THE DAILY BEE. Sworn Statement of Circulation.

Table showing circulation statistics for The Daily Bee from Monday, Nov. 21 to Saturday, Nov. 24, 1888.

SINCE Judge Dundy's decision in the Douglas street railway injunction suit we look for the lion and lamb to lie down together, with the lamb inside of the lion of course.

SIoux CITY proposes to be represented at the inauguration of President Harrison with a company of her citizens bearing corn-stalks. No provisions have been made, however, for citizens bearing corn-juice.

POLICEMEN are forbidden to frequent saloons on their beat. But this is an order constantly violated, which threatens the discipline of the police force.

GOVERNOR CHURCH, of Dakota, has spoken out like a man. He is a democrat, but he is emphatically for statehood, and he has said that if his resignation would hasten the solution of the problem he will tender it.

THE Valparaiso bank failure turns out to be the most flagrant defalcation and swindler ever perpetrated in Nebraska. The two rascals who caused this ruin should be run to earth and made to pay the penalty of their crimes.

THE astronomical world is amused at the rivalry existing between the university of Southern California and the Lick observatory on Mount Hamilton. Ever since the remarkable discoveries were made at the Lick observatory the university of Southern California has been jealous of its fame.

THE present year has not been a successful one for expositions, judging by the recent financial failure of the Cincinnati exposition and the unprofitable season of the Kansas City exposition. Both cities made heroic efforts to establish great exhibits, and it must be admitted that their endeavors were most creditable.

PAT FORD is up for a third term in the council. He expects the working men of the city to ward to help him. We don't believe, however, that Mr. Pat Ford can pull the wool over their eyes again as he has done for years.

AND now California has a favorite son for a cabinet position, in the person of Mr. Este, who presided over the national convention at Chicago. We must concede that California's favorite son has prior claim over John M. Thurston, Nebraska's oil-room candidate.

TACOMA, the future metropolis of Washington Territory, is certainly a go-ahead place. Circumstances compel it to put on metropolitan airs, for it has a very large shipping list, and is therefore forced to make provision for a floating population out of all proportion to its own numbers.

AMATEUR ART EXHIBITIONS. Nothing can more conduce to the development of refined homes than the particular culture of the intellect, the feelings and the fingers, to which we owe works of art of every kind.

PROVIDING FOR EX-PRESIDENTS.

Not for the first time the question, What shall we do for our ex-presidents? is receiving attention. It is an interesting question, because it involves consideration of the generosity and dignity of the nation.

On his way there will be ten thousand to make ovation to Harrison. In many ways these two inauguration events to occur in next March and April will be suggestive and instructive, and both will possess an interest even more than national.

THE board of education of New York City has ordered an examination of the scholars in the public schools in order to ascertain how many of them have defective eyes. Upon the result of the examination will depend what action will be taken to improve the light of school rooms.
