

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS.

OFFICE NO 12 PEARL STREET. Delivered by carrier in Advance Part of the City...

MINOR MENTION.

N. Y. Plumbing company. See the "London Tailor." Elegant evening gowns at A. Reiter's...

There will be preaching at the Berean Baptist church every evening this week. You are invited to attend.

Regular communication of Bluff City Lodge No. 71 F. & A. M., this (Tuesday) evening.

The condition of "Billy" Smith last evening was unchanged. It was stated that he might possibly recover, but he is not expected to live many hours.

About forty members of the Danabo society went to Omaha yesterday to attend the funeral of N. A. Peterson, a deceased member of the order in that city.

The funeral of little Bessie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Smith, was held at 10 o'clock yesterday forenoon, at the residence of her parents, near the paper company's works.

Next Friday evening there is to be a "Quiz" sociable at the Congregational church. Everybody is invited to come.

The sociable of the Presbyterian church will be entertained by the Women's Exchange this evening at the residence of Mr. E. L. Shugart, No. 909 First avenue.

Hazel camp, M. W. A., will meet this evening at 7:30 sharp, at Camp hall, to attend the banquet at Omaha.

The members have concluded to take advantage of the new Broadway bridge and go by team, it being pleasanter and cheaper than by the dummy train.

On returning the members will be delivered at their own residences. County Auditor Hendricks had his hands full yesterday issuing warrants on claims allowed by the county board of supervisors at its last meeting.

A great many of them were for work done in connection with election, for, as the auditor says, "elections cost money in this country."

Pumpkin pie sociable at Mrs. Northrup's, 610 Washington avenue, tomorrow, Wednesday evening, for the benefit of St. Paul's church.

Mrs. T. J. Mackay, Mrs. Ira Hendricks, Mrs. Elmer, and the Misses Simpson, Prof. Chilus will render banjo and guitar selections, assisted by the members of his class. All are welcome to attend.

The last trace of the "Everett cot-towood," the old landmark that has stood for years at the corner of Broadway and Pearl, was removed yesterday.

The fall thereof was not very great, inasmuch as the top had all been removed before the axe was laid at the roots. Several of the older citizens stood by and witnessed the fall of the "old settler," and rehearsed the story of its planting, and other incidents of years long gone by.

See W. C. Stacy's ad. See Forrest Smith's special column. We do not intend to impose any except articles of merit, but we take pleasure in referring to the "Omaha" stores and houses, whose superiority is too well established to be called in question.

Headquarters for stoves. ODELL & BRYANT, 513 Main st. Watch for Chapman's etching sale.

Domestic Infelicity. Henry Seibel, a butcher in the employ of Conrad Lanzendorfer, the main street marketman, is now left alone to mourn the loss of his wife, who is said to have skipped with a handsome man.

The family lived on Fourth street until the wife departed about two weeks ago to parts unknown. Her husband found her yesterday at the roadhouse about four miles east of the city and caused her arrest for adultery. A few friends in the city furnished $500 bonds and the woman was released.

Weather strips at Chapman's sart store. Notice the beautiful finish given collars, cuffs and shirts by Cascade Laundry company.

The Great London Tailor Has come to Council Bluffs with the largest stock and finest grades of goods ever seen in the city which will be made up at the lowest figures ever given anywhere. No. 637, corner of Broadway and Seventh street, Postoffice block.

Remember the "London Tailor," and give him a call. E. H. Sheafe & Co. make long or short time loans on real estate, in sums to suit, at lowest rate of interest. Office Broadway and Main street, upstairs.

We have no competitors in finishing collars, cuffs and shirts. Cascade Laundry Co. The School Board. The school board held a meeting last evening. It was the regular monthly session.

The usual lot of bills were allowed for current expenses. The work of grading and adding at the Hill school was accepted and the bills liquidated. The greater part of the evening was devoted to arranging for minor details in connection with the Atkins building. The raising of the bell and other matters were discussed and the meeting then adjourned.

ALL THE NEWS OF THE BLUFFS

A Dirty Case in the District Court Draws the Usual Crowd.

