corner of Main and Broadway, a distance of nearly four miles, was made in sixteen minutes and four seconds. One mile on the lower part of avenue A was run in three minutes and forty seconds. The load was quite a heavy one for first time, consisting of three cars and thirty-eight passengers. The full force of the current was not turned, but the motor cars climbed the approach to the bridge, which is the heaviest grade on the line, with perfect ease, "passing" through the center of the city the cars were loaded as full as possible, all standing room being taken, but the effect was not noticeable in starting or controlling the cars.

Several minor details yet remain to be attended to before the work can be said to be completed. It is hoped by to-day to have the whole line in perfect working order, and regular trains running through the day and evening. Yesterday the current was started on only one track, and on that the cross wires were not connected, allowing a great deal of the current to escape. It will require some time to get the machinery all smoothed up, and the track well ballasted, so that it can not all be done in a day, the public will make allowances accordingly. No regular running schedule or time card has yet been adopted, but a ten minute service will be maintained as nearly as possible with the cars now on hand.

It was generally feared that the motor cars would frighten horses, but the fears yesterday showed that the fears were almost groundless. Very few horses were seen to start, and those that did, and after seeing them once or twice paid no more attention to them than to ordinary street cars. One runaway resulted on Lower Broadway, but it was caused by the negligence of a farmer who left his team standing on the street without hitching. The animals ran but a few feet, when they were stopped with a telegraph pole and were collared. The only damage was a broken harness. If the motor line has a tendency to make people latch their horses when left on the street, it will be greatly appreciated by the traveling public.

Best bargains in real estate. Odell Bros. & Co. Mrs. H. E. Sealey will, on and after the 1st of November, take possession of her house, No. 308 Fourth street. Those who wish table board or desirable furnished rooms should apply at once.

J. G. Tipton has bargains in real estate. At a hearing before Judge Aylesworth yesterday the accusation against M. P. Lewis of assaulting James Bradley with intent to kill was withdrawn and the defendant discharged. It was evidently a case of mistaken identity. Bradley stated that Lewis was not his assailant, and that he had identified him with much excitement, when the doctors were dressing his wounds and on hearing others say that it was the man, J. B. Garrett was arrested and identified by Bradley as his assailant. Garrett pleaded not guilty and was put under $1,000 bonds, which were furnished by William Card, a farmer in James town, Broadway. These lots are 50x250 feet. They are high and dry and present a commanding view. For full information regarding prices and terms apply to J. G. Tipton, sole agent, 327 Broadway.

William Sackler left last evening for Washington territory. His family will remain here for the present. Mrs. Dr. Judd has returned home from an extended visit with relatives in Illinois, Wisconsin and Minnesota.

Mr. George W. Hewitt, the most prominent attorney in Sioux county, Iowa, is here to take in the bridge opening. S. E. Caldwell, formerly with the Bankrupt Shoe company, of this city, but now at Atlantic, Ia., is in the city to witness the wedding.

EVANS. This is conceded by all. While his fellow citizens are now rejoicing so enthusiastically over the completion of these two great enterprises, few beyond their intimate associates know what burdens he has carried, and what obstacles he has overcome. Some of the more public circumstances are familiar to all, but the many others naturally attendant upon an enterprise of this magnitude, are known but to himself and associates. Upon him has fallen the brunt most of the time. He staked his all on the success of the enterprise, and devoted his strength and time, to almost the sacrifice of health and other interests.

While arranging the preliminaries there was much opposition, even from those who now begin to realize the benefits resulting. While there can be no full appreciation of what Mr. Evans has passed through, still there is sufficient to concede to him the honor of having accomplished great things for Council Bluffs. Last evening an attempt was made to give some expression to this feeling. A number of citizens quietly planned a surprise for him. They met at the office of Sapp & Pusey, and proceeded to Mr. Evans' residence on Oakland avenue. The purpose of this visitation was to present him with an elegant gold watch. Aside from the intrinsic value, which was great, it was made still more so to Mr. Evans by being inscribed very appropriately. There was engraved upon one of the cases a perfect picture of the new bridge.

Colonel W. F. Sapp made the presentation speech, to which Mr. Evans responded as best he could under such circumstances. The committee having the presentation in charge were Lucius Wells, W. F. Sapp, J. J. Steadman, and George Bebbington. The recipient responded in a few well chosen words which were well received by the friends present. He was also presented by a few friends with a heavy gold headed cane, inscribed W. S. Choice refreshments prepared by Mrs. T. J. Evans and Mrs. E. H. Evans, were served. During the evening delightful music was rendered, and the occasion was a most happy one.
