

THE CITY.

Collections at the internal revenue department yesterday were $9,518.81.

Charles Fisher got full of the Jefferson square argument yesterday and was run in as a drunk and for resisting an officer.

Mrs. Seavey, wife of Chief Seavey, is the recipient of a charming California landscape scene in oil, the gift of Mrs. T. F. Lewis.

It was not the pastor of the colored M. E. church that the rowdy Charles Williams bullied and threatened, but the minister of the colored Baptist church.

Only one building permit was granted yesterday. It was to John P. Hendrickson for a one and one-half story frame dwelling on Capitol avenue and Forty-fifth street, $1,500.

The high wind of Monday blew down a large cottonwood tree standing near the residence of A. A. Hall on Capitol avenue. It fell against the kitchen, damaging the building to the extent of $25 and alarming the inmates.

Lizzie Evans, the actress, owns a handsome Omaha residence valued at $120,000. It is situated in the well reserved portion of the city, and brings Miss Evans a nice income. Miss Evans also holds a large block of board of trade bonds. She is evidently a believer in Omaha.

Herman Korner, an Elkhorn blacksmith, while under the influence of the evening put up at the Goss hotel blew out the gas and went contentedly to bed. A physician doctored him up in the morning, and now Herman says he will in the future lodge where they burn tallow candles.

Aspirants For Office. A civil service examination was conducted by the local board yesterday in the United States court room, with some twenty-five or thirty aspirants for positions in the postoffice department.

A New Corporation. The Abright M. E. church society filed articles of incorporation yesterday with Thos. C. Clendenen, L. H. Atkinson, W. D. Luther, S. S. Hardy, Benton Rice, Amos Spaulding and Jno. W. Sale as the incorporators.

Anonymous Label. Mrs. Isabel Weber has sworn out a warrant for the arrest of Fannie Bialomewy on the charge of libel. It is claimed that Fannie wrote a letter to Mrs. Weber's husband charging her with criminal intimacy with a number of different men in his absence. The letter was signed "One of the Boys."

Plymouth Club. The "Plymouth club" (Bathhouse place) reorganized Monday evening, with nearly double its former membership. The following officers were elected: President, J. B. Carmichael; vice president, H. H. Miller; manager and secretary, J. A. Hollman; treasurer, J. H. Conrad; librarian, T. Howe; accompanist, Miss Boive; director, Lee G. Katz. An orchestra is also being organized.

Marriage Licenses. Following are the marriage licenses issued yesterday in the county court by Judge Shields:

Name and Residence. Age. Ben Marshall, Omaha, 21. Jennie Edbee, Omaha, 19.

Samuel Hess, Harrisburg, Pa., 27. Nellie Whitted, Omaha, 19.

Michael Stepanek, Omaha, 34. Barbara Skales, Omaha, 33.

Charles L. Bowers, Omaha, 28. Lily Cunningham, Omaha, 18.

Wants a Divorce. Cynthia Holmes couldn't get along any longer with her husband, Phillip, and has asked the district court in a petition to sever the marriage bonds that bind them. They were married twenty-three years ago in Morgan county, Illinois, and ever since then she has conducted herself as a faithful and obedient wife should. On the 9th of September, as she affirms, he wilfully deserted her, and is testifying that he has since totally untried him as a guardian for their four children.

False Testimony for a Pension. The United States marshal's office was productive yesterday of quite an interesting criminal case in which Christian Matson, a citizen of Norfolk figures as the accused. He is charged with perjury, was arrested Monday evening and brought here for examination before Judge Dundy. Owing to the fact that the latter is confined to his home with illness the prisoner was arraigned yesterday before Clerk of the Court Frank, and gave bond in the sum of $3,000 to appear for trial at the next term. It seems that he gave false testimony in the case of an application for a pension.

Moran Taken to the Asylum. The county commission on lunacy held a meeting at Dr. Tilden's office, and examined into the condition of Moran. They decided that he was completely insane, and yesterday the unfortunate young man was taken by commissioner Mount and jailer Joe Miller to the state asylum at Lincoln. The physicians who took note of his case think that with quiet surroundings, undisturbed rest and proper care he may recover. He was worse in his ravings yesterday. The sun at any time, which fact was doubtless to his free movements and wild talks to every body he met.

A Dishonest Jencks. For some time past George Jencks, a printer, has been boarding with C. F. Smith, who resides at 308 South Twenty-ninth street. Monday night he remained away, and on his return yesterday, found Mrs. Soule and her sister engaged in house cleaning. They had laid away some rings and other jewelry while they stepped into another part of the house and on their return found that both Jencks and jewelry had disappeared. The jewelry was valued at $75 and Jencks nothing.

REGULATING TREASURERS.

The Cady Bill Proving For Their Examination Passed.

Following is the full text of the Cady bill for the examination of the accounts of county treasurers. It passed the house with only six dissenting votes:

Be it enacted by the legislature of the Nebraska Territory, That Section 1. That by direction and under the supervision of the auditor of public accounts there shall be appointed three examiners, to examine the accounts and affairs of each county treasurer's office in this state, made not less frequently than once every year. Provided, That the examiners shall be appointed by and given the treasurer, or any person connected with the office, the affairs of which are to be examined.