FOOLISH RUMORS OF CONTAGION

The Police Find a Few Bad Ones—The New Atkins School—Death of James Vessey—The Gymnasium.

The New Atkins School. The school board has not formally named the new school building, but it is probable that it will be named after President Atkins, who has been so zealous and faithful in looking after educational interests.

This follows the precedent of the Bloomer building, which was named after another prominent citizen. The Nonpareil already terms it the Atkins school, and this will doubtless be the popular christening of the grand building.

The building shows up very finely and those who come up Pearl street get a better view of it than ever, now that the old Pacific house no longer obstructs the vision. It leads many to express the wish that the street was opened right through to the Atkins school.

There is consolation for such, however, in the fact that the next building to occupy the site of the old Pacific house will be the elegant one of Eiseman & Co. Although it will shut off the view of the Atkins school, it will of itself be a thing of beauty and a joy for many years, at least.

If you want to borrow money, buy a lot, house and lot, farm, or trade anything, see A. A. Clark & Co., Broadway and Main.

Money loaned at L. B. Crafts & Co.'s loan office, on furniture, pianos, horses, wagons, personal property, of all kinds, and all other articles of value without removal. All business strictly confidential.

Illinois and Iowa best soft coal, Gleason, 20 Pearl street.

E. H. Sheafe loans money on chattel security of every description. Private consulting rooms. All business strictly confidential. Office 500 Broadway, corner Main street, up stairs.

Exercising Their Muscles. The regular winter drill will soon begin at the gymnasium of the Young Men's Christian association. The class for business men begins this week to meet at 7 o'clock every evening.

The young men's class meets as usual on Tuesday, Thursday and Friday at 8 p. m. The drills in use for these classes are models of light gymnastic exercises, no one being expected to undertake anything that is violent or dangerous.

The management realize the fact that those who enter the gymnasium do not expect to become professional gymnasts and have no time to waste in any such endeavor. What is needed is steady, systematic exercise for the benefit of the health, and to this end the classes are devoted.

The Council Bluffs Y. M. C. A. has provided the gymnasium with everything essential to a successful winter's work; chest weights, rowing machines, back strengtheners, breast exercisers, etc., adapted to the development of every part of the human frame.

The benefits of an institution like this are just the thing for clerks, bookkeepers, and all professional men. The thing, emaciated clerk is fast becoming a thing of the past, and this is as it should be.

The finish on our collars, cuffs and shirts cannot be equalled. Cascade Laundry Co.

We have listed with us some cash and a few good farms to exchange for Council Bluffs property. A. A. Clark & Co., Broadway and Main.

J. G. Tipton has bargains in real estate. S. B. Wadsworth & Co. loan money. Mixed pickles in bulk at N. I. Tibbits, 345 Broadway.

See Forrest Smith's special column. A Few Unhappy Ones. Judge Aylesworth's Monday morning grist was fully as large as on previous occasions, and the victims contributed quite liberally to the city's exchequer.

John Johnson, a homesome looking vag was the first victim, and he was sent to the county cylinder for thirty days. If he follows the court's advice he will make tracks eastward as soon as he is released, to spend the holidays at home.

George Krone, Thomas Welsh and Norman Bullock were each taxed $3 for inebriation. Joe Scott and W. A. Brown were booked for drunkenness and reckless driving through the streets of the city. They were each fined $1.00.

John Oberman was charged with disturbing the peace. When found by the officer he was engaged in an attempt to tunnel a roadway with his fist, through the head of Thomas Evans. The strike was well under way when stopped by the appearance of the "copper." John pleaded guilty in a little innocent divertissement, and was assessed $9.00.

Evans, his unwilling victim, was discharged after spending a night in the cooler as a penalty for being found in such company. For bargains in real estate in any part of the city see P. J. Day, the leading real estate dealer.

Loans made on city business and residence property. Notes bought. Kimball-Champ Investment company. Rock Spring coal, Gleason, 20 Pearl street.

