Everybody invited. The excitement over the election returns does not prevent the walls of the new Merriam block from steadily rising. The structure is fast growing into shape and will be ready for occupancy much sooner than was

The boys are practicing to put themselves in the doctor's hands. The electric motor cars are a novelty to them, and they mus needs "catch on" as they pass up on Broad-way. Some authority should be exercised to stop this practice before there are any serious results to record.

Don't forget the Japanese tea party and lecture to-night at the Congregational church. A large number of tickets have already been taken. Rev. Dr. Bristol, pastor of the leading M. E. church, Chicago, says: "I take pleasure in testifying to the high character of S. R. Bonnell's lecture on Japan, which I had the good fortune to hear at Waseca Chautauqua assembly." Dr. Seybert found a little waif on the streets yesterday, and took her to police headquarters. The little wanderer was about four years of age, and exceedingly intelligent. The officers gave the little stranger every attention and she seemed quite contented. There were no inquiries at the station during the day for a lost child, but it is probable that the little one will be claimed shortly.

There was a break at the power house of the electric motor company about half past in o'clock yesterday afternoon, and a complete stoppage of all cars on the line resulted. Cars were left all along the line, and remained during the rest of the day. Those on Broadway were hauled by horse power to the side tracks so as to allow the passage of the horse cars. The nature of the trouble could not be ascertained in the city during the afternoon, the only answer to inquiries being that there was a "break down."

The Methodist, Baptist, Congregational and Presbyterian churches unite this year as usual in a service on Thanksgiving day. accordance with the rotary plan it fell to the Methodist church this year to supply the sermon, and the Baptists the place of meeting. The pastor of the Broadway Methodist church having another engagement for that day, suggested that Rev. E. N. Harris, of the new Bethany Baptist church, preach the sermon. This was agreed to by the others, and it was decided to hold the service in the Presbyterian church. Presbyterian church.

Sealed Returns.

The returns came in very slowly yesterday, and in many cases afforded very little satisfaction when they did arrive. The books were sealed as usual and nothing appeared on the envelopes to indicate the result. This was owing to the fact that no blanks were printed on the face of the envelopes as formerly, for this purpose. If the party bringing in the returns happened to know the result it could be obtained, but this was the case in only a few instances. It will be impossible to learn the exact situation until the county board meets next Monday to canvass the returns. In the Second ward the counting was not completed until 6 o'clock last evening. The vote of this ward is much larger than any of the others and the elecboard was evidently in no hurry.

Bunching the Wires. The telephone company is making arrangements to run all of their wires into the exchange on the cable plan. As now arranged the telephone and telegraph wires form a perfect network on Broadway, between Mair and Pearl streets. The wires will be united into a cable about a hundred yards from the telephone exchange and continued to the office in that manner. It is expected that this plan will prove much more satisfactory than the present one. Guy posts for the purpose are now being set and the change will be effected in about two weeks. fected in about two weeks.

blocks away from the street cars on Broadway. These lots are 50x250 feet, and are choice residence property. They are high and dry and present a commanding view. For full information regarding prices and terms apply to J. G. Tipton, sole agent, 527 Broadway.

Last evening a badly battered man ap-peared at the central telephone office and gave the following account of himself: "My name is W. C. Keeline. I live at 821 Park avenue, Omaha. I was on this side of the river with a dog cart. It was getting late and I was driving fast as I was in a nurry to get home. I was near this end of the bridge when a hack, driven rapidly, ran into me, or rather we collided. I knew nothing for over an hour. They brought me back to the city, and a doctor sewed up my head."

The wheel struck him on the right side of the head, cutting the scalp and forehead in a frightful manner.

"Oh, I can take care of myself now, I guess. The horse! I don't know where he is, but the cart is smashed to kindling wood—at least that is what they told me."

DRAGGING THE FIGURES IN.

They Show Republican Gains to Be Big in the Bluffs.

CHAMBERS A GREAT WINNER

Fresh Evidence in the Coyle Case-Gathering Up the Wires—Minor Happenings — Latest News From the Election.

Gathered From the Battle Field. What do you hear! Business in the Bluffs yesterday was largely given up to asking and answering this query concerning election. Crowds stood about the bulletin boards, and all seemed afraid to crow. The republicans were very confident, but yet wanted further assurance that Harrison was really elected The democrats were very glum, and gave up all hopes. In the afternoon there was the first cheering. It was caused by the posting up of a bulletin stating that a mistake had been discovered, by which New York state would be given to Cleveland by 2,000 majority. The democrats smiled and shouted for the first time during the day. The republicans pooh-poohed at it, denouncing it as bogus, as farcical, etc., but still they deemed it of sufficient importance to quietly whisper inquiries of each other as to whether such a thing could be true.