The examination shall develop the county's financial condition, the condition of each fund, and the disposition of all monies collected or received.

Sec. 2. That a brief summary of the result of each examination shall be made in duplicate by the person or persons making such examination. One copy shall be filed in the office of the auditor of public accounts, and the other with the clerk or chairman of the board of public accounts, and shall be published with the regular proceedings of the board.

Sec. 3. By direction and under supervision of the auditor of public accounts, there shall be established a uniform system of keeping all accounts pertaining to the office of county treasurer.

Sec. 4. Any county treasurer, or his deputy, refusing to answer truthfully and to the satisfaction of the examiners, or refusing to exhibit all papers, books or accounts pertaining to his office and demanded by the person or persons making the examination, or who in violation of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and fined not to exceed $100.

Sec. 5. The auditor of public accounts is authorized to deputize or empower a competent accountant to make the examination provided for in section 1, and to establish uniformity in the system of keeping accounts provided for in section 4 of this act at a salary not to exceed $1,500 per annum.

The Chamber of Torture. It is the apartment to which the unhappy sufferer from inflammatory rheumatism is confined. If, in the course of the malady, it is reached that fine preventive, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, is used by persons of a rheumatic tendency, much unnecessary suffering is avoided. No medicine has more powerful effect, yet yet very desirable at times. Yet can they produce no such effect upon rheumatism, because they have no power to eliminate from the blood the rheumatic virus. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters does this, and it is a fact that it is next to impossible to dislodge or to do more than to relieve. Rheumatism, it should be remembered, is a disease which attacks the heart. A resort to the Bitters should, therefore, be made at the first onset, to rid the system of malaria and nervousness are relieved by it.

Confident of their Merit. Miss A. M. Peters, Moulton, Ala., writes to the publisher of the Bitters, and says: "Enclosed please find $1.00 for which send me in BARNETT'S PILLS. I would like to have them at as early a date as possible, as there is a considerable yellow fever scare in this part of the state. In Decatur, Ala., about twenty-five miles from this place, fifteen cases are reported. I intend to try your pills on any cases that may appear in my family. I have full confidence that if they are taken in time they will cure it, and almost any other disease."

FORTUNE'S FAVORITES. Messrs. Thomas and William Allen Draw a $5,000 Prize in the Louisiana State Lottery.

The report that Mr. Thomas Allen, of the firm of Kops & Allen, merchant tailors at 1330 Clay street, and his brother, William Allen, an employee of the firm, had drawn a $5,000 prize in the Louisiana State Lottery was investigated by a Telegraph reporter and found to be true to the letter. Our reporter found Mr. Thomas Allen at the establishment yesterday afternoon, and at first felt a hesitation—a sort of reserve—before approaching one who had found success favor with the fickle goddess of fortune, but, on explaining his mission, was given a cordial welcome. Mr. Allen spoke substantially as follows: "My brother Will and I hold one-twentieth of ticket No. 34,085 in the December drawing, which occurred on the 18th ult. A few days later we were informed of our good fortune, and on December 21 we forwarded our ticket to the lottery company." Mr. Allen was not asked what disposition he and his brother intended to make of their recently acquired cash, as it was not considered a matter which concerns the public.—[Dubuque (Iowa) Telegraph, 2-4-89.]

A Severe Injury. An accident occurred on Thirteenth street, near the corner of Dodge, at a quarter to 2 yesterday afternoon, whereby John Peterson, who resides on Thirteenth and Jackson, suffered a broken leg and some severe internal injuries. Peterson and another Swede were driving a cumbersome two-horse wagon, such as is used in hauling heavy lumber, and Peterson essayed to get off without stopping the team. The result was that he fell and one of the hind wheels ran over his leg and body. He lay unconscious for some time, but was revived and taken to the hospital, where he was attended by Dr. J. H. McLean. A gentleman in the crowd advised the policeman to call the patrol wagon and have Peterson removed to the station where he could receive immediate attention, remarking that he was severely injured. But the injured man, who was bleeding from the mouth and nostrils, and moaning as if in great distress, was loaded upon the rough wagon from which he had fallen, and the team drove off with him. It was the unanimous opinion of all those who witnessed the affair, that Peterson had sustained a severe fracture of the left leg.

Faults of digestion cause disorders of the liver and the whole system becomes deranged. Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier perfects the process of digestion and assimilation and thus makes pure blood.

Mortality. A. B. Snowden, known as "Doc" to his friends, who died at the Bishop Clarkson memorial hospital Monday morning, was born in Pittsburg, Pa., in 1846. While still a young man he moved to Waterloo, Ia., where he remained till 1872. In that year he came to Omaha and opened a drug store on the corner of Thirteenth and Farnam streets. In 1882 he closed out his drug business and entered the employ of Martin Kennedy who was then conducting the saloon later owned by the deceased. Snowden purchased the property at the time of Kennedy's death and has conducted the business since.

The deceased had no relatives in Omaha, but a brother who is engaged in the drug business at Waterloo, Ia., was telegraphed to and arrived yesterday. Notice of the funeral will be given hereafter.
