Another Million Bushel Reduction in the Visible Supply.

CORN VALUES ABOUT THE SAME,

With a Firmer Feeling—Cattle Demand Better and Prices Steadier —An Upturn in Hogs and Trade Active.

CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKET.

CHICAGO, Jan. 28.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The visible supply of wheat was reduced last week another 1,000,000 bushels, according to the figures posted today. It was also discovered that the exports from the Atlantic ports for the same time amounted to 572,250 bushels (wheat and flour). The total stocks in sight are 630,000 bushels smaller than a year ago and 2,600,000 bushels smaller than two years ago. The market opened ½c higher on the cold weather and the certainty of a large decrease in the visible stocks. It was firmly held for a time at some improvement in values on these conditions and on the moderate buying by strong local parties, though the general crowd continued to sell on every little rally. Kent was quoted to-day as the most liberal seller, and Baker, Cobb and Hammill, commonly counted as Fairbank's brokers, were persistent buyers. Pillsbury was again on the floor talking bullish, and Baker's purchases were thought by some to be for his account. The tone of the market was successively weak late in the session and got down to about the inside figures of the day and stayed there. The bears rather confidently insisted that the market was only kept from breaking to pieces by Fairbank's support, and the bull market readers contended that the prices were being kept down by Kent and others in order to let the Fairbank party increase its line without unduly disturbing the trade. There you have both sides. May wheat opened with trades at 99¼@99¾c, advanced to $1.00¾, sold off to 99¾c, up to $1.00¼, back to 99¾@99¾c, up to $1.00¼@1.00¾, off to 99¾, up to $1.00¾, down to 99¼ shortly after 12 o'clock, up again to 99¾c, and then shortly before 1 o'clock it broke sharply to 98¾c. During the last ten minutes of the session the price ranged to 98¾@98¾c and closed at 98¾c. February closed nominally at 94¾c. July opened at 91c, ranged to 91¼@91¾c and closed at 89¾c. The volume of trade was fully up to the average, the season of greatest activity being the last half hour. The pressure towards the end was irresistible, and the feeling at the close was exceedingly nervous. The movement of wheat continues very light. Cable news, so far as it indicates any change in the foreign sentiment, was favorable. Bad reports are coming in of Indian crops, and private advices were received that the Russian stocks are smaller than previously reported. No export business at seaboard is reported and the English houses, both here and in New York, have been pretty free sellers, admittedly for foreign account.

There was very little to lay hold of concerning the action of to-day's corn market. The colder weather, which was a bull feature on the wheat market, ought to have had the contrary effect upon corn, seeing that its effect would be to improve its condition, but the promise of no increase to the visible supply, where considerable increase had been expected, more than counterbalanced the better curing weather, and the firmness was also due in some measure to the heavy clearances from the Atlantic ports on Saturday, amounting as they did to nearly 500,000 bushels. The announcement of 8,000 bushels decrease in the quantity in sight, confirming the earlier indications, firmed the market, but wheat becoming very weak near the close had a softening tendency on corn, and the early advance was lost, bringing the closing prices back to about where they left off on Saturday. May closed at 36¾@36¾c after having sold at 37c earlier in the day, but the nearer deliveries showed more strength and gained about ⅛c on Saturday's figures.

Oats met with general demand early. Though it was quiet and dull much of the session, a steady and firm tone prevailed, with considerable inquiry for May at 27⅜@27⅝c. Nothing of consequence transpired in the months other than the one named, and No. 2 cash oats were quiet. A few cars to go to store sold at 25c. The visible supply showed a decrease for the week of 27,000 bushels and the local stocks of 89,783 bushels.

In provisions Saturday's improved feeling was in a measure sustained. The fresh advances made in prices were inconsequential, yet in the general trade there was less pressure than heretofore to sell, and the tendency seemed to be more encouraging. The trading, however, was largely local, and for both cash and future delivery contracted for this season. Cash lard sold early at $6.00@5.92½, but was later quoted at $6.85. The sales of pork and meats reported for immediate delivery were unimportant. Based on Saturday's last quotations the closings showed a net advance of 2½c on short ribs, and 5c on pork and lard. The speculative interest, as usual, was confined to May, which sold at $12.00@12.20, for pork; $6.97½@7.05 for lard, and $6.30@6.42 for short ribs. January and February ranged at a discount under May amounting to 37½@40c on pork, 12½c on lard and 17½@20c on short ribs. Pork for May closed at $12.02½, with lard at $6.07½ and short ribs at $6.32½.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK

