

THE POCKETS OF THE POOR.

Picked by a Bogus Chicago Employment Agent.

HUNDREDS PAY TWO DOLLARS.

He Offered Them the Cowboy's Pleasant Pastime, for Which They Were to Give a Small Consideration.

The Bait They Swallowed.

Chicago, Nov. 26.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Hundreds of woolly young men flocked into the Central hotel, on State and Van Buren streets, to-day.

They were all dressed in the columns of the morning papers that S. M. Smith, the authorized agent of Mills & Orton, stockmen at Socorro, New Mexico, desired to hire a large number of healthy young fellows to prod cattle on the southwestern plains, at a salary of $45 per month.

Mr. Smith said at a desk in the room, he was full of business and the large room was full of young men, who desired to pay Smith $2 each for a little piece of paper, which they might take home and get framed, if they found no other use for it.

This is the piece of paper which the man who gave up $2 had to sign, and which the man who received it from Smith—also kindly signed to make it more binding.

There are so many features in the paper that it is difficult to get into notice to do justice to the subject matter. The Japanese department, is, however, by long a feature of the paper.

The embryo cowboy was told by Mr. Smith to be down to the Santa Fe depot at a certain time, and that he would be taken to Socorro, New Mexico, and that he would be taken to Socorro, New Mexico, and that he would be taken to Socorro, New Mexico.

THE OMAHA GUARDS BAZAR.

It Attracts a Large and Fashionable Attendance at the Army.

The Omaha Guards scored a big success last night in their brilliant inaugural bazaar at their bazaar. There was a very large and exceedingly fashionable attendance, and the efforts of the ladies having in charge the various booths were met with a generous response from the visitors.

Beautiful women richly attired, gentlemen in evening dress, together with the military uniforms of the Guards present, made up a very delightful appearance. The bazaar is tastefully decorated with bunting and national colors arranged very gracefully and with an excellent eye for effect.

There are so many features in the bazaar that it is difficult to get into notice to do justice to the subject matter. The Japanese department, is, however, by long a feature of the paper.
