THE BEE PUBLISHING COMPANY PROPRIETORS. E. ROSEWATER, Editor.

Sole Statement of Circulation. State of Nebraska, County of Douglas, George B. Rosewater, Secretary of The Bee Publishing Company...

Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence this 11th day of January, A. D. 1899, at Omaha, Nebraska, N. P. FEIL, Notary Public.

It wouldn't be a bad idea for the reading clerk of each branch of the legislature to devote fifteen minutes every morning to reading aloud the state constitution to members...

Those who are interested in the growth of America's merchant marine will be gratified to learn that within the past few months unusual activity has been going on in the various ship yards...

TEXAS, with her vast area of lands, has no longer any public domain. The only lands on which settlers can find a homestead belong to the schools and asylums...

The Honorable Frank Roubstoun Morrissey, who is busy trying to ride the two horses of Lincoln correspondents of the Herald and member of the Douglas delegation, prints an editorial paragraph in the last issue of his paper...

The boiler inspectors of the United States and Canada are urging upon all state legislatures the necessity of passing such laws for the inspection of steam boilers and licensing of engineers...

The storage electric cars which have been in use on the streets of New York for some time have given eminent satisfaction. They are able to make three round trips of twelve miles each without a change of battery...

The efforts which members of the Omaha bar are making to raise the salaries of the judges of the district court is not likely to be crowned with success even if the legislature be invoked...

The report that Charles Francis Adams had resigned the presidency of the Union Pacific road to become president of the inter-state railway association, could not be confirmed by the local officials of the Union Pacific...

THE ATTACK ON GENERAL LEESE.

The attempt that has been made to injure Attorney General Leese in popular regard by charging him with extravagance, violation of law, and nepotism, does not spring from an honest desire to correct existing evils and abuses in the public service of the state...

THE BEE has been foremost among the papers of Nebraska in demanding the removal of every supernumerary from the public service. It will, in the future as well as in the past, advocate rigid economy and retrenchment in each of the branches of the executive department...

THE WASHINGTON LOAN EXHIBITION. The centennial celebration of the inauguration of George Washington, as the first president of the United States, will be observed with unusual pomp and ceremony in New York City April 30...

What's the Matter With Congress? The house of representatives at Washington is in a bad way. Its membership seems to be made up of a few violent crank and a great many peaceful lunatics...

What May Be Looked for in Omaha. The house of representatives at Washington is in a bad way. Its membership seems to be made up of a few violent crank and a great many peaceful lunatics...

A TELLING JUDICIAL BLOW. The dispatches of a few days ago gave a very inadequate idea of the great merit and importance of the decision rendered by Judge Barrett, of the New York supreme court, in the case against one of the sugar refining companies...

THE election of a United States senator takes place in the Nebraska legislature on next Tuesday. Balloting will occur in each house separately between 12 o'clock noon, and the hour of adjournment for the day...

to abolish the railroad commission. The call, however, thinks the chances are that he is there to see to it that the fraudulent commission is sustained.

They say Jim Paul of St. Paul, has designs on the Grand Island land office. But the Scotch Herald opines the same thing that bent Paul out of his chances for governor was bent him out of this ambition...

The service which St. Joseph's hospital renders to Omaha should be recognized and duly appreciated. During the past year nearly nine hundred patients were received and treated, of which three hundred and twenty were non-paying...

The victims of the electric sugar conspiracy should comfort themselves with the thought that "sweet are the uses of adversity."

Congressman Holman seems to have deteriorated from a watchdog into a rather inferior order of shepherd dog and in the interest of the cattle syndicate.

Franklin an Annexationist. Bismarck is probably not aware that one of the streets of Louisville bears his name, and that no American or other dogs are allowed to run on that thoroughfare.

CURRENT TOPICS.

It seems very certain that the charges made against the Alaska company in two New York papers were utterly false. One of these, though the least sensational of the two, was the wholesale slaughter of the fur seal, and was accepted by many as true, for there have been so many instances of the very same thing in other localities that it was very likely to be true.
