

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS.

OFFICE NO 12 PEARL STREET. Delivered by carrier in Any Part of the City at a rate of twenty cents per week.

MANAGER: H. W. TILTON. TELEPHONE: BUSINESS OFFICE NO. 12. NIGHT EDITOR, NO. 25.

MINOR MENTION.

N. Y. Plumbing Company. Conland wood. E. E. Mayne, 610 B'way. The annual meeting of the Savings, Loan & Building association will be held at 7:30 this evening at Masonic temple.

Members of the Ladies' Musical society can get tickets for Miss Amy Fay's concert at Meyer's hall to-night by calling on Miss Bella Robinson.

The jury in the case of Peckinbaugh vs Leonard has not yet been able to agree on a verdict. It is stated that they stand two to two in favor of the defendant.

The Misses Ross, daughters of Chancellor L. W. Ross, will entertain a number of friends at a high tea to-morrow afternoon in honor of Miss Riggs, of California.

The funeral of Mrs. A. Davy took place at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon from St. Francis Xavier's church. The remains were interred in the Catholic cemetery.

The criminal docket will be opened in the district court this morning. The first criminal case to be tried will be that of State vs Thorpe. This is a forgery case, and has already gone over for a second time.

Captain E. Hathaway has leased the restaurant privileges of Louie & Metzger, at Lake Manawa, and is putting things in line for the coming season. He is also laying in a good store of ice for use during the hot weather.

Work on the Eismann block will be commenced to-day with a rush, and it is promised that the first story shall be up by the end of the week. Both carpenters and bricklayers will be put to work in force and will make things fairly hum.

The news of the death of D. M. Connell in Omaha was a great surprise to his many friends in Council Bluffs. He was for a time engaged in business in this city, first as an undertaker, then in the jewelry and watchmaking business, and as a corner of the county.

There were hundreds of Omahans in the city yesterday, and during the afternoon it was exceedingly difficult to find a vacant place on any of the cars of the electric motor line. The streets were filled with carriages and the sidewalks in all parts of the city presented an unusually animated appearance.

The funeral of John A. Currie took place at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon from his residence on First avenue, between Ninth and Tenth streets. The service was largely attended. Rev. A. Overton officiated. Abe Lincoln post, G. A. R., turned out in a body and escorted the remains to Fairview cemetery, where they were interred.

Nearly three hundred voters were registered in the various wards Saturday. These include all who have changed their places of residence since last fall, as well as new voters. The greatest increase was in the Third ward, which will be the center of interest to-day. In this ward 137 new names were added to the list.

Gibson Bros., of Omaha, have leased of Odell Bros. & Co. sufficient ground near Manhattan beach to erect a pavilion 40x60 feet. According to the terms of the lease they will furnish dance music every evening during the season for a term of five years. Visitors at the lake will always find amusement and pleasure there, and the annual concerts will also be given every week.

Numerous adverse criticisms on the action of the chief of police in taking his whole force to raid one gambling and letting others of free were heard on the streets yesterday. As was generally understood, the chief had prearranged plan, and as the chief was acting under orders of the city marshal, who was carrying out the instructions of the mayor, the critics soon let up on the chief and directed their kicks to the proper point.

M. Marcus has plans nearly completed for a handsome business block on Broadway just east of the opera house. He proposes to make it two stories, but has expressed a willingness to put on an additional story if any society desires to lease the hall that would fill the third floor. It ought not to prove a difficult task to lease a large and so centrally located hall, and as the external appearance of the structure would be greatly improved by a third story, it is hoped that parties interested in these matters will take the matter in hand.

The leaders of the "ring" were busy yesterday circulating the report that the breach in the democratic ranks had been patched up, and that there would not be a factional fight at the polls to-day. The report was vigorously denied by the members of reform branch of local democracy, who stated that the fight to be made against Lacy in the Third ward would be a most bitter one. Trouble is anticipated in that ward, and each side will have several special policemen at the polling place. It is proposed to rigify entrance to the 100-foot law, and keep a sharp eye on all proceedings.

