Clearing House Returns Show a Fair Increase for the Week.
RESULT OF THE ELECTIONS.
The Flour Market is Without Life, and Millers are Talking of Forming Trusts—Sugar is Weaker and Declining.

The result of the elections has had no appreciable effect on the money market here more than elsewhere, and rates are unchanged and the supply equal to the demand. The movement of merchandise is seasonable and trade is fully up to expectations, clearing house returns showing a fair increase over the corresponding week of last year.

There has been no material change in prices. Sugar is weaker and declining. Rice coffee, in very liberal supply, and the market is without life. The flour market is without life, and millers are talking of forming trusts to curtail production.
