Crimes and Criminals. Wolf Fishbeck was arrested for being engaged in a bawdy-house brawl Sunday night, and yesterday he delivered up $12.50 of his earnings for it.

The Would-be Murderer. Birch Robinson, the notorious and repulsive-looking negro who stabbed A. Harvey on Sunday, was arraigned yesterday and asked for a continuance until to-day at 2 p. m., which was granted.

The Female Forger. Mrs. G. W. Clark, the woman who attempted to pass a forged check on the First National bank Saturday, will have her preliminary hearing on December 5. Meanwhile she is under $1,000 bond.

A Very Small Theft. Butler Ewing, the fellow caught stealing from the Omaha Coal, Coke and Lime company, admitted his guilt on arraignment, but as the amount taken was so small—being what he could carry away in his hands, he was discharged.

Their Condition Improving. Joseph Schmidt and Frank Spidman, the young men who were injured by a falling scaffold at the Willis building on Lodge street, are rapidly improving, contrary to first impressions. They are still under the care of Dr. McMenamy, at the Omaha medical institute.

The Fort. Nearly two hundred city people drove out Sunday to Fort Omaha to see probably the last dress parade of the season.

Private Thomas Daily of Company E, deserted Saturday, taking with him as a memento of the fort Mr. Louis Parlet's gold watch and chain.

Candidates for the Reform School. Harry Day and Frank Bartleman, the two young boys who, in connection with the depraved McCarthy, have been committing a number of thefts of late, were arraigned yesterday afternoon, but waiting examination were held to the district court in the sum of $100 each.

Another John is the Fellow. Mr. J. A. Stephens, of the Rees Printing company, asks The Bee to inform its readers that he is not the John Stevens spoken of in Sunday's paper as being lately married. He is annoyed with constant congratulations and wants his friends to know that he is still single.

Why Did She Leave? Mary Donahoe, a domestic in the employ of Dr. Darrow, left the house Sunday, and has not since been seen. The departure was evidently premeditated, as she removed her trunk during the doctor's absence, but she also left an unpaid board bill for the care of an infant child.

A Serious Charge. A negro named Brown was arrested about 1:30 yesterday morning on complaint of his wife, who claims that he made a criminal assault on his little eight-year-old daughter. Muevey denies the charge and says that both he and his wife were drunk at the time, and the assault was due only to the drunkenness of his spouse, whom he claims is a hard woman.

DAMAGING STATEMENTS.

County Attorney Simeral Gets the Chicago Record of Mrs. King. County Attorney Simeral and County Attorney-elect Mahoney have returned from Chicago, whither they went on business connected with the King-Beecher shooting affair.

Continuing, Mr. Simeral said: "There will be ample evidence in the case of a conflicting nature. We will have an abundance of testimony showing the woman's previous bad character. We went to Chicago at the solicitation of H. W. King, Sr., father of the murdered man. We found a kind-hearted and fatherly appearing old gentleman. He has not yet recovered from the shock he received at the death of his son. He stated that he had no malicious feeling against the woman who did the shooting, and that he only wanted justice meted out to her. It is also worth noting that all competent testimony showing the relationship of the woman with his son and the purpose for which she came to Omaha, Mr. King informed us that Mrs. King Jr. never Miss Duffy was slowly recovering from the shock but was still confined to the residence. We were told that the woman who did the shooting never was married to Harry King. Will Mr. King Sr. be a witness in the trial?"

"Yes, he stated that he would come and give evidence in connection with the life of the woman and her character, in the manner which she was related to his son."

"When will you file information against the prisoner?"

"I will file information in a few days, and she will be arraigned and given an opportunity to plead the present term of court."

Standard shorthand school, 10074 Farnham.

Where is Davis? Sunday a woman gave her name as Mrs. Davis, and who was accompanied by her two daughters, a young son and a grandchild, arrived in Omaha from Salt Lake City. She was to have been met at the depot by her son, Henry N. Davis, who resides in this city and who is said to be employed in one of the local printing mills.

