

THE CITY.

Collections of internal revenue yesterday were $7,307.61. Frank Hokal paid Judge Berka $5 for the privilege of having a Sunday fight.

J. Wagener hired a faster horse than he expected Sunday, and then let it go. He paid $5 and costs.

A leak was discovered in the water main near the corner of Twenty-fourth and Cass streets, and the city officials were notified.

William Flynn was run in as a vag, and Judge Berka sent him to the hill to see whether he could work or not. He will be held on trial for fifteen days.

Two cases of woollens and one of cigars, damaged in transit, are being appraised at the custom house. The woollens are from England and the cigars from Havana.

Yesterday was the 100th anniversary of the birth of Robert Emmet. In South Omaha last night the event was commemorated by the Irish citizens of that place and this city.

Personal Paragraphs. County Treasurer Hollis is in Blair on legal business.

Mr. D. W. Egan Cott has returned from New York, where he has been for two weeks on business.

Norman Leslies of Leslie & Leslie, has returned from a trip to Toronto and other Canadian points.

E. M. Hoopes leaves this afternoon for Europe, where, among other things, he will visit the Paris world's fair.

H. R. Persinger, editor of the Des Moines Mail and Times, spent yesterday in the city, a guest of Assistant Great Freight Agent Cassidy, of the Elkhorn.

Frank Walters' illness. Frank Walters was reported as more severely prostrated yesterday than at any time since his recent attack. Friends now doubt his recovery.

About a Carpet. The case of Orchard vs the Junior Order Mechanics, in which the latter is sued for not paying for a carpet, was tried in Justice Kroeger's court yesterday afternoon.

Death of an Old Lady. The remains of Mrs. Emma Howe were shipped yesterday to Rome, N. Y., for burial. Deceased was 81 years old. She died Sunday evening at her residence, 1403 Douglas street.

A Doomed Hen. Chief Seaway received a communication signed by Councilman Adam Snyder and four other citizens, protesting against the use of a building on Ninth and Jackson streets as a house of prostitution. The chief will take measures to have it suppressed.

A Hoof Wrenched. The horse of Simpson Mitchell, the driver of express No. 11, was thrown to the ground yesterday morning at Sixteenth and Dodge streets, the toe of the hoof being caught in the cable slot. The hoof was partially wrenched from the animal's limb.

Fell Through a Scaffold. H. B. Allan, until recently with Cammings & Nelson, on Thursday last, fell through a scaffolding at the new building of the waterworks company, and is now lying at his home, corner of Rebecca and Nelson streets, Walnut hill. His injuries, though severe, are not dangerous.

The Demurrage Fight. The case of the B. & M. railway company against Barbor & Co., commission merchants, for $300 on account of the commission firm detaining two cars, was to have been tried in Justice Wade's court yesterday afternoon, but when the case was called for trial the plaintiff took a change of venue to Justice Egan's court.

Baxter Tak'n Suddenly Ill. R. W. Baxter, who arrived in Omaha Sunday from Wyoming, where he has been laboring as assistant superintendent of the Wyoming division of the Union Pacific, was taken suddenly ill in his room at the Millard hotel yesterday afternoon. A physician was summoned and pronounced the condition to be of brain fever. Up to late yesterday afternoon he was resting quiet, but fears are entertained of infection setting in. His condition is regarded as critical.

Charged With False Pretense. J. W. Cooper, an attorney, was arrested yesterday on the charge of obtaining money and personal property under false pretenses. He was taken into custody at the instigation of P. W. Hodson, who filed a complaint against him last January. It is alleged that Cooper attached the signature of I. M. McConnell, a real estate broker, to a promissory note and gave a chattel mortgage on some abstract books belonging to the real estate man. He was arraigned before Justice Wade, but as Cooper could not furnish bonds, a constable took him to the county jail.

Nebraska Mines in Mexico. John A. McShane, Lew Hill, William Paxton, Jr., Captain Rustia, Charles Balbach and a couple of other gentlemen have returned from a trip to Mexico which was undertaken in the end of last January. All of them look as bronzed as if they had just returned from a round-up on the prairie.

Mr. McShane visited several gold and silver mines in which he and other capitalists of this city are interested. The mines are situated 250 miles from Chihuahua, have been open for about six years and give employment to about one hundred and twenty men. The proprietors have just completed a stamp in their twenty stamps. The run is about forty tons a day and the yield is about $35 per ton.