Parties having temperance billiard halls and restaurants will do well to take the exclusive sale of my temperance beer. L. M. FINKELSTEIN.

Have our wagon call for your soiled clothes. Cascade Laundry Co.

Personal Paragraphs. E. E. Adams is confined at home with a severe cold. N. J. Swanson left last evening for Conception, Mo., on a short business trip.

Mrs. W. E. Pattison has returned home from a two weeks' visit with her parents at Red Oak.

Miss Lotta Pinkston, of Tacoma, W. T., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. A. S. Beck, 180 Glen avenue.

Miss Clara Cole left yesterday for Kansas City for a short visit, after which she will go to Mount Pleasant for a visit of several weeks.

Mrs. Henry O'ro, living on Benton street, is suffering severely from pneumonia. A council of physicians was called yesterday.

Mrs. J. O. Jones is quite ill at her home on First avenue. Her illness is caused by a complication of diseases, but her friends hope to soon see her about again.

Mr. E. Dowling, who was formerly engaged in the dry goods business in this city, but is now a resident of New York, is here on an equated business and pleasure trip. He is accompanied by his wife, and will remain two or three weeks. They are stopping at the New Ogden.

Bartlett & Norton for hardware, stoves and cutlery, 757 and 2513 B'way. I have moved my office to Omaha, at which all orders will be received and from which all deliveries will be made by wagon. L. M. FINKELSTEIN.

SUDDEN DEATH IN CHURCH.

A Council Bluffs Lady Dies of Heart Disease Sitting in Her Pew.

THE TEMPERANCE REVIVAL.

A Talk With Dunn, the Cold Water Man—Hunting For Prize Fighters—A Rooster Contest—The Motor's Extensions.

Died in Church.

The chimes of Trinity cathedral, in Omaha, were just sounding the last call for the morning service yesterday. The worshippers were just gathering. A woman on twenty seats in the choir seats, and the ushers were busy seating others, when there was a little stir noticed and it was quickly whispered from one to another that a lady had fainted. She was quietly carried into the air, and the service proceeded as usual, few learning the fact that it was not merely a fainting spell, but death itself.

The lady thus stricken down so suddenly was Mrs. Caroline M. Stevens, mother of Mrs. W. R. Ryan, of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Ryan, with Mrs. Stevens and a niece of Mr. Ryan, went over to Omaha yesterday morning to attend service at the Trinity cathedral. They went early in order to hear the chimes, and had only been seated a few moments when Mrs. Stevens apparently fainted. Before the usher could secure water for her she gave a little gasp and all was over. Heart disease was doubtless the cause. She was removed to a private carriage standing at the door, and Dr. Sprague, who chanced to be near, was soon at her side, but it was too late. She was taken to the child's hospital, and from there brought to her daughter's home in this city.

It is expected that in two weeks enough work will have been completed to allow the cars of the electric line to run up Douglas street to the fourteenth to Howard, Howard to Twelfth, and from Twelfth back to Douglas, thus doing away with the use of the "Y" at the corner of Twelfth and Douglas. It is stated that as the two lines are owned and operated by different companies, they will be run independently of each other, but connections will be made at Thirteenth and Douglas, as at present.

Notice the beautiful finish given collars, cuffs and shirts by Cascade Laundry company.

Headquarters for builders' hardware, Odell & Bryant, 513 Main street.

Dr. C. C. Hazen, dentist, Opera house block.

Gambling Up Stairs. Said a well known gambler last evening: "Gambling on the first floor is now ended in Council Bluffs. I have always opposed it, and do not think it right, but have had to do as my competitors did. I shall begin moving to the second floor location in two or three days, and will be running by the last of the week. It will not be an open place, and everybody can't come in. The door will be locked, and a man will answer all knocks. I don't want any laboring men who have to work for $1.50 a day, and ought to give the money to their families, and I pay a man $3 a day to win it away from them. Men who work on a salary and want to gamble can come in. I am in favor of an alley entrance and running the place on the first floor, and although I am a gambler, I am pleased to think it is at an end."

