THE DAILY BEE

Sworn Statement of Circulation: State of Nebraska, County of Douglas, J. S. ... George H. Tschick, being duly sworn, deposes and says that he is secretary of the Bee Publishing Company...

Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence this 25th day of November, 1888. N. P. FEIL, Notary Public.

Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence this 25th day of November, 1888. G. B. TSCHECH, Secretary of the Bee Publishing Company.

THERE is going to be a good deal of free and easy, independent voting in the choice of a candidate.

It may be well to remind our people that they may look for squally weather after a week from to-day.

PAT FORD boasts that he is worth forty thousand dollars. When Pat went into the council four years ago he was not known to be worth four hundred dollars.

GENERAL SHERIDAN'S memoirs have just been simultaneously issued in London and New York, and the people of both England and America will be eager to learn the story of the civil war from the lips of our greatest cavalry soldier.

It is safe to say that at the primaries none but men of business, of character and ability will stand a chance of success in the ward.

MR. SLAVEN'S brother-in-law, Lowry, choked off the taxpayers' meeting in the First ward with his street sweeping gang.

CHARLEY FANNING has made no secret of it that the contractors raised eighteen hundred dollars two years ago to give Pat Ford a second term.

NINE clean-handed men elected to the council will save this city from bankruptcy and will turn the rascals out who are in cahoots with contractors' rings and combines.

ST. LOUIS is very much disappointed over the result of the beef trust investigation held in that city last week by the senate committee.

THE coal barons of the Monongahela river district of Pennsylvania have notified their employes that they will shut down their mines for an indefinite period after December 1.

THE joint convention of the cattleman and butchers at St. Louis has broken up in a row. The question of state inspection was the rock on which the convention split.

RAILROAD TACTICS IN IOWA. Mr. J. A. Phillips, of Dunlap, Iowa, takes exception to the declaration made by THE BEE that Mr. Peter A. Dey was elected railroad commissioner through the combined influence of the railroads in Iowa.

THE people of Iowa, irrespective of party, are satisfied with the present board of railroad commissioners: thousands of republicans voted for Mr. Dey because they were in favor of a non-partisan board, and to these facts Mr. Dey owes his election.

When you state that the confederated railroad managers pooled their forces to defeat Mahin, you state only a part of the truth. Their purpose was to defeat four of the republican candidates: Granger, candidate for judge, Smith, Campbell and Mahin, for railroad commissioners, and of the four, Mahin, the only one defeated, is the candidate they would have preferred to elect, if they could have secured even one.

Here in Nebraska we have had a similar experience, only the railroads failed in their conspiracy. Attorney General Leese was scratched by thousands of republicans at the instance of railroad managers, and if his competitor, Mr. Munger, had been elected, the railroad organs would have claimed that Leese was very unpopular and Munger enjoyed popular confidence in an eminent degree.

REASONS FOR AN EXTRA SESSION. The question of an extra session of the Fifty-first congress is receiving wide attention among republicans.

THE most important reason is the demand for legislation to reduce the revenues of the government, which it is universally felt should not wait for the regular session of the next congress a year hence.

KNOCKING DOWN A STRAW MAN. Putting up a straw man and then knocking him down is a pastime which valiant swashbucklers often resort to. In its anxiety to antagonize THE BEE about the city hall question, our omnibus contemporary, the Republican, purposely misquoted this paper as regards City Attorney Webster's views on the legality of the ordinance which the mayor has just vetoed.

THE railroads of the country have no better customers than the thousands of commercial men who patronize the various lines the year around. They are the vanguard of trade. Through their exertions the store-keeper of the smallest town in the land is brought in direct commercial dealings with the merchants of the great cities.

THE military authorities have prepared a census of the Indian population in Dakota. The total number, including the Sioux and other tribes, is less than thirty thousand. The interior department has for some time stood in need of this information.

DAVID C. SHERMAN'S factory is now ready to begin business. There is a great demand for more houses in South Sioux City.

The Recent Move of the Railroads Toward Freight Reduction. SUNDAY GUESTS AT THE CAPITAL. Patrick Egan on the Business Outlook of the Country—The World's Secretary of the Y. M. C. A.

LINCOLN BUREAU OF THE OMAHA BEE, 1029 P STREET, LINCOLN, NEB. 23. There has been an opinion here for a few days past that the railroads operating in the state would shortly make freight reduction orders corresponding somewhat with the late order of the state board of transportation.
