Legislators Complain of the Quality of Their Stationery.

THE M BRIDE PINKERTON BILL.

Text of the Prohibitory Amendments Offered by Dempster and Corbin—District Court News—General and Personal.

LINCOLN BUREAU OF THE OMAHA BEE, 1029 P STREET, LINCOLN, Jan. 7.

Very few of the legislators returned today. Speaker Watson is in the city, but has not made himself conspicuous. The members amuse themselves gossipping at the composition of the committees, and secretly hoping that they will be "remembered" by the speaker.

Truesdell of Taylor, Everett of Washington, Sargent of Chester, Keiper of Pierce, Foster of Chase and Guhrst of Box Bluffs were observed at their seats today.

Says a prominent member: "The stationery furnished us is absolutely a disgrace to the state. It is almost impossible to get the paper with a pen. Any cheap John sent 'out west' would not think of keeping such stuff. I think the state is being grossly wronged in the stationery business, and they will hear more from me if the paper is all like mine."

The following is the language of Dempster's proposed amendment to the constitution prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors.

Corbin's proposed amendment is as follows: "The manufacture, keeping for sale and sale of all alcoholic liquors as a beverage shall be and is hereby forever prohibited in this state, and the legislature shall provide by law for the enforcement of this provision."

McBride's Pinkerton bill is very short. It simply provides that no person shall act as a policeman or detective in this state unless possessing the qualifications of an elector.

Two cases were tried in the district court today. Mrs. Louisa Adora Isard wants a divorce from Charles Isard, who has been married six years, and alleges, as her grounds for the action, abusive conduct and failure to support.

The following persons have arrived in the city within the last twenty-four hours: H. H. Houser, N. H. Warren, E. W. Winter, W. C. Walker, E. C. Wagoner, N. D. Hubbard, Beatrice, E. H. Underhill and wife, Seaward, G. W. Wheeler, Greenwood, Jack Farley, Nebraska City, C. H. Warren, Edgar, M. Lindsey, Nebraska City, James Beck, Crete, Sidney Wild, Fairmont, L. E. Pratt, Rose, W. C. Walker, E. C. Wagoner, Chambers, York, Walt M. Churchill, Fremont, Jas. S. McCarty, Fremont, Geo. B. McFarland, Wahoo, W. S. Bentley, Omaha, J. S. Stewart, Fort Union, Louis Wheeler, Cincinnati, O., D. Southerland, Oxford, Neb., V. Abrahamson, Minden, Neb.; Isaac Hill, Minden, Neb.; E. Rogers, Seaward, Neb.; S. S. Jones, Blue Springs, Neb.; A. M. Minard, Sparta, Wis.

Four drunks were before the police court this morning. Each were assessed $1 and costs by his honor Judge C. H. Warren.

New York Affairs.

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—[Special Correspondence of THE BEE.]—One of the reasons why the rich and the poor are drifting away from each other is that the rich are adopting English fashions and the poor clinging to their American ideas.

It is pretty generally understood that before many years there will be a complete rail train service in operation between the Atlantic and the east and west.