Wanted—Assistant Cook. At the Deaf and Dumb institution. Wages $1 to $20 per month. Lodging and washing free.

Send all orders for bottled beer to L. M. FINKELSTEIN, Omaha.

Try our XXX bottled beer. Special rates on all orders from Iowa. L. M. FINKELSTEIN.

Alma Tadema's Latest. Mr. Alma Tadema is getting on with his picture for this year's academy, says the London Star. It represents a Bacchante and a dancer, and, as usual, the surroundings are strictly classical. In the foreground, a young girl is seated, and the movement of the dance is wonderfully rendered, while the figures are drawn with the natural grace so distinctive of ancient art, and which Mr. Tadema alone, perhaps, among modern painters, knows how to reproduce. A number of youths in the background carry on their shoulders on a kind of stretcher, a skiff of wine. The picture is still in an unfinished condition, but it is said far to be one of the most popular paintings which Mr. Tadema has exhibited lately. There is, of course, the inimitable on the floor recall the "Heliogabalus" of last year.

Mr. Tadema intends sending to the New Gallery the picture which he has dubbed "A Favorite Poet." On a marble slab is stretched a young girl, her dainty limbs protected from the hardness of the marble by a quantity of red velvet cushions. At her feet by the side of the sofa crouches a graceful youth, a book in hand, from which he is evidently reading out his favorite passages to his mistress. It is a small, but very dainty and highly finished piece of work.

Such, in brief, is the man the reporter looked upon. In conversation he was genial and without the mannerisms which are so often seen in men of his calling.

"I have attempted once or twice to leave the work," said he, "but now I have determined to devote my life to it. How long will I remain here? That depends upon the success attending my work."

"How are you working?" put in the inquirer.

"Under commission from the L. O. G. T. of the state, although my work is not outlined by or for that order. Of course if we get a thousand signers to the pledge the order will get from this number, say one hundred. That is how I am working. As to my methods, they depend upon the audience. Come around and see me and you will learn more than I can tell you."

"What is the form of the pledge, Mr. Dunn?"

"Here it is," and he handed out the following: "Temperance Abstinence Pledge—I, the undersigned, do pledge my word and honor, God being my helper, to abstain from all intoxicating liquors and that I will, by all means, encourage others to abstain."

The meetings thus began will continue every evening during the present week at the same place.

Money loaned at L. B. Craft's & Co.'s loan office on furniture, pianos, horses, and all other articles of value without removal. All business strictly confidential.

Rooms to rent in the Merriam block. S. B. Wadsworth & Co., 256 Main street.

Where Were the Fugitists? Word was received at police headquarters about 10 o'clock yesterday morning from Omaha that a party from that city were crossing the bridge for the purpose of having a prize fight on the Iowa shore. The patrol wagon and several officers were immediately dispatched to the bridge to head off the party and prevent the fight from coming off. A protracted search was made, but neither the pugilists nor their friends could be found, and the officers gave up the search. It was whispered on the streets in the afternoon that the fight was to come off late in the day, but the police could get no track of it.

Independent Candidate. John Thompson, proprietor of the Atlantic house, announces himself as a candidate for alderman of the Third ward on the independent democratic ticket.

A Sunday Cock Fight. While the police were hunting for the prize fighters along the bottoms yesterday morning a rattling cock fight took place at a secluded spot among the bluffs, not a thousand miles from the police station. There was but one baton, and that was fought by a fowl belonging to Eugene Moltan and an Omaha bird. The fight was a fierce one, and lasted fifteen minutes, when the Nebraska rooster was stretched dead in the pit by an unlucky stab through the head. Gene's chancier was awarded the fight and stakes, and the crowd of spectators dispersed in a hurry.

THE COUNCIL BLUFFS INVESTMENT COMPANY MONEY

On hand for city loans; lowest rates of interest. Fine farms close in Bluffs to exchange for city property. Western land to exchange for city property. Big bargains in Broadway lots. Fine business property to exchange for well improved farms. Good fresh stock groceries to exchange for city property and one-third cash. Houses and lots on monthly payments. Small payments down. Prices ranging from $75 to $1,000.