The pupils to the number of 200 marched from their temporary quarters on Friday with books, slates, etc., and were assigned to their different rooms. This is one of the finest school buildings in the city, the interior finish being particularly noticeable.

A DRUNKEN TEMPERANCE CRANK A Champion of Prohibition Run in for Incarceration. Two oratorical lights of Iowa graced the police station Sunday night on the common charge of being drunk. The first was no other than "Doc" Stevens, one of the leading temperance orators and prohibitionists of Iowa. The other was Attorney Bell of Council Bluffs. Stevens has a venerable and ministerial appearance and a profile like that of Cicero. He has also considerable of the old Roman's oratorical fire in him and at the height of his eloquent peroration he will cause any ordinary drinker to blush for night, he mumbled upon the wine. Sunday night he mumbled the bench in his cell and though scarcely able to stand, delivered a stirring temperance speech to the bums and vagabonds locked up with him. His audience were thoroughly appreciative and interrupted him from time to time with applause and peals of laughter. This morning before arraignment he endeavored to persuade the jailer to get him some whisky. It is said that he is in the habit of getting periodically drunk after a course of lectures, but is always discreet enough to go into another cell as he does. This fact is the first time that he has been arrested while on one of his speeches here.

"We Point with Pride" To the "Good name at home," won by Hood's Sarsaparilla. In Lowell, Mass., where it is prepared, there is more of Hood's Sarsaparilla sold than all other medicines, and it has given the best of satisfaction since its introduction ten years ago. This could not be if the medicine did not possess merit. If you suffer from impure blood, try Hood's Sarsaparilla and realize its peculiar curative power.

After Blood. By the timely interposition of friends a probably serious shooting affray was averted in this city Sunday. The principals are well known to the best citizens of Omaha, and especially in railway circles. Sunday they imbued quite freely and in their seclusion, at the residence of a friend, in a saloon on Fourteenth street, near Farnam. The enemy that has been standing cropped out and each reached for his revolver. Fortunately friends intervened and prevented the shedding of blood. It transpired afterward that only one of the men was armed and that the other left the saloon in quest of a revolver, during which time his antagonist was enticed to another room. Later when the other returned in possession of a 4-caliber revolver, he found his would-be antagonist missing.

A grand flourish of trumpets often heralds the advent of an article which fails, when tried, to justify the noise made in its behalf. The unassuming merits of V. Dreyer's flavoring extracts derived from choice fruit, of standard purity, and elected over a quarter of a century ago to the chief place among flavors, are too well known to need more than a general reminder. Cheap competition of unselected articles heightens the popularity of these. All grocers.

THE CHIEF ATTRACTION. for this week will be in our boys' department. Many of our patrons eagerly look forward to our special sales in this department, and we have decided to give them the coming week, a benefit greater than ever. We will call the attention of mothers who have been in the habit of paying $6, $8 and $10 for suits and overcoats for little boys 4 to 13 years old to the suits and overcoats which we sell this week for less than half these prices. They are equal in every respect to those sold by others for double the money.

MEN'S PANTS. Our buyer having closed out the entire stock of a manufacturer of fine Pants, we have arranged the goods into several lots, and are enabled to offer them at one-half their regular retail price. At the figures we marked them they will be found the biggest offering this season. 500 pair fine strictly all wool Cassimere Pants, heavy weight, at $2. 800 pair elegant silk and wool pants at $2.50. 400 pairs extra fine all worsted Pants, as good as any custom made, at $3.75. Extra long and reversed sizes for young men will be found among them. Comment on these Pants is unnecessary. We show some samples in our Douglas street window, but that will only give you the idea of how THEY LOOK. We want you to call into the store and examine the stuff they are made of. The cheapest of all these 3 lots we mention were never sold for less than $4.00.

Plain Figures and One Price. But while we devote the most space to clothing, we do not neglect our furnishing goods. Every department has been considerably enlarged since we have the new addition, and in every line we offer daily some new drives. Just now we are having a big run in Gloves and Underwear. The prices we sell all these goods at are big attractions. Handling everything, as we do, in immense quantities, it is utterly impossible for other houses to offer goods at the prices we do.
