THE BEE. |-May wheat ranged at 98% (6) 96%c to-day, and closed at 97%@97%c. The market had its firm season early in the day and its weakest moments later in the session The official opening was 98%c, but there were sales 1400 %c lower almost immediately. The price got as low as 9814c, reacted to 9854c, sold off 34 % 36c, rallied agai n to 9854c broke to 975gc, fluctuated for an hour or more between 9714c and 9734c, and took a plunge to 93 Mc. For a considerable period it hung around 97@374c, where the market steadied, and the tone toward the last was better. February closed at 93%@93%c, and July at 89 sc. The shrinkage on the day was 1@1%c. The first, and in fact the only piece of important news received during the day, was the announcement by Beerbohm that the amount on passage showed a decrease of 1.968,000 bushels. This was what caused the early strength, but the little ad vance failed to hold. As on the two last oceasions when big decreases in the visible supply were posted, the price flared up and then slumped badly. This very peculiar ac tion led cynical persons to remark that if the decrease had been twice as great the price would probably have broken twice as far The crowd was decidedly bearish in senti ment after the failure of the market to hold on the early rally. The first time any con siderable quantity of wheat came on the mar ket it gave way. Poole and Bloom started the bail rolling, and none of the bull leaders gave the market either their attention of support. Fairbank was not even on the It has become fashionable for a good many men to buy and sell on what they think somebody else is doing or going to do and for the moment the actions of individuals are given a magnified importance. The situation might be infinitely stronger than any combination of bulls, but the situation is any combination of buils, but the situation is not personality, though its power is none the less likely to be feit. Hence it happers that for the time being speculative trading is light and local in its character, and prices are easily influenced by small things. Cables ranged from indifferent to steady, and New York, which finds no foreign market for its doctored wheat, is again very bearish. The western movement and the milling con-The western movement and the milling con sumptive demand keeps on at about the rate it has been going for the past fortnight. An other sale of No. 2 wheat for milling pur poses at May price was reported, and the mills are taking considerable wheat from several western distributing markets. The weather is a little milder, and the immediate future does not give promise of any change for the worse, though Van Nostrand, the expert observer, says a blizzard is "staked out in the northwest.

The corn market was again dull, in addition to which it was also quite weak. was no change in the demand, nor any apparent abatement of the active shipping movement and export inquiry. Receipts here were 36 cars more than yesterday's estimates the quantity of No. 2 in daily receipts is still notably ll. The amount of business done was again light and principally on local account. The fluctuations were within narrow limits, and the closing prices were from \se to \40 below those current at the end of yesterday' market.

The oat receipts were large, with 173 cars juspected in, of which 28 were contract grade, while only 2,155 bushels were withdrawn while only 2,135 busiess were withdrawn from store. The regular market was duli and featureless, tending to weakness after the steady opening, due to the lack of support. There was fair trading early in May at 271/46279gc, declining \(\frac{1}{3}\cline{c}\), with June nearly nominal at 273/gc, and near futures inactive.

nominal at 27%c, and near futures inactive.
No interest was shown in January and No. 2 oats in store were salable at 24%c.
The provision trade presented an easier front. The strength shown on Saturday and yesterday rather increased the offerings, and as the receipts of hogs showed something of an enlargement, the bear side met with more favor. For lard, however, there was not a quotable change in the ruling prices, but it short ribs the day's net decline amounted to 734c, and in pork to 1234@15c.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK CHICAGO, Jan. 29.-| Special Telegram to

THE BEE. [-CATTLE-The demand was fair and prices, especially on shipping and dressed beef stock, ruled rather firmer. Salesmer started out with asking advances of 15@30c but with 5,000 in Kansas City and 7,000 here there were plenty in sight. Hence the buyer only bought from hand to mouth, hoping for a more liberal run to-morrow and Thursday. The Kansas City surplus will arrive on Thursday, consequently the salesmen generally could get little or no advance over yesterday, yet values may be quoted at 10@ 15c higher than the lowest of last week There has been an unusual number of cows among the arrivals for the past few days, and to-day values ruled rather uneven, at best not making as good prices as last week, and common selling substantially lower, builts and other rough stock selling about as low as at any time. selling about as low as at any time. The stocker and feeder trade remains dull and unsatisfactory. "You may say," said Butter field, a big speculator in this branch of trade. "that stockers and feeders are plentiful, that yard dealers are loaded, and that there have been no buyers in four days," Choice beeves, $4.20 cc4.70; medium to good steers, 1.350 to 1,500 ibs, $3,60004.00; $3.00@3.15; $3.40@3.80; 950 to 1,200 lbs, $3.00@3.15; stockers and feeders, $2.25@$3.40; cows, bulls and mixed, $1.50@3.25; oulk, $2.25@2.60; Texas steers, $2.40@3.50 cows, $2.00@2.20.

Hogs—Prices opened about a nickel lower, at which there was an active demand from the opening to the close. The decline was on mixed and heavy, light sorts ruling steady, and such were scarce and in good demand. The bulk of the mixed sold demand. The bulk of the mixed sold around about $4.80, some common, as is usual, going a nickel or so lower, and best heavy at $4.85 and an occasional lot at $4.90, but anything in the mixed line that sold above $4.85 had a large per cent of light or light-light. Assorted light sold largely at $4.90@4.95, and butcher weights at $4.90@4.95.

