THE CITY.

Officer Boyle, of the Tenth street depot beat, is on the sick list. The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Tukey, Elizabeth Todd Tukey, aged one year and one month, died yes.

The Millard hotel waiters had on their new dress suits Sunday. The boys looked very nice, and Coionel Plummer had an extra curl on his mustache. The fire department was called ou Sunday morning to quench a small blaze in the sheds of a brick yard at Twenty-ninth and Decatur streets. The damage done was light.

The county republican central committee held a meeting yesterday afternoon toconsider the contest instituted by the republican candidates for the legislature in the late election. The flag of the Union Pacific headquarters was placed at half-mast yesterday when the announcement of the death of Elisha Atkins of Boston, formerly second vice president of the road was

Marshal Bierbower and Deputy Marshal Stewart have returned from Oregon, where they took Richard Jeneway, the fugitive that was arrested here and wanted at that place for rifling the Confidence men are again infesting the Union Pacific depot, but, so far, without meeting with any victims. Two of them tried the old dodge of dropping a roll of bills at the feet of a granger Saturday night, but he managed to re-member that honesty was the best of policy and didn't claim the money They have better success at the trans-

Stabbed in a South Omaha Bagino. At 5:45 o'clock last night Al Cole, a piano player at the Birdie Mann resort and Al Williams, a barber, while in a house of easy virtue, between Twenty-fifth and Twenty sixth streets, north of N streets, got into trouble and Cole stabbed Williams in the back, inflicting a gash so deep that a physician, who was summoned, put his fingers in the gash the whole length. Whether the wound is likely to prove fatal cannot now be stated. Cole was subsequently arrested.

Robbet Her Employer. Miss Nellie Roth was arrested Sunday on complaint of Mrs. R. C. Howell, 2106 Farnam, who claims that while Neilie was working for her the girl stole the following articles: One gold pair of spectacles, valued at $10; one baby's flager ring, $10; one gen-tleman's silk scarf, $3.50; one pair of lady's shoes, $4; one dress waist, $2, and two skirts, $2. Nellie denies that she took the goods but Mrs. Howell claims she has irrefutable testimony that the girl is the culprit.

Nebraska Fish.

The Nebraska fish commission met in the office of B. E. B. Kennedy on Saturday. The object of the meeting was to prepare the annual report. Mr. W. L. May, of Fremont, and Mr. Kennedy comprise the mem bers of the board since the death of Dr. Livingston. Mr. M. E. O'Brien, superin tendent of the hatcheries, was also present. The young fish distributed in the state dur-ing the year amounted to 17,732,735, or about 2,000,000 more than during 1887. Two cars of fish were received from Illinois. The cars contained 30,000 fish of six kinds, different from any now raised in the state.

Six Inches of Sand.

The Bandera Flagstone company, which has the contract for the laying of the walk around the county building, were not complying with the terms of the contract in the eyes of the county commissioners, and in consequence the work was temporarily stopped Saturday. The point on which the question was raised by the board was that the contractors were not spreading a six-inch base of sand under the stone as was required, but in the stone as was required, but instead were using only three inches. The matter was explained, and the work is now being done under the specifications of the contract.

Nestham, the Forger.

Charles Nestham, the hotel beat and forger from Kansas City, was taken back to that place yesterday by Mr. Hughes, the Kansas City detective. Mr. Hughes believes that Nestham is a professional hotel beat and has a pal. He hints that there are other charges against him. Nestham gave the name of Edwards in Kansas City and did the proprietor of the Midland hotel to the time of $250 with a forged check on the Equitable Life assurance company of New York. From there he went to Des Moines, and from Des Moines here each time registering under an Moines here, each time registering under an assumed name.

Her & Co. Dissolve.

The well known liquor firm of Her & Co. bas been dissolved and will hereafter be known as P. E. Her & Co. The retiring member is Joseph D. Her, those remaining being P. E. Her and H. Suessenbach. The firm are the owners of the Willow Springs distillery of this city, as also a liquor jobbing house on Harney street. The latter feature, it is said, the firm will soon discontinue, confining themselves to the work of distilling. Joseph D. Her is the junior member of the brewing firm of Storz & Her. He has been with this D. Her is the junior member of the browing firm of Storz & Her. He has been with this firm for several years and for some time past has been disposed to sell out if the person could be found who was able to meet his figures. the West. It is a fact which has been noticed by many observers, that in every country or section, some certain city celebrated as a medical center to which the sick and deformed go from every direction for relief and cure. Such cities become medical points or centers, either on account of natural advantages, climate, mineral water, etc., or from being the home of celebrated physicians and surgeons renowned for their success, and possessing extraordinary facilities for treating and curing diseases. That Omaha is rapidly becoming, or has already become, so celebrated, is an established fact. More persons come to Omaha for medical and surgical treatment than to any other four cities of twice its size, and the numbers seem to be constantly on the increase. Some attribute this large medical business to the central location of Omaha but the credit is, without doubt, due to the Omaha Medical and Surgical Insti-tute. A reporter counted lifteen sick persons on one train coming to that institution for treatment one day last

The physicians and surgeons of this establishment are men of unusual skill and experience, and are supplied with every appliance, apparatus or remedy known to the medical world to be of value. Neither time nor money has been spared to make it a success. No other city in the west possesses such a medical establishment; any intelligent, thinking person realizes the advantages of such a place. The practice of medirine has been undergoing a gradual but steady improvement. New methods are constantly employed. The entire world is searched for the best remedy for disease. Chronic complaints especially have received the attention of specialists, and many diseases which a few years ago were considered incurable, now yield to scientific treatment and proper care.

