

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS. OFFICE NO 12 PEARL STREET.

Published by the City of Council Bluffs, Iowa, at the office of the Daily Bee, No. 12 Pearl Street, Council Bluffs, Iowa.

Telephone No. 41. Night Editor, No. 25.

MINOR MENTION.

N. Y. Plumbing Company. Coal and wood. E. E. Mayne, 619 Broadway.

Best hard and soft coal and Missouri wood. E. E. Mayne, 619 Broadway.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson will entertain friends Thursday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Hendrick.

The district court resumed its grand on the case of Stark vs. city, yesterday morning, which was unfinished last evening.

Paul Siebold has rented a place on Upper Broadway and placed on exhibition the remarkable fungus recently found beneath his house on Madison street.

Special services will be held at Salvation Army hall today and to-morrow, conducted by Major Dale.

City Attorney Holmes' report on the gas ordinance is so complete that it would be well to have it introduced as a text book in the public schools.

The new road leading into Fairmount park will be completed to-day, and will be one of the greatest improvements yet added to this beautiful resort.

It seems very strange that the Union Pacific company fails to provide proper accommodations at the Broadway depot.

J. G. Tipton has bargains in real estate. The Council Bluffs Investment company are now prepared to loan money on real estate on first mortgages at lowest rates.

For Sale—First class grocery stock and fixtures. Will take part Council Bluffs property.

The Council Bluffs Lumber Co. want you to try some of their coal. Sleigh bells, sleds and skates.

The Double Ring Ordinance. City Clerk Burke, who has occupied that position for nearly twenty years, has at last discovered how it was that the Swift gas ordinance was never incorporated in any of the compilations of city ordinances heretofore published.

Money loaned at L. B. Crafts & Co.'s loan office, on furniture, pianos, horses, wagons, personal property of all kinds, and all other articles of value without removal.

Dr. C. C. Hazen, dentist, opera house block. W. S. Cooper has cash on hand to loan on approved city property.

Mated For Life. The marriage of Mr. Andy Mahoney, of South Omaha, and Mrs. Lizzie Luetzinger, (nee Berger) of this city, took place at the residence of the latter.

Pickled tripe and pigs' feet at Tibbits, 345 Broadway. Weather strips at Chapman's art store.

Notice the beautiful finish given collars, cuffs and shirts by Cascade Laundry company. Loans made on city business and residence property.

ALL ABOUT COUNCIL BLUFFS.

More Than One Company to Bid on the Incandescent System.

ADMIRING THE SPECIAL TRAIN. City Clerk Burke Explains About Gas—The Board of Trade—Mixed Cases in Police Court—Happily Wedded.

The Electric Light Plants. Mr. Johnson, of the Brush Electric Light company, of Chicago, appeared before the city council Monday evening in behalf of his company, to secure the necessary permission to operate a plant in this city.

During the visit of Mayor Rohrer and Alderman Lacy at Oskaloosa they looked over the system of electric lighting in use in that city, and expressed themselves very much in favor of it, and are rather partial toward the establishment of such a system in this city.

The city officials in passing any more ordinances should see to it that the city is given the privilege of ordering all poles removed, and wires placed under the ground. Already there are so many poles and wires as to make it apparent that in after years a change may be necessary.

The Council Bluffs Investment company are now prepared to loan money on real estate on first mortgages at lowest rates. Two acre tracts for planting, one 1/2, one 3/4 and one 1/4. Also houses and lots in best locations in the city at low figures and on easy terms.

ing the afternoon, admiring these marvels of comfort and elegant luxury, a description of which appears elsewhere in this issue.

The train will leave this morning on its first western trip. Engine No. 827 will pull the special out of this city, having been prepared for the occasion. The round trip will be made in less than a week, and the "Golden Gate" will roll into the transfer again next Tuesday, after its first trip of nearly four thousand miles.

Poor Pepper in a Pickle. The chestnut express racket, in its most ancient and threabare form, was again successfully worked in our city last evening on an unsophisticated young pumpkin husker from Nance county, Nebraska.

The stranger suddenly discovered that he was short of cash, and must pay the express charges on some goods then in the Bluffs, to Illinois, where he was returning to his old home. He had a check for $25, which Mr. Pepper cashed for him. Could not, well, wouldn't he loan him a few dollars until he could get it cashed? Of course he would, and he did give up his earthly possessions, about $2, which was immediately turned over to the express agent (1), who then appeared for the first time. The stranger then departed with the check cashed.
