A Move to Establish a Law Department at the State University.

NEW NEBRASKA ENTERPRISES.

Incorporation of the Norfolk and Southwestern Railway Company-The Marble Dealers' Convention -General and Personal.

LINCOLN BUREAU OF THE OMARA BER,)

1029 P STREET, LINCOLN, NOV. 16. For several years past there has been a great deal said about the advisability of a law department in connection with the state university. The only reason that this matter has not been pushed is because it has been has not been pushed is because it has been thought that the opportune moment had not arrived; that it would be the better plan to graind the departments of the university established before adding others of lesser importance. Agitation has, therefore, been kept down from one year to another, but in view of the fact that more of the abler and better educated young men of the state are seeking the law rather than any of the other unfessions a new interest has been awakened professions, a new interest has been awakened in the scheme, and there is some assurance of its success.

There are many reasons urging its necessity. Very many of the literary graduates of the university who have chosen law as their profession, have been compelled to go from home, from year to year, to acquire the training and knowledge so essential for successful practice, and the law departments of Ann Arbor, Iowa City, Harvard and Johns Horking rean the reward and vard and Johns Hopkins reap the reward and credit that ought to rest with the state's chief institution of learning. Besides, it is urged that the various departments are now so thoroughly established that the law deso thoroughly established that the law de-partment can be added without pressure, and that the university will be greatly benefitted by the addition. Literary graduates who would delve the into mysteries of Blackstone can finish the chosen profession at home, and without necessitating an expense that ought not to attend the life work of legitimate heirs of a state's educational system. It will also be urged that the state has a suffi-cient library to meet the wants of the decient library to meet the wants of the de-partment for many years to come, and that the only expense to the state additional to the only expense to the state additional to that already known will be to sustain a law faculty. It is thought, in view of the needs, that there will be no difficulty in securing the next legislature, and this claim of the university will be urged by resi-dent members of the house and senate, and by others whose attention has been directly called to the subject. The project bids fair to give the state celebrity, and if i wins will keep Nebraska's legal fledgings at NEW NEBRASKA CORPORATIONS.

The proverbial enterprise of Nebraskans is again indicated by the articles incorporating the Bemis Park company and the Yankton, the Bemis Park company and the Yankton, Norfolk & Southwestern railway company, flied with the secretary of state this morning. The object of the park company is to acquire a certain tract of real estate in the city of Gmaha, known as College place, and that part of Mercer park lying cast of Pleasant street, in all about fifty acres, and to lay out the same into a private park and to vacate any adjacent property affecting the object of the company. Itn is stated that portions of the real estate described, may be subdivided into lots, blocks, parks, streets and alleys, all of which is to be improved, paved, graded, planted in trees and other paved, graded, planted in trees and otherwise fashioned and made attractive and beautiful. The company authorize a capital stock of $400,000, which is divided into shares of $100 each and $350,000 of the subshares of $100 each and $350,000 of the subscribed stock is to be paid in on or before the 31st of December, 1888. The following gentlemen are the incorporators, viz.: George P. Bemis, Samuel D. Mercer, Edward D. Nash, John D. Howe and John H. Dument.

The railway company organize to build and equip a road from the right bank of the Missouri river, opposite Yankton, Dak., in the county of Cedar, this state, through Knox and Pierce counties to Norfolk, Madison county, and the capital stock authorized for the purpose is $250,000, divided into 2,500 for the purpose is $250,000, divided into 2,500

TOMBSTONE DEALERS CONVENTION. The convention of the marble cutters and dealers of the state closed to-day. A per manet organization was effected. The meet ing was harmonious and appreciative of the business and social interests of the craft. It was the sense of the convention that legisla tion in this behalf is necessary in the state. Under existing laws they have no claims upon goods after they leave the dealer's hands, and consequently, they have been at the mercy of the unscrupulous. A resolution was passed seeking to have the legisla-ture of the state interest themselves in their behalf. They ask that a law be passed that will protect them from dishonest purchasers. will protect them from dishonest purchasers.
Charles Needhart, of Brownville, was elected permanent chairman, and J. H. Meyer, of Grand Island, secretary. The retailers of the south were represented by the following representative dealers:
A. H. Brown, Red Cloud; J. M. David, York; J. Broulette, Schuyler; J. E. Lutz, Blair; M. D. Lennon, Hebron; Kimball Bros., Heiter & Keim and J. T. Sheehey, Lincoln; Heiter & Keim and J. T. Representatives of wholesale houses, who were also invited to attend, were present as follows: T. Dunlap, of Bagley & Nason, Chicago; W. C. Crosier, of D. H. Dickinson, Chicago; C. J. Field, of Chicago Marble company; C. C. Goodell, of Peoria Steam Marble works; Ed McLean, of the Cincinnati Georgia Marble company.

FOLITICAL GOSSIP.

There has been more or less talk during There has been more or less talk during the last few days among politicians regarding Senator Manderson. "Do not think," says one, "that Manderson will have it all his own way. For my part, I cannot see how he can consistently lay claim to general support, He will have but a single vote from his own county, unless democracy's ship is capsized by the contemplated contest. It is all nonsense to stand up and claim that a man out-grows the boundaries of his home. This can only be true when home support continues allegiance. Presidential candidates don't go into a convention without the support o their states with any assurance of success. This kind of logic is not infrequent in the corridors of the hotels as the senatorial contest is canvassed from night to night. A great many think that Manderson will succeed himself on the first ballot. But the opposition casts sharp eyes to the windward. There is a fight browing, and it may assume more interesting proportions than the one witnessed here two years ago. CITY NEWS AND NOTES.

