The marriage of Eugene S. Allen and Miss Mary R. Joseiyn is to take place at the Con-gregational church next Wednesday at noon. Misses Leonard and Farnsworth will en-tertain the Young Ladies' German club on Friday evening, the 25th inst, instead of the 26th, as was previously intended.

David Enslow and Miss Ellen Bell, both of this city, are among those who have re-cently entered the state of double blessed. ness. The necessary permit was issued by County Clerk Shea.

Miss Rehse, the artist, has prepared some hand-painted novelties, and prepared a very pleasing cotton display. The exhibit is made at Chapman's art store to day, to morrow and Wednesday.

The Bluffs is to have a variety show this week, and as much longer as the support will warrant it. Hibben & Co., of Omaha, will open this evening at Platuer's hall, on Upper Broadway, and will remain as long as

The seats will be put in position in the Atkins school building this week. The heat-ing apparatus is all that can possibly delay the opening of the building, and if that works all right at the test, eleven rooms will be ready for occupancy by the lst of lanbe ready for occupancy by the 1st of Jan-

The rage for walking-it being English, you know-causes numbers of the young folks to try the trip on foot between the two cities and over the Broadway bridge. One way generally satisfies the longings, and the motor line catches the dimes for the return trip.

Mrs. Mollie Dye, wife of ex-Supervisor S. Dye, died at her home in Macedonia on Sat-urday last after a very brief illness. She was taken sick less than a week ago. The death is a painful surprise to the many friends in this community. The funeral oc-curred yesterday at the home.

Mrs. Hoyt, the small-pox victim in Garner township, died Saturday afternoon, and was buried that evening. No other members of the family are yet ill with the disease, but it is expected that more cases will be reported in a few days. The quarantine will be strictly maintained until all danger *of out-side contaction is nast side contagion is past.

Work was not stopped yesterday on the cellar of the new Eiseman block, as it is de-sired to complete it before the ground freezes. The work is already nearly com-pleted, the center being deep enough, and the sides being nearly down. The principal mark work is to lowed up and execute the near part yet is to level up and excavate the por-tions left for driveways. The work has been pushed by the contractors, Owen Bros., and will be completed in two more days. Work on the foundation will then commence at Reginald Keble, aged three months, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hilditch, died at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon of congestion of the lungs, after an illness of only three days. The little one had been a re-markably healthy child, and gave promise of reaching mature years. The parents have the sympathy of many friends in the loss of their only child. The funeral will take place at 2:50 o'clock this afternoon from the resi-dence, 1007 Fifth avenue, Rev. T. J. Mackay, of St. Paul's church, officiating.

A Fighting Parson.

Neither the world nor the church has any use for either a negative or an inactive christian. This thought was developed yesterday morning at the Broadway Methodist church by the pastor, Rev. D. C. Franklin. "Curistianity is aggressive," said the speaker, "and under the command of the King of Heaven, the fortresses of sin in this world are to be assaulted and laid low. Upon their ruins are to be planted the flags of victory, which shall herald to earth and heaven the progress of God's kingdom in the world." "Our contention is not with flesh and blood, but with principalities and powers and with wickedness in high places. If each individual member of the body of Christ could have a clear conception of his duties, it would go far toward solving the problem of how these fortresses are to be taken and the king-dom of Christ established. ** It is a mistake to suppose that the christian life is one of case. There are bat-tles to be fought, and it is he alone upon whose brow rests the crown of the victor, who has a correct idea of the christian life, and it is he alone who has a right to stand as an expon-ent of the principles upon which the christ-ian faith is grounded. an faith is grounded. The main who has never won a victory is a cipher in the church and in the world. St. Pael's in-junction, is to "put on the whole armor of God," which sufficiently indicates that the conflict is an aggressive one. To become dertified with the church means more than identified with the church means more than it did in 1561 for the brave boys to put on the blue. It is an aggressive warfare, or rather a war of aggressive dominion, for when taken, the country of the enemy is to be oc-cupied and made fruitful with results to the plory of our Heavenly Father. A man who thinks the warfare is one of defense merely, thinks the warfare is one of defense merely, is already shorn of his strength. The efforts of the aggressive christian are not along the outposts of the enemy, but in the center of his country. Evidences of this are seen in the opinions men hold of religion. As long as it does not touch their business they say it is a beautiful theory that ought not to be mixed up with the common things of the world. When it becomes aggressive, then they say it ought not to be entertained."

Miss S. D. Rohse, the well known artist, has been arranging a surprise for the helidays. She has been preparfor the helidays. She has been prepar-ing most nevel and dainty heliday sou-renirs out of cotton. They are varied, and the hahd-paintings upon them are "very skillfu'ly done. They need to be seen to be appreciated. The idea is a unique one, and Miss Rehse merits much credit for the conceit and for its plensing execution. A disclary is to be pleasing execution. A display is to be made at Chapman's art store for three days this week, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. All should see the exhibit.