The general practitioner or country doctor has neither time nor inclination to give the proper attention and study to the thorough scientific investigation of obscure chronic diseases, theretore he will not go to the ex-pense of supplying himself with new instruments, apparatus and remedies which men of advanced thought are inventing and bringing before the medical profession. Persons have lingered for years with a disease pro-nounced incurable perhaps by their family doctor, until their sufferings have compelled them to seek relief away from home. Visiting the Omaha institute, thorough investigation has reveriled their real disease, by proper methods they have been cured, and they become a standing advertisement. so that year by year it becomes more celebrated, and greater numbers of patients are treated.

One year ago when the institute was moved from the old building on Capitol avenue to the new one on Thirteenth and Dodge, which it now occupies, the writer gave the readers of this paper a full description of the different departments, but having occasion to visit it this week, we were surprised at the great increase in the number of patients and the improvements every way. Five doctors now constitute the staff, three skilled instrument makers manufacture surgical braces and appliances for deformities, trusses, etc. Four druggists are employed compounding medicines. We learn from the express receipts that from seventy to one hundred packages of to one hundred packages of medicine are shipped every day to patients treated by correspondence, This branch receives the most careful attention, and requires the whole time of one physician, two assistants, a stenographer and typewriter, as well as shipping clerks, pharmacists, etc. The number of persons under treatment at the institute in the city and by corresdoctors etc., numbers over four thousand, and they are scattered over every state and territory. Patients are now here from eight different states, Nebraska, Iowa, Colorado, Kansas, Missouri, Dakota, Wyoming and Montana. Ope of the special features is the fine and expensive electrical home-like, and in fact every department is complete. The new building just being com-pleted joining it on Dodge street side has just been added to the institute, adding to it forty elegant rooms, and eight plain and electric bath rooms.

apparatus for the medical use of electricity. There is none better in exist-ence. The hotel apartment looks very

This establishment is in reality what has given Omaha its medical reputation, and it can boast of being the only institute west of New York manufacturing surgical appliances and instruments, having their own drug store, manufact-uring and compounding medicines, and having a boarding department, trained nurses and attendants, as well as skilled physicians, all in the same building. The so-called institutes and dispensaries advertised in this and neighboring cities, whose whole capital consists in printer's ink, sink into insignificance when compared with this typical invalid's home, in which so many have found relief and cure.

The Omaha Medical institute has been thoroughly but truthfully adver-tised. Dr. McMenamy, the president, says: a proper, sensible manner of informing the public of the location and advantages possessed by the advertiser. Our advertisement is a medical directory for those who are in search of scientific medical or surgical aid, and it is to meet the wants of such persons as well as for our own benefit that we advertise. advertisements contain the plain truth only. I claim that we have more skill employed, more money in-vested, that more patients are treated, more cures effected, than in any and all other medical establishments in the west combined."

Doctors McMenamy, Coe and Spalding, the leading physicians of the Institute, are well known throughout the west as men of uncommon skill. It is a self-evident fact that the doctors must be men of extraordinary ability, to make the Omaha Medical and Surgical Institute the grand success it has become and place it so far above competitors. Success makes success, and we predict that this institution which has grown as rapidly as the city will keep page with Omaha in its future prosperity and growth.

Considering an Illegal Judge. The grand jury resumed the election fraud investigation yesterday. Superintendent Mahoney of the poor farm was called. The record of the subjects under his control were taken before the jury and were examined, and it was stated that some irregularity was discovered. One of the chief features of today was the appearance before the jury of day was the appearance before the jury of Martin Quick, of the First ward. He testified that one of the democratic judges who performed duty at the First precinct of the First ward, whose name is Henry Schoen, is a resident of Chicago, and that he not only acted as judge and made affidavit that he was a legal voter, but that he cast his vote also. It is rumored that his case will be given in mediate attention pointing toward an indistment. Schoen is said to be still in the city.

FELL AND DIED.

A Union Pacific Brakesman Falls Forty-five Feet in the Darkness. James Persinger, a freight brakesman on the Burlington, fell through a trestle at the intersection of the Belt railroad and broke his neck, resulting in instant death, about daybreak yesterday. He was a new man in the busi ness and was making his first trip in, having boarded the train at Lincoln. At the above point the train broke in two and the deceased descended the ladder of the car, and think ing that) he was stopping on terra firma he set his foot down and was precipitated to the ground below, a distance of forty five feet. His fellow workmen did not see him fall, but did notice a lantern, which he held in his hand, twirling in the air which he held in his hand, twirling in the air in the descent. The train was not moving at, the time and when the men ar-rived on the spot they found Persinger dead. The remains were taken in charge by the coroner and at an inquest a verdict of acci-dental death was returned. Persinger leaves a widow and three children residing at Filly, Neb., and from letters found upon his person purposed to have been weither to his person purported to have been written to him by his wife, the family is in destitute circumstances. The remains were sent to Filly, Neb., this evening.

Insane Asylums Crowded. Reports from the authorities in charge of the asylums for the insune in this state are to the effect that the two establishments, at Lincots and Norfolk, are crowded with inmates to their full capacity. Saturday James Davis was arraigned before the commission for the insane in this city, and programmed a fit subject for the asylum. He was placed in the custody of Sheriff Coburn, and the latter at once informal the superintendent of the hospital, Dr. Knapp, at Lincoln, that he had a patient committed to his charge. The reply came that all the available space was taken up, and that Davis could not be taken in at that place unless the sheriff would agree to take back Joseph Hare and place him in charge of the superintendent of the poor in this city. It was also stated that Hare was not considered a saue man, but masmuch as Davis is more seriously afflicted the change will be made to-day. The superinten-dent of the asylum at Lincoln also states that there are at least 600 individuals in the state, at large, who are fit subjects for the asylum, but who are allowed to exercise their liberties, simply because the hospital space is exhausted.