Hon. I. M. Raymond will not be averse to being president pro tem of the senate. It is said that he has aspirations that way. There are still thirteen counties to hear from before the official vote of the state can be announced. The republican presidentia ticket will hug 28,000 plurality awful close. It proved to be a winner.

Church Howe is the "flippest" man on earth to be out of politics. He was in Lincoin again to-day in close conference with some of the state house officials. Mr. Howe is after game of some kind. Prof. Valentine, of Nebraska City, one of the faculty of the new college at that place, was in Lincoln to-day. He was here on bus-iness connected with his work. He is one of the progressive educators of the state. A number of the university students thirst for oratorical honors. A meeting was held this afternoon at the chapel to see what could be done towards university students taking a place in the state organization. Old students seem to think that there is too much sugar in the undertaking for the glory assured. The Weslevanites have organized and will take part in the next contest, which takes place some time in January.

Peter Nelson and Christine Dahlberg were married here to-day. Judge Stewart issued the license and tied the knot that made them The goutlemen interested in the new Amer-

FLORENCE LAND SQUABBLE. The City and Citizens Engaged in a

The evidence of this fact was obtained Thursday, and will, in all probability, be followed by much more until the courts settle the dispute. A large portion of the land up there is city property. which is now claimed by residents. A special meeting of the city council was called some weeks ago, for the purpose of taking action with regard to the property question. At the end of the season Mr. Tucker, the proprietor of the Florence hotel, who was one of the stock holders purchased all the shares in the concern, paying the holders 50 cents on the dollar. He bought the lumber with the view of utilizing it in building a store. While his teamsters were engaged in removing the lumber a Mrs. White appeared on the scene and informed the men that the land on which the grand stand was belonged to her and that she forbid them taking any of the lumber away. Tucker informed the marshal, who proceeded to make inquiry. The White family had Tucker informed the marshal, who proceeded to make inquiry. Some of the Features of Colonel Henry's Annual Target Report

This interesting and valuable document has been submitted to the department commander. It shows that the progress in rifle practice has been constant from year to year. In 1865, the figure of merit was 60; in '86 72; in '87, 78; and this year, nearly 83. This progress, Colonel Henry says, is due to care ful instruction, untiring zeal, energy and work of the officers and the enthusiasm of the Fort Laramie, Colonel Merriam, has gained nost since last year, and Troop I, Ninth cavalry, and Company B, Seventh infantry Captain Hughes and Lieutenant Booth.

Colonel Henry recommends that every shot fired hereafter be counted, instead of, as now, picking out the best scores in a large number; that a new carbine be issued to the cavalry, and that they be not required to com-pete with the infantry and use the rifle as now done. He believes every enlisted man com-ing to or returning from the rifle competi-tions should have commutation of rations or money to buy meals, and not, as now, carry-ing his food while the poorest emigrant has his regular meal at every eating station. It is also recommended that the targets, repre-senting men kneeding, lying days and standcavalry, and that they be not required to com scriting men kneeling, lying down and stand-ing, be used at individual firings, instead of the bull's-eye target with circles. These figure targets are used in skirmish firings, and have caused the present shooting at a figure, such as would be represented in battle.

The recommendation that at the end of the season, at all posts, the companies have a competition, will produce good results and be of great interest.

There are many things to be grate ful for, if we would but think so, and among these are the introduction of Van Duzer's Flavoring Extracts somewhat less than a third of a century ago. BERGSTROM'S PANTALOONS.

Thieves Make a Break to Possess Them. Three thieves entered S. J. Bergstrom's store, at 1122 Farnam street, shortly before noon yosterday, ostensibly to purchase some clothing. One of them got behind Louis Brash, a clerk who was showing the goods to the other two, and slipped a $7.50 pair of pants under his coat. Mr. Brash suspected something was wrong, and noticing a decided bulge on one side of the fellow's breast threw open the latter's coat and discovered the pair of pants. Brash then seized the the pair of pants. Brash then seized the fellow and shouted to Mr. Bergstrom to close the front door. The crook struck Brash and managed to break away, and all three made for the front door. Mr. Bergstrom, however, stood there on guard, but the three seized him and a desperate struggle ensued. By blows and choking they managed to overpower the plucky clothing man and set away. Two of plucky clothing man and get away. Two of them ran west and south, and the one who had taken the pants started east on Farnam, and Mr. Bergstrom gave chase, meanwhile raising the cry of "stop thief." A large crowd joined in the pursuit and enjoyed the pleasure of seeing Bergstrom catch the crook in a chicken coop in the alley back of the Eden Musee. The thief showed fight and struck the policeman who arrived at this time, but the officer, with a few effectual blows of his club, subdued the fellow. At the police station he gave the name of Charles

BAD UNITED STATES OFFICIALS. Rumors That the Grand Jury is Now

Considering Their Offenses. There are rumors affoat in government or cles to the effect that before the present federal grand jury completes its labors some mut ters of a sensational nature will be brought before the public. It is whispered that evidence is being compiled, which will be submitted at an early date, to the grand jury, against two postmasters in the rural districts and one railway clerk. The department of inspection was visited by a reporter, but none inspection was visited by a reporter, but none of the attaches would advance any information that would either directly confirm, or deny the reports. A certain official admitted that arrests of certain government officials would likely follow, when the present jury submitted its report. Owing to the precaution exercised in keeping the details in secrecy, nothing further could be obtained in connection with the reports.

An Imprompta Geyser. Yesterday morning the water main on South Eighteenth, below Luke, burst, and a stream of water over thirty feet high poured out. A hole about eight feet across was torn in the paved street by the pressure of the escaping water, and the cedar blocks were sent flying in all directions, causing the people in the lumediate vicinity to believe that Omaha had added a geyser to its other attractions.
