mas, but it was doubtful. There was nothing new developed yesterday, other than the jurymen received a mild reprimand from Foreman Straight for an alleged relaxation of secresy in allowing mem-bers of the press to cajole them out of infor-mation relative to their work. Of course, none of them had given anything away, and never would. Nevertheless, it is currently understood, that two indictments will be returned and maybe more, as there is a host of witnesses yet to be axamined.

Out in the Storm.

Edward Walsh writes to the BEE complaining of the wilful disregard of their patron's comfort shown by the employes, and apparently countenanced by the management apparently countenanced by the management of the southwestern car line. He says that, while the driver has frequently told him that the last two trips at night going west would be made at 10:30 and 11:30 respectively, he has been unable to get a car at either of those hours. A few nights noo in the storm, him-self and family and half a dozen others after waiting forty five minutes for a car were compelied to walk home, two miles, in the darkness and storm. Mr. Walsh wants the road to tend to business or else go out of it.

A Mammoth Cooper Shop.

William A. Paxton said yesterday that he had been working for some time to secure for South Omaha a large cooperage and that he had now almost closed the deal. It would not be connected with any of the present houses in South Omnha but would endeavor to supply them all with tierces, barrels, keys and cans. He declined to give the name o the concern for various reasons, though, he said, when the firm got under way it would give employment to seventy-five men, but this number would be small in comparison with the force which would be later put to work

Taken to Ackley for Burial.

The remains of the sulcide, Dr. Williams, were removed yesterday afternoon from Drexel & Maul's to Ackley, Ia., where they will be interred as the deccased desired. The wife of Dr. Williams, residing in Paris, knew nothing of the melancholy circumstances of Saturday, and the intelligence will be a great shock to her. The brothers of the deceased, who reside in Whitewater, Wis., and are members in good standing in Masonic and Pythian circles, are prostrated with grief over the lamentable affair. The body was encased in a splendid metallic casket, ordered specially by Williams' relatives from Cincinnati.

The Mayor and Relocation.

Mayor Broatch was spoken to yesterday afternoon upon the subject of the Hascall city hall ordinance. He expressed himself as being totally opposed to the instrument adopted last night by the council. "There is news. no earthly reason," said the mayor, "why our city hall should not be built on the site and under the conditions already decided upon by the citizens. Eighteenth and Farnam streets is a splendid location, and if you relocate the hall, say on Jefferson square or elsewhere, there remains some $50,000 worth of work and material that there is no use for, and which the citizens will have to pay for. The bonds amounting to $25,000 already issued, will of course be provided for by the city. I shall not veto Mr. Hascall's ordinance or the

The Guards Elect Officers. The annual election of officers, civil and military, by the Omaha Guards for the ensuing year was held on Monday night at the armory on Capitol avenue. Mr. Jesse Lowe presided and the following officers were elected: President, Jesse Lowe; vice president, Robinson; clerk, Nye; treasurer, Ache son. The Messrs. Tyrrell, Harvey, Carey, Berlin and Mulford were directors. The civil officers are ex-officio directors. Captain A. H. Schraff; first lieutenant, W. A. Web ster; second lieutenant, Charles A, Harvey; third lieutenant, Harry Mulford; quarter master, S. B. Reed.

The Guards adopted a style of uniform to be worn by the company on its trip to Wash-ington for mauguration day. The coat will be dark blue, the trousers of light blue with white stripes, a black beaver shake and a bark blue gradeast. The trimings balt dark blue greatcoat. The trimmings, belts, etc., will be left to the committee in charge of affairs.

CHIEF OF SLEUTH HOUNDS. The Man Who Watches the Country's

Counterfeiters. Colonel F. J. Bell and Major Matt Stead man, attaches of the United States secret service, were in the city yesterday. Major Steadman is well known here, and is a visitor upon department business. Colonel Bell, for the first time in a life extending over some forty years, comes to Omaha en route to North Platte, where for a week he will be the guest of his old time friend and comrade, Colonel Cody Colonel Bell's position is chief of the se cret service system, with headquarters at Washington, D. C. He visits Oniaha, expecting to see a frontier town composed of frame buildings, and is candid enough to confess his great admiration for the Gate "I take," said Colonel Bell, "great stock in McCartney just finished twelve years in a Michigan prison when he was apprehended in Ohio. The following statistical information was given by Colonel Beil. During the last fiscal year the department had made 407 arrests for counterfeiting. Of this number 134 were foreigners and 50 per cent of the number, singular to say, were Itahans. There had been destroyed 1,190 sets of moulds, 446 plates, 33 sets of dies, 67 single moulds. The value of counterfeit money destroyed aggre-gated $826,330 (this was, however, the accumulation of ten years.) It consisted of 773 629 in notes, and $52,700 in gold, silver and copper and nickle currency. Colonel Bell served through the late war m the Second New York cavalry and is par-ticularly well disposed towards the craft, but goes for them with a gun whenever they "fake" anything about him in lieu of genuine