For Sale at a Bargain. Hotel property in Council Bluffs, centrally located, doing good business. R. P. Officer, sole agent, No. 12 N. Main St., Council Bluffs.

Extending the Motor. Mr. Willard, electrician of the Thomson-Houston company, who has had charge of the equipment of the electric motor line here, stated yesterday that he would begin work this week erecting wires in Omaha for the Omaha Electric Railway company. There are seven miles of road to be fitted up, and the contract requires that the line shall be in working order by the 1st of June. The rails are already laid, and the work to be done will consist of putting up the overhead wire and attaching the lower circuit to the rails. The line will be equipped with ten motors at first, each of which will be thirty horse power, which is a much greater power than those used on the bridge line.

It is expected that in two weeks enough work will have been completed to allow the cars of the electric line to run up Douglas street to the fourteenth to Howard, Howard to Twelfth, and from Twelfth back to Douglas, thus doing away with the use of the "Y" at the corner of Twelfth and Douglas. It is stated that as the two lines are owned and operated by different companies, they will be run independently of each other, but connections will be made at Thirteenth and Douglas, as at present.

Notice the beautiful finish given collars, cuffs and shirts by Cascade Laundry company.

Headquarters for builders' hardware, Odell & Bryant, 513 Main street.

Dr. C. C. Hazen, dentist, Opera house block.

Gambling Up Stairs. Said a well known gambler last evening: "Gambling on the first floor is now ended in Council Bluffs. I have always opposed it, and do not think it right, but have had to do as my competitors did. I shall begin moving to the second floor location in two or three days, and will be running by the last of the week. It will not be an open place, and everybody can't come in. The door will be locked, and a man will answer all knocks. I don't want any laboring men who have to work for $1.50 a day, and ought to give the money to their families, and I pay a man $3 a day to win it away from them. Men who work on a salary and want to gamble can come in. I am in favor of an alley entrance and running the place on the first floor, and although I am a gambler, I am pleased to think it is at an end."

Wanted—Assistant Cook. At the Deaf and Dumb institution. Wages $1 to $20 per month. Lodging and washing free.

Send all orders for bottled beer to L. M. FINKELSTEIN, Omaha.

Try our XXX bottled beer. Special rates on all orders from Iowa. L. M. FINKELSTEIN.

Alma Tadema's Latest. Mr. Alma Tadema is getting on with his picture for this year's academy, says the London Star. It represents a Bacchante and a dancer, and, as usual, the surroundings are strictly classical. In the foreground, a young girl is seated, and the movement of the dance is wonderfully rendered, while the figures are drawn with the natural grace so distinctive of ancient art, and which Mr. Tadema alone, perhaps, among modern painters, knows how to reproduce. A number of youths in the background carry on their shoulders on a kind of stretcher, a skiff of wine. The picture is still in an unfinished condition, but it is said far to be one of the most popular paintings which Mr. Tadema has exhibited lately. There is, of course, the inimitable on the floor recall the "Heliogabalus" of last year.

Mr. Tadema intends sending to the New Gallery the picture which he has dubbed "A Favorite Poet." On a marble slab is stretched a young girl, her dainty limbs protected from the hardness of the marble by a quantity of red velvet cushions. At her feet by the side of the sofa crouches a graceful youth, a book in hand, from which he is evidently reading out his favorite passages to his mistress. It is a small, but very dainty and highly finished piece of work.

Such, in brief, is the man the reporter looked upon. In conversation he was genial and without the mannerisms which are so often seen in men of his calling.

"I have attempted once or twice to leave the work," said he, "but now I have determined to devote my life to it. How long will I remain here? That depends upon the success attending my work."

"How are you working?" put in the inquirer.

