

SENATORIAL PICTURES.

Peculiarities of Men Who Make Nebraska's Laws.

HOW THEY APPEAR IN DEBATE.

Some Phases of Legislation of More Than Passing Interest to a Contemplative Observer—State House Gossip.

As Others See Them.

LINCOLN, Neb., Feb. 23.—(Special to THE BEE.) The stippled manner in which the senatorial class of the legislature, but that is partly because distance lends its enchantment and unfamiliarity to his halo, and partly because the press gives a transient glimpse to men and measures.

It is one of the most striking features of the senatorial class, the contention of selfish interests, the blundering efforts of legislators usually well meaning, but often ignorant on the subject in hand—no one who observes these human foibles and passions at play and cares to philosophize about it, the dignity of the legislature is a mask of mockery and the halo of a chosen one.

Senator Barton, a banker from Harlan county, wears mutton chop whiskers, and with a very strong, independent, and a little bit of a gathering is very human instead of divinely inspired, there is a phase of it of interest to a contemplative observer because of its very humanness, if the word is permissible. The individual members have traits and peculiarities that are a diverting study.

Senator Church, of Lincoln, is a man and perhaps the most potent force in the body. He has been in the legislature sixteen years, knows all the ropes, and has a wide acquaintance. He is a man of a certain appearance and would be taken for a gray, well preserved bachelor, but rather than a man of a certain appearance, he is a man of a certain appearance.

Senator Egan, of Lincoln, is a man of a certain appearance, and would be taken for a gray, well preserved bachelor, but rather than a man of a certain appearance, he is a man of a certain appearance.

Senator Frazier, of Lincoln, is a man of a certain appearance, and would be taken for a gray, well preserved bachelor, but rather than a man of a certain appearance, he is a man of a certain appearance.

Senator Gurnea, of Lincoln, is a man of a certain appearance, and would be taken for a gray, well preserved bachelor, but rather than a man of a certain appearance, he is a man of a certain appearance.

Senator Harlan, of Lincoln, is a man of a certain appearance, and would be taken for a gray, well preserved bachelor, but rather than a man of a certain appearance, he is a man of a certain appearance.

THE REVERENTIAL RESPECT OF HIS COLLEAGUES.

It is not alone his white locks, but his dignity and honesty of purpose. The senator from Lincoln, who is the few who are called on by many as he uses. He discusses bills on their merits and shows conscientious desire to do the right thing.

Senator Cornell, of Valentine, is one of the youngest of the senate, but he commands the respectful consideration of his colleagues.

Senator Barton, a banker from Harlan county, wears mutton chop whiskers, and with a very strong, independent, and a little bit of a gathering is very human instead of divinely inspired, there is a phase of it of interest to a contemplative observer because of its very humanness, if the word is permissible.

Senator Church, of Lincoln, is a man and perhaps the most potent force in the body. He has been in the legislature sixteen years, knows all the ropes, and has a wide acquaintance.

Senator Egan, of Lincoln, is a man of a certain appearance, and would be taken for a gray, well preserved bachelor, but rather than a man of a certain appearance, he is a man of a certain appearance.

Senator Frazier, of Lincoln, is a man of a certain appearance, and would be taken for a gray, well preserved bachelor, but rather than a man of a certain appearance, he is a man of a certain appearance.

Senator Gurnea, of Lincoln, is a man of a certain appearance, and would be taken for a gray, well preserved bachelor, but rather than a man of a certain appearance, he is a man of a certain appearance.

Senator Harlan, of Lincoln, is a man of a certain appearance, and would be taken for a gray, well preserved bachelor, but rather than a man of a certain appearance, he is a man of a certain appearance.

Senator Johnson, of Lincoln, is a man of a certain appearance, and would be taken for a gray, well preserved bachelor, but rather than a man of a certain appearance, he is a man of a certain appearance.

THE OMAHA RESULT IN DUEL.

Senator Chandler Calls Blackburn a Slave Driver.

YOU ARE A LIAR AND A COWARD.

The Fiery Kentuckian's Heated Retort—Randall's Reply on Burnes—Inaugural Preparations—Cabinet Matters.

WASHINGTON HERALD THE OMAHA, Feb. 23.

