

THE SENATE SUBSTITUTE.

Mills Thinks That It Will Pass the House.

FOR SECRETARY OF THE NAVY.

Representatives Boutelle of Maine, and Thomas of Illinois, Mentioned—A Bill to Prevent Food Adulteration Being Considered.

WASHINGTON HERALD THE OMAHA BEER.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—The senate committee on finance at its meeting to-day decided that the senate substitute for the Mills tariff bill, shall be pushed to a vote, and that it shall take precedence over all other business before the senate.

When Senator Vanoe of North Carolina, objected, and the clerk was proceeding with the reading, when Mr. Vance announced that the object in demanding that the bill be read was to secure delay, as it was desirable that there should be an understanding among the democrats as to what amendments will be offered.

Senator Allison said that the republican members of the senate would not interpose objections, under these circumstances, but that they would be willing to grant the delay desired, and with this understanding the senate adjourned until to-morrow.

When Senator Vanoe of North Carolina, objected, and the clerk was proceeding with the reading, when Mr. Vance announced that the object in demanding that the bill be read was to secure delay, as it was desirable that there should be an understanding among the democrats as to what amendments will be offered.

Senator Allison said that the republican members of the senate would not interpose objections, under these circumstances, but that they would be willing to grant the delay desired, and with this understanding the senate adjourned until to-morrow.

When Senator Vanoe of North Carolina, objected, and the clerk was proceeding with the reading, when Mr. Vance announced that the object in demanding that the bill be read was to secure delay, as it was desirable that there should be an understanding among the democrats as to what amendments will be offered.

Senator Allison said that the republican members of the senate would not interpose objections, under these circumstances, but that they would be willing to grant the delay desired, and with this understanding the senate adjourned until to-morrow.

When Senator Vanoe of North Carolina, objected, and the clerk was proceeding with the reading, when Mr. Vance announced that the object in demanding that the bill be read was to secure delay, as it was desirable that there should be an understanding among the democrats as to what amendments will be offered.

Senator Allison said that the republican members of the senate would not interpose objections, under these circumstances, but that they would be willing to grant the delay desired, and with this understanding the senate adjourned until to-morrow.

ter, and long investigations were made by the agricultural committees of the two houses. The first campaign, as yet, is now being conducted, between the pork packers and the compound lard manufacturers.

Hon. Alfred Ely, of Rochester, N. Y., was on the floor of the house to-day, and attended a great deal of business. Mr. Ely was a member of congress in 1861 when hostilities were raging fiercely between the north and south and there were great battles being fought.

Hon. Alfred Ely, of Rochester, N. Y., was on the floor of the house to-day, and attended a great deal of business. Mr. Ely was a member of congress in 1861 when hostilities were raging fiercely between the north and south and there were great battles being fought.

Hon. Alfred Ely, of Rochester, N. Y., was on the floor of the house to-day, and attended a great deal of business. Mr. Ely was a member of congress in 1861 when hostilities were raging fiercely between the north and south and there were great battles being fought.

Hon. Alfred Ely, of Rochester, N. Y., was on the floor of the house to-day, and attended a great deal of business. Mr. Ely was a member of congress in 1861 when hostilities were raging fiercely between the north and south and there were great battles being fought.

Hon. Alfred Ely, of Rochester, N. Y., was on the floor of the house to-day, and attended a great deal of business. Mr. Ely was a member of congress in 1861 when hostilities were raging fiercely between the north and south and there were great battles being fought.

Hon. Alfred Ely, of Rochester, N. Y., was on the floor of the house to-day, and attended a great deal of business. Mr. Ely was a member of congress in 1861 when hostilities were raging fiercely between the north and south and there were great battles being fought.

Hon. Alfred Ely, of Rochester, N. Y., was on the floor of the house to-day, and attended a great deal of business. Mr. Ely was a member of congress in 1861 when hostilities were raging fiercely between the north and south and there were great battles being fought.

Hon. Alfred Ely, of Rochester, N. Y., was on the floor of the house to-day, and attended a great deal of business. Mr. Ely was a member of congress in 1861 when hostilities were raging fiercely between the north and south and there were great battles being fought.

Hon. Alfred Ely, of Rochester, N. Y., was on the floor of the house to-day, and attended a great deal of business. Mr. Ely was a member of congress in 1861 when hostilities were raging fiercely between the north and south and there were great battles being fought.

Hon. Alfred Ely, of Rochester, N. Y., was on the floor of the house to-day, and attended a great deal of business. Mr. Ely was a member of congress in 1861 when hostilities were raging fiercely between the north and south and there were great battles being fought.

DRANK CONCENTRATED LYE.

The Terrible Dose Taken By Two Iowa Children.

FATAL RESULT OF AN EVICTION.

The Victim's Death Said to Be Due to Exposure—A Case of Medical Imbecility—Hawkeye Happenings.

Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 4.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—A distressing accident is reported from Shively, Johnson county, in the home of J. H. Kephart. On last Wednesday a servant in the employ of the family was using concentrated lye and left the can containing the same on the chair.

Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 4.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—A report has been received here, the killing on Thanksgiving day of Ernest Thompson, near Crawford Point. He was accidentally shot by his son while loading his gun. The father was shot in the head, killing him instantly.

Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 4.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—There is a full in the evictions of river land, and it will not be broken till spring. Meantime there is considerable talk of resistance, and some of the more reckless say that they will shoot before they will suffer any more evictions.

Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 4.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The governor to-day pardoned H. L. Harlan, sentenced from this city to the penitentiary for eighteen months for horse stealing. The man declared that he had stolen the horse while intoxicated some weeks ago, and that as soon as he realized what he had done he helped the officer to recover the horse.

Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 4.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Creditors to-night put an attachment of $5,000 on the boot and shoe stock of M. A. Allen, and this establishment, one of the largest in the city, is in possession of the sheriff. A short time ago Allen purchased the stock of J. P. Fisher, of Iowa Minn., but the sale seems not to be valid, as it is Fisher's creditors who put in the attachment.

Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 4.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Edison promises to put his latest invention, the phonograph, to a curious and practical use. His intention is to furnish subscribers a talking daily newspaper. The little instrument will be charged with a condensed edition of the news, and each subscriber can listen to it while at breakfast.

Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 4.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The Western association, has at last issued the official average of the association. It is seen that Ralph Johnson, the third baseman of the Kansas City Blues, leads all the batters with a percentage of 342.

Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 4.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—A few weeks ago the Chicago papers contained accounts of the elopement of Miss Roach, the nineteenth-year-old daughter of a millionaire capitalist of that city, with a young clerk named Cunningham. The young lady, it seems, was a social belle, and the marriage created the usual nine-day wonder in a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 4.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—James Morgan, a typical cowboy from Colorado, was arrested yesterday at Gardner, eight miles south of here, by Sheriff Fowler, at the instance of the authorities of Denver. Morgan has induced a three-year-old girl to leave her home and come to Kansas with him.

Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 4.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—A dispatch from Cortland at 1:30 o'clock says that the Cortland Wagon works are in flames, with no hope of saving them.

STAR-SPANGLED BANNERS.

Three of them Still Waving Over the Haytien Republic.

THE VILLAGE OF BASSETT NEARLY WIPE OUT BY FIRE.

A NEBRASKA PIONEER DEAD.

Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 4.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The ship Andes of the Atlas line arrived yesterday, from Port-au-Prince and other Haytian ports. When the Andes left Port-au-Prince the seized United States steamer Haytien Bonaparte was lying in the harbor with a prize crew on board.

Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 4.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—A report has been received here, the killing on Thanksgiving day of Ernest Thompson, near Crawford Point. He was accidentally shot by his son while loading his gun. The father was shot in the head, killing him instantly.

Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 4.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—There is a full in the evictions of river land, and it will not be broken till spring. Meantime there is considerable talk of resistance, and some of the more reckless say that they will shoot before they will suffer any more evictions.

Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 4.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The governor to-day pardoned H. L. Harlan, sentenced from this city to the penitentiary for eighteen months for horse stealing. The man declared that he had stolen the horse while intoxicated some weeks ago, and that as soon as he realized what he had done he helped the officer to recover the horse.

Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 4.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Creditors to-night put an attachment of $5,000 on the boot and shoe stock of M. A. Allen, and this establishment, one of the largest in the city, is in possession of the sheriff. A short time ago Allen purchased the stock of J. P. Fisher, of Iowa Minn., but the sale seems not to be valid, as it is Fisher's creditors who put in the attachment.

Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 4.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Edison promises to put his latest invention, the phonograph, to a curious and practical use. His intention is to furnish subscribers a talking daily newspaper. The little instrument will be charged with a condensed edition of the news, and each subscriber can listen to it while at breakfast.

Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 4.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The Western association, has at last issued the official average of the association. It is seen that Ralph Johnson, the third baseman of the Kansas City Blues, leads all the batters with a percentage of 342.

Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 4.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—A few weeks ago the Chicago papers contained accounts of the elopement of Miss Roach, the nineteenth-year-old daughter of a millionaire capitalist of that city, with a young clerk named Cunningham. The young lady, it seems, was a social belle, and the marriage created the usual nine-day wonder in a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 4.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—James Morgan, a typical cowboy from Colorado, was arrested yesterday at Gardner, eight miles south of here, by Sheriff Fowler, at the instance of the authorities of Denver. Morgan has induced a three-year-old girl to leave her home and come to Kansas with him.

Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 4.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—A dispatch from Cortland at 1:30 o'clock says that the Cortland Wagon works are in flames, with no hope of saving them.

NEWS OF NEBRASKA TOWNS.

The Village of Bassett Nearly Wiped Out by Fire.

A NEBRASKA PIONEER DEAD.

Brown County Divided—A Mad Dog Score at Plattsmouth—A Body Exhumed For Inquest—The Fremont Y. M. C. A.

Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 4.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The ship Andes of the Atlas line arrived yesterday, from Port-au-Prince and other Haytian ports. When the Andes left Port-au-Prince the seized United States steamer Haytien Bonaparte was lying in the harbor with a prize crew on board.

Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 4.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—A report has been received here, the killing on Thanksgiving day of Ernest Thompson, near Crawford Point. He was accidentally shot by his son while loading his gun. The father was shot in the head, killing him instantly.

Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 4.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—There is a full in the evictions of river land, and it will not be broken till spring. Meantime there is considerable talk of resistance, and some of the more reckless say that they will shoot before they will suffer any more evictions.

Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 4.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The governor to-day pardoned H. L. Harlan, sentenced from this city to the penitentiary for eighteen months for horse stealing. The man declared that he had stolen the horse while intoxicated some weeks ago, and that as soon as he realized what he had done he helped the officer to recover the horse.

Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 4.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Creditors to-night put an attachment of $5,000 on the boot and shoe stock of M. A. Allen, and this establishment, one of the largest in the city, is in possession of the sheriff. A short time ago Allen purchased the stock of J. P. Fisher, of Iowa Minn., but the sale seems not to be valid, as it is Fisher's creditors who put in the attachment.

Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 4.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Edison promises to put his latest invention, the phonograph, to a curious and practical use. His intention is to furnish subscribers a talking daily newspaper. The little instrument will be charged with a condensed edition of the news, and each subscriber can listen to it while at breakfast.

Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 4.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The Western association, has at last issued the official average of the association. It is seen that Ralph Johnson, the third baseman of the Kansas City Blues, leads all the batters with a percentage of 342.

Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 4.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—A few weeks ago the Chicago papers contained accounts of the elopement of Miss Roach, the nineteenth-year-old daughter of a millionaire capitalist of that city, with a young clerk named Cunningham. The young lady, it seems, was a social belle, and the marriage created the usual nine-day wonder in a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 4.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—James Morgan, a typical cowboy from Colorado, was arrested yesterday at Gardner, eight miles south of here, by Sheriff Fowler, at the instance of the authorities of Denver. Morgan has induced a three-year-old girl to leave her home and come to Kansas with him.

Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 4.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—A dispatch from Cortland at 1:30 o'clock says that the Cortland Wagon works are in flames, with no hope of saving them.

VALPARAISO ALL RIGHT.

The Rascally Bank Men Did Not Run the Town.

VARIOUS ANNUAL REPORTS LAID BEFORE BOTH HOUSES.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—The speaker laid before the house the annual reports of the secretary of the treasury and comptroller of the currency, which were appropriately referred.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—The speaker laid before the house the annual reports of the secretary of the treasury and comptroller of the currency, which were appropriately referred.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—The speaker laid before the house the annual reports of the secretary of the treasury and comptroller of the currency, which were appropriately referred.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—The speaker laid before the house the annual reports of the secretary of the treasury and comptroller of the currency, which were appropriately referred.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—The speaker laid before the house the annual reports of the secretary of the treasury and comptroller of the currency, which were appropriately referred.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—The speaker laid before the house the annual reports of the secretary of the treasury and comptroller of the currency, which were appropriately referred.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—The speaker laid before the house the annual reports of the secretary of the treasury and comptroller of the currency, which were appropriately referred.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—The speaker laid before the house the annual reports of the secretary of the treasury and comptroller of the currency, which were appropriately referred.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—The speaker laid before the house the annual reports of the secretary of the treasury and comptroller of the currency, which were appropriately referred.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—The speaker laid before the house the annual reports of the secretary of the treasury and comptroller of the currency, which were appropriately referred.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—The speaker laid before the house the annual reports of the secretary of the treasury and comptroller of the currency, which were appropriately referred.

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS

Various Annual Reports Laid Before Both Houses.

A SHORT SESSION OF THE SENATE

Consideration of the Tariff Bill Postponed Until To-day—Petition For the Immediate Admission of South Dakota.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—In the senate to-day various annual reports, including that of the secretary of the treasury were presented and appropriately referred. Numerous bills were also introduced and referred, including one for the construction of two steel cruisers, to be armed with dynamite guns.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—The speaker laid before the house the annual reports of the secretary of the treasury and comptroller of the currency, which were appropriately referred.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—The speaker laid before the house the annual reports of the secretary of the treasury and comptroller of the currency, which were appropriately referred.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—The speaker laid before the house the annual reports of the secretary of the treasury and comptroller of the currency, which were appropriately referred.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—The speaker laid before the house the annual reports of the secretary of the treasury and comptroller of the currency, which were appropriately referred.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—The speaker laid before the house the annual reports of the secretary of the treasury and comptroller of the currency, which were appropriately referred.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—The speaker laid before the house the annual reports of the secretary of the treasury and comptroller of the currency, which were appropriately referred.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—The speaker laid before the house the annual reports of the secretary of the treasury and comptroller of the currency, which were appropriately referred.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—The speaker laid before the house the annual reports of the secretary of the treasury and comptroller of the currency, which were appropriately referred.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—The speaker laid before the house the annual reports of the secretary of the treasury and comptroller of the currency, which were appropriately referred.