

THE CITY.

The funeral of Edward Olson takes place from Drexel & Maul's, Thursday, at 2 p. m. Friends invited.

Mrs. Henry S. Norman, of St. Paul, Minn., has written to the chief of police here concerning her husband who has mysteriously disappeared here.

Miss Georgia M. DeCon, who has just completed a course at Valentine's short hand institute, has accepted a position as stenographer with the Emerson Seed company, of this city.

The high wind of Monday blew down a large cottonwood tree standing near the residence of A. Hall on Capitol avenue. It fell against the kitchen, damaging the building to the extent of $25 and alarming the inmates.

A large, kindly-disposed, and enthusiastic audience favored the concert of the Walnut street choir with its presence Tuesday night at the Christian church, Nicholas and Dale streets.

The program was finely given and most of the pieces received encores. Miss Jeanie Koskie's piano solo, variations of "Home, Sweet Home," received well-merited encores, as did the trio by the young ladies. The band boys seemed to be very well pleased with themselves and the audience.

Personal Paragraphs. J. D. McDonald, Fremont, is a Paxton guest.

J. F. Parkins, of Weeping Water, is at the Paxton.

F. M. Phillips returned from Washington yesterday.

W. A. Johnson, of Kearney, is registered at the Millard.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Clarke, of Papillion, are at the Murray.

Judge Dundy, of the United States circuit court, is on the sick list.

Hon. C. H. Van Wyck, of Nebraska City, is stopping at the Paxton.

Rev. J. V. Lewis, post chaplain at Fort Niobrara, is registered at the Millard.

P. W. Henrich and George H. Spear, of Columbus, are stopping at the Murray.

G. W. Green, of St. Joseph, and E. W. Little, of Sioux City, are at the Paxton.

Colonel M. Bryant, of the army, accompanied by his wife, is stopping at the Murray.

H. C. Howe, of Norfolk, and H. A. Babcock and E. P. Holmes, of Lincoln, are at the Millard.

Mortuary. The body of Frank Schlotzky who died last Monday evening, was taken yesterday by his brother to Burlington, Ia., for burial.

Third Anniversary. The Omaha Elks will appropriately celebrate the third anniversary of the organization of their lodge to-night. It is proposed to have a little spread with toasts and music.

It Suits Him. County Treasurer Holtz was asked yesterday what he thought of the city bill, and in reply said: "With one exception I think it a good thing. It will be a bigger job, however, than one expert can handle. Then the salary is too small. You can't get much of an expert for $1,500 a year."

Fuel for the Poor. The owners of the buildings recently destroyed by the falling of the east wall of the Meyers building and the old timber at the disposal of the poor. They are welcome to what they carry and haul away.

To Meet the Combine. As was foretold by the Burlington, it has reinstated its overland Chicago-Denver train on the Omaha route instead of via Plattsmouth. This is done to counteract the combine of the Union Pacific and the Chicago & Northwestern whereby the "Denver express" was put in service, taking effect Sunday next.

The Southern Hotel Burned. The Southern, Fla., hotel was burned yesterday, involving a loss of about $35,000, two-thirds of which was covered by insurance.

Collared by the Stars. George Peterson and Thomas Hagan, a couple of sneaky thieves and vagrants, were each sentenced to the county jail for twenty days.

General Western Freight Agents. The local freight agents of the railroads centering in this city met at the Millard hotel yesterday and effected a permanent organization.

O'Keefe Will Protest. The report of rifle practice in the army has made its appearance, and from it are taken the following features: The Department of the Platte starts first in skirmish firing and second in firing at known distances.

Fixing a Tariff. So far as Omaha is concerned all evidences of the express war will be wiped out after to-day. The local manager of the Adams company received instructions from his people yesterday morning to join the ranks in re-establishing rates.

Free With Knives. Fannie Harris, the colored prostitute, who recently attempted to kill her lover for paying attentions to another colored lady, figures again in another stabbing scrape, this time Fannie being the victim. She and Mollie Pettis another dusky strumpet, were both candidates for the affection of a white lover.

BILLY MORAN IN LINCOLN.

Stratagem Reported to Lead Him to the Asylum. Commissioner Mount and Jailer Miller had recourse to ingenuity to get Billy Moran into the asylum at Lincoln without letting him know that he was to be confined there.

When he was taken to the asylum, he was placed in a cell, and the door was locked. He was then taken to the kitchen, where he was kept for some time. He was then taken to the cell, where he was kept for some time.

When he was taken to the asylum, he was placed in a cell, and the door was locked. He was then taken to the kitchen, where he was kept for some time.

When he was taken to the asylum, he was placed in a cell, and the door was locked. He was then taken to the kitchen, where he was kept for some time.