CHICAGO, Jan. 28.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—CATTLE—The demand was rather better than during any day last week, and prices were steadier, some salesmen reporting the tone of the market as strong and others as a shade higher, all agreeing that the chances were that the pens would be cleared at more satisfactory prices than on any day last week, except, perhaps, Monday a week ago. Cow stock sold quick and a shade stronger, nothing of note going on in the stocker and feeder line. Medium to good steers, 1350 to 1500 lbs, $3.65@4.00; 1200 to 1350 lbs, $3.25@3.85; 950 to 1200 lbs, $3.00@3.15; stockers and feeders, $2.40@3.40; cows, bulls and mixed, $1.40@3.00; bulk, $2.20@2.50; Texas steers, $2.55@3.50; cows, $2.00@2.30.

HOGS—Business was active, with an upturn of about 10c on all classes. The bulk of the mixed sold between $4.80@4.90 and best heavy at $4.95, a load or so at $5, and a few lots of fancy butcher weights at $4.95@5.00. Light sorts were extremely scarce at $4.95@5.10, with the outside for light light of 120-lb averages. At the close prices were rather weak. The speculators, who are the principal buyers in the morning, were unable to sell out at a profit. The Lipton company paid $5.05 for their particular singe sort, and the Fowler outfit paid $4.90@4.95 for 250-lb averages down to 150 lbs. There was a consignment from Des Moines, Ia. The shipper was asked why he came to this market, and answered that the Chicago market was bad, but the Des Moines market was worse.

FINANCIAL.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—STOCKS—The stock market this morning opened fairly active and strong and active at advances extending to ¼ per cent. Southwestern stocks, however, soon began to decline, Missouri Pacific showing the greatest loss. Boston houses and room traders continued to sell Atchison. The statement of the latter company, while not as bad as it had been pictured, doubtless had the effect of forcing out considerable long stock. Louisville & Nashville was ¼ per cent better on a large increase in earnings for the third week in January. The weakness in Southwestern stock was said to be owing to Gould's attitude. He is said to be preparing to settle his Missouri, Kansas & Texas and Wabash troubles, and is consummating his plans in respect to Atchison. While he is driving these bargains, he is sitting on the market as hard as he can. A great deal of interest is felt in the attitude of foreigners to American securities. According to the best informed arbitrages London will follow any lead which we inaugurate, but will not take the initiative. The feeling abroad is one of encouragement. Leading men here who are arrayed on the bull side are not willing to do much on the market until after the inauguration. The bears, however, take very little stock in the reports of improvements, and cling to the old argument that there is not enough tonnage to let railroad people be honest, even if they wished to keep their agreements. There was some recovery in the general list toward noon. Pullman displayed unusual strength and advanced to 196¾, the highest point reached for that stock. Money continues easy at 1½ to 2 per cent. Stocks were more active in the loan crowd. At noon the market was rather dull, with a firmer undertone. The market during the afternoon was strong. Advices from the meeting at Chicago were reassuring and the shorts were active buyers. The net advances show Atchison, 1; Chicago, Burlington & Quincy, ⅝; Rock Island, ⅛; Cot ton Seed Oil, ⅜; St. Paul, ⅝, and Pullman 2¾ per cent. Missouri Pacific is about the only exception, and shows a loss of ⅝ per cent. The total sales for the day amounted to 165,000 shares, including Missouri Pacific, 24,000; Reading, 13,000; St. Paul, 11,000; Lackawanna, 7,000; Louisville & Nashville, 5,000; Union Pacific, 3,500; Erie, 4,000, and Northwestern 4,000. At 3 p. m. the stock market closed fairly active and strong at about the best figures of the day.

OMAHA LIVE STOCK.

Cattle.

Monday, Jan. 28, 1889.

A very essential feature which has been wanting in the market for some time back is "snap." It makes no difference whether the trade is higher or lower, there is the same draggy feeling, and it seems impossible to infuse any life into the trade. As has been the case for awhile back, at the beginning of the week the market to-day was stronger and most every thing brought a little more money. The packers paid $3.40@4.00 for steers. Butchers' stock was 10c higher; cows sold mostly at $2.25@2.65, but the quality was very good. One choice bunch of cows and spayed heifers brought $3.65. The feeder market was about steady, and the prices ranged from $2.75@3.15, but nearly all of them had had some corn. A good many cattle changed hands before the close.

Hogs.

The market took an upward turn of 5@10c and was fairly active at the advance. A very choice load reached $4.65 and there were several trades at $4.60, but the bulk sold at $4.55. The receipts were light and an early clearance was made.
