Lew Wallace Wants the Mexican Mission.

STUDYING THE SAMOAN AFFAIR.

Phelps Preparing Himself for a Talk with Bismarck—Pushing Infill for Solicitor General.

WASHINGTON BUREAU THE OMAHA BEE. SENATOR ALDRICH'S VISIT.

The friends of General Lewis Wallace today presented his name to the president and the secretary of state for appointment as minister to Mexico.

William Walter Phelps is without doubt solid for the German mission, and is already deeply absorbed in the study of the Samoan complications.

WANTS TO BE SOLICITOR GENERAL. The Michigan delegation today presented the name of Henry M. Duffield, of Detroit, for solicitor general.

The Michigan delegation today presented the name of Henry M. Duffield, of Detroit, for solicitor general.

At the bar, as was the case with General Alger's canvass at the Chicago convention.

It is known that President Harrison desires to recognize Alger in some way by the appointment of one of his intimates.

President Harrison told the Michiganian that he knew Colonel Duffield, and thought very well of him, but that there could be no change in the office of solicitor general until after the disposition of certain cases in the United States supreme court.

He recalled, however, to take the matter under consideration and asked the Michigan senators to call again in a few weeks.

It is supposed that Senator Sherman will oppose the nomination of Duffield in case he is nominated, for the same reason that he objected to Alger's appointment in the cabinet.

For the Michigan candidate, however, Duffield is the active manager of the campaign.

Representative Hitt, of Illinois, is not a candidate for re-election, and some of his friends say that he could not accept the appointment because of certain business interests that require his attention in this country.

Mr. Hitt himself says that he has nothing more about his selection for this position than he has seen in the newspapers.

While he is not a candidate, he does not think there is an atom of foundation for any of the talk.

PIERCE'S POSITION. Ex-Governor Pierce, of Dakota, is here and is stopping with his friend, Tom Lowrey, at the Mansfield.

There are some who are not in favor of his coming to the territory, and some who are.

He is here for business, and he is here for business, and he is here for business.

He is here for business, and he is here for business, and he is here for business.