MR. A. L. JOHNEON, A UNION PACIFIC ENGINEER, GIVES THE FOLLOWING HISTORY. "I have been on the road as an engineer since 1874, and now have engine No. 825. An engi-neer's lot is not always a happy one, as he is ex-posed to all kinds of weather, and often losing steep for two or three days at a time. The ex-posed to all kinds of weather, and often losing three cold very easy, and as long ago as twelve or fifteen years I had trouble with my nose and throat. These symptoms became more aggra-vated until I could stand it no longer. My nose would stop up, my ears would ring, my throat feit as if it was full of phlegm and with every change of weather I would nave an increase of the trouble. I read Dr. Jordan's cases from time to time (as everyon: does), and decided throat the lapoeinted. Now I breathe freely throat feels natural, the vinging in my ears has cased, and although in fair flesh before, I have gained in the neighbolhood of sixteen pounds in weight. Dr. Jordan's treatment is mild and effective, and the relief and well feeling after each treatment more than balances the incou-vence and expense attending it." MR. CRESAP MCCOY,

MR. A. L. JOHNFON, A UNION PACIFIC ENGINEER,

FOR THE HOLIDAYS.

We are offering special inducements to parents who are desirous of securing practical and appropriate holiday gifts for their boys; what better or more sensible present can you give them than a nice Suit or Overcoat? We are showing handsome styles for big and small boys, and our qualities and prices can not be matched.

$2.50 buys a very nice all wool Suit or a good Overcoat with cape for small boys. $3.50 buys an excellent Suit or Overcoat for small boys.

$5.50 buys a very good all wool Suit or splendid Chinchilla Overcoat for large boys up to 18 years old.

We call special attention to a few small lots of very choice styles of Overcoats for little boys from 4 to 10, which we offer at a marvelous low price. We are anxious to close them out; they are extremely fine goods and the brief season left for the disposal of such qualities induced us to make a big cut on them; they are made of very fine Kerseys, Chinchilla and Cheviots-this seasons novelties, of elegant designs and richly trimmed, some with fur, some with plush-in short they are such garments as can only be found in first-class houses. We have marked them $6.00, $7.25, $7.90 and $8.50, and we guarantee that these prices are not one half of what such goods usually bring. This is an extraordinary opportunity to procure a fine garment at such a figure and every boy will appreciate such a gift.

In our Hat Department can be found an immense line of Boy's Hats and Caps in Plush, Felt and Cloth. We positively sell these goods at just one-half what regular Hat dealers ask for them, and you would be surprised to see our prices. Good little Turbans of Plush, Chinchilla and Astrachan at 25c; splendid Knit and Jersey Caps at 30c, and very fine Cloth and Jersey Caps at 40c, 50c and 75c.

In our Glove Department we have a large assortment of Boy's Gloves and Mittens, suitable for presents. As a Christmas offering we will present this week each boy with every purchase-no matter how small, a nice paint box. We have opened an elegant line of Mufflers, Silk Handkerchiefs and Scarfs, especially for holiday trade and offer them at prices lower than asked in any other house for like qualities. Good Cashmere Mufflers at 15c, 35c and 50c; elegant Silk Mufflers of beautiful designs and elegantly embroidered at 75c, $1.00 and $1.50.

Next Thursday we shall begin to distribute our elegant holiday souvenirs and we will also forward one with all out of town orders.

Burial of Engineer Farrell.

The burial of Mike Farrell, the engineer. took place yesterday morning from St. Philomena's cathedral. The remains were borne there from the depot, having arrived in the morning from Lincoln. Requiem high mass was sung for the repose of the soul. The body was taken to the Holy Sepulchre cemetery where the interment took place.

Public School Concert.

The music teachers of the public schools desire the pupils, of all grades, who are to take part in the concert to-night, to be at the rehearsal at the opera house at 3 o'clock this afternoon, but not in their evening costume, at which time they will receive tickets for their admission as performers in the evening.

Campaign Indebtedness.

During the late presidential campaign Ernest Stuht rented a building on Eleventh and Mason streets, for the purpose of holding political demonstrations, of James Callahan. The rent was fixed at $25 per month, and Callahan states that the building was used two months. He applied to Stuht for his pay and the latter refused to liquidate the account, stating that the republican central committee had made no allowance. Cal-lahan states that he will bring suit against Stuht for the rent at an early date.

Justice Holme's Court. M. Hellinan & Co. sues J. F. Shannon to recover $29 for goods sold. George Petty and Ed Barret were before the court yesterday to tell how they came in possession of the harness which led to their arrest on a charge of larceny. They claimed that they traded a horse for the property and that they did not steal the harness. The court stated that the harness would be re-turned to them, but that the defendants would be required to give bonds in case any-thing farther transpired.
