MINOR MENTION.

N. Y. Plumbing company. Coal and wood. E.E. Mayne, 619 B'way. A permit for a $1,200 residence was issued yesterday to John E. Hill.

Eddie Gibson is lying very sick of typhoid fever at his home on South Main street.

Another continuance in the Johnson larceny case was granted yesterday by Squire Hendricks. It is now set for 2 clock this afternoon.

A marriage license was issued by County Clerk Chambers yesterday afternoon to Louis T. Muchler and Ida Sengelman, both of this county.

Mrs. Walker, living at the corner of High street and Eighteenth avenue, is reported insane, and the case will be investigated by the insane commission-

Ida Hanigan, a lower Broadway courtesan, was hauled in yesterday to pay her monthly fine. She cashed her account and was released, leaving nothing to be done by the police judge yesterday There was no session of the city council last evening, as the notices were not served on the several aldermen, and they failed to put in an appearance. The mayor stated that he issued a call, but the marshal made some mistake in circulating it. The date of the next meeting has not been fixed.

John Hale has been arrested for assaulting a boy named Jesse Mowery, in the southern part of the city. It is alleged that he pounded the youngster in a very brutal manner. The case will come up for trial at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon before Squire Barnett.

When the district court adjourned last evening the rebutting evidence in the Peckinbaugh-Leonard case was not all in, and the case will be hardly completed before this evening. It will leave considerable to be disposed of to-morrow, which is the last day for the trial of law cases.

Sheriff O'Neill yesterday served notices on the interested parties to the effect that petitions had been filed in the district court praying that permanent injunctions be issued against Jacob Howarth, Fred W. Gerse, Frank Dominissey and Chris Plumer to restrain them from selling liquor or maintaining a place where liquors are sold.

The youngest "boot-legger" who has been caught by the government authorities was brought in Tuesday evening from Creston. His name is James Ganey, and his age fifteen. He was arraigned before Commissioner Hunter. and placed under $200 bonds to appear before the grand jury. The bond was not forthcoming and the commission ordered the boy's release, after he agreed to quit the business and promed to appear in court when wanted.

It was reported yesterday morning that J. W. Currie, who was so severely squeezed Tuesday afternoon while helping to load a large case of plate glass for the Merriam block, from a car in the Rock Island yards, had died from his injuries. Inquiry developed the fact that the report was false, although the unfortunate man was suffering severely from the crushing, having received serious internal injuries. His condition is very critical, but his physician expects to be able to pull him through.

Naming the Winners.

The republican convention met last evening at the county court house. After being called to order by Chairman J. F. Evans, Captain Williams was made chairman of the convention and C. B. Judd secretary. After the usual routine of admitting the properly accredited delegates the work of nominations was taken up.

As candidate for alderman-at-large Alexander Wood was nominated on the first ballot and by a unanimous vote. The same order prevailed in the nomination of park commissioner, Theodore Guitar being the candidate elected. For candidates for members of the school board, C. A. Beebe and E. H. Odell were nominated on the first bal-

William Arnd was elected chairman of the city central committee, after which the convention adjourned. There was not even a ripple on the face of the waters, insomuch that those who have attended other conventions at other times wondered how such a thing could

The Foot and His Money.

With one single variation, a very ancient play was reproduced in this city yesterday morning. The same old 'con' man, the same old story, the same old freight bill and the same old result were all there together. The only fresh feature was the victim, and he had such a large stock of the same old greenness, that there was no friction noticeable, and the affair went off with its usual alacrity and smoothness. Edward Pye is the cognomen under which the mourner sails. He is a "Cannuck," and came in on a morning train from Chicago. The "other fellow" came in on the same train, and both were going to California, at least Eddie was, and the accommodating stranger could not think of leaving him. To more pleasantly be guile a two hours' wait the pair strolled up into the city. It suddenly occurred to Eddie's affable friend that he needed $70 to "pay the freight on a car load of fruit." Very unfortunately as it turned out, there were at that very moment seventy big dollars that were burning a hole right through a receptacle in Ed-ward's jeans, and he hastened to ad-vance the required amount. The fruit grower disappeared through a neighbor-ing door and has thus far been unable to secure the necessary change. The money lender then made the same old trip to the police station, where he found that his Pye was mostly dough, and took the evening train for the Pa cific coast. There is no clue to the party who worked the game.

Started For the Inauguration. The Guards left for Washington last evening over the Northwestern, and will be absent ten days. They marched to the depot at 4 o'clock, and left twenty-five minutes later. There were twenty-six men in all; and Captain Cowles will join them at Newark, O. Those who went are Sergeants McNeal Bixby, Barrett and Compton, Corporals Spooner, Parsons and Burke, Musicians Haverstock, Longeo and Bennett, Privates Armstrong, Edson, Fleming, Kehoe, Ogden, Patterson, Knotts, Staev, Stimson, Williams, Thomas, C. E. Woodbury, Treynor, E. I. Woodbury, and McCollum.

They were equipped in light marching order, and presented a most sol-dierly appearance as they marched to the depot under command of Lieutenant Aitchison. Sergeant McNeal will have command until Captain Cowles joins the company. Just as they boarded the train Mayor Rohrer appeared and gave the company a letter of introduction to General W. W. Belknap, the officer in command of the Second division and a personal friend of the mayor, bespeaking for the boys any special consideration that might be possible.

