

NEW YORK STILL IN THE WAY

Her Fighting Fractions Delaying the Cabinet's Completion.

HARRISON REFUSES TO MIDDLE

He Says They Must Either Settle Their Differences or Be Left Out in the Cold—Thurston Shelved.

WASHINGTON HERALD THE OMAHA BEAR, 513 FOURTH STREET, WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 28.

New York continues to be the bone of contention in the formation of President Harrison's cabinet. If that state could agree upon one of its representative republicans he would be selected and the balance of the cabinet would be chosen within a few hours.

HARRISON'S CHANCES SLIM.

Ex-Governor Jere Rusk, of Wisconsin, has been more persistently and more successfully than any other man, and yet he is out of the list to-night.

HARRISON'S CHANCES.

Senator Paddock and Representative Dorsey, Nebraska, were the first to present this afternoon and presented the name of ex-Governor R. W. Furnas, a member of the state board of agriculture.

GOODY JOHN.

It is understood that they informed the Hon. John M. Thurston, of their state, who has been mentioned for the position of secretary of the treasury.

PALMER BOOM.

Senator Palmer, of Michigan, is unquestionably on the slate for agriculture, but in as much as everything is in a chaotic state it may finally have to stop for a moment.

A CLAIM AGENT'S DEMANDS.

He Sues Dickinson and Vilas For $100,000 Each.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Harvey Spaulding, a claim agent of this city, has brought suit for $100,000 damages, in each case, against William Dickinson and John M. Vilas.

THE RETIRING PRESIDENT'S HOPES.

New York, Feb. 28.—The Herald prints an interview with President Cleveland in which Cleveland referred to the last few years and declared his hope that the republican party, on accession to power, would pursue no course that could in any way rehabilitate the republican administration.

CONGRATULATING PARNELL.

TORONTO, Kan., Feb. 28.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—The house representatives to-day unanimously adopted the following resolution: Resolved, That we send greeting to Charles Stewart Parnell at his complete vindication.

WEBSTER CENSURED.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—The News says: "If anything could add to the degradation of the Times' avowed, it would be the terms in which Sir Richard Webster made his so-called apology."

WHY GOULD WAS SICK.

SCRANTON, Pa., Feb. 28.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The secret of why Jay Gould absent himself from the annual Western road last week has just leaked out.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Chamberlain Asks the Opposition to Define Its Policy.

IT WAS JUSTIFIABLE HOMICIDE

The Decision in the Griffith-Flower Shooting Affray—A Sensation at Madison—Mrs. Aldrich's Brother Testifies.

Natural Gas Found.

DANNEBROG, Neb., Feb. 27.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The natural gas discovery just made public has created intense interest.

Laid Going to Washington.

HASTINGS, Neb., Feb. 28.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Arrangements are completed for the departure of Congressman Laird on the flyer to-morrow morning for Washington to reach the city on Tuesday.

The Scoville Elevator to Be Sold.

BRANARD, Neb., Feb. 28.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Notice of sale to take place March 13 was given yesterday by Sheriff Darrand on the Scoville elevator property at Dwight, Neb.

Crushed in a Gravel Pit.

NONFOLK, Neb., Feb. 28.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—As John Jackson and his son, William, were at work this afternoon on T. E. O'Diome's gravel pit a little way west of town, the bank caved upon them.

A Big Land Decision.

CHADRON, Neb., Feb. 28.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Levi G. Sweet, attorney for R. M. Stanton, received a telegram to-day announcing the decision of Commissioner Stockinger in favor of R. M. Stanton.

Bludhorns' Libel Suits Dismissed.

BLUDHORN, Neb., Feb. 28.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Judge Mapes, of the county court, to-day rendered a decision in the Bludhorn libel cases and dismissed the charges on the ground that the matter was printed by the Staats Zeitung without malice.

Griffith Set Free.

KEARNEY, Neb., Feb. 28.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Judge Mapes, of the county court, to-day rendered a decision in the Griffith case and set the prisoner free.

Hollinger Editors.

