A Very Singular Story.

Springfield Republican: George L ewis, for three years clerk in the City

National bank at Springfield, Mass., ha been discharged this week after signing a written confession that he had schemed to defraud the bank in severa ways. The bank officers began to suspect young Lewis of such designs about month ago. He is but nineteen, the son of a widow in poor health and with limited means. He had a key to the outer door of the bank, and was the first person to enter the rooms each day, but he had always enjoyed the full confidence of his employers. As soon, however, as he was suspected of engaging questionable companionships, Cash-the case in the hands of a Pinkerton detective, who came to this city and has had expressed a desire to make the acquaintance with a "erook," and this role was assumed by the detective, to whom Lewis unfolded his plans. He offered to utter counterfeit money and produced the electrotypes of the signatures of President Safford and Cashier Bowman, with which he proposed to forge a check for a large amount on the City bank's New York correspondents.

Meanwhile the bank officials were in communication with the detective and made minutes of all that the clerk proposed to do. The directors met a 'ashier Bowman's house Monday evening, and Marshall Clune called at the Massasoit, where Lewis and the "crook" were in consultation. They were per directors, and there for the first time the clerk learned that his supposed accomplice was a detective. His schemes were narrated, and he signed the con

THOSE CHRISTMAS STOCKINGS. Where to Fill Them-A Paradise for Christmas Shoppers. The season so rich in joy for the little ones, and of gladness as well to the larger folks is rapidly approaching, and everywhere the people are asking themselves the questions: What shall we get for Christmas gifts, and where shall we get them? It is the especia business of the proprietors of the 99 cent store to anticipate the want of the community at this season, and for the present year they have made unusual efforts in this respect. A new stock hardly needs to be labeled "new," it speaks for itself. Nothing is more an oying than to find a reputed new stock largely made up of resurrected goods that have gone through several holiday bobbing up serenely from easons ' below" with each recurring year. There is none of that kind of business vear. at the 99 cent store. Their prices, for one thing, do not leave many goods to carry over, and they sell those for what they are and for prices corresponding. Those who make purchases from their stock will find that novelty is one of its marked features, new things that will bring a smile of pleasure even to the voteran Christmas campaigner. If there is any thing new under the De cember sun, they have it sure. It would seem they had exhausted the world in getting together such an endless variety of goods, and among the things that attracted our special attention was the varied assortment of toys in mechanical musical, steam, iron, wooden, etc. The dolls, too, so life-like in appearance, were receiving their proper attention from the large crowd present. Albums, leather and plush novelties were dis prayed in a great variety of styles, many of them new and original with this house. Lamps, glassware, china, etc. were prominently shown and attracted considerable attention, both for the beauty of designs and the extremel low prices at which they were marked An hour spent at the 99 cent store will prove a most gratifying pleasure, and we would advise all our readers to avail themselves of the first opportunity.

Thirty-eight transfers Rear Admiral Simpson Dead.

Washington, Dec. 1.—Rear Admiral Simpson, United States navy, retired, died this morning at his residence in this city.

CROWNED WITH SUCCESS.

Just Think of It! $10 Worth of Goods for $1.00 Down and $1.00 per Week. The great success that we have met with by selling $10.00 worth of goods for $1 cash and $1 per week, and our kind treatment of the ladies in not subjecting them to the annovance of furnishing reference, or inquiring about honesty in the neighborhood where they live, has been the means of bringing to our store some of the best people in the city, who, although not possessed of as much of this world's goods as they deserve, still take great pride in maintaining a good name, both n the business and social community After a customer has selected their goods from the immense variety contained in our stock, they are ed to you by wi lelivered that anything painted upon them to show how or where the goods were bought (if requested). We know that the people of Omaha appreciate the efforts that we have made to cheapen the price of goods of good quality sold on the instalment plan, and we are not satisfied unless we possess at least one genuine bargain in very one of our numerous departments, so that those people who were unable to call last month still have a chance to buy household goods on easy terms at eash prices. On account of our immense line it is almost impossible quote prices, but a personal call will convince you of the truth of our assertions. People's Mammoth Instalment House, the most liberal credit house in Omaha 613 and 615 North Sixteenth street, between California and Webster. Open evenings till 9 o'clock.

Waiting.

SOUTH OMARA, Dec. 1 .- To the Editor of THE BEE. - We have waited several days to have the Herald come out in a leaded con demnatory article against the democratic nayor of South Omaha, who bandied and bullied the republican workers and voters all day at the recent election. And we are creditable informed be was the only individnal who displayed the blackguard spirit in the First and Second wards upon that day Now Mr. Herald, suppose you endeavor to correct the evils in your own political house hold. You know the old adage, "Those wh live in glass houses should exhibit judgment in hurling stones. Give Mayor Broatch a rest and turn your attention for awhile to the professional po-litical democratic ward worker and present mayor of the Magic City.

McCaffrey-Killen Fight. Ed. Rothery is in receipt of a private letter from Pat Killen, in which the latter gives his reasons for the fight with McCaffrey not coming off at the time set. Killen states that McCaffrey represented to him that he would make it a purse of $2,500 and half of the gate receipts, but when it came to the point McCaffrey it came to the point McCaffrey could not get the money. Mr. Rothery has wired Killen to light McCaffrey for any amount up to $5,000, stating that he will back him for that amount against McCaffrey, either in a glove contest or finish fight. The Postal Receipts. The sale of postage stamps at the govern nent office for the month of November, will aggregate about $19,000, and the amount of money handled in the money-order department will aggregate about $200,000. The in-rease over a corresponding period last year is 25 per cent. Miss Bertha Cook, of Blair, is in the city, the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. H. Hungate.

Working the Murchison Ghost. Washington Republic: At an auc-ion sale in Washington of the personal effects of Lord Sackville a funcy incident occurred. A writing desk was put up, a handsome piece of carved wood, but the bidding on it was slow. The auctioneer did his best to raise the figure to a reasonable sum. Pretty soon he whispered to his assistant, who disappeared. In a moment the rumor. mysterious way, rat through the crowd that it was upon this desk that Lord Sackville penned his famous letter to Murchison. At once a large price was offered for the desk, and bid after bid followed in quick succession, until the article was finally

"This is What We Offer"

An opportunity to procure FINE DRESS GOODS at the lowest prices ever known, all new and desirable styles, exquisite designs. We mention a few of the many bargains offered. 10 pieces 54-in. REAL imported broadcloth, black and colored, $1.35, guaranteed value, $2.00. 15 pieces real imported broadcloth, black and colored, $2.00, reduced from $2.75. 5 pieces colored Montague broadcloth 95c, actual value $1.50. 5 pieces black and colored Foule cloth, 48-in, wide, 95c. 8 pieces Queen Anne Serges 59c a vard were 95c. 18 pieces all-wool, Henriettas, 49c. pieces 56-in, plaids and stripes, elegant goods, newest designs, real value $1,50; our price, 99c. Also a very large line of black goods at less than actual cost to manufacture. We have a few com-bination suits that will be cleaned out at less than enc-half price. You will notice the lots are all small, and we would advise an early inspection, as they cannot last long at the price. We have a lot of corsets, all standard make. Our stock is entirely too big, and we want to reduce it, in order to do so quickly that we put them all down to fac; none of them ever sold less than $1.00. We have just opened a large line of embroidered and hemstitched handkerchiefs in white and colors: prices range from 5c to $2.00 cach. We guarantee them 25 per cent cheaper than the same quality are sold for in the city. We have still some cleaks eft, and if we can fit you in size we know we can fit you in price, as we are actually closing them out at any price.

Mail orders solicited. C. J. WEBER, 114 South Fifteenth street,