"Under commission from the L. O. G. T. of the state, although my work is not outlined by or for that order. Of course if we get a thousand signers to the pledge the order will get from this number, say one hundred. That is how I am working. As to my methods, they depend upon the audience. Come around and see me and you will learn more than I can tell you."

"What is the form of the pledge, Mr. Dunn?"

"Here it is," and he handed out the following: "Temperance Abstinence Pledge—I, the undersigned, do pledge my word and honor, God being my helper, to abstain from all intoxicating liquors and that I will, by all means, encourage others to abstain."

The meetings thus began will continue every evening during the present week at the same place.

Money loaned at L. B. Craft's & Co.'s loan office on furniture, pianos, horses, and all other articles of value without removal. All business strictly confidential.

Rooms to rent in the Merriam block. S. B. Wadsworth & Co., 256 Main street.

Where Were the Fugitists? Word was received at police headquarters about 10 o'clock yesterday morning from Omaha that a party from that city were crossing the bridge for the purpose of having a prize fight on the Iowa shore. The patrol wagon and several officers were immediately dispatched to the bridge to head off the party and prevent the fight from coming off. A protracted search was made, but neither the pugilists nor their friends could be found, and the officers gave up the search. It was whispered on the streets in the afternoon that the fight was to come off late in the day, but the police could get no track of it.

Independent Candidate. John Thompson, proprietor of the Atlantic house, announces himself as a candidate for alderman of the Third ward on the independent democratic ticket.

A Sunday Cock Fight. While the police were hunting for the prize fighters along the bottoms yesterday morning a rattling cock fight took place at a secluded spot among the

THE COUNCIL BLUFFS INVESTMENT COMPANY MONEY

On hand for city loans; lowest rates of interest. Fine farms close in Bluffs to exchange for city property. Western land to exchange for city property. Big bargains in Broadway lots. Fine business property to exchange for well improved farms. Good fresh stock groceries to exchange for city property and one-third cash. Houses and lots on monthly payments. Small payments down. Prices ranging from $75 to $1,000.

For Sale at a Bargain. Hotel property in Council Bluffs, centrally located, doing good business. R. P. Officer, sole agent, No. 12 N. Main St., Council Bluffs.

Extending the Motor. Mr. Willard, electrician of the Thomson-Houston company, who has had charge of the equipment of the electric motor line here, stated yesterday that he would begin work this week erecting wires in Omaha for the Omaha Electric Railway company. There are seven miles of road to be fitted up, and the contract requires that the line shall be in working order by the 1st of June. The rails are already laid, and the work to be done will consist of putting up the overhead wire and attaching the lower circuit to the rails. The line will be equipped with ten motors at first, each of which will be thirty horse power, which is a much greater power than those used on the bridge line.

It is expected that in two weeks enough work will have been completed to allow the cars of the electric line to run up Douglas street to the fourteenth to Howard, Howard to Twelfth, and from Twelfth back to Douglas, thus doing away with the use of the "Y" at the corner of Twelfth and Douglas. It is stated that as the two lines are owned and operated by different companies, they will be run independently of each other, but connections will be made at Thirteenth and Douglas, as at present.

Notice the beautiful finish given collars, cuffs and shirts by Cascade Laundry company.

Headquarters for builders' hardware, Odell & Bryant, 513 Main street.

Dr. C. C. Hazen, dentist, Opera house block.

Gambling Up Stairs. Said a well known gambler last evening: "Gambling on the first floor is now ended in Council Bluffs. I have always opposed it, and do not think it right, but have had to do as my competitors did. I shall begin moving to the second floor location in two or three days, and will be running by the last of the week. It will not be an open place, and everybody can't come in. The door will be locked, and a man will answer all knocks. I don't want any laboring men who have to work for $1.50 a day, and ought to give the money to their families, and I pay a man $3 a day to win it away from them. Men who work on a salary and want to gamble can come in. I am in favor of an alley entrance and running the place on the first floor, and although I am a gambler, I am pleased to think it is at an end."

Wanted—Assistant Cook. At the Deaf and Dumb institution. Wages $1 to $20 per month. Lodging and washing free.