DAKOTA, Feb. 28.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Editors Wilbur, of the Argus, and Hart, of the Eagle, had a set-to this morning. No one was seriously hurt, but the end is not yet.

CUTTING RATES.

CHICAGO, Feb. 28.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Three traffic managers of east-bound roads met to-day for the purpose of making a change to be made in the east-bound freight and passenger situation by which the leading roads will get their share of the business, or a rate war will be inaugurated.

An Ungrateful Youth.

PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., Feb. 28.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—A young man, who once made his home in this city, deserted his wife and seven children about three years ago, leaving them in destitute circumstances.

A Madison Sensation.

MADISON, Neb., Feb. 28.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Mrs. Phoebe E. Werthman died at her home in this city at 6 o'clock Tuesday evening from the effects of an abortion.

Gaze Coming Live Stock.

BEATRICE, Neb., Feb. 28.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The last assessment in Gaze county showed horses and mules 16,600; cattle, 44,478; sheep, 14,436; hogs, 28,081.

A Large Attendance of Members at the Baltimore Convention.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 28.—When President James P. Foster called the convention of the national league of republican clubs to order this afternoon, there was a large attendance of delegates.

A Postoffice Robbery.

CHICAGO, Feb. 28.—A telegram received to-day from A. C. Hunter, postmaster at West Branch, Ia., informed Inspector Kildner that the postoffice at that place was entered by burglars early this morning and $10,000 in postal funds stolen.

Tar Reservoirs in Flammes.

CHANDLER, Mo., Feb. 28.—The fire started in the De Hayn brick works yesterday, and which spread to ten reservoirs of tar, is still burning. The flames shot up to a height of sixty feet and resembled the eruption of a volcano. The damage is estimated at 1,900,000 francs.

The Weather Indications.

Nebraska: Generally fair, nearly stationary temperature, winds becoming northerly.

A Distinguished Nonconformist.

BERLIN, Feb. 28.—Dr. Von Dollinger, theologian and historian, observed the nineteenth anniversary of his birth to-day.

NATURAL GAS DISCOVERED.

Citizens of Danneberg, Nebraska, Feel Jubilant.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Chamberlain Asks the Opposition to Define Its Policy.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—Sexton gave notice in the commons this afternoon that he would make a motion to compel Major Saunders (conservative) to disclose the name of the officers pleading to associate themselves with Major Saunders and violate their oaths of obedience to the crown in the event of a home rule parliament being granted to Ireland.

Smith asked that due notice of question be given of the house that a bill of Richard Webster's discharge of his duties as attorney general.

Healey gave notice of the motion that it was the duty of the house that a bill of general had forfeited confidence.

Chamberlain held that the speakers of the opposition had made the debate sterile by avoiding the main issue.

Chamberlain held that the speakers of the opposition had made the debate sterile by avoiding the main issue.

Chamberlain held that the speakers of the opposition had made the debate sterile by avoiding the main issue.

Chamberlain held that the speakers of the opposition had made the debate sterile by avoiding the main issue.

Chamberlain held that the speakers of the opposition had made the debate sterile by avoiding the main issue.

Chamberlain held that the speakers of the opposition had made the debate sterile by avoiding the main issue.

Chamberlain held that the speakers of the opposition had made the debate sterile by avoiding the main issue.

Chamberlain held that the speakers of the opposition had made the debate sterile by avoiding the main issue.

Chamberlain held that the speakers of the opposition had made the debate sterile by avoiding the main issue.

Chamberlain held that the speakers of the opposition had made the debate sterile by avoiding the main issue.

Chamberlain held that the speakers of the opposition had made the debate sterile by avoiding the main issue.

Chamberlain held that the speakers of the opposition had made the debate sterile by avoiding the main issue.

Chamberlain held that the speakers of the opposition had made the debate sterile by avoiding the main issue.

Chamberlain held that the speakers of the opposition had made the debate sterile by avoiding the main issue.

Chamberlain held that the speakers of the opposition had made the debate sterile by avoiding the main issue.