Traded His Farm For Wind. The case of Allen Price and "Governor" Wyeth was called yesterday in Judge Aylesworth's court. The defendants are charged with obtaining property under false pretenses. It is alleged that they traded 400 acress of land in Missouri for some property in Melvern. The facts in the case, as far as can be learned, are about as follows: W. H. Seegars owned a small grist mill and residence in Malvern, and it would sell for perhaps $800. He heard that the defendants had 400 acres of land for sale, and arranged for a trade. He placed a value of $6,000 on his property, and finally traded "even up" for the Missouri land, thinking that if the land was worth anything at all, the 400 acres would certainly compensate him for his Malvern home. He then visited his new purchase in Christian county, and found that it did not belong to the parties from whom he purchased it. It claim to the property, but it is not considered worth a picayane. He claims that he received it in a Spanish land grant. The evidence in the case in not yet in, and will require at least another day. In speaking of the trade, E. H. Odell, at whose office the deal was completed, said: "I never made $100 so easy in all my life. Both parties were crazy to trade, and I could not draw up the two deeds fast enough to suit them. They were both trying to make a big thing, and the indications are that the plaintiff is badly left. His Malvern property is gone, and he has nothing to show for The other fellows are on the fence ust now, but thee may be in the mud before long.

Doings of the Boat Club. A meeting of the Council Blaffs Rowing association was held at the court house last evening. It was voted that all members whose dues are in arrears and are not paid in ten days shall be expelled. The offer of George Metealf to give the club a five years' lease of a fifty foot frontage on the lake on which to place their club house was accepted. Mr. Metcalf offers the land free, and gives the club an option on it, the price to be named by a committee of three. Mr. Metcalf appointed Mr. E. H. Odell, the club appointed Mr. E. E. Hart, and those two will select a third, the price to be determined at once for any time in the five years that the club may wish to purchase the ground. The ground on which the house now stands has been purchased by Mr. J. J. Malowney, who will build a number of bath houses

The house will be moved immediately Mr. Malowney having donated $25 for that purpose. The new location is fifty feet east of the lot occupied by the club house of the Omaha club. The house will be painted and other improvements made to correspond with the work being done at the lake. A strong effort will be made to have the annual regatta of the State Rowing association held at Manawa the coming season and there is every reason to hope for the success of the move, as the lake will splendid condition for such an

Unable to Find Suitable Ground for

A Game in Nice. Copyright 1839 by James Gordon Benestt.1 Nice, Feb. 28.-[New York Herald Cable -Special to THE BEE. |-The American base ball teams are quartered at the Clinterlaken hotel. No game will be played here, however, as it is impossible to secure suitable grounds. "There are a large number of Americans at Nice and all are thoroughly disappointed to think," said Howard Conk ling, nephew of the late Roscoe Conkling, "that here are twenty of the best base ball players of America and we cannot see a game. It is too bad.'

President Spalding left last night to meet Manager Lynch at the Hotel St. Petersburg in Paris, to arrange for the game there. The teams leave for Lyons Friday morning, arriving in Paris Saturday night. Advices received from Manager Lynch state that President Carnot has expressed his desire to be present at the opening game.

SCANDALIBILENCED. The Duke of Sutherland to Wed Mrs.

Tampa, Fla., Feb. 28.— Special Telegram to THE BEE. ]-License has been issued by the judge of the probate court of Hillsborough county, for the marriage of George William Sutherland Leveson Gower, widower, otherwise the Duke of Sutherland, and Mary Caroline Blair, widow. The duke has been here for two months past, quietly living on some property which he has acquired, and devoting most of his time to hunting, shooting and fishing. The small but comfortable house on his place has been but comfortable house on his place has been honoredsince his arrival here with the presence of a handsome woman, known as Mrs. Blair, who shared in his sports and past-times, and who was more or less of an enigma to the natives. Was she maid, wife or widow, or prospective bride! This doubt seems to be solved to-day by the announcement that the lady in question is about to become the Duchess of Sutherland. Poetic as well as retributive justice is properly satisfied by this match. justice is properly satisfied by this match. The duke became a widower only last Novem ber by the sudden demise of his wife at the Stafford house from a cold contracted in seeing the duke off for America. It is said his grace is sufficiently fascinated by the climate and sport of Florida to abandon his legislative functions as a peer of the realm and intends to avantage himself. tends to expatriate himself in the interest of Tampa oranges and orange blossoms. The readers will remember Mrs. Blair, whose constant attendance upon the duke the past five years created so much scandal. It was she whose presence kept him out of society in New York a couple of years ago because society would not receive her, and it was she who, when the duke was sick unto death in England a year later, nursed him and drove the duchess from the mansion when the lat ter tried to put her out.

Stitches in the Back Cared. Peter C. Vandewater, Commissioner of Highways, Woodsburgh, Long Island, N.

Y., writes: During the last three years I have been troubled with stitches in the back. They came on without the slightest warning and laid me up for two and three weeks at a time, and nothing did me my good. Over a year ago I had a more severe attack. I could hardly move. My wife then applied an ALLCOCK'S PORDUS PLASTER on the small of the back where the kink appeared to be. had never used one before. In a short time all pain had vanished, and the next morning I got up and attended to my business. I put a fresh Plaster on every week for a month, and I feel that I have been entirely cured. as I have not had an attack in the last eighteen months.