Send all orders for bottled beer to L. M. FINKELSTEIN, Omaha.

Try our XXX bottled beer. Special rates on all orders from Iowa. L. M. FINKELSTEIN.

Alma Tadema's Latest. Mr. Alma Tadema is getting on with his picture for this year's academy, says the London Star. It represents a Bacchante and a dancer, and, as usual, the surroundings are strictly classical. In the foreground, a young girl is seated, and the movement of the dance is wonderfully rendered, while the figures are drawn with the natural grace so distinctive of ancient art, and which Mr. Tadema alone, perhaps, among modern painters, knows how to reproduce. A number of youths in the background carry on their shoulders on a kind of stretcher, a skiff of wine. The picture is still in an unfinished condition, but it is said far to be one of the most popular paintings which Mr. Tadema has exhibited lately. There is, of course, the inimitable on the floor recall the "Heliogabalus" of last year.

Mr. Tadema intends sending to the New Gallery the picture which he has dubbed "A Favorite Poet." On a marble slab is stretched a young girl, her dainty limbs protected from the hardness of the marble by a quantity of red velvet cushions. At her feet by the side of the sofa crouches a graceful youth, a book in hand, from which he is evidently reading out his favorite passages to his mistress. It is a small, but very dainty and highly finished piece of work.

Such, in brief, is the man the reporter looked upon. In conversation he was genial and without the mannerisms which are so often seen in men of his calling.

"I have attempted once or twice to leave the work," said he, "but now I have determined to devote my life to it. How long will I remain here? That depends upon the success attending my work."

"How are you working?" put in the inquirer.

"Under commission from the L. O. G. T. of the state, although my work is not outlined by or for that order. Of course if we get a thousand signers to the pledge the order will get from this number, say one hundred. That is how I am working. As to my methods, they depend upon the audience. Come around and see me and you will learn more than I can tell you."

"What is the form of the pledge, Mr. Dunn?"

"Here it is," and he handed out the following: "Temperance Abstinence Pledge—I, the undersigned, do pledge my word and honor, God being my helper, to abstain from all intoxicating liquors and that I will, by all means, encourage others to abstain."

The meetings thus began will continue every evening during the present week at the same place.

Money loaned at L. B. Craft's & Co.'s loan office on furniture, pianos, horses, and all other articles of value without removal. All business strictly confidential.

Rooms to rent in the Merriam block. S. B. Wadsworth & Co., 256 Main street.

Where Were the Fugitists? Word was received at police headquarters about 10 o'clock yesterday morning from Omaha that a party from that city were crossing the bridge for the purpose of having a prize fight on the Iowa shore. The patrol wagon and several officers were immediately dispatched to the bridge to head off the party and prevent the fight from coming off. A protracted search was made, but neither the pugilists nor their friends could be found, and the officers gave up the search. It was whispered on the streets in the afternoon that the fight was to come off late in the day, but the police could get no track of it.

Independent Candidate. John Thompson, proprietor of the Atlantic house, announces himself as a candidate for alderman of the Third ward on the independent democratic ticket.

A Sunday Cock Fight. While the police were hunting for the prize fighters along the bottoms yesterday morning a rattling cock fight took place at a secluded spot among the

MERCHANTS

Who Will Save You Money IF YOU BUY OF THEM. Buy Shoes of ADAMS' AND CO'S SHOE HOUSE, 411 Broadway, Council Bluffs.

THE BEST. In Always CHEAPEST. As I can prove by hundreds. Lanzendorf & Strohhorn, No. 221 MAIN STREET.

FIELD & ESTEP, FUNERAL DIRECTORS. Particular attention given to Embalming. No. 14 N. Main St., Council Bluffs.

CRESTON HOUSE. MAX MOHR, Prop. First Class Accommodations. Reasonable Rates. No. 1, 215 217, 219 Main, St. COUNCIL BLUFFS, IOWA.

GO TO THE LONDON - TAILOR, And get the best fitting suit you ever had. No. 397 Broadway, - Council Bluffs.

