

CLUTCHED BY MONOPOLY.

Grain Men Strongly Oppose the President's Combine.

WHAT ONE OF THEM SAYS.

Rumor That B. Campbell is to Be Brought Here From Portland to Succeed Munroe.

The President's Combine.

That the president's agreement will be injurious to the interests of the west is the prevailing opinion among the representative grain merchants in Omaha. A vigorous protest was made against it by each merchant seen. They state that it has already had the prevailing opinion among the west.

OMAHA LIVE STOCK.

Cattle.

Friday, Feb. 22, 1889. There was very little change in the market to-day, prices for the most part being about steady. The trade in beef cattle was not so very active, and the packers did not act very eagerly, but before the close about everything was cleaned up.

Hogs.

The market was about the higher and active at the advance, and the offerings were all picked up early. The best light hogs and one very choice lot of heavy hogs brought $4.40.

Sheep.

The supply was very large, and the market was fairly active at steady prices.