The interest in the national contest drew attention away from the local part of the ticket. Most seemed satisfied with estimates of the general result.

Judge Reed, the republican candidate for congress, had evidently rolled up a good majority over Judge Harris, of Missouri Valley. This district has been republican, with the exception of the time when Mr. Pusey was elected over Major Anderson. That, too, was before the redistricting of the state.

The confidence in the victory being for Harrison has thus early caused some, streetof the general result. Harrison has thus early caused some street-corner discussion as to who will be the succassor to Postmaster Bowman, the demo cratic incumbent. His ownership of the democratic organ, and his known activity in democratic organ, and his known activity in political matters, has led to the prediction by many that a change of administration would cause him to be cut off before his full term had expired. Several names are already being mentioned as liable to succeed him. Among them are J. J. Steadman, I. M. Treynor, D. W. Bushnell and M. J. Sears.

The returns up to this hour indicate very large republican gains. To effect so great a change was no small matter, and the result reflects much credit upon the organization and work of the central committee, of which and work of the central committee, of which J. P. Treynor was chairman.

Two years ago the township ticket was split. Schurz, independent, and endorsed by the republicans, was elected as one of the justices. Briggs, democratic, was also elected, and Bennett, republican.
For constables, two years ago, the democrats elected Ricketts and Kline, but the republican alected Spanding. publicans elected Spaulding.

Two years ago the democrats elected Green as township trustee by 219 majority, and Lutz as clerk by 193 majority. Two years ago this county gave Shea (brother of the present candidate), a democratic majority of 374. The democrats also elected Thomas as recorder by a majority of 256. Colonel Daily, republican candidate for county attorney, was elected by a majority of 178 over Williams. Henry Faul, democrat, was elected coroner by a majority of 417. The republicans elected two members of the county board, Frum by a majority of of the county board, Frum by a majority of 50 and C. B. Waite by a majority of 878. The contest for county attorney seems very close, with indications favorable to the election of Organ, democrat, over Hazelton. The republicans will elect one supervisor Alexander Osler. Sam Underwood, democrat who has been so long on the bogrd, and who has proved a valuable member, is probably defeated, which is a great surprise. The democrats probably elected their other nominee for supervisor, Charles Alexander.

Thomas, the present incumbent, is probably re-elected as county recorder, over the republican candidate, Battey. Thomas is very popular, but his majority evidently will be greatly reduced.

The republicans elect their three candidates in the republicans. dates for justice of the peace—Barnett, Reed and Biggs. The first two are republicans. Biggs is an old-time democrat who failed to get a renomination by the democrats, and was taken up and endorsed by the republicans, he having declared his intention to run In the First ward the democratic majority is about 50, in the Second about 30, in the Third about 10; in the Fourth, first precinct, the republicans have a majority of 48, and in the second precinct of the Fourth ward the democrats have a majority of 125.

The following returs are in from some of the wards: First—Shea 326, Chambers 338, Organ 356, Hist—Shea 520, Chambers 535, Organ 550, Hazelton 314. Second—Shea 512, Chambers 514, Battey 479, Thomas 653, Hazelton 506, Organ 526, Perry 506, Osler 497, Alexander 521, Under-wood 530. Third—Shea 312, Chambers 401, Thomas

397, Battey 349, Hazelton 366, Underwood 372, Osler 341, Alexander 356, Perry 348.

Later returns may modify or change the above somewhat. The election of Schurz (dem.) to the justiceship in place of Biggs is a possibility. Hazelton (rep.) needs about two hundred votes. Five townships and the Fourth ward of the city are yet to send re-turns. What changes these will make canot be surmised. Last evening until a late hour the republican headquarters were filled with a crowd of jollifiers. Returns were received and read and speeches were made by various orators. The democratic headquarters were locked up and abandoned. The democrats received no and abandoned. The democrats received to returns and the various places for their con-gregating were all as silent as the grave. Thus the day closed with a feeling of exulta-tion upon the one hand and gloom upon the

The Attack on Coyle.

The readers of THE BEE will remember he facts concerning the arrest of three men, Dwyer, Egwood and Roland, near Lake Manawa a few weeks ago, charged with atempting to murder James Coyle, a farmer living in that vicinity. They were bound over to the grand jury, but have concluded to turn state's evidence. They claim that other parties were concerned in the matter, and warrants have been issued for the arrest of John Coyle and Lawrence McDermott.
There has been bad blood for a long time between the Coyle brothers, and it is claimed that this is at the bottom of the shooting affair. John Coyle was arrested and furnished $500 bonds for his appearance for trial. Egwood denies that he was present at the time of the shooting. The case promises to become quite interesting before it is finished.