Chamberlain held that the speakers of the opposition had made the debate sterile by avoiding the main issue.

Chamberlain held that the speakers of the opposition had made the debate sterile by avoiding the main issue.

Chamberlain held that the speakers of the opposition had made the debate sterile by avoiding the main issue.

Chamberlain held that the speakers of the opposition had made the debate sterile by avoiding the main issue.

Chamberlain held that the speakers of the opposition had made the debate sterile by avoiding the main issue.

Chamberlain held that the speakers of the opposition had made the debate sterile by avoiding the main issue.

Chamberlain held that the speakers of the opposition had made the debate sterile by avoiding the main issue.

Chamberlain held that the speakers of the opposition had made the debate sterile by avoiding the main issue.

Chamberlain held that the speakers of the opposition had made the debate sterile by avoiding the main issue.

Chamberlain held that the speakers of the opposition had made the debate sterile by avoiding the main issue.

Chamberlain held that the speakers of the opposition had made the debate sterile by avoiding the main issue.

Chamberlain held that the speakers of the opposition had made the debate sterile by avoiding the main issue.

Chamberlain held that the speakers of the opposition had made the debate sterile by avoiding the main issue.

Chamberlain held that the speakers of the opposition had made the debate sterile by avoiding the main issue.

Chamberlain held that the speakers of the opposition had made the debate sterile by avoiding the main issue.

NATURAL GAS DISCOVERED.

Citizens of Danneberg, Nebraska, Feel Jubilant.

IT WAS JUSTIFIABLE HOMICIDE

The Decision in the Griffith-Flower Shooting Affray—A Sensation at Madison—Mrs. Aldrich's Brother Testifies.

Natural Gas Found.

DANNEBROG, Neb., Feb. 27.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The natural gas discovery just made public has created intense interest.

Laid Going to Washington.

HASTINGS, Neb., Feb. 28.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Arrangements are completed for the departure of Congressman Laird on the flyer to-morrow morning for Washington to reach the city on Tuesday.

The Scoville Elevator to Be Sold.

BRANARD, Neb., Feb. 28.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Notice of sale to take place March 13 was given yesterday by Sheriff Darrand on the Scoville elevator property at Dwight, Neb.

Crushed in a Gravel Pit.

NONFOLK, Neb., Feb. 28.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—As John Jackson and his son, William, were at work this afternoon on T. E. O'Diome's gravel pit a little way west of town, the bank caved upon them.

A Big Land Decision.

CHADRON, Neb., Feb. 28.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Levi G. Sweet, attorney for R. M. Stanton, received a telegram to-day announcing the decision of Commissioner Stockinger in favor of R. M. Stanton.

Bludhorns' Libel Suits Dismissed.

BLUDHORN, Neb., Feb. 28.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Judge Mapes, of the county court, to-day rendered a decision in the Bludhorn libel cases and dismissed the charges on the ground that the matter was printed by the Staats Zeitung without malice.

Griffith Set Free.

KEARNEY, Neb., Feb. 28.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Judge Mapes, of the county court, to-day rendered a decision in the Griffith case and set the prisoner free.

Hollinger Editors.

DAKOTA, Feb. 28.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Editors Wilbur, of the Argus, and Hart, of the Eagle, had a set-to this morning. No one was seriously hurt, but the end is not yet.

CUTTING RATES.

CHICAGO, Feb. 28.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Three traffic managers of east-bound roads met to-day for the purpose of making a change to be made in the east-bound freight and passenger situation by which the leading roads will get their share of the business, or a rate war will be inaugurated.

An Ungrateful Youth.

PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., Feb. 28.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—A young man, who once made his home in this city, deserted his wife and seven children about three years ago, leaving them in destitute circumstances.

A Madison Sensation.

MADISON, Neb., Feb. 28.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Mrs. Phoebe E. Werthman died at her home in this city at 6 o'clock Tuesday evening from the effects of an abortion.

Gaze Coming Live Stock.

BEATRICE, Neb., Feb. 28.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The last assessment in Gaze county showed horses and mules 16,600; cattle, 44,478; sheep, 14,436; hogs, 28,081.

