An Express Technicality. An expressman named William Brown was arrested yesterday on complaint of a citizen whom Brown had charged $2 for hauling a small load a short distance. The load was found to be a trifle over three hundrea pounds, and as the ordinance provides that the rate to be charged shall be 75 cents for every 300 pounds and less, but lays no restriction on the charge for a load above that weight, the expressman was discharged.

Wanted to Hang. Joseph Hay, an insane prisoner at the county jail, tried to hang himself yesterday. He was at liberty in one of the large rooms and picked up a strip of cloth that evidently had been torn from the garment of some other prisoner. The magnificent trophy, a fac-simile of ancient war armor, of oxydized bronze, consisting of a helmet, visor, shield, battle ax, sword and spear, offered by the bridge committee and competed for by the Omaha Guards and four companies of Iowa National Guards, on the evening of the bridge openng, and which was awarded to the former company, was formally presented to them Thursday evening at Max Moyer's jewelry Thursday evening at Max Meyer's jewelry store. The company, with fife and drum corps, marched to the place at 8 o'ciock and drew up in line in front of the store. Four men were detailed to go in and carry out the sward, which is very bulky, and the presentation speech in behalf of the committee was then made by Mr. Adolph Meyer in a very happy way. A neat response was made by Captain A. H. Scoff, and to the martial atrains of the dram corps the elegant prize was triumphant ly borne off to the armory.

The Chautauqua Display. Owing to the crowded condition of the new bridge on "opening day," the Chautauqua wagon was unable to get on to our streets until nearly dark, but it was here with its load of ladies and gentlemen, all of whom are interested in this grand movement. It was driven through some of the ain streets, but owing to the darkness th banner and streamers which represented the cause were lost to sight. However, they were out to stay, and did stay as long as they could. The wagon which they had was profinely decorated, as well as the banner, which bore the inscriptions: "Look up and not down," "Look forward and not backward, "Lend a hand."

The streamers on the sides of the wagon showed the name of the association, the Council Bluffs and Omaha Chautauqua assembly, opening session, July 5, 1889." The Railroad Items.

General Superintendent Dickenson went west over the Union Pacific yesterday. "Yes, the B. & M. enginers are entitled to consider the 'promotion' of H. B. Stone, as a victory, because, although he was evidently acting on orders from higher authority he was looked upon as being the head and front of the offenders. But then the victory is only a moral one, and came too late to be of any service to the majority of them, and, after all the new appointment leaves the of any service to the majority of them, and, after all, the new appointment leaves the matter practically unchanged, for as General Freight Agent E. P. Ripley ranked almost on a par with Mr. Stone, and was tarred with the same brush. Besides, he is a personal friend of President Perkins. No doubt some action was taken at the engineers' convention, that forced the company to make some change, and they choose this way to satisfy every one and hurt no one. I think it is a good move, and in a short time the strike will be declared off."

A Little Boy Wedged Between an Elevator and a Floor.

Johnnie O'Connor, a bright fifteen-year-old office-boy in the employ of the Great Western Type Foundry, Howard street, met with a serious accident yesterday that may terminate fatally. He was on the fourth floor of the warehouse and attempted to board an elevator that was moving upward. He missed his footing, and while the upper portion of his body was on the elevator, his limbs were banging down, and in that position he was forced into a six-inch space, until his body stopped the elevator. He was extri-cated with difficulty, and found to be frightcated with difficulty, and found to be frightfully crushed and mutilated in the abdomen. Medical aid was summoned and he was removed to the home of his sister. Mrs. Ford Smith, who resides at No. 1112 Sixth street. An Omaha Man Killed.

Word reached this city yesterday that Mike Foley, a stone mason, was killed at Beatrice Wednesday evening. He was at work on the new Methodist church at that place, when the scaffolding gave away and precipitated him to the ground, a distance of forty feet. He died instantly. Frank Mc-Farland was on the scaffold, but escaped with a badly mangled foot. Both men are well known in Omaha. Until recently Folcy occupied quarters in a boarding house on Harney street, between Tenth and Eleventh streets. McFarland was raised in Omaha, and his widowed mother and sister reside on Vinton street near Twenty seventh.

Next to the presidential contest has created more excitement than our great Overcoat sale. It is the talk of the town, and every mail brings us scores of letters from outside ordering Overcoats. We have not said half enough about these garments in our last "Ad." Hundreds of customers praised the Overcoats more than we did, and acknowledged that what they saw outstripped their best expectations.

Of the three special lots advertised last week, two are nearly sold out and the only one we have a fair quantity of, and all sizes yet are the $7.75 SATIN LINED CHINCHILLAS. There isn't anything that will compare with them at double the price in Omaha, and you will say so if you see them.

We propose to keep up this grand Overcoat sale for a while, and to replace the broken lots will add to-day and offer for the coming week three more styles, which we can conscientiously recommend as bargains just as great and unparalelled.

Elegant wide wale woven back cassimere Overcoats in 2 shades, blue and brown, well trimmed and made at $6.00. This is an extraordinary bargain; $6.00 would not pay for the Cloth alone in the garment. We have sold the same Overcoats right here early in the season as a bargain for $10, and they can not be bought elsewhere for less than $12.50 to $15.

A large lot of strictly all wool Chinchilla Overcoats, the Chinchilla made by one of the best mills in the country and warranted Indigo wool dyed, with elegant serge lining and satin sleeve lining at $8. We challenge any reliable Clothing House to produce a like garment for $12. Our price this week is $8.

The third is the bargain of the season. A lot of rich and velvety Venetians and Elysiums, in beautiful mixtures, lined throughout and sleeves with finest silk; a garment which is not often in ready-made stores, at $15. You would not have a coat made to order any more if you see these. They are perfect in every respect and a merchant tailor must charge for a similar coat, $50 or $60.

Next week we promise some extraordinary thing in suits and pants Watch our "ad."

Close, economical and intelligent buyers who are judges of qualities and values are doubly welcomed to this great sale.