Election at Avoca. The republicans at Avoca are joyful over gains. They elect their assessor, L. Ward, by a large majority, and also their trustee. The democrats elect the township clerk by one majority, two justices and one constable. Heretofore the democrats have carried everything. Harrison has 13 majority. Harris, democrat, for congress, has 33 majority. Shea, for county clerk, has 26 majority.

Circuit Riding in Iowa.

Chicago Tribune: A number of young clergymen, all graduates of the Methodist theological seminary at Evanston, met down town the other day and were relating to each other anecdotes of their experience in the various fields to which they had been assigned. "My most amusing experience." said one young brother, "was in a little village in Iowa where the conference sent me to begin my ministerial work. My cir-cuit included three or four little villages and as many school houses, and I tried to preach a sermon at each place once every two weeks. In the village of Edgewood dwelt a good old lady named Mrs. Wickham, an emigrant from the Green Mountains and one of the pillars of the church. I had just been married before going on the circuit and the next day after our arrival in Edgewood Mrs. Wickham sent for my wife and myself to come to her

"In the afternoon we went and were warmly greeted by the old lady. 'I am so glad you've come, Brother L—, and brought your wife,' said she. 'I've been waitin' and waitin' you don't know how anxiously ever since Brother Jones went away, which is nigh onto three months, and there hasn't been a preacher in this house since. I've got some little things to do that I've been a savin' till the minister come, and now you've brought Sister L--. Let's get them off'n our hands and then we can sit down and have a good long talk. "I confess I was a little puzzled at this reception, not knowing exactly what the people on my circuit had been in the habit of saving up for the minister to do. However, I was not long left in the dark. The old lady disappeared into the kitchen and soon called for us to follow. We did so, and found the room littered with two or three old bedsteads that had been taken to pieces with a big kettle of boiling water at her side.

"Now, Sister L—, jest you take this yere apron of mine, or you'll spoil your dress, she said to my wife. "The pesky bugs have been so bad in these bedsteads that I have sometimes felt jest as if I couldn't wait till you come to give them a good scalding.

and spread about the floor. In the mid-dle of the floor stood Mrs. Wickham,

This, then, was a part of the circuit rider's duties in Iowa, thought I; but the old lady seemed to take it so entirely as a matter of course that the preacher should help her with her work that I couldn't well refuse. wife laughingly put on the apron and went to work, and I took off my coat and cuffs and took hold, too. It was a long job and after we had got the bedsteads thoroughly scalded, they had to be car-ried up stairs, set up and "corded," for they were the old fashioned kind of bedsteads in which ropes did duty in lieu of springs or slats. But this did not end the work, for on coming down stairs the old lady remarked that the stove was a little warm yet, but that if I was careful I could black it without burning my hands. This was a little too much and I was about to rebel, but my wife whispered to me that we might as well make a day of it. So we went at that stove and polished it until you could see your face in it, and then helped the old lady clean up the kitchen. By that time the sun was down, and our hostess kindly permitted us to withdraw. Did we stay for supper? Why, bless you, the good soul in her joy at getting her house cleaned up forgot to say anything about supper. We were glad enough to get home without being asked to dig up the potatoes or build a calf pen. But ever since that day my wife and I have always had a prior engagement when asked to visit Mrs. Wickham."

November Clothing.

American Magazine: Proper clothing for November includes soft, firm woolen textures next the skin. If some of the various varieties of health wear cannot be obtained a good substitute may be found in vests and pants made of pure flannel. Loosness of fit is essential: for in such pliable folds as these garments are forced into by pressure of outer garb, body heat is entangled as in a net garb, body heat is entangled as in a net and retained, while outside cold is barred entrance. My patients often say to me, "Doctor, I cannot bear wool next my skin. It causes intolerable itching and is uncomfortable." "Very well," is the answer, "but try it just for twenty-four hours longer; and if you are still rest-less you may change." Inside the given time, the cutaneous nerves have become time, the cutaneous nerves have become accustomed to the new comer, and have welcomed him as a far better friend than the one set aside, and in a week the most delicate patient would not change back again at all.

Besides additional warmth, there is an electrical action aroused by friction of wool against human skin that promotes capillary circulation, keeps skin functions going and largely contributes so general health in that singular way which I have named, for want of a better term, vitalizing power. For electricity is close kin to life; how near, no one can tell.

Mrs. Cleveland's Gloves Match Now. Washington Post: Mrs. Cleveland, by constantly driving all the summer and autumn, has greatly strengthened her left wrist, and she is now able to wear gloves of the same number on both hands. The constant handshaking to which she has been subjected at the white house, had noticeably enlarged her right hand and wrist, so that she was obliged to wear on that hand a larger glove than on the left hand. Her dexterous use of the ribbons has reduced the swelling of her right hand, and she no longer buys two pairs of gloves for one service.