A Large Attendance of Members at the Baltimore Convention.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 28.—When President James P. Foster called the convention of the national league of republican clubs to order this afternoon, there was a large attendance of delegates.

A Postoffice Robbery.

CHICAGO, Feb. 28.—A telegram received to-day from A. C. Hunter, postmaster at West Branch, Ia., informed Inspector Kildner that the postoffice at that place was entered by burglars early this morning and $10,000 in postal funds stolen.

Tar Reservoirs in Flammes.

CHANDLER, Mo., Feb. 28.—The fire started in the De Hayn brick works yesterday, and which spread to ten reservoirs of tar, is still burning. The flames shot up to a height of sixty feet and resembled the eruption of a volcano. The damage is estimated at 1,900,000 francs.

The Weather Indications.

Nebraska: Generally fair, nearly stationary temperature, winds becoming northerly.

A Distinguished Nonconformist.

BERLIN, Feb. 28.—Dr. Von Dollinger, theologian and historian, observed the nineteenth anniversary of his birth to-day.

WHITE CAP VENGEANCE.

A Cowardly Attempt on the Life of a Minneapolis Editor.

MANY PRIVATE CONFERENCES.

Preparations for the Inauguration Rapidly Progressing, and the City Taking On a Holiday Appearance—The Programme.

The President-Elect.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—This was senatorial day at the Harrison headquarters, and quite a number of senators had interviews with the president-elect, in many cases by special appointment.

Preparations for the Inauguration Rapidly Progressing, and the City Taking On a Holiday Appearance—The Programme.

AN UNLucky PATIENT YANKED INTO A HERCULEAN BRUTAL KEOPER.

POSTAL, Mich., Feb. 28.—Last Sunday William Davis, a patient at the insane asylum, was killed by H. F. Taylor, an attendant, and to-day the coroner's jury rendered a verdict of manslaughter.

The Scoville Elevator to Be Sold.

BRANARD, Neb., Feb. 28.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Notice of sale to take place March 13 was given yesterday by Sheriff Darrand on the Scoville elevator property at Dwight, Neb.

Crushed in a Gravel Pit.

NONFOLK, Neb., Feb. 28.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—As John Jackson and his son, William, were at work this afternoon on T. E. O'Diome's gravel pit a little way west of town, the bank caved upon them.

A Big Land Decision.

CHADRON, Neb., Feb. 28.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Levi G. Sweet, attorney for R. M. Stanton, received a telegram to-day announcing the decision of Commissioner Stockinger in favor of R. M. Stanton.

Bludhorns' Libel Suits Dismissed.

BLUDHORN, Neb., Feb. 28.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Judge Mapes, of the county court, to-day rendered a decision in the Bludhorn libel cases and dismissed the charges on the ground that the matter was printed by the Staats Zeitung without malice.

Griffith Set Free.

KEARNEY, Neb., Feb. 28.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Judge Mapes, of the county court, to-day rendered a decision in the Griffith case and set the prisoner free.

Hollinger Editors.

DAKOTA, Feb. 28.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Editors Wilbur, of the Argus, and Hart, of the Eagle, had a set-to this morning. No one was seriously hurt, but the end is not yet.

CUTTING RATES.

CHICAGO, Feb. 28.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Three traffic managers of east-bound roads met to-day for the purpose of making a change to be made in the east-bound freight and passenger situation by which the leading roads will get their share of the business, or a rate war will be inaugurated.

An Ungrateful Youth.

PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., Feb. 28.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—A young man, who once made his home in this city, deserted his wife and seven children about three years ago, leaving them in destitute circumstances.

A Madison Sensation.

MADISON, Neb., Feb. 28.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Mrs. Phoebe E. Werthman died at her home in this city at 6 o'clock Tuesday evening from the effects of an abortion.

Gaze Coming Live Stock.

BEATRICE, Neb., Feb. 28.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The last assessment in Gaze county showed horses and mules 16,600; cattle, 44,478; sheep, 14,436; hogs, 28,081.

