Gone Away.

The Swedish physician, Dr. A. Fernlund, who, a little time ago, was accused of performing an abortion on Miss Stillman, from Auburn, Neb., but whose case was dismissed by Judge Berka because of want of witnesses, has left Omaha for Jamestown, N. D., the reason being his practice among the Swedes having suffered so much from charges made against him, of which he claims to be innocent.

Charged With Larceny.

W. H. Bush and J. A. Brown were arrested yesterday at the instigation of Storz & Iler on a charge of grand larceny. The individuals arrested conducted a saloon at the intersection of Sixteenth and Farnam streets until January 1. It is stated that they gave Storz & Iler their notes for $14,500 and that a few days ago they asked to see the notes for the purpose of making a memorandum. It was discovered immediately afterward that four of the notes were missing, and it is thought that Bush and Brown purloined them at that time.

The District Court.

Mr. Pierce Accepts.

Omaha, Jan. 17.—To the Editor of the Bee: In answer to the challenge of James J. Hardin for Knapp, I hereby accept it for $50 or $1,000, and will meet him at any time or place to arrange stipulations. I hand you herewith $100 as forfeit money, to be held by you subject to the referee's decision, and I state that a similar agreement was put up by Knapp's backers pending an agreement as stipulations. Please state that I shall have no objections to others entering the race, provided they put up a similar amount, and the winner take the whole stakes. Yours, JOHN S. PIERCE.

Four Times Burglarized.

P. E. Robinson, who resides on Dodge and Twenty-second streets, reports that his house was entered by a thief, mid-day, Wednesday, during the absence of the occupants. This makes the fourth time that Mr. Robinson's house has been plundered and ransacked in daylight. The thief gained entrance first through a window of the coal shed, which is open to the street. Once inside he could pry open the back door, which was securely bolted, without fear of being seen by the neighbors. He carried away a dress coat and other wearing apparel to the value of about $25. There is no clue to the thief, but Mr. Robinson's reputation is pretty well known in the neighborhood.

Regulating Banks.

Henry W. Yates of the Nebraska National bank was spoken to yesterday with reference to the bill to regulate banks which appeared in another column of this paper. The instrument was introduced into the house on Monday last by Mr. J. L. Caldwell. Mr. Yates said that the clearing house association of this city had held several meetings and considered the bill drawn up by Mr. Anderson of Colorado in this state. The bill a number of amendments were offered
