THE CITY.

A case of cigars was received at the custom house from Cuba yesterday.

Detective Dempsey was presented with a life-size crayon portrait of himself Thursday. The work was executed by Albert Rothery, of this city.

There were only four church sociables on Walnut Hill last night, represented by the Christian, Presbyterian, Episcopal and Methodist denominations.

A union meeting of the Sabbath school teachers of the city will be held every Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Young Men's Christian association building. Open for all.

The explosion of a gasoline lamp called the fire department to the home of S. M. Emerson, on Fifteenth and Pierce streets, shortly after 7 o'clock Thurs day evening. The damage was trifling, Although the members of the family were badly seared.

For the first time in the history of the city there are two minstrel companies playing at one time in this city. This noon both of them, Haverly's and Beach & Bower's, comprising sixty men, created a lively time at the Barker hotel as they left for their noon parade.

The efforts made by the Swedish Ladies' Relief society to make their concert and ball at Masonie hall tonight a grand success should in-duce the public to patronize them lib-erally. The net proceeds of the enter-tainment will be devoted to relieving the poor of this city and make the approaching holidays bright in homes now dark from poverty.

Personal Paragraphs.

At the Arcade: Dr. Coulter, Waterloo; John B. George, Custer county; W. B. Thomas, Tekamah; A. C. Smith, Oakland; W. H. Morris, Loup City.

Colonel John J. Foster, representing Rice & Dixey's "Adonis" company, is in the city making arrangements for the appearance of Henry E. Dixey and company at Boyd's opera house on Christmas night.

R. Papineau, jr., one of the most popular salesmen traveling in these parts, and repre-senting Prior, the men's furnisher, of Chi-cago, is stopping at the Paxton. It has been some years since Mr. Papincau visited this section, but he is still remembered and kind y greeted by all his old acquaintances.

Mr. E. L. Merritt, ex-editor of the Omaha Herald, left last evening for St. Louis. He has been in close consultation with some of the leading democrats of this city, and it is said that he will shortly return on an im-portant political mission. Mr. Merritt is em-ployed by the New York World and the St Louis Globe Democrat in writing political correspondence from western cities.

Mr. Franklin S, Smith, of this city, who has been identified for twelve years with the Jite musical circles of Omaha, has recently accepted a very flattering offer from Max Meyer & Brother to assume the role of sales-man in their extensive plano establishment, Mr. Smith's rare musical gifts, his reputation as a choir and chorus director, his experience in the piano and organ business, together with his genial, pleasant manners, cannot but insure his success in whatever way he is connected with the art of which he is an undoubted master.

Gored.

A man name Hansen, working at the distillery, was gored yesterday morning by a steer. He was taken to his home at Pierce and Fifth streets.

Small-Pox.

Union Pacific switchmen in the transfer yards have refused to work because of the prevalence of small pox. A blockade has been occasioned.

Returned His Booty.

Fred Billings has been lying in jail a number of days, awaiting trial for stealing $150 worth of guns from J. J. Hardin. The latter has secured the stolen property and now re-fuses to prosecute the thief. Billings has therefore been released.

These The investigation has clearly shown that gentlemen are anxious that Pennsylvanians in the Second district of the First ward the should, when in the Gate City, meet each should, when in the Gate City, meet each other and by social intercourse become ac-quainted and form social connections. Mr. D. B. Houck was chosen temporary chairman, and Vic Mussleman, secretary. The chair-man explained the object of the gathering. He said that as old Pennsylvanians they should be bound together by more than simple social ties. It behaved everyone there to further the association and to estab-lish a society that would be alike both bejudges and clerks failed to make any return whatever to the board of cauvassers, there being nothing in the poll-book returned by being nothing in the poll-book returned by them save a list of the names of those who voted in that district. The only thing the board of canvasers had to base their canvass upon was the two taily-sheets, and these materially disagreed as to the totals. These lists where not certi-fied to, and there was nothing to show that the board of election had taken the eath pre-scribed by law. Again, with the exception of a few familiar names on the taily-sheets of persons running for precinct offices, we would not know whether they came from the First or Third wards. The evidence shows that the bailots were thrown there to further the association and to estab-lish a society that would be alike both be-nevolent and sociable. Many persons would in due course of time arrive here from Pennsylvania and it would be the duty of members of this asso-clation to befriend them, no matter whether they be rich or poor. Forty-five gentlement enrolled as members of the society, and the meeting adjourned until Thursday evening most shown that he served as one of the clerks of the election board in this district several hours during the absence of one of the reg-ular clerks. Mr. Gustus is a democrat but not a resident of this precinct, nor was he elected to this position or took any oath of office. It has also been shown that in the First district of the Second ward no less than seven different persons served on the board during the progress of the election and the can-vas of the returns, some of them being sworn in and others not. Any member of this board seemed to absent himself from his duties whenever he felt inclined or saw ift to do so. After the votes were received and the next.

This fact not only surgested the advisability of taking a second count, but rendered such action per-emptory, and accordingly the first count was set aside as incorrect. The second count was proceeded with until it was almost com-pleted, when it was discovered that the re-nublicans ware againing over the first event of the city, which have been visited by C. H. change in the first tally list, the report was signed by the board and sent to the county clerk. It was shown by witnesses Leeder and Gold, that they overheard a conversa-tion in an outbuilding near McShane's wig-wam on Wednesday or Thursday night after the election, wherein it was asserted that some of the tickets had been taken by two of the parties to the conversa-tion when only one was to take the tickets tion when only one was to take the tickets. One of these men said that if Donnelly was there the matter could be fixed up all right, but that he was at home, and that one bunch of these tickets must be gotten even if there had to be a row about it. Not long after-ward a row did take place in the wigwam where the canvassing was being prosecuted. The Common Lot.