When he was taken to the asylum, he was placed in a cell, and the door was locked. He was then taken to the kitchen, where he was kept for some time.

When he was taken to the asylum, he was placed in a cell, and the door was locked. He was then taken to the kitchen, where he was kept for some time.

When he was taken to the asylum, he was placed in a cell, and the door was locked. He was then taken to the kitchen, where he was kept for some time.

When he was taken to the asylum, he was placed in a cell, and the door was locked. He was then taken to the kitchen, where he was kept for some time.

When he was taken to the asylum, he was placed in a cell, and the door was locked. He was then taken to the kitchen, where he was kept for some time.

When he was taken to the asylum, he was placed in a cell, and the door was locked. He was then taken to the kitchen, where he was kept for some time.

When he was taken to the asylum, he was placed in a cell, and the door was locked. He was then taken to the kitchen, where he was kept for some time.

When he was taken to the asylum, he was placed in a cell, and the door was locked. He was then taken to the kitchen, where he was kept for some time.

When he was taken to the asylum, he was placed in a cell, and the door was locked. He was then taken to the kitchen, where he was kept for some time.

When he was taken to the asylum, he was placed in a cell, and the door was locked. He was then taken to the kitchen, where he was kept for some time.

When he was taken to the asylum, he was placed in a cell, and the door was locked. He was then taken to the kitchen, where he was kept for some time.

When he was taken to the asylum, he was placed in a cell, and the door was locked. He was then taken to the kitchen, where he was kept for some time.

When he was taken to the asylum, he was placed in a cell, and the door was locked. He was then taken to the kitchen, where he was kept for some time.

When he was taken to the asylum, he was placed in a cell, and the door was locked. He was then taken to the kitchen, where he was kept for some time.

When he was taken to the asylum, he was placed in a cell, and the door was locked. He was then taken to the kitchen, where he was kept for some time.

When he was taken to the asylum, he was placed in a cell, and the door was locked. He was then taken to the kitchen, where he was kept for some time.

When he was taken to the asylum, he was placed in a cell, and the door was locked. He was then taken to the kitchen, where he was kept for some time.

When he was taken to the asylum, he was placed in a cell, and the door was locked. He was then taken to the kitchen, where he was kept for some time.

When he was taken to the asylum, he was placed in a cell, and the door was locked. He was then taken to the kitchen, where he was kept for some time.

When he was taken to the asylum, he was placed in a cell, and the door was locked. He was then taken to the kitchen, where he was kept for some time.

When he was taken to the asylum, he was placed in a cell, and the door was locked. He was then taken to the kitchen, where he was kept for some time.

OVER THE WATER TO CHARLEY.

Wooded and Won in Germany and Married in Nebraska. Among the passengers arriving over the Missouri Pacific yesterday from the east was a pretty little German girl, Bertha Schindler, who was married to a young man from Nebraska.

Electric Light Company Meeting. The regular meeting of the electric light company was held Monday afternoon. The contracts with the city and with the George H. Hammond Packing company were read and the secretary reported on the same.

Notes About the City. C. H. Daniels, the painter, has returned from Iowa City and will remain here. David Anderson will make a flying visit to Columbus to look after his business interests.

Services in the Methodist Episcopal church. The Rev. Mr. Eddlebute expects to have assistance at most of the evening services.

A special meeting of the Emanuel will be held at 8 o'clock this evening for the election of members and the transaction of other business.

The first annual ball of the South Omaha water, given in Hunt's hall Tuesday night was a social success.

Some stock cars standing on the switch near Oberre & Hosick's works, caught fire about 10 o'clock Tuesday night.

Michael Coniff is in a dilapidated condition today. His hands are lacerated, his left leg is injured and his head and ears are badly frozen.

An Oklahoma colony association was recently organized in this city, and last week the following officers were elected: Jesse G. Smith, president; H. C. Barnes, vice president; S. T. Robinson secretary; J. B. West, treasurer.

Two Answers to Petitions—A Lot of Judgments. George B. Hurd & Co., defendants in the case of Bridge vs. the Adams & Bridge company, filed an answer yesterday in the district court.

One Fact. It is worth a column of rhetoric, said an American statesman. It is a fact, established by the testimony of thousands of people, that Hood's Sarsaparilla does more good than any other medicine.

THE COURT GRIND. When Judge Shields returned yesterday from Sioux Falls he found a crowd of litigants waiting for him.

County Court. When Judge Shields returned yesterday from Sioux Falls he found a crowd of litigants waiting for him.

Monthly School Report. Superintendent A. A. Munroe furnishes the following school report for the month just closed: Pupils registered: Boys 418, girls 410, total 828.

Preventing Fraud in Coal Selling. Tuesday night, in the council, an ordinance was introduced to regulate the sale and weighing of coal.