FINANCIAL.

New York, Jan. 29 .- [Special Telegram to THE BRE. !- STOCKS-There were no special features to note in this morning's stock market. London was conspicuous by its ab sence, and outside orders were very few and far between. The traders who bought on yesterday's advance were inclined to sell out, and the result was a tame opening all around. Missouri Pacific was up 1/4 per cent, and Atchison was down a like amount. The two stocks mentioned, with Richmond & West Point Terminal and Cotton Seed Oil, were the only stocks showing any animation. Cincinnati, Indianapolis, St. Louis & Chi cago developed marked strength and advanced on the limited trading 134 per cent. This seemed to infuse a little life into the balance of the list and prices immediately began to harden, Atchison and Lackawanna leading in the unward movement and ad vancing 1 and 1/2 per cent respectively. Cammack has not made his appearance down town, and it is thought he has been covering stocks all day. He usually absents himself at such times. The buying of Atchisor seems to come from Boston, and it is the general belief that this stock has seen the worst for the present at least. There was good buying of Cotton Seed Oil, and the insiders are talking very hopefully and are predicting much higher prices for this stock. A significant bull feature is the continued demand for good railroad bends. The buying orders are coming in thick and fast from all over the country. Pullman continues in its upward course, and notwithstanding that part of the Chicago pool sold out yesterday, the stock was absorbed very rapidly, and well-posted brokers declare it will go much higher. Investors have implicit confidence in Mr. Pullman, as he has never yet deceived them. Toward noon the market became rather dull, there being no special feature aside from the strength displayed in Wheeling & Lake Erie preferred, which advanced I per cent. Money was easy at 1 1/@2 per cent, and the stocks in the loan crowd were more plentiful. The market during the afternoon ruled strong until the last half hour. Dispatches from Chicago announcing that the Burlington & Northern had refused to sign the presidents' agreement caused some selling, and the close was irregular and heavy, except for Coalers. Lackawanna shows a not gain of 34: Reading, 34: Richmond Terminal, 34: Missouri Pacific, 34 Lake Erie & Western preferred, 114 per cent Cotton Seed Oil declined %, New England & and Pullman 21/2 per cent from the opening prices. The total sales for the day aggre gated 235,000 shares, including Lackawanna 47,000; Missouri Pacific, 12,000; St. Paul 19,000; Reading, 32,000; New England, 7,500. Richmond Terminal, 4,000.

OMAHA LIVE STOCK.

Cattle. Tuesday, Jan. 29, 1889.
Salesmen generally were looking for stronger prices on the ground that eastern advices were more favorable, and they started out in the morning pricing their cat tle higher. Their expectations, however, were not realized. Beef cattle sold a shade easier, but the demand was fair at the prices and the bulk of the cattle changed hands. The packers paid $3.10@3.75 for corn-fed native steers, with the bulk at $3,40@3.60. Butchers' stock was lower the decline in some instances being fully 10c. Some very good cows sold at $2.75, but $2.25@2.40 bought good stuff. What feeders there were here sold at steady prices.

Hogs. There were no new features in the market to-day, the prices paid being about steady. There were, however, more good heavy hors were, however, more good heavy hogs. The prevailing price was $4.55, the same as yesterday, but a prime load of 231 lb hogs sold at $4.67%, while some very choice heavy hogs brought $4.60. The market was fairly active, and the hogs were all sold in good season.

Sheep. There was only one load here, and it arrived late but the demand was good and it met with ready sale. Prices remain firm.

MORTUARY.

Funeral Services Held Yesterday In This City.

The funeral of Richard Kimball was held yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock, and a large procession of sorrowing friends followed the remains to their last resting place in Prospect Hill cemetery. Among these were a large number of old settlers whose acquaintance with the deceased dated back to the days when Omaha did not have a house,

The body was borne from Drexel & Maul's to the residence of the deceased, 700 South Seventeenth avenue, whence the funeral took place. It was so disfigured, however, that the grief-stricken widow could not be permitted to look upon it. Rev. J. S. Detweiler conducted the services, and the floral offerings were very large as well as beautiful. The pall-bearers were John A. Creighton, A. J. Simpson, Charles Childs, D. F. Mount, J. H. Mc-Share and W. A. Share.

Shane and W. A. Sharp.
The remains of Prof. Pontz were conveyed from Drexel & Maul's at 2 o'clock vesterday afternoon to Forest Lawn cemetery, where they were interred. Brief services were held in the undertaking rooms and were conducted by T. M. House, of the First Methodist church. The family of the deceased, which lives in New York, was unable to attend the James Deck, the old soldier who died last Sunday, was buried yesterday from his late residence, No. 915 North Twentieth street, under the auspices of the Grand Army of the Republic.

The death of Conductor James Cahili, notice of which appeared in yesterday's issue will be generally deplored by a large circle of friends and all his associates in the railway service. He stood well with his superi-ors and was in a fair way for promotion when death checked his career. He had been frequently complimented by the officials of the Missouri Pacific in the service of which he had spent seven years. About a year ago his train was wrecked, and he re-ceived severe injuries about the head from the effects of which he never completely re covered. At the time of his death he was under the treatment of a celebrated Washington physician. He was unmarried and during his life had accumulated considerable property. His father and sisters reside at Fond du Lac, Wis., where his remains were taken for burial.