There is a place no love can reach. There is a time no voice can teach, There is a chain no power can break,

There is a sleep no sound can wake. Sooner or later that time will arrive, that place will wait for your coming, that chain must bind you in helpless death, that sleep must fall on your senses. But thousands every year go untimely to their fate, and thousands more lengthen out their days by heed-ful, timely care. For the failing strength, the weakening organs, the the scramble that ensued the tickets were thrown from the tables and scattered about the room. This, of course, undid all that had been done on the second count, and necessitated a third. Why Should She Steal?

Mrs. Maggie McCowan was arrested for stealing 25 cents' worth of coal from the B. & M. vards. Her husband, who has a good position and is amply able to support his family, was much surprised when he learned of his wife's theft. Her flue and costs amounted to $5.50.

Her Assailant Has Fled.

Peterson, the grocery clerk, who assaulted Cora Parks, a little girl. in the rear room of Ward's grocery store, Sixteenth and California streets, about noon Thursday, has evidently fied, as the police have been unable to find him. An examination of the girl by a physician substantiates the testimony in the revolting attack.

Cut Cancelled.

At noon yesterday the Omaha office of the Chicago & Northwestern was instructed to cancel the $9.15 rate to Chicago, and in place of the limited tickets now sold at that rate to sell unlimited tickets at $12.65. The latter include a stop-over privilege, but the other lines fail to see how the Northwestern can make this advance without giving the required ten days' notice.

Minor Criminal Matters.

Phil Corbett, an inveterate thief, was run in by the police yesterday for stealing lead pipe.

A negro named George Paine was fined $5 and costs yesterday morning for stealing a sack of coal from the Union Pacific yards. It is believed he is one of the fellows who make it a practice of stealing coal by the sackfull and selling it.

The United States Grand Jury.

The United States grand jury again issued summons for a large number of witnesses yesterday morning, and the prevailing opinion is that they have struck an unexpected ion is that they have struck an unexpected rich lead. Their labors will hardly be con-cluded this week, yet they may hurry up things and finish by this even-ing. James Donnelly, with the poli-book and tally sheets of the First dis-trict of the Second ward was on the anxious seat this morning, as was also County Clerk Roche. The legislative investigating com-mittee are considering the irregularities of the same precurct, some of which appear the same precinct, some of which appear elsewhere.

That Investigation.

"It is embarrassing, no doubt, to the mem bers of the school board who compose the investigating committee," said a taxpayer, "to sit in judgment or hold an inquisition where their colleagues are resting under grave suspicions of malfeasance. The com-mittee should have an experienced attorney to examine witnesses, and thus bring out all the facts. They cannot hope for good re-sults in any other way."

Pueblo. The city of Pueblo, Colo., has five of the gaetest smelting plants in the country. The sixth, now building, is the lorgest in the world. It is the only city in the west than can supply steam coal at $1 per ton, and has an inexhaustible water supply. In addition to this it is a down-hill pull from every mining camp in the state. These manufactories pay out $125,000 per day for ores and $250,000 per month wages to employes. This immense sum into a city of only 20,000 people. The first of a series of excursions will leave Omaha December 19, a. m., over the Union Pacific, running through to Pueblo without change. The parties on this ex-cursion will be in my charge, and in addition will have a porter to care for passengers. On arrival of party there they will be taken in charge by citizens, shown through the great Bessemer steel rail mills, the copper and lead pipe mills, and the great smelters. The fare on this occasion January 9. will be only $25 round trip, good for 60 days and five days lay over at any point desired. For space on this occasion write or call on F. M. Fish, room No. 8, Arcade hotel, Omaha. Representing Pueblo board of trade.

Wanted-One Thousand Cigarmakers. The Omaha Cigar Manufacturers' association have at length decided upon a home label, which they will place upon every box of cigars manufactured in this city. It is of red paper and consists of two round designs, each bearing a shield outlined in gold These are connected by a band about an inch and a half in width. On these several parts are the words: "Cigar Manufacturers of Omaha. S. Jorgenson, president;" "Patronize Home Industry. Cigars in this Box Made by Union Labor Only. Registered." "Endorsed by the Union Cigar-makers of Omaha." The union is sending out to thousands of people in this city samples of this lable, as also that of the Cigarmakers' International union, accompanied by a circular. These circulars are delivered by American District Telegraph boys and are receipted for by the recipients.

The circular states that the object of the move is to encourage Omahans to buy Omaha cigars which, it is claimed, are as good, or may, with sufficient encouragement, be made as good as any in the world. If this patronage were to be practiced, Omaha would be bene-fited, because she could give employment possibly to 1,000 skilled mechanics, whereas how she complexe but divide the the theorem now she employs but cighty-five. There is a large number of people in this community who have already expressed themselves in favor of the suggestion, and will carry it with a view of helping Omaha.

Vestibuled Train to Washington. The only vestibuled train from Chicago to Washington is run via B. & O. R. R. Every car in the train is vesti-buled, and heated by steam drawn from the locomotive. This train leaves B. & O. depot, Chicago, at 7:05 p.m., daily, and arrives Washington the next even-ing at 9:35, and Baltimore at 10:45. No extra fare is charged. The Eastern Express leaves Chicago daily at 10:25 p.m., and the entire train, including day coaches and Pullman sleepers, runs through to Philadelphia via Washington and Baltimore.

Arrest of a Forger Joe Hillike, who has been wanted for the past two months for a series of forgeries, was arrested Thursday evening at South Omaha and lodged in the central station this afternoon.
