Mr. William Kinzel and Miss Emma Fredrick were married yesterday morning at the residence of the bride's parents, 1601 Fourth avenue, by Rev. G. W. Crofts, of the Congregational church.

Miss Annie Frazer was presented with a handsome dinner set last evening by several of her admiring colored friends. Charles Curtis made the presentation speech in a very appropriate manner.

The city clerk was kept busy yesterday filing bids submitted by local contractors for work on public improvements soon to be contracted for by the council. The work embraces grading, sidewalks, etc.

Judge Aylesworth will hold a short session in police court this morning to enable unfortunates, who have spent a night in the cooler, an opportunity to square themselves, and go home to enjoy their Christmas turkey.

A slight blaze occurred in the Globe press room early yesterday morning. A can of benzine ignited from a lamp and made things lively for a time, but the flames were extinguished without calling out the department.

J. W. Shoop is thoroughly overhauling the Northwest hotel. With new paper, paint and sundry improvements, the hotel will be made very attractive and convenient before its reopening, which will be soon after the 1st of January.

The office of the local branch house of the Buckeye Manufacturing company will shortly be removed to the Brown building, in the room recently occupied by the European restaurant. Mr. T. W. McCargar is the local manager.

The Congregational Sunday school had a very enjoyable entertainment last evening. It was a cantata for Christmas.

Mr. George Bink has opened a very attractive and convenient office at No. 7 North Main street, and will engage actively in the real estate and loan business.

James Betts, one of the prisoners now confined in the county jail for highway robbery at Oakland, was a government convict for about two hours, a few months ago. He was charged with violating the internal revenue law, but the federal court ordered his release.

A complaint was filed against D. E. Gieseler yesterday, for obstructing the sidewalk in the southeastern part of the city by piling up wood. The court ordered the obstructions removed by Friday next, or they will be removed by the marshal at the defendant's expense.

The work will continue until after New Year's, with but little decrease.

Mrs. Lew M. Croswell last evening presented her husband with a handsome $140 gold watch and chain. The ticker is a beauty, and its owner is a proud man indeed.

At the close of the services at the Berean Baptist church Sunday morning, it was unanimously voted to submit a petition to the city council, asking for the suppression of all saloons, gambling houses and places of vicious entertainment, and the right enforcement of the law.

Joseph Munker was arrested yesterday afternoon in response to a telegram from Boone, for obtaining money under false pretenses. Munker is an engineer, and is charged with securing and obtaining a money order engineer of the same name who was killed a short time since on the Fremont, Elkhorn & Missouri Valley railroad.

To-day the retail stamp, general delivery and registry divisions of the postoffice will be open from 10 to 12 a. m. The carriers will make but one delivery about the city, and that in the forenoon, leaving the office at 9:30. Collections will be made at the same time; also collection from the boxes between First and Eleventh streets on Broadway and on Madison street.

For several years past Prof. McDermid has been a faithful member of the Congregational church, and has worked harder for its success, and that, without remuneration. Such service was well worth a testimonial, and the ladies of the church took up the matter and secured a handsome sum of money. With it they purchased a fine parlor organ, and last evening they presented it to the pastor during the Christmas service. It is a gift which is entirely unexpected and it is needless to say it is fully appreciated.

THE NEWS IN THE BLUFFS.

Where the Commercial Travelers Will Eat Their Turkey.

CHRISTMAS PRESENTATIONS. Celebrating the Christmas Tide—Will Improve Lake Manawa—City Council Doings—What the Streets Need—Judicial.

Where They Take Their Turkey. The life of the commercial traveler is one of continual "hustle." Few indeed are the days that find him "at home" to his friends, and when the "relief" is sounded and he is told to lay down the implements of his warfare for a day, how gladly does he obey the order.

Whole families are gathered at the order. Cold roasts, bad tables and a generally rocky fare catches him the year round, but on Christmas day the "bosom" of his family catches him; turkey takes the place of hash, and the voice of thanksgiving is heard from lips that are wont to say other words at a late spread and badly cooked dinner.

The majority of the Council Bluffs contingent of the army of travelers will dine at home today. A few are attracted at way stations, but while absent in the flesh will be with their loved ones in spirit.

The representatives of Harle, Hass & Co., wholesale druggists, are all at home. John C. W. Corey at Atlantic, Ia., and C. L. Hass in the Bluffs.

Of Stewart Bros' men, M. D. Feiler alone is away. He will eat turkey, if he can get it, at Grand Island. J. J. Stork, R. J. McBride and J. Hollinger are with their families in this city.

Messrs. Peregoy & Moore's men are somewhat scattered. L. C. Dann, H. B. Watson and P. R. Shepherd are with their families at Council Bluffs. E. Mackin is at home in Omaha; George Wadsworth will catch a bite somewhere on the B. & M. road, and C. S. Morse will hunt for the best hotel in western Nebraska.

The Mueller Music company have called in their entire force to help out with their immediate necessities. Messrs. F. D. K. Kidd, C. E. Michael, E. C. Strow and Alex. Gien will sit down to an elegant menu at home in this city, and J. L. Stewart will do the same at Nebraska.

Weir-Shugart company's men, I. E. H. Coffeen, L. F. Whitehead and F. A. Slichter, are with their families here, while P. D. Kendall of Creston, got stuck at Norfolk, Neb., and could not "make home."