There was a great deal of talk around the capitol to-day about the reported altercation yesterday afternoon between Senators Chandler and Blackburn, of Kentucky.

Senator Chandler, who is a man of a certain appearance, and would be taken for a gray, well preserved bachelor, but rather than a man of a certain appearance, he is a man of a certain appearance.

Senator Blackburn, of Kentucky, is a man of a certain appearance, and would be taken for a gray, well preserved bachelor, but rather than a man of a certain appearance, he is a man of a certain appearance.

Senator Chandler, of Lincoln, is a man of a certain appearance, and would be taken for a gray, well preserved bachelor, but rather than a man of a certain appearance, he is a man of a certain appearance.

Senator Blackburn, of Kentucky, is a man of a certain appearance, and would be taken for a gray, well preserved bachelor, but rather than a man of a certain appearance, he is a man of a certain appearance.

Senator Chandler, of Lincoln, is a man of a certain appearance, and would be taken for a gray, well preserved bachelor, but rather than a man of a certain appearance, he is a man of a certain appearance.

Senator Blackburn, of Kentucky, is a man of a certain appearance, and would be taken for a gray, well preserved bachelor, but rather than a man of a certain appearance, he is a man of a certain appearance.

Senator Chandler, of Lincoln, is a man of a certain appearance, and would be taken for a gray, well preserved bachelor, but rather than a man of a certain appearance, he is a man of a certain appearance.

THE OMAHA RESULT IN DUEL.

Senator Chandler Calls Blackburn a Slave Driver. YOU ARE A LIAR AND A COWARD.

The Fiery Kentuckian's Heated Retort—Randall's Reply on Burnes—Inaugural Preparations—Cabinet Matters.

WASHINGTON HERALD THE OMAHA, Feb. 23. There was a great deal of talk around the capitol to-day about the reported altercation yesterday afternoon between Senators Chandler and Blackburn, of Kentucky.

Senator Chandler, who is a man of a certain appearance, and would be taken for a gray, well preserved bachelor, but rather than a man of a certain appearance, he is a man of a certain appearance.

Senator Blackburn, of Kentucky, is a man of a certain appearance, and would be taken for a gray, well preserved bachelor, but rather than a man of a certain appearance, he is a man of a certain appearance.

Senator Chandler, of Lincoln, is a man of a certain appearance, and would be taken for a gray, well preserved bachelor, but rather than a man of a certain appearance, he is a man of a certain appearance.

Senator Blackburn, of Kentucky, is a man of a certain appearance, and would be taken for a gray, well preserved bachelor, but rather than a man of a certain appearance, he is a man of a certain appearance.

Senator Chandler, of Lincoln, is a man of a certain appearance, and would be taken for a gray, well preserved bachelor, but rather than a man of a certain appearance, he is a man of a certain appearance.

Senator Blackburn, of Kentucky, is a man of a certain appearance, and would be taken for a gray, well preserved bachelor, but rather than a man of a certain appearance, he is a man of a certain appearance.

AS ANYONE ELSE WOULD UNDER THE CIRCUMSTANCES.

Senator Howe Unties the Bag.

Whereupon the Cav Emerges and One More Political Fake Dies a Speedy and Ignominious Death.

As to "Harrison's Pledge."

Senator Church, of Lincoln, is a man and perhaps the most potent force in the body. He has been in the legislature sixteen years, knows all the ropes, and has a wide acquaintance.

Senator Egan, of Lincoln, is a man of a certain appearance, and would be taken for a gray, well preserved bachelor, but rather than a man of a certain appearance, he is a man of a certain appearance.

Senator Frazier, of Lincoln, is a man of a certain appearance, and would be taken for a gray, well preserved bachelor, but rather than a man of a certain appearance, he is a man of a certain appearance.

Senator Gurnea, of Lincoln, is a man of a certain appearance, and would be taken for a gray, well preserved bachelor, but rather than a man of a certain appearance, he is a man of a certain appearance.

Senator Harlan, of Lincoln, is a man of a certain appearance, and would be taken for a gray, well preserved bachelor, but rather than a man of a certain appearance, he is a man of a certain appearance.

