Dalbey's band was out in force yesterday, adding to the general enthusiasm and ex-riched the vicinity of the polling places with several selections during the day.

Mrs. B. M. Sargent has received a tele-

The work of tearing down the Pacific house is going on at a lively rate. The old shell is now down to the second story. The interior has all been stripped out, and by the end of the week the structure will be raised to the ground.

At a monthly conference of the ministers of the city, held yesterday morning in the Y.
 M. C. A. rooms, it was decided to observe Thanksgiving day with appropriate union services held in the Presbyterian church at 11 a. m. Rev. E. N. Harris was appointed to present the sermon.

The council has dropped the matter of erecting a new fire house in the western part of the city, and it is doubtful if anything further is done this fall. Several of the members of the council are opposed to the scheme and desire to wait until the city is able to erect a pretentious building on some site not yet decided on.

The November term of the district court was opened yesterday morning by the clerk and adjourned until next Tuesday morning, the 13th inst. Judge Carson will be on the bench. His reporter, C. H. Sholes, is about to leave for Oregon and will be succeeded by Mr. B. O. Houghton, a former member of the Pacific Express company at Omaha.

The city has contracted for its coal at $12.25 for hard coal and $4.75 for soft coal.
 For the city to bid for what private citizens can get for $10.50 in little lots, looks strange. The explanation is that the city pays in warrants. It is unfortunate that the city is compelled to follow such a poor financial policy. These warrants have to be paid, sooner or later, at full face, with interest.

 free to all present. Tickets on sale at Bushnell's book store.

Charles Mitchell and William Young each contributed $5.00 to the school fund yester-suit with $7.00. William Smith was also charged with intoxication, but pleaded not guilty, and his case was continued. Floyd and James, the parties charged with robbing the residence of W. S. Keeline, were not examined. Hoy's father, a man who was on Omaha yesterday to see about getting his son released. There being no evidence by which the boys could be held they were discharged.

H. Alderson, aaving drunk, was taken into custody last evening. He is said to be a conductor on the Omaha cable line. He drove over the new bridge, and lashed his horse up Broadway at a run until arrested by Officer Isenberger. He was attacked with delirium tremens shortly after being taken to the station, and Dr. Macrae was called.
 The victim made the most noise of any one ever taken into the station. His shrieks and yells were ear splitting and it was nearly midnight before he was quieted.

 will continue it from this time forward.
 Five crews are running at present, and seven more will be added. No regular schedule has yet been adopted, but cars are running about every fifteen minutes. The fare charged is fifteen cents for a single and twenty five cents for a round trip. Twenty tickets will be sold for two dollars. Six motor cars and ten coaches have already been received. Very few cases of intoxication were noticed on the streets and the election throughout was the most orderly one that has been held in this city for some time.

New Bridge on Broadway.

It is time that some steps were taken to replace the present bridge over Indian creek, on Broadway, with a larger structure and one that will accommodate the great amount of travel now passing over this thoroughfare. A petition was presented to the board of county supervisors some time ago and that body decided that the present structure was insufficient to meet the demands upon it, but thought best not to do anything in the matter, as there was some trouble with the company which built the bridge about the payment, and it was decided to settle that matter before taking any steps toward erecting a new bridge. In this manner the subject has been allowed to drop.
 The travel on Broadway is increasing daily, and still this little fifteen foot structure is unable to accommodate all of the traffic that passes through the sixty foot thoroughfare connecting the cities of Council Bluffs and Omaha.
 It is hoped that the public will not be compelled to put up with this inconvenience any longer. The county has built several bridges in this city for the past four years has been merely nominal, and it is hard to see why there should be so much difficulty in Election day in the Bluffs dawned bright and clear and the politicians were early astir. Voters were on hand as soon as the polls were opened, and the vote polled during the forenoon was very heavy. The large crowd and greatest excitement was around the Second ward polling place on Bryant street. The line there was strung out to considerable length during the entire day. At one time there were 138 men in line, waiting their turn to get to the window and deposit their ballots. In the First precinct, a colored quartette also en-

Scared By a Policeman.

Policeman Doyle covered himself with glory yesterday morning. A young man who had recently returned home from Glenwood was standing on Upper Broadway.
 Being mentally not over bright, an apparance attracted the brave copper's attention.
 When the young fellow saw the policeman he ran like a deer. The officer followed and soon overtook him. The patrol wagon was called and the poor, frightened boy taken to the jail. Here his identity was finally established and he was let go. The affair created considerable excitement for a time, and many criticisms upon the actions of the officer.

New Fad's in Men's Dress.

Table Talk: If predictions are to be fulfilled, the members of society will have to look to their laurels the season just to be inaugurated. The fashionable men are showing an alarming tendency towards discarding conventional costumes and adopting styles that are picturesque to say the least. We had a forecast of the unusual splendor during the past summer, when "gilded youths" sauntered about the summer hotel grounds, wearing brilliant suits re-relieved with white studs, or wide metal belts, and now it is pre-saged that the midwinter will herald styles yet more gorgeous. Some of the most courageous innovators give credence to the rumor by permitting their enterprising tailors to use their names "en evidence" as the French say, that our representative society men, a few of them, will actually wear the Oriental sash, minus the waistcoat, this winter for full dress.
 Now these same sashes are wide, of superb quality and exquisite colorings.
 There are pale grounds, such as pink or blue, with contrasting deeper tints running horizontally, and there are also deep grounds, such as stone, marine blue or royal purple, run with pale colored bars. Yes, they are effective; so effective in fact, that the warning is to be repeated: the belle of to-day needs to be wary of the belle of to-morrow.
 Well, from all prospects the belle intends to be extraordinarily wary, for charming in the extreme are the costumes in course of completion for the various midday and midnight entertainments that will soon make the winter days speed like so many fleecy clouds.

A Fat Dog Brings in a Harrison Vote.

Kennebec Journal. A prominent Augusta (Me.) democrat, who owns a canine which for some weeks has been growing stout, recently walked into a drug store and began to make some statements regarding the weight of the animal which the druggist could scarcely believe. After some discussion the drug man, who is a pronounced advocate of protection, said that if the dog weighed over twenty-seven pounds he would agree to vote the democratic ticket. The doctor master replied that if the animal didn't tip the balance at twenty-eight pounds his ballot should be thrown for Harrison and Morton.
 Scales were brought forth, and as the dog was found to weigh just twenty-six pounds, his master's vote will, at the next election, go against his will to swell the republican majority.

Six gold medals awarded Jarvis' Brandy

Editor Halford, of the Middletown (Conn.) Herald, has agreed, if Cleveland is elected, to wear his Harrison badge in mourning. During the day the reporter Brockway, of the Hartford "Times", is to attach the same symbol of mourning to his Cleveland badge if his candidate is beaten.