A Large Attendance of Members at the Baltimore Convention.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 28.—When President James P. Foster called the convention of the national league of republican clubs to order this afternoon, there was a large attendance of delegates.

A Postoffice Robbery.

CHICAGO, Feb. 28.—A telegram received to-day from A. C. Hunter, postmaster at West Branch, Ia., informed Inspector Kildner that the postoffice at that place was entered by burglars early this morning and $10,000 in postal funds stolen.

Tar Reservoirs in Flammes.

CHANDLER, Mo., Feb. 28.—The fire started in the De Hayn brick works yesterday, and which spread to ten reservoirs of tar, is still burning. The flames shot up to a height of sixty feet and resembled the eruption of a volcano. The damage is estimated at 1,900,000 francs.

The Weather Indications.

Nebraska: Generally fair, nearly stationary temperature, winds becoming northerly.

A Distinguished Nonconformist.

BERLIN, Feb. 28.—Dr. Von Dollinger, theologian and historian, observed the nineteenth anniversary of his birth to-day.

HARRISON HAS A BUSY DAY.

Great Crowds of Visitors Demand His Attention.

MANY PRIVATE CONFERENCES.

Preparations for the Inauguration Rapidly Progressing, and the City Taking On a Holiday Appearance—The Programme.

The President-Elect.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—This was senatorial day at the Harrison headquarters, and quite a number of senators had interviews with the president-elect, in many cases by special appointment.

Preparations for the Inauguration Rapidly Progressing, and the City Taking On a Holiday Appearance—The Programme.

AN UNLucky PATIENT YANKED INTO A HERCULEAN BRUTAL KEOPER.

POSTAL, Mich., Feb. 28.—Last Sunday William Davis, a patient at the insane asylum, was killed by H. F. Taylor, an attendant, and to-day the coroner's jury rendered a verdict of manslaughter.

The Scoville Elevator to Be Sold.

BRANARD, Neb., Feb. 28.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Notice of sale to take place March 13 was given yesterday by Sheriff Darrand on the Scoville elevator property at Dwight, Neb.

Crushed in a Gravel Pit.

NONFOLK, Neb., Feb. 28.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—As John Jackson and his son, William, were at work this afternoon on T. E. O'Diome's gravel pit a little way west of town, the bank caved upon them.

A Big Land Decision.

CHADRON, Neb., Feb. 28.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Levi G. Sweet, attorney for R. M. Stanton, received a telegram to-day announcing the decision of Commissioner Stockinger in favor of R. M. Stanton.

Bludhorns' Libel Suits Dismissed.

BLUDHORN, Neb., Feb. 28.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Judge Mapes, of the county court, to-day rendered a decision in the Bludhorn libel cases and dismissed the charges on the ground that the matter was printed by the Staats Zeitung without malice.

Griffith Set Free.

KEARNEY, Neb., Feb. 28.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Judge Mapes, of the county court, to-day rendered a decision in the Griffith case and set the prisoner free.

Hollinger Editors.

DAKOTA, Feb. 28.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Editors Wilbur, of the Argus, and Hart, of the Eagle, had a set-to this morning. No one was seriously hurt, but the end is not yet.

CUTTING RATES.

CHICAGO, Feb. 28.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Three traffic managers of east-bound roads met to-day for the purpose of making a change to be made in the east-bound freight and passenger situation by which the leading roads will get their share of the business, or a rate war will be inaugurated.

An Ungrateful Youth.

PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., Feb. 28.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—A young man, who once made his home in this city, deserted his wife and seven children about three years ago, leaving them in destitute circumstances.

A Madison Sensation.

MADISON, Neb., Feb. 28.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Mrs. Phoebe E. Werthman died at her home in this city at 6 o'clock Tuesday evening from the effects of an abortion.

Gaze Coming Live Stock.

BEATRICE, Neb., Feb. 28.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The last assessment in Gaze county showed horses and mules 16,600; cattle, 44,478; sheep, 14,436; hogs, 2