The Emanuel Club. Between thirty and forty members attended the Emanuel club meeting Tuesday night. A resolution was passed to incorporate the club and the same Emanuel was adopted. The incorporating board of directors consists of president, Arthur W. Saxe; vice-president, James G. Martin; secretary, Dr. C. E. C. Smith; and Messrs. J. E. Colton, Z. Cudington, E. T. Burrows, J. Hollis E. Hogle, Colonel E. P. Savage and Fred M. Smith.

Electric Light Company Meeting. The regular meeting of the electric light company was held Monday afternoon. The contracts with the city and with the George H. Hammond Packing company were read and the secretary reported on the same.

Notes About the City. C. H. Daniels, the painter, has returned from Iowa City and will remain here. David Anderson will make a flying visit to Columbus to look after his business interests.

Services in the Methodist Episcopal church. The Rev. Mr. Eddlebute expects to have assistance at most of the evening services.

A special meeting of the Emanuel will be held at 8 o'clock this evening for the election of members and the transaction of other business.

The first annual ball of the South Omaha water, given in Hunt's hall Tuesday night was a social success.

Some stock cars standing on the switch near Oberre & Hosick's works, caught fire about 10 o'clock Tuesday night.

Michael Coniff is in a dilapidated condition today. His hands are lacerated, his left leg is injured and his head and ears are badly frozen.

An Oklahoma colony association was recently organized in this city, and last week the following officers were elected: Jesse G. Smith, president; H. C. Barnes, vice president; S. T. Robinson secretary; J. B. West, treasurer.

Two Answers to Petitions—A Lot of Judgments. George B. Hurd & Co., defendants in the case of Bridge vs. the Adams & Bridge company, filed an answer yesterday in the district court.

One Fact. It is worth a column of rhetoric, said an American statesman. It is a fact, established by the testimony of thousands of people, that Hood's Sarsaparilla does more good than any other medicine.

THE COURT GRIND. When Judge Shields returned yesterday from Sioux Falls he found a crowd of litigants waiting for him.

County Court. When Judge Shields returned yesterday from Sioux Falls he found a crowd of litigants waiting for him.

Monthly School Report. Superintendent A. A. Munroe furnishes the following school report for the month just closed: Pupils registered: Boys 418, girls 410, total 828.

Preventing Fraud in Coal Selling. Tuesday night, in the council, an ordinance was introduced to regulate the sale and weighing of coal.

The Emanuel Club. Between thirty and forty members attended the Emanuel club meeting Tuesday night. A resolution was passed to incorporate

A CLEAN SWEEP. Our spring goods are already on the way and we must make room for them. The balance of our winter goods must be closed out regardless of cost or value.

PLAIN FIGURES AND ONE PRICE. The greatest bargain to which we draw attention this week is a lot of odd suit pants. The immense sale we had on suits the last two weeks has left a great many odd pants on our hands.

Nebraska Clothing Company. Corner 14th and Douglas Streets, Omaha.

DR. CLARKE. Sure Cures! ESTABLISHED 1861. 188 So. Clark St., Chicago, Ill. The Regular Old-Established PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER. Absolutely Pure. This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness.

Nebraska National Bank. U. S. DEPOSITORY, OMAHA, NEB. Paid Up Capital $100,000 surplus $50,000.

Robinson & Harmon. 1511 FARNAM. THE IRON BANK, CORNER 12th and FARNAM STS.

OMAHA MEDICAL & SURGICAL INSTITUTE. HALLED ALL MEDICAL SCIENCE. NEVER FAILED.

CALIFORNIA CURE. THE ONLY CURE FOR CATARRH OF THE BLADDER. THE ONLY CURE FOR GONORRHOEA.

DR. HORNE'S Electro-Magnetic Belts! The Greatest Triumph of Electric Science—Scientifically Made and Practically Applied. DISEASE CURED WITHOUT MEDICINES.

Dr. Spinney & Co. OMAHA DISPENSARY. NERVOUS, CHRONIC AND PRIVATE DISEASES OF MEN AND WOMEN SUCCESSFULLY TREATED.

Steck Piano. Remarkable for powerful tone, beautiful tone, reliable action and absolute durability.

WOODBRIDGE BROS. BLAKE, BOISSEVAIN & CO., London, England. ADOLPH BOISSEVAIN & CO., Amsterdam, Holland.

TYLER DESK CO. FINE OFFICE DESKS. BAZOOKA CIGARETTES. THE COOK REMEDY CO. Room 10 and 11, U. S. National Bank Building, Omaha, Neb.

PEARLINE. Is better than any soap; handier, finer, more effective, more for the money, and in the form of a powder for your convenience. Takes, as it were, the fabric in one hand, the dirt in the other, and lays them apart—comparatively speaking, washing with little work.