Women's Exchange Burglarized. The Women's Exchange restaurant, on Farnam, near Sixteenth street, was burglarized between Saturday night and Monday morning. The rear door, which was fastened by an iron bolt, was forced open. The door leading out of the kitchen was next broken in, which gave the burglars access to the stand in which the money is kept. The stand was removed to the kitchen, broken open and $9.50 taken, which was the extent of the cash on hand. Fortunately Miss Ross, the cashier, had during banking hours Saturday deposited $50. A snafu was found in the kitchen as the articles were thrown promiscuously about the room showing that the work was done by bunglers. The matter was reported to the police yesterday but as yet no arrest has resulted.

Good-Bye, Grover and John A. Inauguration day in Omaha was bright and warm though a little breeze from the north raised the dust on some of the streets. Among republicans the advent of the time-honored party again to the control of the government was noted with satisfaction and many congratulations were warmly exchanged.

John A. McShane sat in his office at the moment the term of the democratic president came to a close. At the same instant the term of Mr. McShane as congressman from this district, which he entered upon after a great victory, was concluded. "What office will you next aspire to?" he was asked.

"No, sir."

"Are you out of politics?"

"Yes."

"For good?"

"Yes."

"You run for mayor in 1890?"

"No, sir."

Horsford's Acid Phosphate. A Healthful Tonic. Used in place of lemon juice or lime juice will harmonize with such stimulants as are necessary to take.

NO, THANK YOU.

The striking tailors refuse the Master's Proposed Agreement. The striking journeymen tailors yesterday received a communication from the merchants enclosing an agreement.

The document, after dwelling upon the desirability of peace and harmony between the two branches of the trade, goes on to say that the masters will pay the journeymen for any and all first-class work done by them, full rates in accordance with the specified rates for such work in effect in Omaha January 10, 1889, being the same scale in effect before the strike.

It is agreed that the masters are to be sole judges as to whether or not the work so done is or is not first-class or inferior or defective.

It is further agreed that the masters shall and will receive no dictation from the journeymen as to its policy in management and control of their business, nor shall they be bound to consider any suggestions or proposals made in that respect by them.

The next clause provides that the bosses will not cut down the prices except in the case of defective work, and then a proposition made according to the scale will be paid.

The agreement also provides that the merchants shall have the right to hire other tailors on jobs where haste is required. It also provides for the settlement of all disputes that may arise, by arbitration, and that the agreement shall be valid for one year and for two unless one or the other party thereto gives sixty days' notice of a desire to dissolve it.

The document is signed by Guckert & McDonald, F. J. Range, Ed B. Williams and H. C. Thompson.

The journeymen pronounce the agreement a "slave contract," and in an answer sent to the merchants this afternoon refused to have anything to do with it, giving as their reason for so refusing, first, that they cannot make a living at the scale quoted, and for the second reason, that the agreement would take away their rights as free born mechanics and make them slaves.

That Tired Feeling Afflicts nearly every one in the spring. The system having become accustomed to the bracing air of winter, is weakened by the warm days of the changing season, and readily yields to attacks of dizziness, Headache, Stomach troubles, and the medicine needed. It tones and builds up every part of the body, and also expels all impurities from the blood. Try it this season.

The sale of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is becoming immense. The secret of it is that the preparation receives a great deal of free advertising from people who use it and find it so much superior to anything else of the kind that they have ever used, that they persuade their friends and neighbors to try it. It is certainly a sure cure for colds and croup and a preparation fully worth the popularity it enjoys. For sale by all druggists.

Strike at the Gas Works. In the purifying department of the Omaha Gas company's works there, up to Sunday, five men employed. The company decided to reduce its force, and discharged one of the men. The remaining four protested, holding that the work was too much for four men to perform. The company could not look at it in this light and, in consequence, the men struck, receiving their time checks and walked away. The process of purifying is said to be one that is but few thoroughly understand, and that it is quite probable that the company will reconsider its action. The men claim that the work even taxed the ability of five men. Up to noon yesterday, no settlement had been reached, and the places which the men deserted had not been filled. The latter claim to be adepts at the business, and are paid $1.75 per day.

Doesn't Like Dogs. The following is another expression on the subject of canine disposal which has been received in this office: "While glancing over your columns last evening the heading 'Exterminate the Dogs' came to my notice and I, as a citizen, who has a perfect right of the road, would suggest that some one be appointed to hunt down these curs, or make those people who feel disposed to keep a dog

Gave Them the "Slip." A prisoner at the central station named Collins, who was sentenced fifteen days at hard labor, was set to work beating carpets. The labor disagreed with him, and about thirty minutes after he commenced work, while the attention of the officer in charge was temporarily directed elsewhere, Collins slipped and escaped. He was seen by a policeman and taken into custody. This is the fourth.

that he is kept safely chained at a good distance from the road. There are hundreds of these ferocious animals that have no home and are left wandering about the streets or barking at wagons, snapping at passers-by, and in fact are only a nuisance to the community at large. I do not know whether it is the duty of the police to interfere in this case, neither do I know what the consequences would be, if a man for self defense were to shoot one of these curs. I should like a little advice in the matter, as my business sometimes keeps me out until midnight and several times I have been attacked by a ferocious bull-dog belonging to some one at a livery-barn on Saunders street between Charles and Izard.