All grades soft coal, C. B. Fuel Co. Books! Books! Manufactured to order by Morehouse & Co.

Senseless Rumors. It has been reported on the street for the past day or two that there was another case of small-pox on Avenue D, near the corner of Eighth street. A Bee representative investigated the matter yesterday and found the report to be entirely without foundation.

The alleged case is at 313 North Eighth street, and the patient is an aged lady named Mrs. S. A. Huff, living with Mrs. Voight. The attending physician, Dr. C. H. Pinney, says that the disease is pneumonia, and that there is no case of small-pox in that vicinity. The report has worked a great deal of harm to the interested parties, as Mrs. Voight keeps a small store in the building, and the sensational rumor has driven away all of her customers. This is not the only case of small-pox reported in the past few days, but it is on a par with the others. If a person is so unfortunate as to become ill, the report is speedily extinguished by the lively imagination of a few excitable individuals, and in a few hours the whole neighborhood is up in arms to have the attention of the authorities called to the terribly contagious case in their midst.

One very nervous citizen appeared on the street yesterday morning with the alarming statement that there were no less than nine cases of small-pox in the city, and found any number of people ready to credit the statement. The most careful inquiry and investigation has failed to discover more than the one case announced several days ago. That patient is said to be getting along very nicely, and the physician states that if she gets through to-morrow with no more alarming symptoms she will recover. It is hoped that no more of these sensational reports will be circulated, as they can do no possible good, and cannot help but result injuriously to the patient concerned, besides exciting a groundless scare and keeping people out of the city.

All grades hard coal, C. B. Fuel Co. The Doings of Court. The district court began to grind in full blast on the criminal cases yesterday morning. The first case called was that of State vs Norton. The prisoner was arraigned for the larceny of four pairs of pants from the store of M. Marcus, on the evening of November 10. The case was submitted to the jury shortly before noon, and they returned a sealed verdict in a very few minutes. The prisoner was found guilty as charged in the indictment.

In the afternoon Attorney Finley Burke was granted permission to introduce the testimony of two or three witnesses in the divorce case of Alice Sullivan vs John Sullivan. The divorce was asked on the ground of cruelty, habitual drunkenness and desertion. The matter was taken under advisement, and the case of State vs Smith and Hall was then called. The indictment alleges that, on the 17th day of September, 1888, the defendants, J. H. Smith and J. M. Hall, attempted an unnatural act on the person of Thomas Miller. As the statutes of Iowa fail to recognize such an act as a crime, or to provide a penalty, the prisoners were indicted for an assault with intent to do great bodily injury. The prosecuting witness, young Miller, a colored lad of fifteen years, evinced a decided aversion to testifying against the prisoners, which led to several questions from the county attorney. When tightly pinned down the witness testified to the same things as he had told before the grand jury. The case was a most disgusting one, and attracted the usual large number of spectators which turns out to hear a sensational case. The testimony was all introduced in the afternoon and the case submitted without argument. The jury will be charged at half-past 9 this morning and sent out.

We have some choice bargains in bottom property listed with us by parties who say they must have money. A. A. Clark & Co., Broadway and Main. Have our wagon call for your soiled clothes. Cascade Laundry Co. Dr. C. C. Hazen, dentist, opera house block.

Death of James Vessey. Mr. James Vessey, an estimable citizen, residing at 546 Washington avenue, died of typhoid pneumonia at an early hour yesterday morning. He was sixty-seven years of age and had resided in the city for the past eighteen years. He leaves a wife and five children, all of whom, with one exception, were with him at the time of his death. The children are Mrs. Ella B. Beebe, of Omaha; Mr. John Vessey, of St. Joseph; Mrs. W. H. Kieff, of Hardin township, and James and Dollie, two younger children, who are still at home.

The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from his residence, and will be under the direction of Hawkeye Lodge, No. 184, I. O. O. F., of which the deceased was a member.

Money loaned on furniture, pianos, diamonds, horses, buggies or anything of value at low rates of interest. No publicity; fair and honorable dealing. A. A. Clark & Co., office cor. Broadway and Main, over American express.