THE BEST MEATS AT THE Lowest Prices! Poultry of all kinds dressed to order. GIVE ME A CALL. E. Mottaz No. 114 E. Broadway.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

WANTED—Good girl, German preferred. Highest wages paid. Mergen house, 1019 Main St., Council Bluffs.

WANTED—Three dining room girls immediately at the new Pacific hotel. None but first-class waiters need apply.

FOR RENT—Elegantly furnished rooms, single or in suite. Meats desired. Apply to 222 First avenue.

FOR RENT—Two nicely furnished rooms for man and wife or two gentlemen, with use of bath, heated by furnace. 221 South Seventh street, Street Block.

WANTED—The people to try the City Steam Laundry, 31 North Main.

FOR RENT—Cheap, two handsome, new, six-room cottages, north of transfer, Council Bluffs. Inquire Hland Rishor, 5th ave and 31st st.

FOR RENT—The three-story brick store room No. 40, Broadway. The location is one of the best in the city. The building has been occupied for the last twenty years by Miller & Co., hardware, and would be a very desirable location for a hardware business on that account. John Heanet.

NEW CURIOSITY SHOP.

Advertisement for a curiosity shop featuring various items like 'O.W. BUTTS Wholesale Fruits', 'DAD HAS GONE TO THE C.B. LUMBER CO', 'NO DAD HAS GONE TO BUY A HOME', 'DAD HAS GONE TO BUY A LOT', 'TO LOAN', 'TRANSFER CO', 'HARDWARE & STOVES', 'BARTLET & NORTON', 'THE JEWEL', 'GASOLINE STOVE', 'THE BEST', 'THE LEONARD', 'COUNCIL BLUFFS, IOWA'.

CASCADE LAUNDRY COMPANY.

GOOD WORK : : PROMPT DELIVERY. NO. 330 BROADWAY. TELEPHONE NO. 260

FOR SALE!

An old established Boot and Shoe business in Council Bluffs, Iowa. The Phillips stock of Boots and Shoes at 413 Broadway, is for sale and the store will be rented. Best stand and trade in city. Nearly thirty years in one location. Present stock from $12,000 to $15,000. For further particulars apply to G. D. Phillips, at the store, or to N. C. Phillips, one of the executors of the J. M. Phillips estate. N. P. DODGE, Executor.

THE RUSSELL

Advertisement for THE RUSSELL featuring 'SIZES FROM 25 TO 300 HORSE POWER. Especially Adapted for ELECTRIC LIGHTING. Mills and Elevators' with an illustration of a steam engine.

AUTOMATIC CUT-OFF ENGINE

Specifications and estimates furnished for complete steam plants. Regulation, Durability Guaranteed. (Can show letters from users where Fuel Economy is equal with Corliss Non-Condensing.) E. C. HARRIS, Agent, No. 510 Pearl Street, Council Bluffs.

F. J. BREZEE, Taxidermist and Naturalist.

Permanently located at No. 14 North Sixth Street, opposite post office, on motor line, Council Bluffs, Iowa. Birds and animals mounted naturally and in the best method of the art. Warranted to preserve for years. Foreign birds supplied on short notice. Highest price paid for owl's and hawk's of all kinds. Persons sending orders assured of perfect satisfaction. Fur dressing a specialty. Write for particulars.

POST OFFICE MEAT MARKET

H. PETHYBRIDGE & CO., PROPS. Manufacturers and Wholesale Dealers in Sausage of All Kinds. Orders Promptly Filled and Delivered. No. 635 Broadway, - Council Bluffs.

The Head of the Firm of Fotheringham, Whitelaw & Co.

BOSTON SCORE.

Has returned from the east where he has purchased at prices lower than ever before, complete lines of the following goods:

KID GLOVES!

Will make a special drive on these for this week at 44 Cents.

A full line of Foster's Lace and Button Gloves. Ladies' Swiss Lisle Vests, 15c, 19, 25c, 50c.

Fast Black Hosiery.