Senator Johnson, of Lincoln, is a man of a certain appearance, and would be taken for a gray, well preserved bachelor, but rather than a man of a certain appearance, he is a man of a certain appearance.

Senator Lincoln, of Lincoln, is a man of a certain appearance, and would be taken for a gray, well preserved bachelor, but rather than a man of a certain appearance, he is a man of a certain appearance.

Senator Nelson, of Lincoln, is a man of a certain appearance, and would be taken for a gray, well preserved bachelor, but rather than a man of a certain appearance, he is a man of a certain appearance.

AS ANYONE ELSE WOULD UNDER THE CIRCUMSTANCES.

Senator Howe Unties the Bag. Whereupon the Cav Emerges and One More Political Fake Dies a Speedy and Ignominious Death.

As to "Harrison's Pledge." Senator Church, of Lincoln, is a man and perhaps the most potent force in the body.

Senator Egan, of Lincoln, is a man of a certain appearance, and would be taken for a gray, well preserved bachelor, but rather than a man of a certain appearance, he is a man of a certain appearance.

Senator Frazier, of Lincoln, is a man of a certain appearance, and would be taken for a gray, well preserved bachelor, but rather than a man of a certain appearance, he is a man of a certain appearance.

Senator Gurnea, of Lincoln, is a man of a certain appearance, and would be taken for a gray, well preserved bachelor, but rather than a man of a certain appearance, he is a man of a certain appearance.

Senator Harlan, of Lincoln, is a man of a certain appearance, and would be taken for a gray, well preserved bachelor, but rather than a man of a certain appearance, he is a man of a certain appearance.

Senator Johnson, of Lincoln, is a man of a certain appearance, and would be taken for a gray, well preserved bachelor, but rather than a man of a certain appearance, he is a man of a certain appearance.

Senator Lincoln, of Lincoln, is a man of a certain appearance, and would be taken for a gray, well preserved bachelor, but rather than a man of a certain appearance, he is a man of a certain appearance.

Senator Nelson, of Lincoln, is a man of a certain appearance, and would be taken for a gray, well preserved bachelor, but rather than a man of a certain appearance, he is a man of a certain appearance.

GOVERNOR LARRABEE'S TRIAL.

Judge Cole Sums Up the Case For the Defense. NO SENSATIONAL FEATURES.

An Extraordinary Interest Taken in the Case by the Wife of a Former Greenback Congressman.

Will Rest the Case. Mrs. Turner, Feb. 23.—(Special Telegram to THE BEE.)—The trial of Governor Larrabee developed no very startling or sensational features to-day, since the conclusion was not reached.

Nothing especially notable was obtained from the testimony of the witness, who was about half past 11 o'clock for the defense, moved that the court now instruct the jury to bring in a verdict for the defendant.

The reading was interrupted by Mr. Harris, who moved that the senate proceed to execute its business.

After having spoken nearly five hours, Mr. Daniel yielded for a motion to go into executive session, which was granted.

On motion of Mr. Peck of Arkansas the senate bill was passed to ratify and confirm the act of the legislature of Indiana for the purpose of opening to settlement unassigned lands in Indian Territory ceded by the Creeks to the United States.

The senate amendments to the house bill for the purpose of amending the act of the legislature of Indiana for the purpose of opening to settlement unassigned lands in Indian Territory ceded by the Creeks to the United States.

On motion of Mr. Peck of Arkansas the senate bill was passed to ratify and confirm the act of the legislature of Indiana for the purpose of opening to settlement unassigned lands in Indian Territory ceded by the Creeks to the United States.

THE OMAHA RESULT IN DUEL.

Senator Chandler Calls Blackburn a Slave Driver.

THE OMAHA RESULT IN DUEL.

Senator Chandler Calls Blackburn a Slave Driver.

AS ANYONE ELSE WOULD UNDER THE CIRCUMSTANCES.

Senator Howe Unties the Bag.

AS ANYONE ELSE WOULD UNDER THE CIRCUMSTANCES.

Senator Howe Unties the Bag.

GOVERNOR LARRABEE'S TRIAL.

Judge Cole Sums Up the Case For the Defense.

GOVERNOR LARRABEE'S TRIAL.

Judge Cole Sums Up the Case For the Defense.