Silver-Newsman. The wedding of Miss Sallie Newman to Mr. Meyer Silver was celebrated at Germania hall Sunday evening at 6 o'clock, Rabbi L.N. Benson performing the ceremony.

The attendants were Miss Lena Newman, Bertie Newman, Eva Brent and Gussie Confort as bridesmaids, and Messrs. H. Newman, S. Newman and James Brown as groomsmen.

After the ceremony the bridal party and invited guests partook of an elegant supper, and dancing followed in the hall all joined, and a very pleasant time was had.

There were about one hundred guests present, most of whom were related to the bride and groom. Some very fine wedding presents were received from relatives and friends.

Coughs, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, etc., quickly relieved by Brown's Bronchial Trochees. A simple and effective remedy superior to all other remedies for the same purpose. Sold only in boxes.

Master Plumbers' Demand. The point of difference between the Master Plumbers' association and the journeymen is this: The former demands that, inasmuch as the journeymen request the masters to sign a contract, the masters should be willing to make a similar agreement to work for none but members of the Master Plumbers' association.

A Murderous Minor. Callahan's saloon on the corner of Izard and Sixth streets, was the scene of another row Sunday evening. The principals were Hughes Welsh and Frank Riley, both youths of nineteen. They were playing pool and both being drunk a dispute arose. Riley lost his temper and struck Welsh a terrific blow over the head with the butt of a billiard cue which knocked him down and tore the flesh from his skull to the extent of one inch.

Welsh was stunned for several minutes, and Riley, thinking he had killed him, fled in terror. A physician was called and Welsh's wounds were sewed up.

A Mahor, a Thirteenth street bartender, had a row with a customer named Stephen Newberger, and beat him over the head with a billiard cue, inflicting an ugly wound. An officer interfered and Mahor was jailed.

Veterans After Sunday. William Glynn was charged with being a vagrant and suspicious character. "That's about right," laconically answered Glynn. "Fifteen days," said his honor, and the prisoner took the sentence as though that was just what he wanted.

George Keeler, who gave the alias of Marks, that he borrowed from a well-known character in "Uncle Tom's Cabin," was arraigned for being drunk. He is a carver by trade at South Omaha, but his face looked as though somebody had carved him, a small section of his cheek being cut out, and besides there was a slash on his jaw. He could not tell how he had received his injuries.

Daniel O'Neill, of Norfolk, was so drunk when arrested that he did not know his own name, and he gave the name of James Duffy. The judge fined him $5.50. He had but just $5 cents, and he boldly asked the judge to allow him to go to Norfolk to get the money for his fine. The judge smiled and told him to take his seat, which meant a trip to the hill.

It cost B. Johnson just $2.50 for engaging in a drunken brawl. Jim Sparks paid $7.50 into the school fund for the same indulgence.

Jacob Wagner plead guilty to the charge of fast driving and paid a fine of $5.

William Smith admitted he had attempted to intimidate the inmates of a house of prostitution and was fined $7.50.

COLLARS AND CUFFS.

Hundreds of our customers will remember the wonderful sale of collars we had last fall when we sold those splendid 2100 Linen Collars at 65c a dozen. That was something never seen before—nor since. These collars gave such satisfaction that we have been trying ever since to get them at a figure which would enable us to sell them all the year around for that price, but the manufacturers would not furnish them regular. We have, however, succeeded in getting another lot—this time only turn-down—of the same quality of linen, but new shape. We shall offer them at a special sale on Monday morning

At 65c Per Dozen. These collars are WARRANTED 2100 LINEN, and of as good a quality as is sold by other houses for 20c or 25c apiece.

In connection with this extraordinary collar sale we will offer Monday morning a large lot of pure Linen Cuffs, in two of the very latest shapes, at 65c per half dozen or $1.25 per dozen. The linen in this cuff is not of quite as fine a grade as that in the collars, but we guarantee it to be of better quality than is found in cuffs usually sold at 25c a pair.

In order to supply as many of our patrons as possible we shall sell only one dozen collars and cuffs to each customer.

We also invite attention to our laundried and unlaundried shirts. We claim in this department to give more value for less money than any house in the United States. We ask the ladies to compare our three qualities of unlaundried shirts, which we are selling at 30c, 50c and 70c, with any shirts sold by other houses for almost double the money, and they will find them in quality and make equal in every respect. The laundried shirts at 65c, 90c and $1.25 are fully as good as those others are selling at $1, $1.50 and $2.
