He Tied the Knot.

Yesterday Judge Shields issued a marriage license to C. J. Jerabek, of Plymouth, la., and Lizzie B. Hickey, of Chillicothe, Mo., in his usual gentlemanly manner, which so pleased the couple that they concluded to have the matter finished then and there. Accordingly the judge tied the knot.

Foley & Darst were granted a license for their place on 1317 Farnam street on condition that it be used exclusively as a whole sale place. Mr. Foley asked that the place be closed by the mayor whenever he sold liquor by retail. Tom Foley explained to the board that he had made arrangements to take over the Higgins saloon. He would simply run the bar and would close up the wine rooms. The place would not be run as before, but he would conduct it respectably. On these con-ditions Mr. Folcy was given to understand by the board that he could complete the deal with Higgins and that the board would grant him a license. L. Hadick, 1314 South Thirteenth street, and L. Hibbler, of Leavenworth street, near Belt line, were informed that they must either get their bondsmen to qualify or close their saloons

Rev. A. W. Lamar, pastor of the First Bap-tist church, said Friday that his congrega-tion is contemplating the erection of a new church in the spring or early in the summer. The property now occupied by the building has become so valuable that the directorate thinks it advisable to sell it and build a new edifice on less valuable ground. Sixty thou-sand dollars is the price placed upon the corner upon which the church now stands. Considerable interest is manifested in the revival meetings of the First Baptist church by the attendants. Rev. A. W. Lamar stated yesterday that fifteen members had been added to the church, and of this number six had been baptised.

Rev. E. B. Graham, of this city, occupied the pulpit of Rev. J.A. Wylie at Red Oak, Ia., last Sunday. On the evening of that day he preached the closing serion of a series of union meetings at the Methodist church of that place. Thursday evening an entertainment for the purpose of raising a fund to purchase a $3,000 organ for St. Mary's Avenue church was given at the parlors of the church. The
