News About Telescopes.

The chances are that the moon will be seen by the inhabitants of the civilized world as the interior of Africa is at the present time. The telescope manufactured by order of the late millionaire Lick for the observatory at Mt. Wilson, California, has enjoyed the distinction of being the largest and strongest in the world; but it is likely to undergo a comparative eclipse.

THE SPECULATIVE MARKETS.

A Strong Combination of Bears Raid the Wheat Pit. NERVOUSNESS OF THE BULLS. Corn Rather Dull—Oats Fairly Active and Firm—But Little Trading in Provisions—Cattle Steady—Hogs Slow.

CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKET.

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—There is a very strong party in wheat working for a decline. It is an aggressive party and its attitude has caused the unloading of considerable lines of "long" property which is certainly an unwise move.

Harlem Bridge.

Chicago Tribune: There have been two notable bridges in the political history of the state of New York—first Cayuga and then Harlem bridge. When the anti-republican "breakers" of 1828 the counties west of Cayuga bridge were all carried away by it.

Steamers Collide in a Fog.

New York, Nov. 11.—The Canadian steamer Umbria collided with the Fabro steamer Liberia about four miles off Long Beach, just beyond Rockaway, Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock. The Fabro was badly damaged, having her whole stern out, and the Umbria, after talking off her crew of thirty men and lying by the injured ship all night, came up to dock to repair this morning at 11 o'clock.

THE LEGISLATURE.

Even More Solidly Republican Than Two Years Ago. Although the returns are not complete from the various senatorial and legislative districts, yet enough have been received to show who will compose the next legislature except in three doubtful districts.

Johnstown's Jollification.

JOHNSTOWN, Neb., Nov. 11.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The republicans of Johnstown celebrated their national and state victory last night. Speeches were made by Judge James Morris, M. P. Wilscher, Rev. S. W. Koutz and W. H. Wolcott.

What Is Cataract?

Cataract is an inflammation of the mucous membrane of the eye, and may occur at any age, and in both eyes. It is the most common, often coming on so gradually that it has a long history before the patient is aware of its presence.

Wholesale Grocery Houses.

Chicago News: The wholesale grocery houses in Chicago are not behind the other great business enterprises of the city. The lines of railway carry their consignments of goods to the Pacific slope and the Gulf of Mexico. Aside from the foreign trade which New York City can command, its houses in this line are not superior to those of Chicago.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

Chicago, Nov. 10.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—CATTLE.—About all the fresh arrivals from Texas. There were a few loads of natives and no rangers. Texas sold out early at satisfactory prices, in some instances 10c higher. A few loads of natives were also sold.