The representatives of Empire Hardware company are at home, but none in the city. W. B. Dingeman and W. Murr are at Grand Island, Neb. R. V. Hunter is at Norfolk, Neb., and Mr. Strohlow will sit down to the old family board at Bellwood, Ohio.

Of W. A. Maurer's men Mr. Howard Franklin made a flying visit to St. Joseph, Mo., to spend the day with his family. Messrs. F. T. Northup, George Walters and C. F. Toll are with their families in the Bluffs.

The men of Russell & Co. are with their families except H. W. Young of Sioux City, who struck a sale at Lincoln, Neb., and stopped to close it up. Mr. E. C. Harris, manager, with D. J. Clark are at home in this city. Hugh W. Gregg is at Holdrege and J. L. Diven at Hay Springs, Neb., the families of both residing at those places.

E. A. Sprague, manager for the hand-wich Manufacturing company and A. W. Johnson are both with their "folks at home." Mr. E. H. Reynolds of W. J. Reynolds, the general western manager, J. J. Smith, also carries at the same place.

H. M. Wells and A. B. Enderton, of the Eagle company, are at home. E. H. Hayworth, of Hayworth & Son, took time to run in home for the day, as did Charles Hays of the same company.

The representatives of David Bradley & Co. are widely scattered. W. B. Judd and C. H. Gardner are in this city, also I. T. Corbett. H. C. Cook is in Sioux City, E. S. Ketchum at Norfolk, Neb., A. D. Seefeldt at La Porte City, Ia., and J. W. Park at Kendall.

As Others See Him. There was a very enjoyable affair last evening at the rooms of the law firm of Myner, Lindt & Seabrook.

There was made the recipient of a handsome crayon portrait of himself, elegantly framed. The portrait was the work of A. J. Rothery, a well-known Omaha artist, and is a credit to his artistic ability.

The portrait is a massive one of carved walnut, and is a fitting surrounding for the handsome portrait within. The recipient was heartily congratulated by his friends who had been surprised by what was to take place, and stood the ordeal bravely.

For Rent—Two new store rooms in good location. Nos. 797 and 799 Broadway. S. Saunders, 30 Pearl st.

Loans made on city business and residence property. Notes bought. Kimball-Champ Investment company.

The Episcopal ladies' loan party on the 29th last promises to be one of the pleasantest parties of the season.

Pickled tripe and pigs' feet at Tibbits', 345 Broadway.

Weather strips for doors and windows. Odell & Bryant, 613 Main st.

Buy groceries, stationery and Christmas goods of Kelley & Younimer, 102 B way.

Notice the beautiful finish given collars, cuffs and shirts by Cascade Laundry company.

See Forrest Smith's special column.

Have our wagon call for your soiled clothes. Cascade Laundry Co.

It is decided that it will pay. The lake is already partially frozen over, and will soon be ready for active operations. The committee will thoroughly examine the plan, and make a full report of what is needed and what the cost will be, as well as the expected results of the improvements.

The city council held a short session last evening. The mayor and Aldermen Lacy, Knepher, Weaver and Waterman were present.

The final estimate on sewer work done by E. A. Wickham & Co., for $162.70, was passed, and the amount was paid until June 1, 1889, as a guarantee against failure of work or material.

Various grading bids were opened, read, and referred to the city engineer for tabulation.

The matter of appointing a committee to visit cities in Iowa relative to electric lighting was discussed. Alderman Knepher and Lacy opposed such an action.

The vote stood: Ayes, Lacy Waterman and Lacy; nay, Knepher. The appointment of the committee was placed in the hands of the mayor.

On motion the board of trade was requested to select members of that body as a part of this committee.

On motion E. A. Wickham & Co. were allowed final estimate on completed sewer work, except that on Thirtieth street against which there are protests. The total estimate is $4,000.

The London "Tailor" is the place to get your clothes made. 637 Broadway.

L. E. Roe, dentist, No. 27 Main St., over Jacquemin & Co.'s jewelry store.

Work for the Shovel Brigade. The Electric Motor company has men employed shoveling mud from the immediate vicinity of their tracks on Broadway to either side of that thoroughfare, improving the center of the street, the expense of the outside.

The city cleaned up during the summer while the dirt wagons were running to renew the disagreeable covering, but nothing of the kind has been done for some time. A thorough cleaning now would last all winter and add greatly to the comfort of pedestrians.

It should be attended to at once before the ground freezes, as it is doubtful if the council could expend the money where it would produce better results, or give more general satisfaction.

All grades soft coal, C. B. Fuel Co. Money loaned at L. B. Crafts & Co.'s loan office, on furniture, pianos, horses, wagons, personal property of all kinds, and all other articles of value without removal. All business strictly confidential.

In police court yesterday morning Ed Brennan was arraigned for larceny from a building in the night time. He was charged with stealing a chicken from the free lunch counter at the Mart.

The court failed to see how the case could assume a criminal phase and discharged the prisoner. The chicken was turned over to the less fortunate individuals who were confined in the cage.

William Sarr was fined $5.00, and John Leahy and John Kesler $7.00 each for intoxication. Mattie Mason forfeited $10 appearance money, and Lizzie Day $20.00 for disturbing the peace.
